FULTON COMMANDERY ATTRACTS ATTENTION

Each Member Wore Twist of Tobacco in Coat Lapel.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—The words "Kentucky Hospitality, and Kentucky Products Dispensed," which artistically emblazoned above the entrance to the headquarters of the Louisville Knights Templar, have made their suit of room the most popular in the Congress hotel. Oscar E. Rehm, arrived in Chicago Sunday and engaged painters and decorators so that when the Kentucky commanderies arrived they found all in readiness for their reception and many visitors waiting to be received, being attracted by the wording of Mr. Rehm's sign.

The Fulton, Ky., commandery arrived early. Each knight wore a twist of burley tobacco on his lapel. They were led by Eminent Commander George W. Gates, and were escorted to the Hotel Congress, headquarters for Kentucky. The Paducah and Princeton delegations arrived later, the former led by E. W. Whittemore.

The Mutuals, an organization of past and present recorders of the Knights Templar, elected the following officers at their triennial banquet last night: Regent, Sir Knight General John Corson Smith, of Chicago; vice regent, Sir Knight John C. Kidd, of Houston, Texas; treasurer, Sir Knight Harper M. Oranhood, of Denver; secretary, Sir Knight John H. Miller, Baltimore; chaplain, Sir Knight Rev. Joseph E. Robins, of Manchester, N. H.

SUIT FOR $5,000 DAMAGES.

A suit for $5,000 damages was filed in the Graves county circuit court at Mayfield, Wednesday by Walter Suiter, under 21 years of age, through his next friend, W. S. Poy against J. M. Duckwiley, of near Dukesboro. The plaintiff asserts that he made a contract last February to make a crop on the farm of the defendant and that about June 25 Duckwiley made an attempt to kill him. Suiter says that Duckwiley shot him two times with a shot gun and some of the shot took effect in his back and head.

BULLDOG ATTACKS BABY.

Paris, Ky., August 10.—The efforts of seven men were required to make an angry bulldog release his hold on the face of Samuel, the three year old son of Gus Margolen, of this place today.

Twenty-seven stitches were taken in the boy's face and it is probable that the lad will lose the sight of one eye.

The dog was killed.

The child was playing with the animal when it suddenly attacked him.

F. H. GREEN.

The funeral services over the remains of F. H. Green were held this morning at the Episcopal church, the Rev. C. L. Price officiating.

The casket was covered with the most beautiful floral designs, some of which came from sunny Florida, the home of the orange blossom, and where the peaceful sleeper closed his eyes to rest. At the close of services at the church an unusual long procession followed the funeral car to Fairview, where the Masonic Fraternity, of which Mr. Green was a member, took charge and said their beautiful ceremony.

The following were the active and honorary pallbearers.

ACTIVE—A. L. Martin, Sam McCall, Herbert Carr, Arch Huddleston, Rob Caldwell, Dr. I. H. Read.

HONORARY—W. T. Carr, Tobe Huddleston, Pleas Taylor, Fon Collins, J. F. Fall, Clay Ligon.

F. H. Green was a man of generous impulses and never forgot the hospitable ways of the pioneer so long as he resided in Fulton. He had borne adversity bravely and enjoyed prosperity quietly. He had filled the various relations of life, as son, husband, father, brother, friend, and filled them well. Who can do more?

But he is gone! Another name is stricken from the ever lessening roll of our old settlers, and his devoted children, and closest friends are left to attest how sadly they will miss him. It must be so; these tender human ties cannot be severed without a pang. Yet in such a death there is really no cause for grief. His life work was done, and well done. He had reached his eightieth year and wearied with life's duties and cares, weary of suffering and waiting, he lay down to rest.

He was a man who united sound sense with strong convictions, to his friends the seal of fellowship. He believed in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man and was a devout member of the Episcopal church. He believed that the man who scatters flowers in the pathway of his fellowmen, who lets in to the dark places of life the sunshine of human sympathy and human happiness, is following in the footsteps of his Master.

