VOLUME 1.

FULTON, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY JUNE 2, 1933.

THIS IS ENTRY WEEK IN 'NEWS' CAMPAIGN

Guy Lawrence Enters Race For County Jailer

Guy Lawrence of this city authorizes The Fulton County News to announce his candidacy for the office of Jailer of Fulton County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, on August 5th, 1933.

Mr. Lawrence, who was born near Water Valley, moved west of Fulton in 1911. He is well known throughout the county, and in his 22 years of residence here, he has made hundreds of friends. He has been associated with the business life of Fulton for a number of years, and has been connected with the U-Tote Em store on Commercial-av in this city for the past five years.

He is familiarly known to his friends as "Guy" and to know him is to like him, for his traits of character are above reproach. This is the first time he has ever asked for public office, and he is entering the race at the earnest solicitation of his friends and acquaintances, who believe in his ability and qualifications for the office which he seeks. His formal announcement follows:

"I wish to announce to the voters of Fulton County that I am in the race for Jailer of this county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary to be held August 5, 1933. Having never asked for public office before, I will appreciate your vote and influence. If the people choose to elect me to the office I seek, I shall fulfill the duties of that office in accordance with the law and to the best of my ability. I will try to see each voter before election day."

FROTHER OF J. J. OWEN DIES

Cornelius Wesley Owen, 60, who died last week at his home in Tampa, Fla., after a lingering illness, was buried Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Palestine cemetery west of Fulton. Funeral services were held from the home of his brother, J. J. Owen, with Rev. G. C. Fain, pastor of the Methodist church, and Rev. E. C. Dees officiating.

Mr. Owen was a former resident of Fulton. He was born July 14, 1873 in Ballard county, and at the age of 14 joined the Methodist church. In 1900 he married Miss Pearl Browder, who died five years later. Then later he married a sister of his first wife, Miss Eva Browder, who survives him. He came to Fulton in 1898 and with his brother, J. J. Owen, established the O. K. Laundry. About nine years ago he disposed of his interest in the business and moved to Tampa, Fla., where he was employed with the Tampa Bread Company. During his residence here Mr. Owen made many friends, whose friendship has endured through the years.

Mr. Owen is survived by his wife one daughter, Mrs. Tom Bryant; two sons, Charles Wesley and Perry Leslie; three sisters, Mrs. Jodie Buchanan of Paducah, Mrs. J. J. Jones and Miss Capitola Owen of Ky; one brother, J. J. Owen of Fulton. He was a son of the late Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Owen of Paducah.

JACK FARRIS HELD ON FORGERY CHARGE

Jack Farris of Oolun county, was arrested here Friday afternoon by W. H. Boaz on forgery charges. It is alleged that he presented a check to Franklin's store for $95.35, bearing a signature purporting to be that of S. A. Hagler of this city. This check was believed to be a forgery and was not accepted.

Farris is said to have presented a check to the City National Bank here drawn on the First Citizens Bank of Dyersburg. He showed a letter mailed from Dyersburg, which states that a check for $265 was being sent him J. W. Ward, in payment for mule team, wagon, harness, etc. This letter bore the name of Allison Kirk.

It is reported that Farris, or Ward, tried to cash a check at Weaks store, just before he was picked up. He is alleged to have three different checks for $16.35 bearing alleged forged signatures of S. A. Hagler. Officers here have warned business men and citizens to be on the lookout for forged checks.

U. S. W. V. HELD CONVENTION HERE

The fourth district convention of Spanish-American War Veterans met here at the city hall Sunday with members from seven camps in attendance. Delegates from Paducah, Hopkinsville, Henderson, Owensboro, Bowling Green and Fulton were present with their families. Mayor Paul DeMyer of Fulton gave a welcome address, which was responded to by W. H. Farley, chaplain of the Paducah camp.

