Workers Staging Air Tight Battle

It is a strange coincidence, something unusual in an affair of this kind, but each of the leading candidates in The News Weekly Payroll subscription campaign benefited so equally during the "Period" just closed that without close figuring, could this week's leader be determined.

It might be interesting to the public to know that this is one of the closest races by far, that the manager has had for some time. The difference in some of the standings is represented by a mere handful of long term subscriptions. The competition therefore, insofar as the relative standing of the leading workers are concerned, is just about where it was prior to Saturday night. Hence the battle for supremacy will be fought out during the "Second Period" which terminates on Saturday night, July 13th.

Real Test To Come

It is in you to win if you will.

48 Have Filed For City-County Office

The time for filing declaration papers with Miss Effie Bruer, County Court Clerk, at Hickman, Thursday at midnight, and all office seekers must file by that time. So far as the News was able to check just prior to going to press, 48 lodged intention papers, with the clerk.

The list of candidates continue to grow almost daily as the race for city and county offices grow hotter and as the eve of election approaches nearer, predictions and wagers increase sharply.

THE PIPE LINE

FROM HEAVEN

Rev Gus Klein, who is preaching heart-searching sermons to increasing crowds at the Mt. Moriah Methodist open air meeting, will deliver his famous and powerful sermon "The Pipe Line From Heaven," at the 11 a. m. service next Sunday morning.

Services are being conducted daily at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. and crowds are attending from surrounding communities in increasing numbers. All congregations of the Fulton circuit are especially invited to attend.

WEED CUTTING

CAMPAIGN ON IN FULTON

Work has been going on through out the city for the past week cutting campaign. All alleys and vacant lots are being cleared off of weeds, and property owners throughout for health's sake, sanitation and Fulton have been asked to cut weeds beautification.

Amos Colley Seeks Seat of Police Judge Of Fulton

The News is authorized in this issue to announce the candidacy of J. A. (Amos) Colley for the office of police judge, subject to the action of the Democratic primary of August 5, 1933.

Mr. Colley needs no introduction to the people of Fulton, for he has been active in public affairs for a number of years. "Amos" as he is familiarly known, has spent his life in this community, and numbers his friends by his acquaintances. He is the manager of the Fall & Colley Farm Insurance Agency.

He has served eight years on the city council of Fulton, the last four of which he has been chairman of the finance committee, which is one of the most important committees on the council. His experience in this capacity makes him thoroughly conversant with all city business.

As is generally known, councilman serves for practically no pay, and Mr. Colley has always been ready to do his full share of community work. He has served on Chambers of Commerce committees, and has been active in road development. For years he has desired the improvement of the Dukedom road

MAYOR-COUNCIL TO MAKE OFFICIAL AN- NOUNCEMENT TODAY

Two New Members File For Council; Other Four Chairs Sought By Old Members

According to the latest political dope, it seems that Mayor Paul DeMyer will make the race for reelection unopposed, while four old members of the city council seek chairs in the councilmanic chambers, and two new names have been added to the city ticket to replace those vacated by two retiring councilmen.

Mayor Paul DeMyer and councilmen T. T. Boaz, T. H. Irby, L. S. Phillips and Clint Reed are seeking re-election. Councilman Hannephin has declined to run, while Council Colley has retired from the council to make the race for city police judge. With the latter two councilmen out of the running, W. P. Murrell and Albert Smith have filed notification papers declaring their intention to make the race for a place on the council.

So, up to date, only one candidate for mayor, and six men seek seats on the council. In other words, only one candidate for each berth, and unless others file by midnight, July 6, the city offices will be automatically filled by the applicants who will be given certificates of nomination.

It is needless to hold an election, incur the expense of printing ballots, if these men are unopposed it is stated.

Those seeking seats on the city council have served the following number of years on previous councils: L. S. Phillips, 25 years; W. P. Murrell, 22 years; T. T. Boaz, 4 years; T. H. Irby, 4 years; Clint Reed, 4 years; Albert Smith, 4 years. It is interesting to note that the total number of years in service on the council is 63 years, and these years of experience should be worth while in dealing with problems to be faced by the incoming council.

The city has a difficult problem in the electric franchise, formerly held for 20 years by the Kentucky Utilities. Some satisfactory contract with the utility company will have to be reached, or a municipal plant for coal built to obtain lower rates for consumers of electricity in Fulton, Mayor DeMyer has pointed out. Preliminary steps in the investigation of the cost of construction and operation of a city-owned plant is already under way in an effort to bring about lower electric rates.

PARTY RETURNS FROM FAIR

Mrs. Jessie L. Fleming and daughter, Virginia, and Mrs. Sam Butler have returned from a visit with friends in St. Louis, Springfield, Ill and Chicago, where they attended the World's Fair.

What The Fair Means To This Section

The Fulton County Fair has played an important and vital part in the development of the agricultural life of this section—perhaps far more than the average person might realize. Those who remember as far back as 1911 when this territory had no fair—will recollect that this section was without a gathering place for exhibition of the livestock, poultry, farmer's products. Then little interest was taken of livestock, poultry and produce.

With the organization of the fair in 1911, and by promotion of better livestock, poultry, produce, etc., through the offering of premiums on these projects to the farmers of this section, interest and enthusiasm has gradually and surely grown and expanded.

