FULTON, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY JUNE 16, 1933.

FULTON COUNTY FAIR TO BE HELD IN AUGUST

Saturday Is Booster Day In Contest

Twentieth Annual Fair Will Surpass All Fairs For Beauty-Entertainment

Saturday will be "Boosters' Day" in the News Subscription Campaign and each candidate is asked to bring in at least TWO clubs of $20 each sure on that day. Help us make "Boosters' Day" a big success. If you find you cannot collect as much as two clubs, then do the best you can. The first real comparative vote count will appear in next week's paper and it is up to you to get your name as far up in the list as you can.

Today sees the real beginning of the race for the six splendid awards the News is offering in its country wide circulation campaign, and a list of those who have entered is printed in this issue. An examination of this list shows there will be plenty of activity on the race for the auto that will be given to the highest candidate.

Just who will be the leading worker remains to be seen. Only those who expect to work regularly according to instructions furnished by the campaign department can hope to win one of the valuable prizes.

Look over the list of candidates and see if you can pick out the quitters; the ones who are likely to get scared and throw up their hands. They may be made of different stuff than what you think they are. Our list of candidates assures us that there will be plenty of activity in the race for the car and other valuable prizes.

At the time of going to press, very little subscription work has been done by anyone, but in all parts of the community there are signs of the beginning of a real race. In this issue of the next Friday candidates will be given their relative rank according to reports they make up to "Boosters' Day," Saturday, June 17.

Report Twice A Week

Beginning next week, all candidates will be asked to report at least twice a week. This is necessary for us to start papers to the new subscribers with least delay. Those failing to make their first report by Saturday will be dropped from the list entirely. So those who have not made their first report must do so by Saturday night as there is no need carrying the name of an inactive candidate. New entrants after the above dates will be carried one week, when their names will be dropped unless they become active, which means that they must turn in at least one report their first week. After the first period, July 1st nominations will positively be closed and no more candidates will be permitted to enter. This is very important, for those contemplating entering must do so at once or they will be too late.

It is very important that each candidate should remember that the closing hour for "Boosters' Day" has been set for 10 p. m. The campaign manager and his wife will be at the office until that hour Saturday night to accept reports from the candidates.

Remember at 8 o'clock Saturday night, June 17, "Boosters' Day," and the big double vote will have become history.

Candidates wishing to make their final report in person may do so provided they are in the campaign office not later than 10 o'clock. Anyone arriving after this hour will be too late for the BIG CLUB vote offer and their report will have to be computed on the reduced schedule. Candidates living outside of Fulton are privileged to mail their final reports to post offices and as long as the envelopes are properly postmarked showing that they were mailed by the appointed hour of 10 o'clock p. m. Saturday, June 17th, they will be accepted in the BIG CLUB VOTE period. The above rule will be strictly adhered to, so do not fail to be on time.

VESPER'S SERVICE ON CHURCH LAWN

Vesper services were held on the church lawn at the Methodist church last Sunday at 6 p. m. Rev. J. Mack Jenkins, Union City, presiding elder of this district preached on "Walking with God." These services will be conducted regularly this summer.

Guy Tucker, Local Citizen, Seeks County Jailer's Seat

Guy Tucker of this city has authorized the Fulton County News to announce in this issue, that he is a candidate for jailer of Fulton County subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, August 5, 1933.

Mr. Tucker has been a resident of this county for some thirty-three years, having moved to Fulton in 1900, and has lived here ever since. During recent years he has been connected with the automobile business, in which field he has contacted hundreds of people with whom he is well acquainted. Before then he was engaged in the livery business in Fulton, when he also bought and sold horses and mules throughout the county.

Up until several weeks ago Guy, as he is known to his acquaintances, had thought very little about running for any office but at the solicitation of friends, he decided to make the race for jailer of Fulton County. He has already started his campaign, and has solicited support among a good many voters throughout the county.

Mr. Tucker desires to see each and every voter personally before election day, but takes this means, in the meantime, of soliciting the consideration and support of the people. He earnestly asks that all voters give his candidacy their consideration, and promises that he shall merit their support. He wants to thank those who are giving him support and encouragement, and also those who do anything in his favor before election day and at the polls.