Jackson Nelson, senior vice commander of the Paducah camp, and chairman of the convention, was the principal speaker and presided. Past Department Commander Litcher of Indiana, Commander Merritt of Hopkinsville, Fred Loetzerich, past district commander of Indiana, made brief addresses as did other. Misses Maurine Ketcham and Ruth Knigh-ton gave interesting readings during the afternoon session.

Mr. Nelson pointed out in his talk that after August 1, when Spanish War veterans and their widows will fail to receive their customary checks from the government, as decreed by a legislative bill, there will be distress and discomfort among this group. He said that "in all of the legislation that had been enacted during this session of Congress, there has been nothing beneficial to the veteran. He has suffered so far the brunt of the economy program. No nation has ever survived permanently that became absolutely forgetful and unappreciative of its soldiers."

By a recent act of Congress Spanish War veterans under 62 years of age will soon receive nothing as compensation. All pensions are to be cut off unless veterans be above that age, except a mere pittance of $6. Mr. Nelson said: "A few of these men may have other incomes, but the vast majority are entirely dependent upon their pensions for existence. They are unable to get work."

There was no conscription of men in the Spanish-American War. This is the only war in history in which those composing the military were 100 percent volunteers.

Past presidents of the Ken-Tenn Auxiliary No. 12 of the U. S. W. V. were presented service medals at the convention here Sunday. They were: Jessie Harris, Stella Ellis, Laverne Cowardin, with Mrs. Cowardin the first and last past president.

Citizens Petition Paul DeMyer to Run Again

In a petition circulated here last week many citizens urged Mayor Paul DeMyer to again run for the office which he now holds. The petition bore scores of signatures endorsing him and said:

"As the election of mayor and councilmen for the city of Fulton is so near at hand, coming up in this August election, and so little has been said regarding the candidates to fill the important office of mayor it is fitting to pick a good man who is worthy of every citizen's confidence, and one who has the interest of every citizen of Fulton at heart, as well as the safeguarding of the welfare of the community at large."

"Mayor Paul DeMyer has so efficiently served the city in all purposes with universal satisfaction during his present term of office, it will be wise to return him to his faithful trust. Mayor DeMyer needs no introduction to the people and voters of this community. He is well known as a big-hearted, sincere, honest, upright man of splendid character and good habits. So let's get behind him and return him to the office that he has so ably filled for the past four years."

FULTON TAXPAYERS TO MEET WEDNESDAY

A meeting of Fulton taxpayers has been called for next Wednesday night at 7:30 at the Court House here. Many important questions pertaining to city taxes, municipal operation and prospective candidates for seats on the city council are to be discussed.

It is said that a selection of candidates for the offices of mayor and councilmen will be made by the citizens in interest of the coming campaign when new city officials will be elected August 5, 1933 for the next term.

Such problems as property assessments, equalization, taxes, revenue and expenses in the city government will be discussed, and all citizens and taxpayers are urged to attend.

Council Hears Engineer Talk

Mayor DeMyer and the city council met in special session last Thursday night to listen to M. S. Roberts of Freedland, Roberts & Co., an engineering firm of Nashville, who presented details and figures on costs pertaining to the installation and operation of municipal plants in cities of size comparable to Fulton.

Comparing the city of Fulton with other towns of similar size, and taking the alleged earnings of the utility company now furnishing Fulton as a basis for deriving at the probable returns from a municipally owned plant here, Mr. Roberts was very concise and brief in his arguments that Fulton could pay for its own plant to be paid for out of revenue bonds, but said that electric rates could be reduced at three distinct periods; first, bringing a ten percent reduction after two years operation, ten percent reduction after four years, and ten percent reduction in rates at the end of the seventh year, making a total of 30 percent below present rates. In the meantime the plant could be paid for and revenue from its operation would be increased, he stated.

In presenting facts and figures on other cities, Mr. Roberts showed electric rates had been reduced, plants paid for, and taxes lowered through municipally-owned operation.