The fair has always been a meeting place for the people of this territory, where they gather to display and take pride in their products. Each year when the fair opens people flock to Fulton by the thousands, and fair week is always a gala homecoming event in which there is much interest far and near.

People of five counties eagerly look forward to the fair here, and large crowds from Graves, Hickman, Obion and Weakley counties journey to the Fulton county fair. In reality the fair has come to mean more and more to this section, and today it is a very important phase of community life.

Now with conditions improving generally, with the spirit and confidence of the people swiftly increasing, the fair this year will doubtless enjoy a larger patronage than has been customary during the recent years of depression. Already inquiries have begun to come into The News office seeking information about the fair, and interest in the annual exposition is mounting higher and higher.

Fair officials should hasten through the organization of plans and schedules, and set in motion a full share of supervised publicity for the fair. Advertising and publicity is the life blood of business—and the fair is certainly a business project of supreme importance to the rural and commercial life of this section. The Fulton county fair is the only fair in this territory, and serves as a drawing card throughout West Kentucky and West Tennessee.

Prepare yourself now to attend the fair this year. Your friends will be here, too.

Talks Bad To Lady; Is Shot For Answer

Lying on his stomach in a nearby "jungle" is at least one tramp who will have ample time to improve his manner of addressing ladies while he waits for that part of his anatomy that nature gave him to sit on to heal from the wounds inflicted when the shot from a gun in the hands of Wayman Hall tore through his flesh, after ripping away the "south side" of his trousers.

The tramp came to the porch on which Mrs. W. A. Hall and her son Wayman were sitting and asked for food. "I have plenty of food for a laboring man," Mrs. Hall told him. He mumbled something and she repeated the statement, whereupon the tramp made a remark to her that was insulting. "I have an answer for that," said Wayman and let the intruder have a dose from the shot gun he went into the house and procured.

The next day a man came to the home of T. H. Evans and asked for a pail of water. Mr. Evans gave him the water and told him not to make a fire down there where he was camped. Later on Evans figured he had best go and see what was going on, and found the man who had called for the water washing a man who was huffing of flesh wounds on what corresponded to the spot where young Hall had aimed his shot gun. It is presumed that it was the man who had become sassy when addressing Mrs. Hall.

It is hoped that he devotes some of his time to improving his manners while waiting for his wound to heal.

Mrs. Edgar Bell and son, Eddie G. visited home folks in Big Chitty, Ky., last Saturday. Eddie Gene will remain for a few weeks.

Jordan Man Attempts Suicide; Is Very Low

—BULLETIN—

At press time today (Thursday) a report from the bedside of Mr. Bondurant was to the effect that his condition was extremely critical and that he was not expected to live.

Warren Bondurant, son of Benny Bondurant of the Jordan neighborhood, and nephew of D. E. Bondurant of Fulton, is in a critical condition as a result of an attempt at suicide made on the street in Union City near the David Crockett hotel shortly after 11 o'clock Sunday night.

The attempt to take his life was made by firing a shotgun charge into his left chest. The shot tore away the upper muscle of his left arm, severed the large vein of that arm, entered his chest and penetrated his lung. He lost blood freely and was given a blood transfusion. Physicians held out hope for his recovery but amputation of his arms is likely necessary.

He was in Union City on a business visit with J. C. McRee for whom he operates a farm. Mr. McRee said Mr. Bondurant seemed perfectly normal, and was greatly surprised when he learned of the act. Leaving the McRee home Mr. Bondurant where he wrote a letter to his wife and daughter, and this note was found on the dash board of his car parked on the south side of the hotel.

He shot himself standing near the car, and the shotgun when picked up was found broken in three places. It is believed that Mr. Bondurant had been worried over the condition of his health, and his attempt at suicide is attributed to this worry.

Are You A Quitter

IS YOUR WISHBONE WHERE YOUR BACKBONE SHOULD BE?

CANDIDATES—YOU WILL SURELY HAVE TO WORK FROM NOW ON AS THERE ARE BUT 15 WORKING DAYS LEFT.

'Supposin' fish don't bite at first—
What are you going to do?
Throw down your pole, chuck out your bait,
And say your fishin' is through?
You bet you ain't—You're goin' to fish
'N fish 'n fish, 'n wait,
Until you've Ketched a basketful,
'N fish 'n fish 'n wait.
Suppose success don't come at first—
What are you goin' to do,
Throw up the sponge and kick yourself,
'N growl and fret and stew?
You bet you ain't—You're goin' to fish,
You'll bait 'n bait again,
Until success will bite your hook,
For grit is sure to win.

For convenience, candidates will be listed alphabetically and the following is not the rotation in which they stand. The position of each worker is shown by the votes listed below.

BRANSFORD, Mrs. Leon, Route 2, Crutchfield	754,000
BUTTS, Miss Leola, Fulton	672,000
HART, Miss Mary, Fulton	670,000
HAGAN, Mrs. J. L., Fulton	588,300
HOWELL, Mrs. Marie, Crutchfield	856,400
HOWARD, Mrs. Clyde, Rt. 3, Fulton	857,900
MARLIN, Miss Nedra, Fulton	859,400

The above is simply comparative of the achievements of each candidate in the race up to last Saturday night, and does not mean to say that these are the grand totals of the different workers.

