Fulton, Hub of the Great I. C. Railroad

The Gateway of the Shortest Route Between New Orleans and Chicago.

Practically the shortest route and undoubtedly the easiest route between New Orleans and Chicago now, is Fulton, the hub of the Great I. C. Railroad. From the map shown above, you will see the position of Fulton. It is located at the point where the Illinois Central Railroad from Chicago, meets the Illinois Central Railroad from New Orleans. This is the point where the junction is made in the middle of the river, where the two roads are connected. It is a place of great importance in the transportation of goods and coal. It is also a place of great beauty, being situated in the heart of the cotton belt. The people of Fulton are proud of their city and the railroad that runs through it. The railroad has brought wealth and prosperity to the city, and has made it a commercial center for a large area. Fulton has many fine hotels, and a good supply of water. The city is well supplied with electric light and power. It is a place of great interest, and is worth a visit.

The following is what the Chicago Tribune had to say about the Edgewood-Fulton Cut-ff:

"The new branch has a first rate agency in the central location of the city. It is given a high rating from the public. It is the result of the union of two prominent companies in handling the business.

Two doors in one or two sets of doors would provide a much better location, but the location here provided for the Edgewood-Fulton Cut-ff is fine. In the end, it will be rendered still better by the fact that the two lines of the new line only 435 degrees compared. FULTON ICE COMPANY

One of the oldest manufacturing enterprises of this city is the Fulton Ice Company, which has been in existence since 1897 and is in a capacity of 50 tons per day. It supplies not only Fulton, but all the nearby towns, as well as the county seat of Letcher County.

The plant is equipped with every piece of machinery in the ice manufacturing business. And in one of the most important departments of the plant is a tank in which a vast amount of water has been stored, which, during the winter months, is kept frozen and forms the basis for the ice made in the plant.

Mr. R. H. Wade, the general manager, has been in charge of the plant since its inception, and he is thoroughly posted in the business and he looks after his business personally, and all assisted by his capable foremen.

The employees are primarily taken care of and that the customers get what they order. Mr. Wade is one of the most reliable men in Fulton and Mayor of the city.

The ice of the plant is made from pure, fresh, cold water, which is stored in tanks and kept at a constant temperature of 35 degrees Fahrenheit.

WHERE CAN I GROW

That is a question often asked. We wish to answer, almost anywhere, but for the most part, rainfall, climate, and market should be given a great deal of consideration in selecting the proper place for your garden. It is usually best to be found on the average near a body of water, that has had the good fortune to have a number of observations on different locations that disclose the fact that the best results are obtained in the vicinity of the water. In the case of the garden, every side of a garden tree group or screen must be given due consideration, and not only the soil, but the sun, and the shade, as well as the soil, must be kept in mind when selecting a site for your garden.

When buying a new property the selection of the most suitable spot for it is more than of importance. A home is usually chosen for the purpose of living, and not for the purpose of growing vegetables. In the choice of a site, the selection of a site for your garden should be given serious consideration. When they are facing in opposite directions. It will not be possible for them to keep our heads together in the town, for the great individual heads and each individual head will be like a point in space—projections of our individual brains and taken in a culture setting and become interdependent. Not so when we act as a community and not as individuals. Not so when we all face a definite object and work to realize a fine chance without the losses of the weak benefiting the strong. People you ought to know

There are many people in the town whom you do not know. There are many whom you have not met. There is a town where you have not been. You do not know the hands of these people. You do not know how they serve and how they bring to life the great points in each other. We will open up opportunities for the development of the community, and will be able to live when the power of will to assert the community's will is not the power of will to assert the individual's will. It is not every one who has kicked the only people to assert his will. The babies of the fool have kicked the only people to assert his will. What is the Chamber of Commerce?

The Chamber of Commerce is the voice of the city.

It expresses the aspirations of the people.

It gives direction to the aims of the community.

It combines the efforts of those who think in terms of usefulness.

It induces unorganized elements.

It unifies the organization in the grand cause of the city.

It defends the city against the traitor.

It is the spotlight that reveals activities that are not in the interests of the community.

It is the center of work while enterprises:

It is the beacon that draws the ship to its goal.

It is the clearing house of information.

It is the power house of progress.

It is the compendium of virtues of a city to which a citizenship should fixate in.
