IN MEMORIAM

In memory of John D. Bect, who died July 20, 1895, aged 30 years. This notice is a mysterious way his friends are informed. This expression comes nearly to be a word that I think of John very often after his death. I cannot help but weep, we cannot understand, but I see that the sun will always be with us on earth for himself and his companions in heaven. I know that he will not say by our side, but that he will say, "I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

And now I see the tears stream down my cheeks, and I see the words of comfort in His words: "The Lord is with thee." If you are not a child of the Lord, you will never know the comfort of His words. The Lord is with thee.

FULTON'S GREATEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM

Throughout This Entire Year

Only those who advertise in the Fulton Commercial & Farm Journal have their goods advantageously placed. Why? Because a great joke nearly every home in a radius of 150 miles, and is read by at least 3,000 people every week. Our circulation is more than 1,000 copies per week, a fact which is confirmed by our business. We serve the people of the surrounding country as a news medium, and our advertising page is well patronized. The commercial is not only a vital necessity, but gives a necessity of the country.

The necessity of people who live in the country is not the same as in the city. They do not have the same opportunities to see newspapers. They do not have the same opportunities to have their goods advertised. Therefore, they do not have the same opportunities to sell their goods.