The council, having failed in reaching any agreement with the Kentucky Utilities, has launched out on an investigation of municipal plants. Members of the council are interested in obtaining cheaper electric rates or build a plant for the city, if present indications are to be taken at their face value. The long-drawn out controversy between the city dads and the utility company seems no nearer a termination than when the franchise expired here on March 4th.

Fire—and it as a car load of matches at the New Yards. Sunday night near the hour of midnight, Chief Lee Roberts and his fire boys, battled to extinguish a car load of matches. ICE CREAM SUPPER

The Homemakers of Boaz Chapel will entertain with a community party and benefit ice cream supper at Bennett's School House Saturday night, June 3.

FAIRVIEW BEAUTIFUL ON DECORATION DAY

Last Sunday, Decoration Day, the Fairview cemetery in this city was unusually beautiful. Hundreds of former citizens and residents of this community visited the cemetery during the day to place flowers on the graves of loved ones. The day being fair and pretty many visitors from neighboring towns were present to pay tribute to the dead.

Sunday afternoon the local American Legion post, assisted by the Boy Scouts, conducted a fitting memorial service at the cemetery with Rev. Cayce Pentecost, pastor of the First Baptist church, Dresden, giving an address, touching on the Revolutionary, Civil, Spanish-American and World wars. Little Joe Trease, eight years old, of South Fulton, gave a reading. The Hickman quartet sang two numbers. Rev. J. S. Robinson introduced the speakers.

The firing squad, composed of M. K. Chowning, Harry Rucker, Jesse Walker, H. B. Houston, Carl Reed, Lester Brown, Ernest Heathcott, Cecil Weatherspoon, Marvin Nole, fired a salute to the dead veterans of the World War. Scouts Richard Williams and Harry Peoples blew taps, with Robert DeMyer, James Leath and R. L. Lamb, echos. Lex Walker and Jack Robbins were color bearers, while E. E. Mount and Art Harvey were color guards.

EAST FULTON TAXPAYERS OBJECT TO ACTION OF BOARD

Several taxpayers and citizens of East Fulton have protested reductions in the teaching force at Terry Norman, and transferring of the 5th and 6th grade to Carr Institute.

"I believe this change is unfair," says one taxpayer. "Carr Institute being located in the extreme western part of the city, this would compel boys and girls of East Fulton entering 5th and 6th grades (about 10 years of age) to go this long distance, when as I see it there is no occasion for this change."

"The School Board last year reduced the teaching force at Terry Norman to three teachers, and there was no protest made against this reduction, but this change will leave only two teachers. I believe this is not only unfair to the children and patrons of the school, but also to the property owners of East Fulton."

"This not intended as a direct criticism of the School Board, for I am sure they want to give all a square deal, but I don't think they full realize what this would mean to all concerned, and I trust that they will reconsider their action, and give East Fulton and Terry Norman a fair deal."

"The Old Mill Wheels Are Turning"

Perhaps it is just as well to look on the bright side. For every dark cloud has a silver lining. The darkness is rapidly disappearing, and the silver is returning to the surface, from where it has been hidden. And after we have passed over the rough places, we will be wiser and richer in experience.

As time rolls on people still live on. One of the necessities of life is bread. For 25 years Browder's Mill has been supplying the people of Fulton, and the surrounding community with flour of the highest quality, striving at all times to supply the people with the very best flour that modern machinery and skilled millers can produce.

Think It Over

BY THE MEDITATOR

AVOID PAST MISTAKES

It is now obvious that our former prosperity had certain serious defects. First, Rogers Babson has said, it was not founded on faith which is necessary to personal and national progress. "When employed or making money we did nothing to store up spiritual reserves and hence have none to draw upon, now that employment and profits have decreased. As a result, great masses of people are discouraged, and know not where to turn. The material wealth upon which they solely depended has gone. They have no spiritual wealth upon which to draw and they are tired out physically." Lack of faith and spiritual assets was our first deficiency.

