DR. JACOB BEARD,

The Wonderful Magnetist in our City—

Performs Remarkable Cures—The

Testimonials of Prominent Citizens—A Chapter of Interesting Reading.

Dr. Jacob Beard has been wonderfully successful in treating all kinds of diseases in even their most malignant forms.

Some of the cures he has effected in our city will be of interest to our readers.

Mr. J. J. Austin says: I had suffered for years with my kidneys. I heard of Dr. Beard when he was in the city last winter and went to him. After treating me one time I felt myself almost entirely relieved. I know his methods are genuine and effective.

Mr. R. P. Stevens said to a reporter yesterday, that he had suffered with kidney troubles and that he was entirely cured after two visits from Dr. Beard.

He had tried every remedy under the sun and Dr. Beard was the only one that afforded him relief.

Policeman Chris. Biggers says he was suffering from rheumatic pains in his lower limbs and that Dr. Beard relieved him in two minutes. Mr. Willy also says that the Doctor relieved him of a severe pain in the back in a very short time.

Dr. Beard when in our city last winter visited Mr. George O. Thompson regularly, and his magnetic treatment has been extraordinarily beneficial to her. Mrs. Thompson says: I have suffered much with severe neuralgia and Dr. Beard entirely cured me and I have not had a return since. Also his magnetic treatment has relieved me of rheumatism and deafness. I have gained in weight since he began his treatment, and my general health is much improved.

The treatment I received at his hands also cured me completely of indigestion and I can now eat anything.

Mr. John Moayan says: I was suffering terribly with rheumatism. I had to use crutches to get about. My condition was so bad that it pained me even to laugh. Dr. Beard treated me one time and in ten minutes I could walk without crutches or pain. I consider this a remarkable cure.

The Zig-Zag Methos Employed by Mercenary

Men.

It is a notable fact that the people of Atlanta and elsewhere are beginning to be thoroughly convinced that worthless compounds become “shaky” at all new innovations, while an honest preparation never fears opposition. We do not propose to “wipe out” others, as the field of operation is large, and we accord to one and all the same privileges we enjoy. We are not so far lost to business principles as to denounce any out-righteous remedy as a fraud or imitation, or as containing a vegetable poison, the effects of which are horrible to contemplate. The alarm need not be sounded, for there is ample reason for all declining anti-poison, plus-top, stop-water compounds.

If one bottle of B. B. B. is more valuable in effects than half a dozen of any other preparation, we won't get mad about it. If ten bottles of B. B. B. cures a case of blood poison which others could not cure at all, it only proves that

B. B. B. is far the best medicine.

20,000 BOTTLES

Of B. B. B. have been sold to parties living inside of the corporation of Atlanta since it was started two years ago!

Why this wonderful sale of a new remedy in so short a time with so little advertising?

It must be confessed that it is because

B. B. B. has proven itself to possess merit in the cure of blood, skin and kidney diseases. Hundreds of home certificates attest the fact of our claim that in Atlanta and many other points B. B. B.

is “on top,” and will stay there.

Many persons desire to know how the

B. B. B. acts on the system. By entering the circulation, it modifies the violated blood globules, increases the red corpuscles, antagonizes all poison, vitalizes and regenerates the flagging forces, furnishes the system for rich, new blood, eliminates all poison through the secretions, and increases the appetite, while, by its wonderful action upon the pores of the skin, the kidneys, liver and glomerular system, all effluvia and impure matter is speedily conducted from the body, leaving the blood pure, fresh and healthy.

By its magical attractive powers, B. B. B.

unlocks the blood of all impurities, unlocks the liver, arouses all secretions, restores nature to its normal condition, unlocks the complexion, cheers the despondent, strengthens the feeble, calms the disturbed nerves, and induces quiet and peaceful slumbers. It has been in use over twenty-five years as a private prescription in the south.

It is so far-fetched, foreign-found or dream-discovered, that it is a wonder, but is a scientific and happy combination of recognized vegetable blood purifiers, effected after many years of constant use and experiment in the treatment of thousands of some of the most appalling cases of scrofulous, syph-ilitic and cutaneous blood poisons ever known in the state, resulting in complete and unparalelled cures of pronounced incurable cases.

NEW ERA

A NEW HOTEL.

A Great Necessity—We Must Have It.

If there is any one thing that Hopkinsville needs at this time it is a new hotel. This is acknowledged by all who stop to think of it. Traveling men make it a point to avoid this city on their “lay over” days because of the inadequate accommodations we offer them. The hotel is the traveling man's home, and as such he has a right to expect and demand those comforts which ought to be supplied him. Mr. Cooper as host of the Phoenix hotel has done remarkably well, in fact, in spite of the old building he has had to occupy, he has made himself popular as a hotel man and has in a measure shielded us from the game making of the public.