His cheerful, helpful life; his devotion to his family and kindness to everybody will long linger as a fragrant memory in the home which his presence brightened and which death has now darkened. His life was gentle, but like the still waters it was deep. In his heart of hearts he carried those he loved, and his hand was never weary, his step never failed in caring for and ministering to those who were in anyway dependent upon him.

After a long busy and useful life he died as he had lived—honored, trusted and loved, all of which were attested by the hundreds of old acquaintances who stood and gazed at the sleeping form with its look of peace, its patient grace, and hair like a silver crown, that they knew so well in this life.

MRS. DODD ROBBED.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 11.—Rufus Jones and Caspar Ronds, were released about 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon after having been held for stealing the alligator purse of Mrs. M. E. Dodd, of West Jefferson street, since Wednesday noon. The Jones negro confessed that he had given the ten dollars which the purse contained to another negro boy, and it is expected that he will bring the money to police headquarters this morning, as his parents have been notified.

YOUNG FORGER FAILED TO SECURE MONEY

Young White Man Forged Will Hill's Name to Check Which Is Turned Down By Morris & Bard.

Morris & Bard, merchants on the upper end of Lake street, escaped the designs of a young forger Wednesday afternoon when they refused to cash a check offered them in payment of a bill of goods. About three o'clock in the afternoon a young white man walked into the store and bought a bill of goods amounting to $10.50. When the goods had been wrapped up he handed Dick Bard a check, purporting to have been drawn by Will Hill, for $18. After looking at the check Mr. Bard told the stranger that he could not accept it without seeing Mr. Hill. He then suggested that the two go together to see Mr. Hill who was at work on the Hurst building at rear of the store. The stranger readily agreed to this proposition and the two started to find Hill. The stranger suggested that he go in at the rear door and Bard at the front end of the building. This arrangement being satisfactory to Mr. Bard, the latter proceeded to carry it out. Not so with the wily youth, however, for he fled as soon as Mr. Bard passed from his view. When Mr. Hill denied issuing the check Mr. Bard reported the matter to Chief of Police Linton. Mr. Linton got his eyes on the youth but the latter out ran him. Getting in to Dr. Cohn's auto the chief was driven out to Pat Smith's farm where he again sighted and lost the fugitive.

Pat Smith later caught the wily youngster but permitted him to escape. Deputy Sheriff Bailey Huddleston chased the fugitive into a large corn field which lies between the Great and Duncan homes about half way between Fulton and Water Valley, and there lost track of him. Several farmers joined in the search at this point but the gathering darkness and high grass in the cornfield made it impossible to find the would-be forger.

A description of the fugitive has been wired to surrounding towns.

BURGLARS IN FULTON.

The clothes pressing establishment of Frank Rucker, colored, was burglarized some time last night. The thief or thieves gained access to the house by removing a window sash at the rear of the building. Only a coat and vest and one or two other articles of wearing apparel have been missed. There is no clue to the robbers identity.

ILL HEALTH CAUSE.

Midway, Ky., Aug. 11.—Woodford county was greatly shocked Tuesday afternoon, when the announcement was made that John M. Withrow, one of the most prominent young business men of the county, had committed suicide at his home, about a mile from Midway. No other cause than ill health can possibly be assigned as a reason for his rash act.

ICE CREAM CONES DECLARED UNHEALTHY

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 11.—Analysis of the ice cream cones sold in Paducah show that the cones are not used, but the ingredients are certainly not recommended as food for children.

The analysis of the cones, ordered by the city board of health, has been completed by Dr. J. H. McKinney, of the Illinois hospital staff, and his analysis given to Dr. J. H. McKinney, city health officer. He said that steps will be taken to prevent the sale of the cones, as they are composed of wheat, sugar, and ice cream with which is added is of the cheapest quality. Considering the labor involved in preparing the cones, there is a profit of several cents on each cone. The cones are not adulterated, chemists have found the cones in the large cities.