FULTON COUNTY TO COOPERATE IN FREE CLINIC FOR CRIPPLES

Final plans are being made for the clinic for crippled children which will be held at the Woman's Club in Paducah, on June 21 by the Kentucky Crippled Children Commission. Chairman of committees in twelve counties are cooperating in the promotion of the clinic, which is expected to be the first of a series of semi-annual clinics for the benefit of crippled children in the following counties: Caldwell, Calloway, Ballard, Crittenden, Hickman, Fulton, Marshall, McCracken, Graves, Lyon and Livingston.

All children under 18 years of age, who are suffering from a physical handicap due to disease or injury are urged to attend the clinic and receive the benefit of free examination and advice. Thruout Kentucky the Commission has given free clinical examination to more than 8,000 crippled children and has furnished free hospital treatment to more than 3,500 cases.

ALBERT SMITH GETS READY FOR OPENING

Albert Smith, (no relation to the famous politician), is looking forward to the opening of his new restaurant located at the corner of Lake-st and Fourth-st Extension. The building has been completely revamped inside, and a most attractive cafe, with modern fixtures is nearly ready for operation.

So, "Albert" hopes to return to his "old love" sometime next week, and again he'll have that "grand and glorious feeling" of being back at his old job.

AUXILIARY ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Earl Taylor on College-st Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. T. B. Neely, Mrs. Felix Gossum and Mrs. Taylor joint hostesses. Mrs. Jesse Nichols, president, presided, and the organization voted to give $50 to the building fund for the new American Legion home now under construction on Fourth-st Extension. A committee was appointed to assist the Legionnaires in raising funds for the building program.

Mrs. Sam Winston, chairman of the nominating committee, gave her report with the following officers elected for a new term: Mrs. Ramsey Snow, president; Mrs. Jesse Nichols, first vice; Mrs. John T. Price, second vice; Mrs. H. B. Houston, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. C. C. Parker, sergeant at arms; Mrs. W. W. Morris, chaplain; Mrs. Earl Taylor, historian. Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Taylor, retiring president and secretary, were commended for their loyal services. Refreshments were served.

FATHER OF MRS. WALKER DIES AT HICKMAN, KY.

Frank Stanley, 91, father of Mrs. L. E. Walker and grandfather of J. D. Walker of Fulton, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Caldwell at Hickman, Friday, June 8. Funeral services were last Saturday with Rev. Powles officiating, and burial followed at Stanley's Chapel.

Mr. Stanley was reared near Union City, and moved from Gibbs to Hickman in 1909, where he had been residing with his daughter. He was a member of the Church of Christ and numbered friends by the score. He is survived by ten children and 42 grandchildren. Many friends of the family extend sympathy to the bereft.

Several members of the local post of American Legion are expected to attend the Tennessee Eighth District rally at Reelfoot Lake Thursday June 15. The Fulton drum and bugle corps has been invited to the Tennessee convention.

Dorothy Elliott and Rachel Turner of Crutchfield won second place in the University of Kentucky during Junior Week. Thirty-four teams participated in the state contests.

Wednesday was National Flag Day, when Spanish-War Veterans sold small coat lapel flags to raise funds for disabled soldiers.

Patricia Dale, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Cox was taken to Paducah for an operation Saturday. She is reported resting nicely.

The Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church held a picnic at Enon church Monday night.

Police here found an abandoned Chevrolet coupe, which after investigation, proved to belong to Roland Richardson of Martin. Evidence indicated that the stolen machine was headed toward Paducah, and when discovered it had a broken axle.

The fire department was called out early Saturday morning to snuff out a fire at the old Shepherd place on East State Line, owned by Dudley Smith. The building was vacant. The conflagration was marked by two terrific explosions, which shook the immediate vicinity like dynamite blasts. It is believed that tramp started the blaze.

Rev. Claude Jackson will preach at Bennett School House next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. This is regular preaching day. You are invited.

American Legion Auxiliary held its monthly meeting at the home of

MRS. FREEMAN WON GOLF TOURNAMENT

In the first of a series of golf tournaments at the Fulton County club, Mrs. V. L. Freeman took first place in a "blind bogey" handicap. Seventeen players participated in the first weekly affair Tuesday, which are to be regular events for the ladies for a while.

Mrs. Freeman, W. A. Love, Hoyt Moore and M. V. Harris and Miss Marsh tied for the first honors. Mrs. Freeman and Miss Marsh won first and second places, respectively.

JORDAN MERCHANT DIED TUESDAY

Smith Evans, 55, prominent merchant of Jordan vicinity, died at his home Tuesday, after a lingering illness. Burial was held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at Mt. Zion. He is survived by his wife and five brothers. Those attending the funeral from Fulton were: Mrs. Walter Hawks, Mrs. John Harrison, Mrs. Clay McCullom and Mrs. Thomas of McComb, Ill., Mrs. Cecil Weatherspoon and Miss Fannie Lee Nix.