County Fair May Have Dog Show

FULTON GETS BREAK

Buster Shuck, manager of the local Warner Theatre, announces this week the appearance here of "The Gold Diggers," Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 9-10-11. Warners and Mr. Shuck are to be commended for booking this elaborate musical production at the Fulton theater, which is the first Kentucky town to play "The Gold Diggers" of 1933.

A telegram from the Louisville office indicates how difficult it was to obtain a picture of this type.

"After considerable effort. We finally got New York to okay."

"Gold Diggers" dates as follows: Fulton on July 9-10-11.

Fulton is the first Kentucky town to play Gold Diggers and you can not begin to imagine how difficult it was to secure these play dates for you."

ERNEST BERNINGER

MEMBER OF BAND

Ernest Berninger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Berninger of this city is now a member of the 60-piece concert band at the Wainwright Camps near LaGrange, Ind., where he is studying saxophone under Bert Carlson, formerly of the Detroit Symphony.

Walter E. Sheaffer, former assistant conductor of Sousa's and Pryor's bands, but now head of the department of instrumental music at the University of Florida, is directing the concert band. The band is scheduled to make appearances in a number of towns in Indiana and Michigan, including a series of concerts at the Winona Lake resort, summer home of Billy Sunday, evangelist.

A DIRTY IRISH TRICK

"IF YOU ASK ME"

Maybe John Parrott cut and cleaned out a fence row to get bean poles for his garden just for "setting up exercises." At least it appears that way now.

One day this week Mr. Parrott worked all the morning in a sweltering sun, piled up his bean poles, and went to the house for dinner. After noon he returned for his bean poles only to find that somebody had "swiped" them while he was at "chow."

That Fulton county may have a dog show seems highly probable at this time. So many inquiries have come to J. W. Gordon, president of the Fulton County Fair association with regard to dogs that he has expressed a willingness to open a dog division if he is assured enough entries. "The Fair Board will be glad to foster a bench show," Mr. Gordon said, "and suitable premiums will be provided if sufficient entries are made."

There are many fine dogs in the five counties to be represented at the fair. Bird dogs, collies, shepherds, German Police, besides the many pure bred house dogs. Dog

Council Will Seek Municipal Plant

Mayor DeMyer and the city council met in regular monthly session at the city hall Monday night. After all routine business had been transacted a discussion of the electric and power and franchise for the city of Fulton. E. C. Hardesty, manager of the local Kentucky Utilities company, was present at the meeting.

But after a lengthy discussion of the franchise the controversy between the utility company and the city dads seemed no nearer solution than ever. A resolution was read and adopted which authorized the light committee of the city council to employ an attorney to represent the city in the franchise parley.

Mayor DeMyer and the council favor construction of a municipal plant in Fulton, it is stated. Two methods of raising money for such a plant have been discussed; one through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and another by the issuance of improvement or revenue bonds against the plant. Both of these plans will be gone into thoroughly, and if either of these can be worked out, Fulton will operate its own light plant in conjunction with the city owned water works.

FOURTH OF JULY

QUIET IN FULTON

No patriotic celebration marked the Fourth of July in Fulton. Except for the fact that the post office, bank and most business places were closed, it was just another day. However, Fulton is looking forward to the Fair to be held here this year, when crowds will attend from five counties in this section.

Paul DeMyer Asks Support For Another Term as Mayor

TO THE VOTERS OF FULTON:

As I have told many of you in personal conversation, in asking for another term as Mayor of the City of Fulton I am not going to waste a lot of your time and mine in pinning bouquets on myself for the past, nor blowing a lot of bubbles for the future. You have had four years of my brand of government and you know exactly what to expect should you honor me with another administration.

While I can point with a great deal of honest pride to the achievements of the administration just closing, particularly to the fact that not only have we kept the city out of debt, but, what is greater, we have actually paid a lot of old debts left over from other administrations, yet I take it that you who vote are well aware of this and I am afraid that constant harping on it may be regarded as personal bragging.

As a matter of fact, I want to say that I have had the aid and assistance of as fine a city council as any mayor ever had to work with. Each and every one of them are conscientious, honorable, hard-working gentlemen and I want to thank them publicly for the wonderful things they have done for the betterment of Fulton. The same may be said of every officer of the city. The judiciary, the police and the firemen, health officers, city clerk and all employees—each has done his part—and I want the city to know that no administration can properly function without 100 per cent cooperation of all aides and employees. This I have had. The civic clubs and the churches. The business men and the laborers. All have helped me wonderfully and for this I am thankful.

Getting down to brass tacks, I don't mind telling you that there are a few important projects that I would like to have the pleasure of completing. Much of the past four years, buried in the financial depression; have been devoted to keeping the out-go within the bounds of the in-come. Now that the city is running smoothly and now that the bonded indebtedness of the city is so arranged that it will be paid off at regular intervals by means of a carefully graduated budget, I feel that during the next four years I can utilize some of the things I have learned in the past four years and devote a lot more time toward the promotion of some of the projects I would like to present for your approval. I assure you that they are for your community betterment.

In conclusion allow me to say that it has been a real pleasure to serve you. I feel that I have been highly honored. I love Fulton and every man, woman and child in it. I think it is the best city of its class in the state of Kentucky. I want to do some more for it. In the light of the past I base the future. If, in your judgment, I merit another term as your chief executive I will do in the future as I have done in the past—give you the best administration that is in me. In the light of the past I solicit your vote and your political consideration.

Cordially,
PAUL DEMYER, Mayor.