That the cones are high per cent. of profit, and of the cones is evident from analysis. To weigh one cone requires 128 of the cones, which are composed of wheat, sugar, and ice cream with which is added is of the cheapest quality. Considering the labor involved in preparing the cones, there is a profit of several cents on each cone. The cones are not adulterated, chemists have found the cones in the large cities.

SUE FOR $40,000 FOR HER HUSBAND.

Widow Edward McWhirter Seeks $40,000 Damages.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 11.—For the death of her husband, Edward McWhirter, who was killed by a train at Paducah, Ill., February 23, Mrs. McWhirter, of Paducah, has filed suit in the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Pacific Southern Railroad court for $40,000. The suit was filed by attorneys, Eaton & McWhirter, yesterday at Clinton. Mrs. McWhirter alleges that the death of her husband was due to negligence on the part of the train crew and holds the railroad responsible. McWhirter was a switchman and formerly worked in Paducah. He leaves a wife and several small children.

CHOLERA RAGING IN RUSSIA.

Great Epidemic Threatens Czar's Dominions.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—Russia's scourge, the cholera, continues to spread with most alarming rapidity, particularly in the southern mining districts and in St. Petersburg where the conditions are fast approaching the proportions of the great epidemic of 1908.

Figures furnished by the central sanitary bureau show that in the week from July 24 to July 30 the latest available complete figures, there were 15,244 cases of cholera and 6,944 deaths were reported from the province of Yekaterinograd and the territory of the Don Cossacks in South Russia.

The provincial assembly of Yekaterinograd Saturday assigned $200,000 for the cause.

CYCLONE FREAKS.

A twister cyclone struck Ad Taylor's house and lifted his home from its foundation, moving it about six feet, and tearing up things generally. Fruit trees were torn up by the roots, and much damage done. But the most peculiar thing about it was that it just seemed to drop down on his place without touching his neighbors. He was insured with Chas. Hood, and the damage—about $100, has been adjusted.

SENATOR BAILEY FOR PRESIDENT.

Texans Booming Joe Bailey For Democratic Nomination.

Galveston, Texas, Aug. 11.—United States Senator Bailey was given a monstrous demonstration, lasting 41 minutes, at the opening of the state Democratic convention here.

The demonstration came when Hon. Clarence Owsley, temporary chairman, in an address sounded the keynote, declaring that the convention should declare in favor of a tariff for revenue only, saying that this would be "fresh encouragement to that matchless statesman whose name it is hardly necessary to call."

In the meantime Bailey's friends in the convention acclaimed him as the party candidate for president in 1912. It is practically certain that the tariff plank will go in this platform, with the idea that it set the pace for Democracy of other states and put Senator Bailey prominently before the country as presidential timber.

HOPE STILL HELD OUT FOR THE MAYOR'S RECOVERY.

Strong Constitution and Love For Open Air Will Greatly Aid Him In His Hard-Fight For Life.

New York, Aug. 11.—The condition of Mayor William J. Gaynor, who was shot and seriously wounded Tuesday by a discharged city employe, continues to be a source of great anxiety today. The first bulletins of the day were hopeful in tone, indicating that the patient was resting comfortably and taking occasional nourishment, but the doctors have not yet pronounced the mayor out of danger.

HANDS OUT HARD KICKS TO NORTHERN NEGROES.

Raps Them Because of Resolutions Adopted Regarding Slaying Of Negroes.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The colored Preachers' Alliance of Washington, which has adopted resolutions protesting against the recent wholesale slaying of negroes in Anderson county, Texas, has been rebuked by W. E. Stewart, colored, financial agent of the Arkansas Baptist college at Little Rock, for its failure to respond to his appeal for aid for that institution. He also raps the negro preachers of the north for their lamentable lack of knowledge of the true state of things in the south with reference to the amicable understanding and co-operation between a large element of the white and black races, Stewart says:

"I asked the colored Preachers' Alliance of Washington for money to aid the Arkansas Baptist college at Little Rock, which has done so much to help educate the negroes of the country, and they gave me 30 cents. If this is a measure of the sympathy felt by the negroes of the north for the negroes of the south I say they had better attend to their own business instead of sending telegrams to governors and sheriffs of the southern states expressing their indignation at the lynching of negroes."