Then the spirit of service was secondary rather than primary. During the years of prosperity, people lost the spirit of service. In their greed and selfishness, they were looking for happiness in having and getting and in being served by others giving and serving others.

They depended on money, banks, real estate, stock exchanges. Seemingly, it never occurred to them that permanent pleasures, happiness and the good will of their fellows comes to the unselfish man who is thinking in terms of service to others as he goes along, and that "God, who eye can mark the fall of a single sparrow, never lets an act of real devotion and service go without its reward." That sounds like religion rather than business; but there is no business success, in the truest sense, that is not a religious success. Men are spirits, not merely bodies and appetites and needs; and the business that is built on the great spiritual laws of service and tolerance and kindness builds on foundations that are eternal.

Then, in recent years, we failed in the practice of thrift. Many of us were guilty of living beyond our incomes. Since we have been paying up for high living, excesses of all sorts, and the habit of heavily mortgaging the future. As the result of the depression our sense of real values was restored and we are getting back to rock-bottom fundamentals.

Nature resents the spirit of wastefulness and rebukes it always. Cardinal Gibbons has said: "The economy of God is one of the striking features of the universe; have you ever stopped to think of it? Not a single dead leaf is wasted; it goes to enrich the soil for future growth. Not a drop of water that is not used again and again—flowing down upon the grass and trees again. The law of God is the law of thrift, and no man transgresses that law, either in his personal or business affairs, without incurring a penalty. Waste nothing, as nature wastes nothing. Expect some bad years as nature expects them and provide for them by other years of abundance. Count on the routine effort year after year, as nature counts on the unending, or the rich fruits procession of the seasons. This, and not luck, or the rich fruits of speculation, is the real secret of success."

The Golden Rule Route will lead to enduring prosperity: "All things therefore whatsoever that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them."

CITY WITH A WELCOME

The important of courtesy has often been stressed as prime factor in human association. Courtesy molds substantial bonds of comradeship and friendship. But the average person, in the rush of daily duties, neglects to be courteous to the stranger and thus commits an objectionable and uncultured act against that stranger.

Strangers and visitors get very different treatment when they visit new places on their travels and journeyings. In a great many conservative places, no one takes interest in them unless they had acquaintances there previously.

But in many hustling cities, there is a tendency to make a special effort to show such visitors around. Business men will often give up their own time just to go around with these people. They do it no doubt unselfish generosity. And yet it does give a visitor the idea that such a community is wide awake, with courteous people, and he carries away a favorable impression.

If some of these people are making investigation relative to the purchase of property or business interests, or change of residence, they are very much attracted to a town where there seems this spirit of giving newcomers and strangers the glad hand.

Hundreds of visitors come to Fulton and this section during the summer months and it is to the interest of this city and everybody to treat them courteously. Not only is it a safe business investment, but courtesy is a trait that should be prominent in every person.

CITIZENS COMPLAIN

Many citizens of Fulton have, individually and collectively, complained about traffic being blocked near the Lake-st and Fourth Street Extension. Something should be done about the congestion at this point which is one of the heaviest traveled streets in the city. It not only is in the heart of the downtown business section but is the route of a national highway over which hundreds of tourists pass daily.

Accidents are frequent on congested streets, and it is imperative that immediate action be taken to alleviate existing conditions. Complaints registered by citizens here have been made because the street is being used by a bus company for a stopping station. It seems that the bus company should realize they are interfering with traffic and take steps to acquire suitable space to prevent this condition.

The city council should look into this matter, and bring about the necessary readjustments for smoothing out traffic at this spot.

IF BROOKSIE HAD TO DO ALL THE WORK!