School Board Retains East Fulton Grades

When the school board met at the high school Monday night, twenty patrons of Terry-Norman appeared before the board and requested that this body reconsider, and retain the grades from one to six at the east Fulton school, instead of transferring the fifth and sixth grades to Carr Institute.

The board decided to keep the 5th and 6th grades at Terry-Norman, and retain three teachers there. A part time teacher will teach at Junior High in West Fulton. Mrs. Pigue will teach in high school for a half day. The board will elect this part-time teacher at its next meeting, July 17.

A new re-insurance plan as worked out by Fall & Fall was adopted, as some of the school buildings were over insured and some under insured. The change will effect a slight reduction in insurance costs.

D. Fred Worth, local attorney, was chosen by the board as a special tax collector to collect delinquent taxes, and to begin work immediately.

It was decided to paint the roofs of Terry - Norman, Carr Institute and the high school.

The board expects the efforts of the special collector will bring in enough back taxes to pay the salary of the extra teacher. Approximately $1,800 is outstanding in indebtedness for the 1932-33 term, and teachers have not been paid for the last half of May.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN REGULAR MEETING

At the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, J. R. Graham introduced a plan, which has acquired statewide momentum, for organization of a Kentucky Merchants Association, with a unit in every town. A committee was named to see Fulton merchants for membership. One of prime purposes of the organization is to foster strong opposition against the proposed sales tax.

Leslie Weeks reported that communications from Senator Turner and Commissioner Broadbent regarding completion of the Dukedom road indicated that the road would be constructed in the near future. Mr. Broadbent is expected to visit in this section soon to investigate the Metropolis-Fulton road, and will probably go over the Dukedom road at that time.

Secretary Davis said that an effort was being made to obtain a conservation corps in this community. One is being established near Clinton, where 250 boys will be engaged for the next six months.

Attention was called to the fact that Joe Browder, who has been appointed on the executive committee of the Tennessee Valley Association, is in a position to keep right in touch with developments in the Tennessee valley program in Tennessee. This community is urged to stand behind Mr. Browder, and give him every assistance in event anything should develop that will be of benefit to this section. The Tennessee valley project will materially affect the South, and this immediate community stands to benefit along with others, it is believed.

WARD RELEASED IN ALLEGED FRAME-UP

Bob Ward, who was arrested on a warrant sworn by Presley Giles, was tried in C. J. Boyers' court Tuesday on a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor, found under the house where Ward and others resided.

Testimony developed at the trial indicated that jealousy was the probable cause of the warrant issued by Giles. Witnesses testified that they had seen Giles snooping around the house where Ward boarded with a widowed sister-in-law of Giles.

Giles is an itinerant manufacturer of outdoor furniture, and he was charged with perjury and advised to leave town.

Plans Now Being Laid for A Gala Event With Free Attractions and Many Premiums.

It was officially announced here this week by J. W. Gordon, president of the Fulton County Fair Association, that there will be a fair held here the latter part of August. President Gordon and Secretary Wade have had many calls recently, made by citizens of this section, who wanted to know whether there would be a fair this year.

No definite date has yet been set for the fair, awaiting the booking of race horses, but according to President Gordon, fair week will probably be during the last week in August. Special prizes and premiums are being arranged for the various exhibits to be made in the agricultural, livestock, poultry, floral and other departments. Several outstanding free attractions are to be included on the fair program, and other features have been added to provide amusement and entertainment for fairgoers throughout this section.

The fair this year will mark the twentieth annual affair of this kind, since it was established here back in 1911. During the world war period, 1917-18, the fair closed down for two years, but outside of that time, the fair has continued here uninterrupted year in and year out. The people have come to look forward to it with eager expectation.

It is hoped that by the introduction of the new features, and interesting drawing events, that the fair will draw even larger crowds this year. President Gordon has announced a special family book, which contains admission tickets at reduced rates when purchased in groups.

Every merchant and citizen in this community is urged to cooperate in putting this fair over in a big way, and every effort will be made to bring larger crowds to Fulton Fair Week.

The fair association is composed of the following officers and directors: J. W. Gordon, president; R. H. Wade, secretary - treasurer; Ed Thompson, W. P. Murrell, Chas. Binford, Amos Colley and Ed Williamson, directors.