NAMES FULL STATE TICKET

Galveston, Tex., Aug. 11.—The Texas Democratic state convention completed its labors yesterday, nominating a full state ticket, headed by Oscar B. Colquitt for governor, and A. B. Davidson for lieutenant governor, both being anti-prohibitionists. The platform is favorable to the policies of Mr. Colquitt and upholds Senator Bailey in his course.

MOTHER WANTS HER MISSING BOYS

Lawrence and Leslie Webb Disappear From Their Home.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 11.—A general alarm was sent out by the police department at the request of Mrs. Dorsey Cherry, of the Husbands' road, a mile south of Paducah, asking that her missing boys, Lawrence Webb, 11 years, and Leslie Webb, 9 years old be returned to her. They had been missing since early Wednesday and their mother feared that some dire accident had befallen them. She described Lawrence, the oldest, as wearing a light cap, black pants, white shirt waist and bare-footed. Leslie was wearing a blue cap, brown pants, a white shirt and also was bare-footed.

BIG SCAFFOLD FALLS.

A long scaffold, on which five brick masons stood while at work on the Hurst & Gibbs livery barn, collapsed this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The workmen were precipitated to a false flooring about four feet below the scaffold but escaped serious injury. All of them were more or less bruised and skinned up but their injuries were neither serious nor very painful. A large hole was knocked in the south west corner of the structure by the end of the scaffold. The accident was caused by the hod-carriers overloading the scaffold with brick and mortar.

George B. Winston, of near town, left this afternoon for Martin, where he will visit his sister, Miss Minnie Winston.

DOUBLE WEDDING TODAY.

Esq. J. T. Futrell, whose fame as a marrying squire has spread all over a dozen or more states, is again in the limelight of publicity as a result of a beautiful double wedding which he performed this morning.

The principals in this double barreled affair were T. W. Clapp and Miss Gora Champion, L. H. Basty and Miss Hettie E. Champion. The brides are sisters and the grooms are cousins.

Both couples decided to get married and it was suggested that they come to Fulton and be married with a joint ceremony. This idea was carried out this morning at 9 o'clock and latter stole away from their home last night and were met by the cousins at a rendezvous previously agreed upon. The young men had their buggies in readiness and the long drive to Fulton was begun. Tired with their long travel the two couples arrived at the office of Esq. Futrell this morning at 9 o'clock and soon afterward the double ceremony was performed.

The newly weds belong to well known and prominent Graves county families and reside near Mayfield.

After having satisfied their hunger at a cafe the happy couples started on their long ride back home to receive the parental forgiveness and congratulations of their many friends.

MEMPHIS CAR COMPANY REFUNDS

Pays Illinois Central $200,000, To Drop Suit.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 11.—A settlement has been arranged between the Illinois Central Railroad and the Memphis Car Company, whereby the latter is to pay back $200,000 of the $300,000 of what it is alleged to have defrauded the railroad in repairing freight cars.

This will be the second settlement effected since the Illinois Central began its investigation into the frauds whereby it lost more than $1,500,000.

The suit against the Memphis Car Company in the chancery court at Memphis and the bill charges that the Illinois Central, through the conspiracy of four of its former officials paid the car company approximately $300,000 in excess of the money legally due for the repair of cars. The other settlement secured by the railroad company was with the Blue Island Rolling Mills & Car Company formerly the Blue Island Car & Foundry Company. The claim against that company was for $600,000 and the settlement is said to have been with money loaned the company by one of Chicago's largest banks.

It is stated that some or all of the former officials who were implicated in the frauds have voluntarily paid back to the Illinois Central all of the money they received as their share of the conspiracy, making a grand total received by the company of about $400,000. Accordingly the former officials have returned to the company fully $180,000. This money has been paid by them, it is declared, without any promise of immunity from criminal prosecution. In nearly every case the money was returned as conscience money, as the men being conscience-stricken, according to their stories, and desiring to make all the amends in their power.