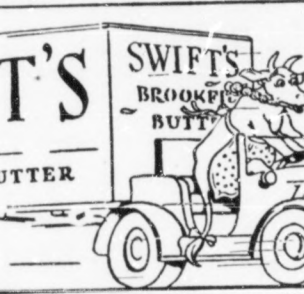

Brooksie, the famous cow, has only one duty—to give lots of pure milk with high butterfat content. But suppose she had to do all the work of supplying the nation with butter. For example....

....suppose she had to churn that milk into rich, creamy butter. Then....

....she would have to pack the butter attractively so people would buy it. And....

....she would have to transport it to distant cities. Finally....

....she would have to place it in reach of consumers. But Brooksie and tens of thousands of her pals all over the country have Swift & Company to do all these things for them. Their owners sell the cream to Swift produce plants—(there are more than 100 of them)—and receive immediate payment. Swift does the rest.

For over 50 years, Swift & Company has been a service link between the farmers and consumers of the United States. It maintains a daily, nationwide market for butterfat, poultry and eggs as well as meats. Demand is created and fostered for these fine perishable foods under the famous Swift's Premium and Swift's Brookfield labels.

Fair treatment to all patrons....our own salesmen in all parts of the United States....low service costs....these make "Swift Service" what it is. Sell your poultry, butterfat and eggs to Swift & Company.

Fulton Defeats Hickman By 4-2

After striking out 11 men in the first four innings Sunday, Lefty Lassiter went down to the count in 5th and Fulton beat Hickman by 4 to 2. Lefty Stout was on the mound for Fulton and was the steadiest of the two pitchers. He was like he is at all times, cool and collected, and never worried.

The game opened up with Hickman scoring in the first inning when Liggett opened the game with a triple and scored when Brann threw wild at first in an attempt to make the third out. Fulton came back in their part of the first and scored 2 runs. Carden struck out, Killebrew was hit by pitched ball and McKinney struck out, then Batts doubled sending Killebrew to third and Jackson next up sent a fly to center that was snuffed by Allen scoring both Killebrew and Batts. Sawyer struck to end the inning. In the second round Hickman's first two men singled but Stout tightened and they were left in their tracks. Fulton's half resulted in Brann fanning but the catcher missed the ball and Jackson barely did get it to first before Brann did. Smith and Stout both struck to end it.

The third inning—Hickman up—Bowlin fouled back of first and Sawyer after a death defying run snagged the ball for the most beautiful play of the day. Williams singled, stole second and third and scored when Jackson threw wild trying to catch him off the bag. Jonakin flied out. Fulton up—Carden struck out. Killebrew was thrown out catcher to first, and McKinney struck out.

Fourth inning. Hickman up—Jones reached first on an error; Garrigan sacrificed him to second and Laster sent a long fly to deep center that Carden just barely did snag, but did it in a very beautiful play. Liggett was hit by pitched ball and Bowlin grounded out to second. Fulton up—Batts, Jackson and Sawyer struck out.

Fifth inning. Hickman up—Williams singled and Jonakin sacrificed him to second. Robertson grounded out to pitcher and Allen grounded out to first. Fulton up—Brann singled, stole second and went to third on a passed ball. Valentine popped to first and Brann scored when Stout grounded out to first. Carden flied out to center.

Sixth inning. Hickman up—Jones was thrown out by Brann. Garrigan reached first on an error. Laster struck out and Liggett was an easy out, short to first. Fulton up—Killebrew doubled and McKinney scored him with a single. Batts, Jackson and Sawyer were easy outs.

Seventh inning. Hickman up—Bowlin and Williams both grounded out second to first and Jonakin struck out. Fulton up—Brann singled. Valentine fouled out. Stout struck out and so did Carden. Totals: Fulton 4, Hickman 2.

tallied all their runs, not mentioning the fact that Skipper Riddle, the telephone pitcher, was knocked all over the field, the game finally ended with the Fats in the lead by eight lengths or 12 to 4. My what a game. Most every man on the Fats club pulled either a charley horse or something like it. Anyway, they all had a real time and will meet again Friday afternoon.

