EVANS-McGEE'S NEW DRUG STORE

The Evans & McGee Drug Store, located in downtown Fulton, has announced a new store opening. The store has undergone extensive renovations and expansions, featuring state-of-the-art drugstore facilities and a wide range of pharmaceutical products. The store has added new lines of prescription medications, over-the-counter drugs, and wellness products. This updated facility is expected to attract more customers and improve the shopping experience for locals.

"The Old Mill Wheels Are Turning"

Perhaps it is just as well to look back on the bright side. For a man who has only a few minutes to live, the things he has to remember. After all, we have passed over the rough places, and are now in the more pleasant reaches of life, without accidents or shocks. We have avoided the dangers that might have befallen us. And when we have passed over the rough places, we are not so likely to meet with unexpected accidents or shocks. We have avoided the dangers that might have befallen us. And when we have passed over the rough places, we are not so likely to meet with unexpected accidents or shocks.
Dukedom News

The death of Mr. E. C. Rose on June 9th was announced by his former and present business associates. Mr. Rose was born in Water Valley, Miss., on January 10th, 1860, and came to Memphis in 1875, where he has resided ever since. He was married to Miss E. C. Rose in 1887, and they have two children, Mrs. V. C. Clark and Mr. J. B. H., both of whom are active in business in this city. Mr. Rose was a man of wide experience and knowledge, and was well known throughout the trade. He was a member of the Memphis Board of Trade and the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, and was also a member of the Masonic Order. His death is a great loss to the trade and to the community. In addition to his wife and children, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. V. C. Clark and Mrs. J. B. H., and a brother, Mr. A. C. Rose, all of Water Valley, Miss.

Mr. Rose was a man of almost superhuman energy, and was always willing to help others in need. He was a man of great personal magnetism, and was well liked by all who came in contact with him. He was a man of great integrity, and was always willing to do his best for those who trusted him. He was a man of great ability, and was always willing to give a helping hand to those who needed it.

Mr. Rose was a man of great charity, and was always willing to give to those in need. He was a man of great courage, and was always willing to stand up for what was right. He was a man of great principle, and was always willing to do the right thing. He was a man of great loyalty, and was always willing to stand by his friends. He was a man of great kindness, and was always willing to help others in need. He was a man of great generosity, and was always willing to give to those in need. He was a man of great strength, and was always willing to stand up for what was right.

Mr. Rose was a man of great wisdom, and was always willing to give good advice. He was a man of great ability, and was always willing to do his best. He was a man of great integrity, and was always willing to do the right thing. He was a man of great courage, and was always willing to stand up for what was right. He was a man of great kindness, and was always willing to help others in need. He was a man of great generosity, and was always willing to give to those in need. He was a man of great charity, and was always willing to help others in need. He was a man of great strength, and was always willing to stand up for what was right.