DUKEDOM.

The protracted meeting at Good Spring closed Friday after a weeks revival.

For some years a certain street of Dukedom has been called "Bachelor Avenue" on account of the many bachelor residences situated thereon; but the name is soon to be no longer appropriate since one of the most noted has already changed from bachelor to benedict. The lucky man is Will Rushing, mail carrier on route one, who has succeeded in winning the hand and affections of Mrs. Jessie Terrell, the widowed daughter of John-C. Vaughn.

Kenneth Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Parker is very sick of hay fever.

Prof. W. R. Roberts, whose home is in Texas, is here as a guest of his father John Roberts and family. Mr. Roberts is busily engaged in the making of concrete blocks with which he expects to build a new store soon.

There will be singing all day and spread dinner at Knob Creek, on the Second Sunday in this month.

John Vaughan and wife left Monday for their home in Oregon. They go by way of Chicago to visit Mrs. Vaughn's people a short while.

RED

A field of red clover,
Where bumblebees tumble
And slip and turn over
And mumble and grumble—
The blossoms drip sweetness
The dew is distilling
When to all completeness
Their petals are filling.

The morning light dances
From clover to clover;
In shimmering glances
The field it runs over.
And sweeter and cleaner
It seems to grow daily,
Its leaves flashing greener
And nodding all gaily.

The breeze runs about it
And zephyrs float after
To toss it and love it
With mystical laughter.
A field of red clover—
The reddest and rarest,
And all the world over
Of pictures the fairest.

And isn't it bent in
A marvelous pity
That children are pent in
The streets of the city?
Whose blame is the blunder
That no child runs over
This scent-tangled wonder
A field of red clover?

The blossoms are sighing
For children all sunny
To come to them flying
And suck out their honey.
The city is ponder
And here the red clover,
And thus do we blunder
Things, over and over.

A Winter's Work.

We need a great many things in this life, but at the time we need it, we need more than anything else a chunk of ice off which we may pick and remove a piece of the right size for the water pitcher. Of course, the immensely rich never cut their own ice; and sometimes they don't cut any ice at all, but that is beside the question.

Suppose the maid is having her evening out and you go to the refrigerator to get a chunk of ice to put in a pitcher of water—or in anything. You swing the ice pick and crack off a chunk. You reach for it. It watches you, and just as your fingers touch it, it slides off the main chunk and down to the bottom of the ice chamber. You reach for it, and it skips and slips and dances and dodges about, wickedly evading your fingers. Times you clutch it, when with malevolent agility it wriggles from your grasp. In the end you bring it up standing in a corner, but your sleeve is damp and soggy, your cuff is wilted and the things you have been saying are such as no self-respecting person should have said.

Ice that will not have such an icy disposition will aid much in bettering the world. Let some of our great minds work this out this winter.

Millionized Allison.
There is a garden on her hat
Where roses with green hills grow,
And eucalyptus, as to that,
With cherries of a ruddy glow—
And of it all and easily said
That all this garden I must buy.

Flowers of such amazing hue
Glorious about her bonnet brim,
And fruits Pomona never knew
(Unless she had a crazy whim)
I grasp because the price is high
Upon this garden I must buy.

Her eyes sought first the big price-mark,
Her voice then called the hat a
"dream"—
And given it the more serene
Mind is the patient husbandry
Since all this garden I must buy.

The Serpent's Cunning.
Observing that Adam maintained an optimistic disposition in spite of all the misfortunes that befell him, the serpent cogitated for a few days and then dropped around one afternoon while Adam was at work.
"Your fig leaf shirt waist," the serpent said to Eve, "is very becoming, but don't you think it would be better if it were made to fasten up the back?"