EQUALIZATION BOARD—
THANKLESS BUT IMPORTANT
TASK

Every person who has had experience thereon will vouch for the statement that Equalization Board membership constitutes a thankless but an important task. No American community could exist without such a board. To allow the tax assessor free reign in making tax schedules would be asking too much of human nature. While assessors are, for the most part, men of unimpeachable integrity, yet there is always a chance that some foot might slip; some temptation prove too grave; some error of calculation be made and the Board of Equalization has been provided by our forefathers to act as a safety valve against all of the pits into which an assessor might stumble.

Then, too, the Board of Equalization, sits as a board of review, seeing to it that rates are adequate to defray expenses, yet conservative enough to prevent extravagance, and, better than all the rest, to see to it that all property is taxed fair and equal.

But the men who do the work—ah, there's no easy task. This one wants his taxes lowered or his neighbor's taxes raised. This one thinks it is too much, the other thinks it too small. The matter of often times results in personal animosities and as for the assessor he's damned if he does and damned if he doesn't to the end that his position is far from a pleasant one. Those who are public spirited enough to accept the post offered them by the chief executive should be commended. Messrs Jim Stone, J. W. Hackett and Kelly Woods who will serve in this capacity this year in Fulton have a thankless job, but The News wants them to know that thinking people regard it as an important one, and it is to be hoped that no unpleasant circumstance arises to discourage them.

THE SALES TAX AND THE DANGERS THEREOF.

We have read column after column in which the sales tax has been reviewed from every angle. We have read it up and we have read it down crosswise, sideways and through the middle, and the more we read of it the more we are convinced that it is nothing but a lot of high-powered propaganda calculated to create a few more hundred jobs in an already payroll top-heavy commonwealth. We are opposed to it. Hurdy-gurdy side-shows have no place in a stable government, and the man who owns the land will have to pay the taxes in the final analysis under whatever other name you are of mind to call it.

Were it possible under our scheme of government to take off every tax on every thing save INCOME we would agree to it, but it can't be done. Were it possible to take off every tax on everything but real estate we would agree to it, but it can't be done. Were it possible to take off every tax on everything but merchandise sold at retail we would be for it, but it can't be done. We would be for any form of single tax ever dreamed of by any single taxer, be it land, money or commodity, because then the system of book keeping, assessing and collecting would be simplified and the payroll of the tax department reduced to a minimum, but there will always be a little tax on real estate and a little tax on money and a little tax on everything under the shining sun of the spreading heavens, and the smaller the items you name to be taxed in the retail stores the greater becomes the conglomeration in the tax department and the more political parasites there will be added to the payroll of the commonwealth.

Sales tax advocates say that in the sales tax the negro and the poor whites would then pay a tax, too. Sure they would, but the state that would try to pay off its indebtedness and keep going on the two dollars worth of groceries the negro would buy while allowing the land of the white employer go scot free would be busier than a one-armed paper-hanger with the seven year itch and all the merchants in the state would go crazy trying to keep books on it, too.

It's a pretty dream, boys, an elegant dream; a dream we wish could come true. But it can't. Listen: The thing for those people at Frankfort to do is to get down to brass tacks and run this state for the benefit of the people, and when they begin this little thing the taxes will reduce themselves and the people will have the money to pay them with.

Kentucky farmers are not foolish enough to think the day will ever come when they will not have to pay taxes on their property. The thing Kentucky farmers want is for state officials to quit dreaming and go to work.

FULTON CONTRACTORS
GIVEN ROAD CONTRACTS

McDade and McDade of this city were awarded the contract for the grade and drain of 4.704 miles of road in Fulton County at a recent letting by the State Highway Department.

The contract is on the New Madrid road. C. M. pipe for entrance and R. F. pipe for cross drainage is specified to be used. The McDade bid of $12,115.50 was considered the best by the department.

Deeds for the right-of-way of the Murray-Fulton highway have been received by the Highway Department and are now in the hands of the engineers.

FRANK S. KNOUSE DIES
IN DALLAS, TEXAS

Friends in Fulton have received a message announcing the death of Frank S. Knouse which occurred in Dallas, Tex., June 26th. Mr. Knouse was well known in Fulton, having been Express Agent here for many years, prior to leaving for Texas 19 years ago.

Mr. Knouse is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Frances Hooker of Dallas, Mrs. Knouse having passed away several years ago.

Think It Over

BY THE MEDITATOR

If You Like This Column Tell Us.

OUR GOLDEN OPPORTUNITIES

Our great men do not come from the high classes. Too often the sons and daughters of the wealthy, who are reared in mansions, have access to the luxuries of life, are given many educational opportunities, develop not into great men and women. After knowing no hardship while young, when they develop into manhood and womanhood if they are confronted by perplexing problems and the complexities of life, they often fail. Why? because they have had no training in meeting and solving problems that require determination and perseverance to overcome.

It is needless to refer to history to show that the men whose names are listed among the great are come from the lowly walks of life. From among the girls and boys being reared in common environment today will become the leaders of tomorrow. He who grasps opportunities as they come and takes advantage of every chance to prepare himself for greater tasks will accomplish most in life and best serve his fellowmen. We make mistakes if we grumble because of hardships, for these really prepare us for the greater battles of life. We read of someone suddenly becoming famous "overnight," but behind the accomplishment was a struggle, preparation and a long uphill fight. It takes much preparation, considerable training, development of skill, in fact, our best with purpose and determination to reach the heights.

