A STRANGE LOVE STORY.

A man once told me of a girl who was his infatuation. They were both students at the same college, and they spent many hours together. She was beautiful, intelligent, and had a kind heart. He was attracted to her from the moment they met. They often talked about life, love, and their dreams.

But one day, she told him that she was engaged to another man. This was a blow to him, but he promised to respect her decision. They continued to be friends, but he could not help but feel a sense of loss.

A few years passed, and he found himself in a difficult situation. He was in love with another girl, but his heart was still with her. One day, he received a letter from her, asking if they could meet. He hesitated at first, but eventually agreed.

They met in a coffee shop, and she told him about her life since they last spoke. She had stayed close to the man she was engaged to, but she had not forgotten their time together. She asked him if he still had feelings for her. He told her the truth, and she smiled.

They decided to start a new chapter in their lives, and they began to see each other regularly. They were careful not to reveal their feelings to others, but they knew that they were meant to be together.

Their story is a reminder that sometimes the greatest love stories are the ones that cannot be told.
Perebeau has a valuable citizen in Cap'n William W. Myers. Mr. Myers is a native of West Virginia and was reared in the old school. He has been Representative for the Cakey County District, and has filled the post with great credit. He is a man of broad views and sound principles, and is a good example of the advantages which can be derived from the study of legislation and public affairs. Mr. Myers is a splendid example of the American gentleman in every respect.

The city of Claypool is a beautiful spot. It is situated on the banks of a fine river, and is surrounded by lovely scenery. The population is increasing rapidly, and the town is becoming more and more attractive. The citizens are hospitable and friendly, and it is a place of great promise.

The new venture will succeed beyond all expectation. The location is excellent, and the facilities for carrying on a successful business are all that could be desired. The town is growing rapidly, and there is a demand for the goods and services offered. It is a credit to the community, and will do much to promote the prosperity of the place.

The sub-treasury plan would be a great advantage to the country. It would provide a means of regulating the currency and stabilizing prices. The farmers would benefit, as the plan would prevent the speculative efforts of the speculators. It would also provide a means of distributing the wealth of the country more equitably.

The Murray Ledger says: Sam Jones of Binghamton," lieu-tenant governor, will be a probable democratic candidate for the office of governor in the next election. His success in the sheriff's office is well known, and his popularity in the democratic party is unbounded.

In politics he tips the beam to the Democrats, and is a man of great energy and ability. He is well known for his honest dealing and integrity, and would make an excellent governor. He is a man of great personalty, and is well liked by all who know him. His success in the democratic party is due to his ability and his honesty, and he would make an excellent governor.