It was after this conversation that Adam began to have a heavy heart, sore fingers, and to develop a grouse.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of John D. Boaz, who died July 20, 1910, aged 36 years.
God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform. This expression comes forcibly to my mind when I think of John being snatched into eternity in the prime of life. I cannot help but marvel; we cannot understand, but some day we shall know. It is with sadness that I write of the death of dear John, while it did not come unexpectedly, it brought with it a general shock of sadness and regret. I feared, yet I hoped and prayed that he might be spared to his dear loving wife and kinsman, as the tenderest helpmeet the kindest husband, the noblest son, the most loyal brother, and truest friend. A general regret prevailed throughout the entire immense crowd of sorrowing and tearful relatives and friends that attended his funeral, expressing themselves thus: John was always such a good boy. He was so inoffensive. He always had a smile and a kind word for every body. I never saw him mad. I am so sorry he had to die. All these expressions greeted my ears. His mother said, he never gave me a cross word in his life, his father said you can say nothing bad of him.
His lovable disposition won for him a host of admiring friends who showed their love and sincerity by expressions of sympathy to the bereaved, and tears shed at the grave. His loving heartbroken wife portrayed his lovable character in all her grief as love itself. A beautiful home he made here on earth for himself and loving companion to enjoy, but alas, how vain are human plans and how evident that we should not lay up treasures on earth, but lay up treasures in Heaven for we know not how soon we too shall be cut down.

John died as he had lived, humble and submissive, never complaining, during his illness and wore a composed calm peaceful look together with a sweet smile.
And now to his dear grief stricken loved ones I would say you have been sorely smitten. "He hath given," He hath taken away." And no doubt you feel that your grief is greater than any others, but remember that whom He loveth He chasteneth and to every one according to their strength. In the presence of such trials as helpless we stand we can only bow our heads in humble submission for God's work and His presence are ever holy.

As a friend of the grief stricken ones I would offer such sympathy and comfort as human hearts can give; may you be comforted by His promises; I will never leave thee nor forsake thee. Lips that we have kissed are now faded and cold hands we have clasped are covered with mold, forms we have pressed are gone today. Gone are our loved ones, faded away. Soon will the shadows of earth, life be past, sorrows and partings be over at last and Oh, then may we meet in bright morning day; meet where our loved ones fade not away.

A FRIEND.

FULTON'S GREATEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM

Is the Fulton Commercial & Farm Journal That Circulates Throughout This Entire Section.

Only those who advertise in the Fulton Commercial & Farm Journal know its real worth as an advertising medium. Why? Because it goes into nearly every home in a radius of twenty-five miles of Fulton and is read by at least 5,000 people every week. Therefore quick results follow. The Commercial is doing more to bring trade to Fulton than all other combined sources. The Commercial is recognized by the people of the surrounding country as the best paper ever published in Fulton. It contains not only all the home news, but gives a summary of the news of the nation.

The majority of people who live in Fulton do not realize what such a paper is to the town, but if they place an advertisement in its columns they can readily see the results. Go out in the country and see for yourself how the Commercial stands in the rural districts. Call at the Commercial office on Lake street and ask for a copy of the paper and you will get twelve pages brimful of news and advertisements of Fulton's progressive merchants who have learned long ago that it was an uphill business to get the cream of trade unless they advertised their wares and let the people know when they have bargains for them.

If your advertisement is not in the Commercial that accounts for dull times around your place. Perhaps you do not have an opportunity to get up your advertisements. If that is the case let us get them up for you. Twenty years experience along that line and the constant study of advertising places us in a position to shape your advertising in an attractive way. ## LIVE STOCK SHOW GREATEST EVER

ANIMAL ARISTOCRACY WILL BE ON DRESS PARADE AT KENTUCKY STATE FAIR.

FINEST PAVILION IN THE WORLD

Races and Night Horse Show Marked by Best Entries in History of the Annual Exhibition.