FAMOUS THOUGHTS — Every experience must yield me a blessing, because I am open and receptive to the good.

DID YOU EVER THINK ABOUT IT THAT WAY?

This is just a friendly tip to motorists in and around Fulton. Perhaps you, as one of these motorists, have been doing the same thing that dozens of others have been doing, without giving any thought about it. It is only natural, since you see others on all sides do it also.

But the next time you park down town on the wrong side of the street, or maybe stop right in the street, stop to think about your brother, motorists, who may come along. If you are not observing the usual traffic regulations you are interfering with a smooth flow of traffic, and laying yourself liable to an accident. An accident would not only mean a smash-up of your own machine, but probably that of a neighbor's, and possibly serious injury to some person. And if you failed to heed the law or failed you subjected yourself to prosecution, if the one you harmed were inclined to take action against you.

Speeding, parking on the wrong side of the street or blocking traffic by stopping in the middle of a thoroughfare, backing out from the curb without careful observance of oncoming traffic and proper signal, cutting corners not only are dangerous practices, but place you on "the spot" if an accident should occur. In other words, you are taking undue risk that may lay you liable.

Let us think a little more seriously about traffic problems in Fulton, and when we are inclined to drive careful observance of traffic laws, give our fellow motorists a little more consideration not only for his good, but our own. Fulton is especially jammed with automobiles on Saturdays, and accidents are not infrequent, so a little more concentration on traffic problems is not amiss.

HAIL—THE FAIR!

The Fulton County Fair will again hold sway some time in August. Fulton county in name—but a Fair for everybody in this section!

People will come to the fair from adjacent counties as well as from this county. This is a fair for Hickman, Graves, Obion and Weakley counties also—and people from every county are invited to participate. Thousands of people will visit the fair, which is expected to have greater attraction than during the recent years of the depression.

With confidence steadily growing, and conditions improving generally over the country; with people eager and anxious to be cheerful, to smile and enjoy themselves, directors of the fair believe attendance will be even better this year. They are looking forward with optimism and laying plans for the annual event. Every effort will be exerted to bring the crowds to the fair this year in greater numbers.

Plenty of free attractions, good races on one of the best half-mile tracks in the South, and prizes and premiums that are being offered in the various departments, will be wonderful drawing cards for exhibitors and spectators alike. Good exhibits in the agricultural, livestock, poultry, floral and other departments are expected. And, naturally, there will be a midway—and what a midway of fun and merriment.

Every effort is being made by J. W. Gordon, president of the fair association, and the directors, to make it the best fair in several years. Merchants and citizens are urged to co-operate with the association in putting the fair over in a big way.

Directors of the fair are to be commended for their enthusiasm and courage. Since the fair was established here back in 1911 it has continued uninterrupted year after year with the exception of the years 1917-18 during the World War period. This community should lend every assistance and encouragement to the fair, for it is one of the few to continue to exist despite the years of depression through which we have recently passed.

Conditions are improving, business is on the upgrade, and the attitude of the public is gradually but surely becoming more and more optimistic. The courage to do, and reach out for greater achievements is taking hold of everybody.

Let's give the directors of the fair a glad hand, then put our shoulders to the wheel, and help make the fair this year a real success.

CONCENTRATE! DON'T FIDDLE

This is no time to "fiddle" with advertising!

If you want to keep going in 1933—you must spread out your advertising dollar wisely: CUT OUT THE GADGET EXPENDITURES!

Gordon H. Ciley, for 16 years advertising manager for John W. Wainwright, says:

"If you want to do more real advertising and at the same time reduce the cost of it—cut out the gadgets! Cut out the knickknacks, donations, programs, tickets, charged up to 'Good Will Advertising'!"

"Eliminate waste in postage and wasteful methods and mediums—invest this saving of from 15% to 25% in newspaper advertising.

"Us space in your local newspaper—convincing, attractive copy regularly, continuously! Concentrate!" In The Fulton County News every dollar you invest in newspaper advertising comes right back to you in payrolls and incomes.

Think It Over

BY THE MEDITATOR

If You Like This Column Tell Us.

DON'T BE TOO SERIOUS

Most of us take life too seriously too much of the time. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." I have been charged with being too serious in most of the thoughts that have graced this column. But really, folks, I am not "serious minded." In fact I manage to get a good deal of fun out of life. Lots of my meditations are laughable. In fact a lady friend of mine once declared she believed I could find something amusing at a funeral. There's lots of amusement in just being able to live and breathe. People should more and more reach up and grab the sunbeams. There is more pleasure in "blowing bubbles in the air" than in watching the "clouds go by."