Around us all are opportunities to serve. Clear as the not from a bugle comes the call to place upon our shoulders the mantle of responsibility and go forth to accomplish that which will be helpful to all with whom we come in contact.

Service to our fellow man is the one thing that brings happiness. And when we come to cross the wintry sea of death, we can launch unafraid into the tide which carries the soul to the eternal shore if we have the guidance of Him who was born in a manger, walked to Galilean hills with lowly persons, suffered upon a criminal's cross, which was the central event of all time.

PRISONERS SCARCE—
BOAZ GIVES A REASON

"It takes money to buy whiskey," is the reason given by Constable Walter Boaz for the scarcity of prisoners at the city and county jail. "Whiskey causes most of the disturbances and if they can't get it they can't disturb," he said as he walked up the street.

Utility Fought For Union City Plant

Gained Control of Press in Futile
Effort to Buy at Low Price,
Engineer Says

By Forrest Allen

Revelation of the manner in which powerful utility interests sought to undermine sentiment of Union City, Tenn., in order to effect a purchase of the municipally owned light plant was made for the first time recently to Press-Scimitar.

C. H. Jenks, consulting and supervising engineer and Union City plant manager, bared the facts in this attempted deal, he said, in order to show other Tri-States cities the sort of opposition the utilities put up.

"During 1924," Jenks writes, "a utility representative visited Union City, obtained the co-operation of a prominent business man for a promised consideration of $10,000 should the deal go thru.

Balked Hasty Sale

"After getting control of the local press," Jenks charges, "the utility man undertook to buy the municipally owned light plant for $132,000, or less than the physical worth agreeing also to give the city $5,000 for liquidating a contract with me for the remodeling of the plant train under way.

"Since I was out of town, I was not consulted as the city engineer, but on my return the mayor requested me to attend a special board meeting called for an open consideration of the proposition.

"I immediately declared to the board that the sale was against the city's interest and the deal was not completed that night," Jenks relates, "all one of the most bitter and relentless fights followed, in which an attempt was made in turn to cajole, bluff or buy at any price.

"They attempted to buy at my own price and informed me that my services would be worth a whole lot of money and that they expected to and would pay me accordingly.

Public Aroused

"When that failed, an effort was made to intimidate and finally vilify and discredit me in the eyes of the public using full page advertisements, prepared by irresponsible parties and published over the name of a non-existent organization," Jenks relates.

"When the public learned the truth, it turned against the sale and a majority of those who signed a petition to sell, signed a contrary one later on and the board refused to sell.

"Every possible pressure was then ineffectually brought to bear against each alderman, hoping to secure a majority who would vote the sale regardless of public opinion against it.

Worked in Legislature

"That was followed by the secret introduction of a bill in the state Legislature to change the form of the municipal government to that of commissioners, who were named in the bill to take office forthwith and who were under pledge to sell the plant.

"Undoubtedly the bill would have been passed in that form but for Sam Bratton. It was finally passed, but provided for an election of the commissioners to take office on the expiration of the mayor's and aldermen's terms," Jenks related.

The city engineer then went on to tell of the attempts of the utility interests to get pro-utility commissioners elected, but stated that today the government of the city would not attempt to sell, and "should they attempt anything of the sort there would be a public uprising against it."

Finally Offered $500,000

"I have in my possession here in Union City reliable evidence sustaining every material fact I have stated," Jenks declared.

The utility's first offer of $132,000 was followed by one of $500,000, Jenks said. Since the plant showed a net earning of $250,000 in the six years between 1926 and 1931, he said, giving the plant a minimum value to the city of $1,000,000.

YUM! YUM! YUM—WAS IT
BEER OR WATERMELON

"Why is it that your mouth always waters when you look at it?" she asked her escort as they gazed into the show window at Lowe's Cafe the other evening.

"Why, I didn't know you liked it," he said.

"Like it, why man, I could run all over a hundred acre farm looking for it and enjoy it without a bit of ice," she said.

"Well, come on in; I'll treat," he said.

"Watermelon," he gasped when she placed her order. "Why, I thought you were looking at the beer in the window."

So he took beer and she took watermelon and the waiter took a tip, and they lived happy ever after even unto this day.

"The Old Mill Wheels Are Turning"

Perhaps it is just as well to look on the bright side. For every dark cloud has a silver lining. The darkness is rapidly disappearing, and the silver is returning to the surface, from where it has been hidden. And after we have passed over the rough places, we will be wiser and richer in experience.

As time rolls on people still live on. One of the necessities of life is bread. For 25 years Browder's Mill has been supplying the people of Fulton, and the surrounding community with flour of the highest quality, striving at all times to supply the people with the very best flour that modern machinery and skilled millers can produce.

"Gold Diggers of '33" Makes State Debut Here Sunday

Is Super Spectacle Of All Time OK Wins First Half; Second Under Way

New Musical Drama Tops Anything Ever Yet Produced

THEY'VE done it again! Warner Bros., who took the amusement world by storm some months ago with their sensational success called "42nd Street," have come forward with a new accomplishment even greater in scope and promise.

It is "Gold Diggers of 1933" superspectacle of all time, which opens Sunday with a three day run at the Orpheum Theatre and which thrilled its first audiences into wild acclaim. It is a daring challenge to those who believe they have seen everything, heard everything that the screen has to offer! It is as different as it is spectacular; as entertaining as it is breath-taking. It is amusement spelled its first audiences into wild acclaim. It is new! It is beautiful! It is not to be missed by anybody—for any reason.

