Homer Roberts, Fulton Citizen, Announces For County Court Clerk

In this issue of The Fulton County News we are authorized to announce the candidacy of Homer Roberts, a popular young farmer, for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, August 5, 1933.

This announcement will be of interest to all parts of the county and the announcement is made under the seal of confidence that Mr. Roberts is worthy of such consideration. Homer Roberts was reared on a farm near Paducah and was educated in the Paducah schools. He has always been a progressive Democrat and has taken an active part in all the Democratic elections in the county. Mr. Roberts has been active in all the Democratic organizations in the county and has been practically all his life. For the past several years he has worked in the city, where he has served as a bookkeeper in the business interests of others. He has the qualifications to make a good County Court Clerk.

Mr. Roberts was named as a Democrat, and he has a good record of public service in this city, where he has been a resident for several years. He has been active in all the Democratic organizations in this city, where he has been a resident for several years. He has the qualifications to make a good County Court Clerk.

FAMOUS THOUGHTS—Ralph Waldo Emerson

Advertising has disadvantages. Its success depends on the size of its audience. It is a waste of time to try to reach the whole world. It is more effective to reach a smaller audience.

Advertising has improved as a science. It is now based on market research. Newspapers are now more targeted to specific audiences.