With these few remarks this morning, brethren and sisters, we will not open the meeting.

A correspondent in an exchange tells of a farmer having "five head of hogs die on him" in one night. Now isn't that piling up the pork considerably? And think of the sufferings of the poor man with all that hog on him!

Anent this controversy over the word "obey" in the marriage ceremony, let me suggest that a man may know his wife loves and honors him, but at the same time he knows he is going to have heck of a time trying to make her obey him, no matter what she promised the preacher.

Some men don't have to argue to convince one their ancestors were of some lower order of creation.

Listen to the words of the venerated Presidents of the United States, almost all of whom were students of the Holy Scriptures and advocates of Bible reading. George Washington wrote: "It is impossible to govern the world without the Bible."

Thomas Jefferson called the Bible "the cornerstone of liberty."

John Quincy Adams made it a practice to read the Bible through each year and asserted that the "Bible is the book of all others to be read at all ages and in all conditions of human life."

Andrew Jackson called it "The rock on which our Republic rests," and Abraham Lincoln declared it to be "The best book which God has given men."

And skipping the presidents between, we do well to remember the words of Woodrow Wilson: "A man deprived himself of the best there is in the world who has deprived himself of a knowledge of the Bible." It is very difficult for a man or boy who knows the Scriptures ever to get away from it. It haunts him like an old song. It follows him like the memory of his mother. There are great problems before the American people. I would be afraid to go forward if I did not believe that there lay at the foundation of all our schooling and all our thoughts the incomparable and unimpeachable Word. Our society and our government rests so much on the teaching of the Bible that it would be difficult to support them if faith in these teachings should cease to be practically universal in our country. It would be difficult to conceive of any kind of religious instruction which omitted to place its main emphasis on the precepts of this great book.

The road back to prosperity then, I believe, is through a return to Biblical truths. When Jesus of Nazareth was challenged with the question: "Which is the great commandment in the law?" His answer was "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." Our Saviour also taught both by precept and example, that he who would be greatest must be the servant of all.

LUKE RILEY SAYS THE RATS DIE

BUSINESS SHOWS GAIN DURING MONTH OF MAY

There is no doubt that business is on the upswing. The tide of business turned after the banking holidays and has continued during the month of May at a very encouraging pace. Business men are accustomed to a tapering off of the "spring rise" at this time, and naturally expect markets to turn quieter after such a volume of forward buying has been placed during the past two months, but the advance evidently has more than a seasonable impetus and so far has shown little slackening.

In May, for the first time in nearly four years, the volume of trade and industrial production has exceeded that of the same month in the previous year, and such a comparison heartens all business men. Prices are better, and in a good many lines where the struggle has been to keep down the red figures, black ink is being used again.

Moreover, order books are better filled than in a long time. The industries are assured of a higher rate of operations during the next two months than in the same period last year, and they will give more employment and hence more support to business.

Budget Director Douglas for the United States sees definite signs of revival in industry, with nearly 500,000 men having been returned to work since March 4.

War Veterans have won back approximately $170,000 of the $420,000,000 in disability and pensions which the original economy law planned to take away from them, it is now indicated.

Could you lend me a Dime?

NO ONE would think of running across to a neighbor several times a day to ask, "Could you lend me a dime, please?"

Of course, borrowing the use of a neighbor's telephone is not exactly like borrowing money, because it doesn't cost your neighbor anything extra for your call except the interruption or possible inconvenience.

It is also true that neighbors may borrow freely from each other and remain friendly, so long as each is careful to return the loan in full measure. When you borrow the use of a telephone you are getting something you can't return, and in this way, too, borrowing telephone service is different from borrowing money.

The very fact that you have to borrow your neighbor's telephone shows you really ought to have one of your own.

When you stop to think of the convenience, comfort and satisfaction of mind that a telephone provides, you will probably agree that in trying to do without a telephone you are sacrificing too much for the few pennies saved. Why wait longer? Order your telephone today.

"The Old Mill Wheels Are Turning"

Perhaps it is just as well to look on the bright side. For every dark cloud has a silver lining. The darkness is rapidly disappearing, and the silver is returning to the surface, from where it has been hidden. And after we have passed over the rough places, we will be wiser and richer in experience.