Garnished with the greatest 'show' ever screened, thanks to the amazing ingenuity and ability of Busby Berkeley, whose choruses helped make "42nd Street" memorable, "Gold Diggers of 1933" is the story of the personalities and problems behind the planning and staging of a Broadway success. It is not just a "back stage" show. It is the story of the lives and loves of the people back of the back stage scenes and of their struggles and triumphs and disappointments.

The brilliance of the cast assembled by Warner Bros. for this picture is a fair gauge of its extraordinary entertainment value. There is Warren William, ordinarily starring in his own pictures, heading the cast. There is Joan Blondell, also a star in her own right and the four Gold Digger show girls who set out to 'work' a couple of fans with the release of her first picture, "42nd Street."

Joan Blondell, Ruby Keeler, Aline MacMahon and Ginger Rogers are Ruby Keeler, who jumped over night into the hearts of the movie every possible luxury.

Headed by these three names, the cast reads as follows: Dick Powell, Aline MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Ginger Rogers, Ned Sparks and Tammany Young. The picture is an adaptation of an Avery Hopwood play with Erwin Gelsey and James Seymour credited with the adaptation. Music and lyrics are by Harry Warren and Al Dubin.

MAN KNOWN HERE DROPS DEAD IN TEXAS

Word came to Mrs. G. E. Bowlin of the Ryan Hotel that her brother-in-law, Arthur Bowlin had dropped dead of heart failure while visiting in Houston, Texas, and Mrs. Bowlin went to Jackson, Tenn., where interment was made.

Deceased was a brother of the late G. E. Bowlin of Fulton and was at the time of his death general agent for a large insurance company with headquarters in the E. B. Building at Memphis. He was survived by his widow and two children besides many brothers and sisters.

LAUNDRYMEN PLAN OWN SCHEDULE TO PRESENT UNCLE SAM

Fulton laundrymen who attended the meeting at Louisville last week, while up in the air as just what the code will be, nevertheless are planning to make every effort to have a schedule worked out to present to the government when the reconditioning agents reach the laundry workers. This industry is 10th on the list to be revamped in the matter of wages paid and hour worked and it is thought by those interested, (although no laundryman has said so) that the operation of the preceding industries will have money more plentiful so that it will be an easy matter to adjust prices to meet the new labor conditions.

The laundrymen are patriotically taking an interest in the matter that is commendable, it is pointed out. "Every washwoman is a direct competitor of the laundry," one businessman was heard to say, "and their expense is light, their taxes nil and their working hours their own." The investment made by the laundry is not a consideration because the investment is what enables one laundry worker to do the work of ten hand laundrywomen. It is a different adjustment to make, but Fulton people are sure their laundrymen will help themselves and other laundrymen in the state to reach some equitable conclusion.

KNOB CREEK CELEBRATES HUNDRETH ANNIVERSARY

In commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of the Knob Creek Church of Christ of near Dukedom, a homecoming day will be held there Sunday, July 9th. There will be three services during the day, with preaching conducted by Evangelist Charlie Taylor of St. Marys, W. Va. Dinner will be served on the ground at noon. Everybody is invited, and a special invitation is extended to all old members of this congregation.

Mrs. Joe S. Maxwell and daughter Mary were visiting in Louisville last week. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rogers of Ashville, N. C., and the latter's mother, Mrs. Dickson of Union City, were visitors in the city Monday.

O K LAUNDRY WINS OVER DALTON AND COPS PENANT

One can say that O K Laundry won the first pennant and still one can say they 'lucked' it out. But as for the News, we say they won it in fine fashion. The boys were constantly fighting and fighting hard to win it. Truly they won some of their games when the breaks went their way but there is not a team in the league that can't say that. They all had breaks for and against them. But that all goes in baseball. The O K Boys were winners. We congratulate them. No teams on the grounds had a more peppier manager than "Dutch" Owen and that is mostly what put them on top. Dutch was always out there fighting and pushing his boys for all that was in them and any time a team can have that sort of a manager you can easily say and see that they will be either on top at the end or somewhere near.

The second half opened last night (Thursday) with Dalton Cleaners facing Fulton Ice Co., for the afternoon game and Diamond D-X facing Ky. Util. Co., for the night game.

The second half promises much more enthusiasm and fight than the first for the fact that all teams are in line fighting for the top position. Who will win? We can't say, but we can safely say that the team that does win will have to fight harder than they did in the first half. Why? Because every single club in the league wants a shot at O K Laundry in the playoff, which will be played beginning August 24.

We pick two clubs to be up there at the end of the second half and they are White Way Service Boys from Tennessee side and Warner Brothers Theatre. Both have strong teams and if they put out all they have they will be hard to beat. One will also have to look up to the boys from the Fulton Ice Co., as they were up and fighting all during the first half. Also much trouble can be looked for from Swift although they did not fare so well in the first half. K. U. has warned every team in the league to "Watch Us" so you had better do it. Dalton Cleaners will have a much better lineup this half as well as Diamond D-X.