Besides all of this a new hotel building would add greatly to the general appearance of the city. It would be a public ornament that all of us could be proud of. As it is now, the hotel accommodations of this city are not sufficient to supply the demands of the traveling public. During our last Fair it was impossible for those who came late to secure a room. All the boarding houses were taxed to their utmost ca-capacity, and numbers were turned away to hunt up some chance acquaintance to give them a night's lodging. The same is true on any occasion when a number of strangers are attracted to our city, and we have frequently known it to be the case that on ordinary occasions every boarding house and hotel in the city was so crowded that not another guest could be accommodated. Now a new hotel with all the modern improvements would not only be a great comfort to the traveling public, but would be an inducement for people to come here. It would not only supply a pressing demand, but create a desire among traveling people to make this a point where they could stop pleasantly for a few days. The time is now at hand when this question should be taken up and canvassed until we shall have a new hotel. We therefore suggest the propriety of organizing a stock company with capital sufficient to build a first-class house. It can be done at once, if the proper effort is thrown into the enterprise. Besides it will eventually prove a paying investment and afford a fine opportunity for moneyed men to make use of their capital. A number of locations could be suggested, but the most available one in our opinion, is the site occupied by the old Central Hotel taken with the lot immediately in rear. These two together would

A STRONG HOME MARKET.

The strength of the situation of the farmers of Christian is strikingly illustrated by the comparative prices of the wheat market at Hopkinsville and at Chicago for some days past. Good wheat brings $1.00 per bushel at the Hopkinsville mills. In Chicago the great grain market of the West, wheat sold for $1.05, cents per bushel, making a difference of 5 cents in favor of farmers in the Hopkinsville market. So much for the value of a home market at the county-seat, for grain as well as for tobacco. Our farmers have now at their own doors, a better cash price for wheat than they could get at the largest grain market in the West, to say nothing of the expense of freight in taking it there. Facts speak louder than words, and the visionary theorists who have been wont to ridicule Hopkinsville as a market may now do their studying-caps and explain away the actual quotations of the day, if they can. The stubborn figures which confront their sneers are given in the commercial reports: $1.00 for a bushel of wheat in Hopkinsville against $1.05, cents a bushel in Chicago with freight deducted.

The New Era has time and again urged the farmers of Christian to sustain the home market at their county-seat by all reasonable efforts. It will put money in their purses to do so. The home market is not only worth sustaining, it is, but it is worth enlarging, for the obvious reason that whatever builds up the county-seat, builds up and enriches the county. A population of 5,000 in Hopkinsville means 3,000 consumers of breadstuffs; a population of 10,000 means just that many more consumers. The consumer at home is always of more value than one at a distance, for the reason that it is easier of approach and therefore cheaper to supply.

Here is a consideration worth the attention of immigrants also, who are seeking farms. Christian county is from four to eleven hours travel from the cities of Evansville, Nashville, Louisville, St. Louis and Chicago, having an aggregate population of more than 1,000,000 inhabitants and rapidly growing. The geographical position of Hopkinsville, the heart of a region of great agricultural mineral wealth, justifies the belief that right here will be a city equaling, in a few years, the wealth and population of the larger interior towns of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. A large capital is already on the spot, and extensive improvements have been made. Public schools and colleges make ample provision for the wants of an intelligent population. Let us all unite and pull together.

Attempted Abduction.

Mr. T. R. Bellamy arrived in the city from Henderson Sunday. About 5 o'clock in the afternoon he went to the residence of Mrs. Frank Davis, on North Main street, where his wife was visiting her mother, Mrs. Davis. His little boy, Robby, was playing in the front yard, and Bellamy walked in and seized the child with the intention of carrying him off. The boy began to scream for help, and Mrs. Bellamy, hearing his cries, rushed out to find her child struggling with his father. By force and remonstrance she finally gained possession of her boy, and Bellamy left for his home in Henderson. We understand that Bellamy was cruel to his family.

Religious Notice.

High Mass will be celebrated at the Catholic church, on Nashville street, and sermon on Sunday next at 10 o'clock A. M. Sunday School at 2 o'clock P. M. Rosary, Sermon and Benediction at 7 P. M.

Next Monday will be a Church holiday. Services at 9 A. M. and 7 P. M.

The young gentlemen of Montgomery will give a hop at the rink in that place next Friday night.

Around Town.