As time rolls on people still live on. One of the necessities of life is bread. League Secretary Discusses Municipal Light Plant

What Public Ownership Is Doing for the People in American Cities.

By Carl D. Thompson,
Secretary Public Ownership League of America.

Over 2,580 other cities, towns and villages in the United States own their light and power systems—why not YOURS?

These 2,580 cities are making money on their plant—all the way from a few thousand dollars to nearly $4,000,000 a year, depending on the size of the city. Why not have YOUR city make some money?

These cities that own their plants keep the surplus earnings they make at home. Why should not YOUR city do so? Why send $5,000, maybe $25,000 or $50,000, or more EVERY YEAR out of town, or any town, to LaSalle Street, Chicago, Wall Street, New York, or some other big city?

These 2,580 cities that own their own plants also have lower rates than those served by private companies. Why not get this advantage for your city too?

Is it any wonder that municipal ownership of light and power plants has grown so rapidly and is growing more rapidly than ever? Look at the following table which is compiled from the United States Census reports, the most dependable source of information on the subject in the country—in fact the only one.

How Municipal Ownership Grows. Compiled from U. S. Census Reports

Here are some of the reasons why the cities, towns and villages are moving so rapidly everywhere to municipal ownership.

Advantages of Municipal Light and Power Plants

1. The city can borrow money more cheaply than a private company. Companies pay about 8 or 9 per cent on their capital accounts; cities can borrow at from 4 to 5 per cent.

2. It does not cost the city as much to build and operate a plant as it does a private concern. The capital account of all private companies has from 10 to 50 per cent "water"— in other words, a fictitious capitalization. The private light company in Springfield, Ill., wanted $2,000,000 for a plant which our engineer found was worth only $1,000,000; and the city was able to provide for the service with a $400,000 bond issue. That is just an example.

3. The city under public ownership requires its bonds and so gradually get rid of indebtedness and finally eliminate the interest on its capital account entirely. Private companies on the other hand are never paying off and retiring their capital account but are always increasing it and thus always the interest burden which the people have to pay in increased rates.

4. Public ownership reduces rates as we shall show.

5. With lower rates more people can use the service.

6. Under public ownership the plants pay for themselves out of the earnings so that ultimately they do not increase but actually reduce taxation. There are 85 cities and towns in the U. S. that have eliminated local taxes altogether thru municipal ownership.

7. The profits of publicly owned plants go into public funds and are used either to reduce rates, to extend service or reduce the tax burden.

8. A municipal plant keeps the surplus earnings at home whereas a plant that is owned by a private corporation takes them out of town to pay dividends to other people in other communities.

9. A municipal light and power plant with low rates attracts industries to the city, helps develop those that are already located and creates new industries. It thus helps to enlarge and expand the industrial and commercial life of the city.

10. And finally, if the city owns its municipal light and power plant it is then in a position to co-operate with other cities and with state and federal systems. In this it can secure advantages of large scale production, the lowest unit cost, highest grade and most competent management and thereby, still lower rates.

Of course the larger city is the greatest advantage in the production of electric power, and therefore, the more money it can make on a municipal plant and lower rates it can offer. And yet even the smallest towns and villages have found great advantages in owning their own plants. Here are a few striking examples.

Kimballton, Ia. a little village of only 382 population owns a Diesel engine plant. It has paid for it out of earnings, is saving $302 a month, has $3,000 in the light fund and is installing another unit.

Alma, Nebr., (pop. 1,000) has a little municipal light plant that the private companies have tried desperately to buy but the people voted 410 to 14 not to sell. The town is earning $12,000 a year profit with rates lower than those in surrounding communities.

Walnut, Ia. (pop. 1,072) started a municipal plant in 1925 and found that it could produce current at the switchboard for less than 2 cents a kilowatt hour which was much cheaper than it could buy it from a private "high line" company. And, besides the plant paid for itself in three years.

Higginsville, Mo., (pop. 2,724) made a net of $29,884 in 1930 with rates that averaged 2 2-3 cents per kilowatt hour. It cost them only 3/4 of a cent per kilowatt to produce the current. They use Diesel engines.

Moquoketa, Ia. a city of 3,600 population, because of its municipal light and power plant has a 7 cent maximum rate scaling down to as low as 2 cents whereas in 22 other cities in that section of the state the maximum rate charged by private companies is from 14 to 18 cents per k. w. h.

Garland, Texas (pop. 1,421) reduced its rates 10% at its municipal plant and still made enough profits so that was able to reduce taxes 40 cents on the $100 of valuation.