From a live stock exhibit standpoint, the Kentucky State Fair of 1910, which is to be held on September 12-17 inclusive at Louisville, will surpass any similar exhibition in America. The Kentucky State Fair has already won the distinction of surpassing all other state exhibitions combined in the matter of light horses. Its collective live stock display in previous years has ranged with the best of other state fairs, and the entries for the approaching exhibition indicate that previous records are to be far surpassed.

Exhibitors at this state fair are peculiarly fortunate in having the advantage of the largest and finest display room in America for their thoroughbreds. The beautiful pavilion where in each day are given the exhibitions of blooded stock and at night the brilliant horse show and hippodrome performance, is declared to be the best and most spacious building ever erected for such purposes. All rings of horses and cattle, mules and jacks, and dogs, will be shown in the live stock pavilion. Arenas designed especially for the exhibit of swine and sheep have been erected near the barns used for these animals.

Directly associated with the live stock display are the races. This year the card is better than ever. The half mile track has already been put in splendid condition. Three trotting and pacing classes are featured for each day. The entries closed on June 1, and exceptionally fine class is assured. The prizes for these races aggregate some $600. There will be six purse races, with the purses amounting to $400. In addition, four gentlemen's road races are scheduled, two of them for amateur drivers, and one running race for each day. Entries in the purse races will close the week before the fair.

While the light horse show will appeal particularly to those interested in live stock, yet no feature of the last two fairs has proved so generally popular as this splendid display of equine aristocracy. The horse show will be given in the arena of the live stock pavilion, which has a seating capacity for thousands of spectators. The pavilion will be brilliantly illuminated, and the classes arranged are on a par with the foremost of the fall and winter horse shows.

WEALTH OF HONORS

For Exhibitors in All Classes at the Kentucky State Fair.

Special prizes of extreme attractiveness and of intrinsic value aggregating more than $5,000 will be awarded at the Kentucky State Fair during the week of September 12-17. These premiums are distinct from the $30,000 in premiums offered directly under the management of the fair, and cover a variety of honors which will be greatly sought after by exhibitors.

The long list of special premiums announced up to date includes the following: "Highland Home" cup, donated by Gay Bros., of Glasgow, for best and finest saddle-bred foal of 1910; American Saddle Horse Breeders' association trophy for registered stallions or mares 3 years old or under; the Montgomery Chief special of $125 for the finest and best stallion, mare or gelding, any age, by Montgomery Chief, offered by Ball Bros., Versailles; the Commissioner of Agriculture Saddle Horse stake, valued at $200, for best five-gaited saddle stallion, mare or gelding, 3 years old or over; the Hayes cup, offered by W. P. Hayes, of Bloomfield, for the best herd of jack stock; the American Berkshire Swine association grand silver trophy for best young herd of Berkshires exhibited by a Kentucky breeder; loving cup, valued at $50, offered by Mrs. J. W. Henning, Shelbyville, for four best Jersey cows in milk exhibited by one Kentucky owner; prizes aggregating $150 offered by the Red Poll Cattle Club of America; prizes aggregating nearly $400 offered by Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin for leading standard varieties of poultry; specials by the Southdown, Hampshire and Oxford Sheep Record association for respective exhibits of pure bred sheep; the American Jersey Cattle club for the first time offers four prizes, including two gold medals, total value $50; a special is offered by the American Angora Goat Breeders' association for the best flock of registered Angora kids; the American Duroc-Jersey Swine Breeders' association offers $50 in special prizes; the sweetstake prize of $50 for the best general collection of vegetables hung up by the Joe Denunzio Fruit company, of Louisville; the American Shorthorn Breeders' association and American Hereford Cattle Breeders' association each tenders $750 as a special prize for pure bred cattle of the respective breeds, one-half to go in general competition and one-half to cattle owned by Kentucky exhibitors; these liberal prizes are augmented by $1,000 in regular premiums set aside for these breeds by the state fair management; special prizes of $100 for Polled Durham, offered by the Polled Durham Association of America; the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' association offers $200 in specials; the Holstein-Friesian Association of America offers $100 in specials; Louisville florists will present a loving cup to the exhibitor of the best floral design; H. F. Hillenmeyer & Sons, of Lexington, offer $25 for the best exhibit of fruit grown from stock obtained from their nurseries.