The Y. M. C. A. meets at the Episcopal church to night.

There were no services at the Catholic church last Sunday owing to the illness of father Fechan.

Rev. Mr. Moon is conducting an interesting revival service at Mt. Pisgah church. There have been twenty-one additions.

Mr. Fred Langston with his mother, of Chemnitz, Saxony, new immigrants, found a new home in Christian county last Saturday.

Rev. Frank J. Braun will be absent for one week to attend the Lutheran Synod that meets at Dickson, Tenn. He left this morning.

The stock show at Cadiz Friday promises to be a grand success. Already a large number of exhibitors have signified their intention of being present.

If you want the finest suit of clothes or overcoat in the market for the least money go to James Pye & Co's. Mammoth Clothing Store, under the Opera House.

Rev. L. W. Welch will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Welch has just been called to the pastorate of the church and will be a valuable addition to the pulpit workers of our city.

Mr. B. F. Hise's store at Sinking Fork was burglarized Friday night. The thieves prized open the door and secured $70 in cash and a quantity of goods.

There is no clue as to who the burglars are but a sharp watch is being kept.

Richardson's Comedy Company was greeted with full houses Saturday afternoon and evening. The little folks enjoyed the matinee to the extreme and applauded with vigor. Our next attraction will be Pat's Ross on the evening of Nov. 4th.

A colored man with a radiant face applied to Maj. Breatthill, our County Clerk, last Saturday for a marriage license. Monday evening he returned with a deep shadow of gloom hanging over his countenance. Silently he returned the license marked "no property found." The sympathetic officials inquired of him the cause of his trouble, and in melancholy tones he told them that before he could find his girl after securing his license she had changed her mind and concluded to postpone the happy event a few months. But, said he, "I'll have her yet. The very next time she gets in the notion I'm going to bring her right here and have the splicing done at once."

FORBES & BRO.'S

Success in Career in Business—Planning Milk and Wagon Factory.

M. C. Forbes began business in our city in 1877. His first venture was a blacksmith's shop on Virginia street. Two years from that time he added to his business a large lumber trade, and a year after this he began the manufacture of wagons. About this time his brother, J. K. Forbes, entered the firm, and their business continued to increase to such an extent that now they are the leading firm in Southern Kentucky in their line of business.

To give some idea of the business done by Forbes & Bro., we will give their transactions in this city alone for the past year. Since January 1st they have built about twenty houses, twelve of them dwellings, and the remaining eight business houses. Among these are the handsome store-rooms on Main street about completed for Messrs. Garner, Latham and Glass. They are also constructing a very large house for their own business on Main and Locust streets. This building is of extravagant size, 45x265 feet, with a floor space of 24,000 square feet. The rear end, fronting on Virginia street, will be used for shops, and the front, on Main street, for store rooms and office. The cost of construction of these twenty-one buildings totals the enormous sum of $250,000. The firm have also manufactured 360 wagons this year, and this, taken with their trade in buggies and agricultural implements, will run their entire business up to not less than $150,000 a year.

Forbes & Bro. also have the contract to tear down and rebuild the Mason block. This will be done at once and when completed South Main street will be ornamented with two more handsome business houses.

The Messrs. Forbes have been lucky in selecting an efficient corps of assistants. Mr. Chas. G. McDaniel has served them in the capacity of book keeper for a number of years. Mr. McDaniel is a skilled accountant and in every respect competent to control the books of such a large business.

Mr. W. A. Long is the superintendent of buildings. He makes draughts of buildings and has won his spurs as an architect by the superb design he furnished for the Latham block. Mr. Long is a gentleman of high character and valuable business experience.

Mr. W. H. Cox is foreman of the carpenter shop. He is a practical workman and gives his personal attention to the details of work done in his department. He is a gentleman, well qualified for his position.

Mr. F. F. Henderson, foreman of the planing mill, has been with the firm thirteen years. He is a gentleman of experience and intelligence and is a valuable member to his employers.

Mr. F. W. Whitlow is the foreman of the wagon works. He is a gentleman of long experience in the wagon business and has been with Forbes & Bro. six years. He thoroughly understands his trade and no man ranks higher as a workman. His experience and sagacity fit him for his position as inspector of timber and superintendent of the wagon works.

Mr. John Hayden has charge of the paint department. His skill and taste make him a highly competent man for his place.

Mr. Geo. M. Hart has control of the implement department. Mr. Hart is well known as a gentleman of superior business training and fine social qualities. He is a practical machinist, having given the subject life long study.

Forbes & Bro. also have a large planing mill in Bowling Green, managed by J. K. Forbes. The firm works in these two cities 150 men. They have been eminently and deservedly successful and have been large contributors to the commercial and social interests of our city.