HOW FIRST HALF ENDED

Team	W	L	Pct.
O K Laundry	10	3	.768
White Way	9	5	.642
Fulton Ice Co.	8	6	.571
Warner Bros.	7	7	.500
Diamond D-X	6	8	.428
Ky. Util.	6	8	.428
Swift Plant	5	8	.385
Dalton Cleaners	3	11	.214

GAMES OF JULY 7 TO 13

July 10—Afternoon, White Way vs Dalton Cleaners. Night, Fulton Ice Co. vs Diamond D-X.

July 11—Afternoon, O K Laundry vs Ky. Util. Co. Night, Swift vs Warner Bros.

July 13—Afternoon, Swift Plant vs White Way. Night, O K Laundry vs Warner Bros.

FULTON INDEPENDENTS WIN OVER CLINTON BY SCORE 15-3

Fulton Independents finally got back into play Sunday afternoon when they had as their menu Clinton. They smacked their lips on the Clinton boys until they enjoyed a feast of 15-3. Milster on the mound for Fulton was never in trouble letting the Clinton lads eat out of his hand all afternoon.

OBION COUNTY TAX RATE REMAINS $1.40

UNION CITY—The Obion county quarterly court in session Monday fixed the tax rate for 1933 at $1.40, the same as last year, and rescinded the action of the April term of court cutting $1,000 from the appropriation of the county health unit, thus guaranteeing continuance of that organization here.

The rate remains the same as that of last year and is distributed as follows: County purpose, .20; Elementary schools, .50; High schools, .20; Bonds and interest, .20; Roads, .28; County farm, .02.

A tax of $12.50 per year was placed on beer distributors in the county.

OBION SIGNS COTTON QUOTA

It is estimated that Obion county has signed for one third of the quota assigned that county for cotton acreage reduction, with over 2,000 acres to be taken out of cultivation. The acreage set for abandonment in Obion county was 6900.

L. A. Downs* says:

There has recently been some improvement in the business of the Illinois Central System, and the same is true of other railroads. Of course, this means that more business is being done generally.

There is no reason now apparent why this improvement should not continue. If it does, as everyone hopes it will, the railroads will naturally share in it. Not only will their traffic and earnings be favorably affected, but they will be enabled to add impetus to the business revival by increasing their employment, payrolls and purchases.

We never have hard times when railroads are able to spend money freely.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

Fair Story

lovers everywhere would come to the fair for this one exhibit and while here would be attracted to the many other features in which the country around Fulton excels. There never has been a dog show and the innovation has great possibilities.

The horses are to be here, that much is certain. This coupled with the entertainment features and the exhibit of farm products and fancy work will be greater than ever this year.

The Poultry Show this year promises to be better than ever before. Miss Mary Johnston, superintendent of the Poultry division already is whipping together owners of prize flocks. She is making an extensive drive to get the coops full and the people started in picking their prize birds. "Now is the time," she says, County Fair.

"to take the first steps to getting the flocks ready for the fair. Examine them for lice and every other disqualification. Watch for sprigs, stubs, broken feathers, split wings, etc. Feed them milk to condition them," she advises. "Give the birds you intend to exhibit extra feed and extra care for at least three weeks before the fair. Then wash them carefully, being sure to rinse the soap off. Rinse them in strong bluing water if are white chickens. After washing their head and feet thoroughly a mixture of alcohol and sweet oil, half and half, is good to rub on their combs and legs."

Miss Johnston's telephone number is 876 and she will be glad to give you ever personal assistance in getting your flock ready for the exhibition pens if you desire her help. The thing is commence now and help make the poultry exhibit at the fair this year the very best that ever has been shown in any of the five counties represented at the Great Fulton County Fair.

Interest Mounting As Contest Gets Hotter And Votes Continue Rising

This is the FINAL test. These are the days of resourcefulness. Here is where your courage upholds you and makes you fight, or like of it takes the stiffness out of your knees and leaves you trailing in the dust. Sometimes your supreme courage urges you on even when you tire, that is the greatest fight of all. The liveliest part of the campaign is now at hand, and while the workers are virtually on the same footing, those who want to and WILL are offered the opportunity of foregoing to the front with a commanding lead. THE REAL TEST OF CHARACTER IS YET TO COME.

Better Be Safe Than Sorry
A few more laps and the race will have been run. Only a short time remains to decide between victory and defeat—success or failure. Do NOT OVERLOOK A SINGLE OPPORTUNITY TO WIN.

—Avail yourself of the opportunity this "Penic" affords. Think and plan constantly for ins of success. Figure always to win, and always remember that your adversaries as keen and resourceful as yourself, are racking some acute brains for the same purpose. It means something to win in a competition of this kind. It is a demonstration of capacity that is extraordinary. It proves the "Yellow" in your bogus friends but it also reveals the true ones, and it tests your mettle and measures your strength. From now on until the finish is the time when 100 per cent efficiency counts.

Time Almost Up
The campaign is now a little better than half over to be exact just fourteen working days remain. The time for WISHING has passed and the workers must now settle down to work, putting forth real effort each day. The friends of the workers must remember that there will be no delay in closing the campaign when the hour arrives and if they fail to make good their promises they will have done their part to DISAPPOINT their favorite.

There is plenty of hard work yet to be done. Nothing worth while is easily attained, and that rule applies to a race of this nature. The Auto will be won by the candidate that overcomes the numerous obstacles encountered in any conquest. THE WINNER WILL BE THE ONE WHO STICKS AND WORKS CONTINUALLY.

