WARRIORS ON THE WAR PATH IN C. OF C. DRIVE

War has broken out in Fulton, and in the immediate vicinity, two factors are adding fuel to the flames. The Union Army is engaging in a battle for control of the town, and a group of renegades is attempting to establish a new regime. The war is being fought along the highways and byways, with skirmishes breaking out in various locations. The town is divided, with half siding with the Union Army and the other half supporting the renegades. Feelings are running high, and tensions are at an all-time high. The outcome of the war is uncertain, and the fate of the town hangs in the balance.

The Union Army has taken control of the town, and the renegades are on the run. The Union Army is in the process of securing the town, and the renegades are attempting to escape. The town is in chaos, with looting and pillaging taking place. The Union Army is searching for the renegades, and the renegades are trying to evade capture. The fate of the town is uncertain, and the future is uncertain. The war is not over, and the outcome is yet to be determined.

THE GIRLS IN BUSINESS

The truth is that the girls are coming into the business world in many lines of extensive employment. The boys may say, "The world is mine for the taking." The girls may retort, "You are right; the world is yours. But wait and see how the girls are gaining ground along the way to work as the young men; for the women are really the world's employers. They have none of the risk of the world. They don't smoke, they don't drink. The girls, and they must abide by them to lose that.