In addition to the specials mentioned, there is the much coveted prize of $100 offered by the commissioner of agriculture for the best and largest display of farm, garden and orchard products from any one county. This offer last year resulted in an exhibit of great interest, and it is understood the number of counties competing this year will probably be doubled.

CHANCE FOR THE BOYS.

Prizes Offered at State Fair to Best
Judges of Live Stock.

Live stock judging by students and farmer boys will be witnessed at the Kentucky State Fair of 1910. One of the contests is open to all boys of the state. Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin offers to the farmer boys $100 to be used as a scholarship in the agricultural department of the State university for the best written judgment of horses, cattle, swine and sheep exhibits. Another set of prizes aggregating $50, will be offered to the students of the State university. The sum is divided into five premiums. These specials are intended to encourage the youth of Kentucky in the science of live stock judging.

EXPERTS AT HELM

Personnel of Kentucky State Fair Management.

Men of Experience and Energy Have Been Placed in Charge of Every Department.

With comparatively few changes, the personnel of the active management of the Kentucky State Fair of 1910 will be the same as last year. J. W. Newman, of Versailles, who has so successfully guided the fair during the past few years, will be again in charge as secretary. While the state failed to appropriate this year money greatly needed for additional buildings, yet it is believed there is no genuine embarrassment for that reason to the success of the approaching fair, and everything points to the largest and best state fair ever held south of the Ohio river. The following members of the state board of agriculture have been assigned to the departments enumerated for this year: M. C. Rankin, chairman, Frankfort; poultry, plants and flowers, live stock judging contest; M. A. Scovell, Lexington, dairy cattle, dogs; G. N. ### WHEELER FORGIVEN.

There Will Be No Split In Helena Baptist Church.

Helena, Ark., Aug. 10.—The trouble which arose in the First Baptist church of this city as the result of J. A. Wheeler, choir director of the church winning an automobile raffled in Helena last week, which was the occasion of his being classed as a gambler in the tent revival on Jefferson school campus by Evangelist Martin, has been settled by a vote of the congregation, which met at the church last night immediately after the services in the big tent. There was a large attendance at the meeting at the church.

The following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, our brother, J. A. Wheeler, has brought before this church the fact that he has won an automobile in a raffle, and

"Whereas, he confesses to the church that he has done wrong, that he is sorry for it, and promises that he will not do so any again; therefore, be it

"Resolved, first, That we as a church hereby forgive our brother.

"Resolved, second, That as we do not demand in church members who have done wrong in playing progressive euchre for prizes that they give back their prizes, but that we urge them to give up their wrong doing and let their influence be for righteousness, we have from the first and do now leave the question of ownership and disposal of the automobile to the conscience of our brother.

"Resolved, third, That we as a church assembled in conference go on record again as being unalterably opposed to gambling in all its forms.

"E. D. SOLOMON, Moderator.
"MOSE OLDEHAM, Church Clerk."

This resolution was passed by a united vote of all present and others made confession that they were as guilty or more so than their Brother Wheeler.

Ballard's Snow Liniment

Is a Healing Remedy for All Ailments of the Flesh of Man and Beast.

The speed with which this splendid liniment heals up a bad wound or sore has surprised and pleased those who were accustomed to the slower and uncertain effect of less powerful remedies. It mends the lacerated flesh so quickly that there is but little time lost from work. In relieving rheumatic pains, neuralgia, sciatica, it has done and is doing a wonderful work. Many chronic victims of these diseases have found to their great satisfaction that it cures an attack in a fraction of the time required by the ordinary treatment.

It is equally effective in the flesh ailments of animals. Owners of blooded stock value it highly for two reasons: It heals sores and wounds quickly, and leaves no disfiguring scars.

This remedy is needed in every home. If its great power and efficacy was generally known, no family would be without it.