REXALLS LOSE TWO

The Rexalls, local junior nine played Water Valley in a couple of games Sunday afternoon on the Water Valley diamond, and were defeated in both contests. The first game went to Water Valley by the

The second game resulted in a 7 to 4 victory for Water Valley. This game was a bit less exciting than the first. To date the Rexalls have played four games and won one, losing three.

I am not greeted in the street with "How are You?" but by "Where's your hat?" I feel that perhaps something more should be said in defense of my position that it is a mark of foolishness to wear a hat. Among the reasons which I have for not wearing a hat are these: I don't like to muss up my hair with one, I think I look better without one, they are always getting lost, they are in the way, they are unnecessary and I don't like them anyhow, and furthermore I don't have one.

There are disadvantages in not wearing a hat when everyone else still wears them. I rarely ever go into a ten-cent store, (and I always go into them when I am near one), but that someone, usually a lady, asks me to wait on her, thinking no doubt that I am a clerk. I suppose I could have sold many hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise if I had wanted to because of being taken for a clerk. Then too, every establishment in town that cleans hats has set its solicitors on me. Every one of them wants to clean my hat. I suppose they think they'll get my goat. They may but they'll never get my hat. Every merchant in town wants to sell me a hat. I'll not buy. Many of them have offered to give me a hat. I'll take no hat. I refuse to be a slave to any thing, especially a hat.

I realize that there are some people who should wear hats. It is a mark of consideration for other people. And our motto should be, in all things, "OTHERS". Then where the head is the same inside as it is out a hat should be worn for protection. I wore a derby once. It didn't fit. They never do. I wore the sole off of my shoes trying to keep it connected with my head. I tried to wear a straw hat, but it can't be done. Whenever a straw hat fits a person's head it is conclusive proof the head is crooked. Comfort cannot be woven into a pile of straw. With most of us the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak and a straw hat is a mortification to the cranial flesh. I have seen corns and bunions on heads caused by straw hats.

Friends I believe that the one thing this nation needs is some daring soul who step out and challenge the people to strike the bonds of slavery to hats. Give your head a little chance to expand normally. Let the air circulate near the brain or the place where the brain is suppose to be. Perhaps with a little more cool air on the head there would be less hot air issuing from it. Think of what it would mean if we could reduce the production of hot air in our national congress at least fifty per cent. It might usher in the long anticipated day of perfect peace. If I may be assured the backing of hatless people I will willingly set before our people a slogan, I do not seek fame. I want no compensation in material things. But if our nation would unite with me to bring about "a hatless nation by 1935", I feel we would have made the greatest advance since Moses led the children of Israel out of Egypt.

YOURS FOR A HATLESS NATION BY 1935.

COMMUNITY GARDENS TO BE PLANTED

Gardens planted in the city of Fulton and in this county under the supervision of the Kentucky Relief Committee for the east end of the county are doing well. Reports by the various garden supervisors indicate much good work being done, with approximately 450 gardens underway.

H. M. Patmon, supervisor of garden work in Fulton, states the spraying materials for control of insects in the gardens have arrived. A pressure sprayer will be used in this work, and war will be declared upon pests and destroyers of garden products. This work will be carried on throughout the county.

Tomato and cabbage plants may be obtained from the local relief unit, and sweet potato slips are provided. All families benefiting from the garden work, are urged to watch after their gardens closely for the greatest productivity.

A community garden is now being opened in the Highlands here, with about 12 acres to be under cultivation. Vegetables grown on the community garden will be dried, canned or stored for distribution to the needy this winter. Similar community garden projects are to be carried out at Crutchfield with Mrs. Will Little in charge, and at Cayce with Mrs. Bertie Powitt as leader.

These individual and community gardens will prove very valuable in supplying relief during the winter months when food is scarce, and every effort is being exerted to produce as much as possible. Local people have been very considerate in contributing the use of land for cultivation in these projects.
