PAPER PRODUCTION—"Advances in printing are making this daily newspaper more attractive and legible. In the past, materials were not always available, and quality was not as high. Today, with the advancement of technology and skilled printers, we can produce a better paper for the people of Fulton.

The management has spent many hours in improving the paper, and the results are evident. The paper today is more readable and pleasant to the eye.

As time rolls on, people still live on. One of the necessities of life is to eat, and why shouldn't this community have a newspaper? It is a part of the fabric of our society, reminding us of our past and inspiring us towards our future.

If you want to support this newspaper, please subscribe today. Your support helps ensure that this community has a voice and a place to express itself.

The next Quarterly conference for Deaconess will be held at the First Baptist Church, June 20th at 7:30 p.m. The conference will be conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. McNeill, President of the Board of Deaconess of the Southern Baptist Convention.

I am not greeted in the streets with "How are You?" but hear "Where's Your Hat?" I think that perhaps something more should be said about our hats than is said. We never know how others think about our hats, for we only see the back of them. I feel we should be more considerate of the wearer of a hat than we are. I believe people would like to wear a hat better if they knew that others are not talking behind their backs. It is well to remember that we are all members of a community and that one should not be hasty in speaking of others. I believe that we should be more considerate of each other.