There are 85 cities, towns and villages in the United States that have no local taxation, because of the surplus earnings of their municipally owned light and power plants and other utilities.

These are but a few examples of literally hundreds that might be cited showing the success of municipal plants in smaller cities. With modern equipment, machinery and methods, which are now easily available to any community, even the smallest city can have a municipal plant and make a success of it—no matter what the conditions are or the limitations. HISTORY IN THE MAKING

By J. Paul Bushart.

Exports from Mills' Point from Oct. 1, 1841 to Oct. 1, 1842: 3312 hogheads of tobacco; 519 bales cotton; 11,618 sacks of corn; 512 sacks of dried peaches; 197 bbls. peaches; 18 half bbls. peaches; 250 sacks of oats; 608 sacks wheat; 57 bbls. Irish potatoes; 218 sacks Irish potatoes; 16 hds. sweet potatoes; 23 sacks rye; 35 bbls. peach brandy; 265 bbls. apples; 85 bbls. flour; 216 bales of hay; 14 bbls. cider; 162 sacks peas; 3200 head of hogs; 935 head sheep; 418 head beef cattle; 38 head horses; 28 head mules; 4216 dozen chickens; 825 dozen turkeys; 65 dozen geese. Aggregate value of which at prevailing low range of prices at that time, approximated $200,000.

Now add to that amount the business transacted by ten wholesale and retail stores, and imports by steamers, and a general idea of activity in business and river traffic is gained, even if every body was crying hard times and scarcity of money.

John Betts, who was in the commission and forwarding business, had established a warehouse near the steamboat landing, with pasture for grazing stock being shipped. He was also proprietor of the wharf boat. He accepted all goods and sent them to the desired point at reasonable terms. At that time the river ran nearly 200 yards farther toward the Missouri shore than it does today, and during low water it was nearly a half mile from the business section to the water's edge.

In 1842 the steamer Alexander Scott made its first trip up from New Orleans, including all stops, in three days and 24 hours, at the rate of 10 miles an hour, opposed by heavy rises all the way up. That was considered a record then.

Young Ladies of the Forties. A comment in a newspaper published in the forties had the following curious statements about the young ladies of that time:

"They look upon marriage as devoutly to be wished. As a matter of course, they dress themselves out in their best finery (their Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes as we say in the West), put on their prettiest smiles attend theaters, balls, concerts and private parties, and even go to church with the declared intention of 'catching a beau.'"

"Just like the merchants who ar-rage their goods in the most tempting manner to draw customers, they display their charms of persons, figures, dress, education or fortune, to the best advantage to make conquests, ensnare hearts and marry well. Their coquetting air are but tricks of trade and I cannot but fancy that I hear ever anon the mercenary cry: who'll buy, who'll give the most gold!"

"Duties or household are neglected, acquisition of knowledge deemed superfluous, and labor disgraceful. To marry well is absolutely essential; to be a fine lady—to do nothing—to perfectly conversant of all the chit and chat and slanders of the day—to have read a few novels—to be ignorant of the smallest duty of housewife, and to make every stitch of clothes away from home."

In the choice of persons to become suitable partners of such fine fashionable young ladies, they seem to be governed by the following rules: to prefer a self-important dandy, whose whole career of life consists in brushing his hair, cleaning his nails and combing his whiskers, and puffing a pipe—never a sober, steady, intelligent gentleman, whose cut of coat preadventure is not the latest style, and who might vulgarly appear at a party in boots instead of pumps.

"The young ladies seem to prefer the rich. A man of wealth is always a good match. It doesn't matter if he be a drunkard, a gambler, a libertine, an atheist, or what not."

If we are to judge from that writer's statements, the Forties also had its "flappers."

Parsons Pi-Line

After looking carefully over the list of candidates for the various offices in Fulton county I am thankful that only one can be elected to each office. We are accustomed to speak of these men as "running" for something. I wish they would change the wording a little. It would mean much to know they "stood for something."

There had been a wreck. Two cars one driven by a man, one by a woman, met face to face on the highway and the car driven by the man was about ruined. A friend thinking to console him said: "That was a close call old man. Don't you know you always should give a woman driver half of the road?" He replied "I always try to, as soon as I find out which half she wants."