A Good Woman Gone.

Mrs. Elizabeth Saffarous, of Russellville, widely known and connected in this part of the State, died near that town recently. Capt. Ben. F. Egan, of Lexington writes:

"Aunt Bette" is dead, she has laid down her head, severed ever by more than three score and ten years, never to be lifted again until Judgment Day. Now after the battle of life is ended, she sleeps by the side of her husband, "Uncle John," the best man I ever knew. She was the last survivor of the West family. One of her sisters married Capt. Joseph Miller, another married Capt. S. M. Barner, and another married Hon. Geo. D. Blakey, of Bowling Green.

A Golden Wedding.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 23d inst. has the following account of a golden wedding in which the participants were old citizens of Hopkinsville.

"On the 20th. of October, 1885, at a beautiful old country home in Albemarle county, Va., a venerable couple, the husband 75, and the wife 73, years of age, celebrated their golden wedding. They have four children—two sons and two daughters—all married. The sons, and sons-in-law, entered the Confederate army in 1861. Two as prominent officers and two as private soldiers served with credit until the close of the war. These good old people now have thirteen grandchildren, and, with the exception of a number of their immediate family, all their children are living and rejoice in the celebration of the golden wedding.

"Fifty years of exemplary married life, full of loving kindness, usefulness and piety, is seldom experienced. The remarkable couple are Thomas Montjoy Buck, and Catharine Watkins Buck, the parents of Samuel H. Buck, late Director General of the World's Exposition, and now Postmaster of New Orleans; and of Charles H. Buck, Chief of installation of the North, Central and South American Exposition.

"May they live long in the enjoyment of health and happiness!"

A Medley From Crofton.

CROFTON, KY., Oct. 26, '85.

Editor New Era:

A statement of the chivalric step was found near Mannington last week. From appearances it had just been stripped from the wrecker. To whom it belonged of course is not known.

Rev. D. W. Galloway, of the Christian Church, preached here last Sunday for Rev. Mr. Farrer, who is sick. Well, Bro. G. had "business" here any way.

Manners of religious worship, like everything else, undergo a change or improvement. I am not sure, however, but what the old fashioned log-school-house, split-bench, "fine the stanza" mode of worship contained about the same amount of pure religion that the more advanced and stylish system of the present day does.

Mr. R. W. Wilkerson was shaking hands with his many friends here yesterday.

In dissecting a man recently, the students of a medical college found a remarkably small heart. Whether it belonged to a back-driver or a government clerk at ten dollars a week salary is still a matter of excited discussion among them.

The Croftonians who have read your snake story swallow every grain of it without reasoning by incredulity, as they have most of them found nearly as many in their boots at times.

A tramp with a very dirty pouch of red calico, which, when inflated, gave about as much music as is produced by sawing the splitter of a fence rail with a dull knife, did our town last week.

Rev. Sam Jones says some very witty things, but the idea that an eight-dollar-a-month and board-around preacher here that he can imitate Sam's style snatches somewhat of indelicacy.

The merchants here are doing a much business this season as they have ever done any season since our town originated.

Operative markets opened weak but advanced during the day and closed at the highest point with indications of a still further advance.

Hopkinsville market is lower today, wheat only bringing 45 cts. The decline in controlling centres and more anxiety on part of farmers to sell has depressed prices.

Things to Do and to Know.

Exclusive wheat farming is as disastrous as exclusive cotton or tobacco farming.

In making pumpkin pies, it improves them greatly to add a small quantity of cinnamon and sugar.

Lima beans ripen very late. They are better gathered before they are quite ripe, and left to dry out in a cool place.

It is enough for farmers to lose their hogs by cholera, without being swindled by the wicked peddlers of hog cholera cures.

Lay up this month a supply of road dust for the hens. Dry earth is the best of all fertilizers when used in sufficient quantities. So before the first rains come on, fill any old package with the winter's stock of road dust, to be had for the cost of gathering.

A Stranger Sight in the Sky.

Portland, Me. Press.

A singular spectacle was observed in the heavens yesterday morning about 4:30 o'clock. First there was a brilliant flash and then a tongue of flame shot out horizontally some fifteen or twenty feet, as it seemed. This flame seemed to the beholder to be about two feet in diameter at one end and tapered to a bright star at the other. The comet, as it were, was very brilliant for about a quarter of a minute, then it gradually faded away, and as it disappeared four rockets shot out from this point in many directions. The air was very clear all this time, and the heavens were dotted with innumerable stars.