I went in a store in Fulton the other day and had a most interesting experience. As I went in I noticed there was no one in sight. Upon closer examination I saw a pair of feet sticking above the desk in the back of the room. I waited a few minutes and there was no move not even of the feet. Thinking, perhaps, that the rest of the person was asleep I said: "Can't you serve me? I am in a hurry to get home." The feet moved a little and a voice below the level of the desk said in a drawl, "Can't you come in some time when I'm standing up?" I have observed that there are no chairs in the stores that are doing a good business.

Yours— THE PARSON.

Iceles may come and Iceles may go but the Iceles from the Fulton Ice Co. continue to put a chill in every team they play. They dined the strong Diamond D-X team Sunday night by the overwhelming score of 14-5. Playing headup baseball all thru the game they were never in any trouble. Every man on the team hit when hits mean runs which goes to show that any team that is first rated a second division club can go to the top if they try.

WHITE WAY BOYS

CONTINUE TO WIN

The boys from the White Way Service Station are determined to win the first half of the Twilight league from the way they are playing ball of late. They have won their last four games by very decisive margins.

They went out Monday afternoon and defeated the fast stepping Dalton Cleaners by the score of 7 to 6 despite the fact that their star catcher Bert Nanney sustained a broken leg in attempting to catch a runner at home plate in the first inning.

How the play was made. 1st inning—Dalton at bat, Edwards walked Wright struck out, while Edwards stole second. Conner popped to the pitcher, Carden was safe when his hot grounder went through McKinney and Edwards scored when the ball rolled to left field. Carden continued around the bases and when the throw in was wide Carden attempted to score. Bert was waiting for him at the plate with his left foot on home plate. Carden saw he would have to slide and in doing so struck Bert's leg that had in some way failed to slip across the plate, breaking it midway between ankle and knee. This of course threw a bomb shell into the White Way boys but they were continually thinking of Bert and went out to win the game for him.

UPID STRIKES LOCAL BASEBALL PLAYER

Little Dan Cupid paid a visit to the local Independent baseball club last Saturday night and struck Jimmy Jackson square in the heart. Jimmy as you know is the catcher, and good one too, for the local baseball club. Jimmy took for his bride Miss Hester Pentecost of Palmersville. They left Saturday night for Chattanooga for their honeymoon out due to the fact that Jimmy was badly needed Sunday afternoon in Huntington to catch he stopped off here and did the catching chores or Fulton. The News wishes the newly married couple all the best wishes.

Dan Cupid not only struck one local baseball player but two at almost the same time. This time his arrow struck A. C. Conner squarely in the heart and brought with it Miss Thelma Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Roberts on Third-st. Conner, as he is known in the baseball world, is catcher for Dalton Cleaners, and a good one. He is employed with Houston Dairy Co. The News congratulates these two young people. Thelma is a graduate of Fulton High.

FULTON TENNIS SQUAD WINS OVER HICKMAN

The fast Fulton tennis invaded Hickman Sunday afternoon for some interesting matches. Vernon Owen won over Guy Hale, 6-4, 6-2. Owen was especially brilliant in his overhand lob. "Red" Curlin crushed Stahlr 6-4, 6-2 in a fast tilt. Hendon Wright came on next to defeat Rudd 6-3, 6-0. Then Curlin and Wright took Stahlr and Rudd for a ride, scoring being 6-4, 6-2. Joe Hall and W. R. Batt trounced to play at Hickman again this Sunday.

The death of Mrs. Della Virgin of New Orleans, occurred Friday, and funeral services were held in Paducah Sunday afternoon. She was a sister of Walter Garvey of this city.

SLOUGHS, COWS, DUCKS AND HUNTINGDON BEAT FULTON

Being completely wrecked by the loss of Batt, Killbrow, Shuck and Forrest yesterday and the field they layed on being a corn or cotton field with ridges eight inches high, and ducks, cows, horses and mules, and three big sloughs to run around Fulton was beaten by the score of 8-1 in Huntington.

Yes Sire! Anytime any one goes to Huntington to play ball they had better decide different or else. Of course the boys there are used to this kind of a layout. Huntington collected 11 hit with only six being entitled to hits by the fact that they were labeled for easy putouts but took bad hops.

Huntington took the lead in the second when Vickers singled and Keaton homered by virtue of a bad hop that hopped over Smith's head and on over the fence. Four more scored in the 4th on a single, double, single, walk and another single. Huntington wound up their runs in the 5th on an error, single and double. Fulton scored their lone tally in the 6th when Valentine opened the inning with a double and scored when Jackson laid one down to second baseman who threw wild at first. McKinney continued to hit the ball with 2 out of 3 trips being walked once with a man on base.