RICEVILLE MAN CELEBRATES HIS 80TH BIRTHDAY WHILE HIS CHILDREN MAKE GAY

Monday, June 26, 1933 will be a day that will be forever remembered by members of the J. V. Carver family of Riceville. On that day Mr. Carver celebrated his 80th birthday and his children and his children's children came to the home to help him enjoy the event.

Mrs. Carver smiled in the great joy of the occasion and the children enjoyed a home-coming such as is allotted to but mighty few families. Sons and daughters there included: Mrs. Dick Thompson, Mrs. Charles Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Carver. Grandchildren there were: Mrs. Fred Gannon, Mrs. Dudley Mencham, Mrs. Ewin Bard, Miss Ewan Herring, Mrs. Earlene Davis, Neal, Billy, Roy and Jerry Carver. Great grandchildren there were Birdie Sue and Dick Mencham and Joyce Bard.

Illinois Central System Shows Big Gains In June

Illinois Central Passenger trains have been packed and jammed to a comfortable capacity lately and more than one section of almost every through train is now necessary to handle the passenger traffic north bound and, of course, "all that goes up is bound to come down" so the south bound trains also have a good business. Two and three sections of Nos. 10, 2 and 4 have been run lately with Century of Progress passengers and that swells the ticket office of stations at points south of Fulton. Right here business is good, too.

While figures submitted by Illinois Central Agent C. R. Collins are for the periods prior to this great increase in traffic these figures themselves make interesting reading. For instance, passenger revenue from the Fulton office increased during the first 27 days of June, 65 per cent over the revenue in the same period in May, and 31.7 per cent of the first 27 days of June last year.

Cars handled in the Fulton yards of the Illinois Central reached the surprising total of 58,197 during the first 26 days of June as against 40,750 during the same period in June, 1932. This increase of 17,447 cars looks good to Fulton because it certainly is criterion of other business. These cars handle something that somebody has manufactured, raised or purchased and to figure back to the point of origin all the contents of the thousands of cars that come through Fulton would make an interesting story and require many columns to describe. Full dinner pails and the house rent paid is the chorus to the song, however, and that is what Fulton is pulling for.

Courage and determination to do always carries the day for those who never know the meaning of the word can't.

Hill-Wisemann Wedding

One of the most beautiful and outstanding weddings of the season was performed Friday afternoon at five thirty at the Methodist church of this city, when Miss Grace Hill became the bride of Mr. Glenn Wiseman. The ceremony was said by Rev. G. C. Fain, pastor of the church.

Altar was decorated with ferns and tall floor baskets of lilies and lighted with tall white cathedral tapers. Presiding the ceremony Miss Sarah Butt softly played for her first number the "First Movement of the Unfinished Symphony" by Schubert. Mrs. Verna Pierce cousin of the bride, sweetly sang "At Dawning" and "Until." "The Bridal Song" from Lohengrin was played for the processional. During the ceremony Miss Butt softly played "Amour Conquert." Mendelssohn wedding march was played for the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal dress of white satin. The gown fitted closely with cone neck and long sleeves puffed at the top. The tight fitting skirt flared slightly at the bottom touching the floor and the long train was adjusted at the waist. Her veil was of bridal illusion with a cap of draped chiffon clasped to her hair with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Miss Mary Hill, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Her dress was yellow organdy and she wore a blue picture hat and blue slippers and carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lillian Wade of this city and Miss Muriel Young of Chicago. Miss Wade's dress was of blue organdy and net with pink accessories, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses tied with blue. Miss Young's dress was of green organdy and net. She wore a pink picture hat and carried pink rose buds tied with green.

Little Barbara Askew was the flower girl and wore a long pink ruffled organdy dress trimmed in blue, with a blue and pink bouquet. She carried a basket of sweet pea petals which she scattered in front of the bride. The miniature was little Ann Holman. She wore a white satin wedding dress and veil, and carried a small bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. Little Read Holland was ring bearer and wore a white linen suit with a white rose boutonniere.

Mr. Wiseman's best man was his brother, James Wiseman. Dink Hill, brother of the bride, and Edwin Slaughter of Memphis were the ushers. They wore dark suits with white boutonnieres. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hill, parents of the bride, entertained with a buffet supper after which Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman left for the World's Fair and other places of interest. Mrs. Wiseman's traveling dress was of brown and white crepe with brown accessories.

Byrd-Ross Wedding

The marriage of Miss Sara Magdalen Byrd, daughter of Mrs. Verna Byrd of near Fulton, and Harmon

Ross, son of Mrs. Ida Ross of Murray, Ky., was quietly solemnized Friday morning, June 30, at the home of the bride.

The bride and groom entered to strain of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. Marie Howell. The ring ceremony was impressively read by the Rev. Joe Gardner of Lone Oak, Ky. Miss Rachel Byrd attended her sister as maid of honor and William Graham of Murray, Ky., served as best man.

The living room was beautifully decorated with basket of blue larkspur and daisies with huge ferns forming the background of the bridal altar.

The bride wore a white taffeta gown cut on empire lines and crystals were the only jewels. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds. Miss Rachel Byrd wore a white crepe frock and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

After the ceremony dinner was served to the guests by the bride's mother. Among those present were John M. Byrd of Anadarko, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Oits Howard of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Wrenn Bellew, Mrs. Fred Worth and Ira Little of Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross will attend the World's Fair at Chicago on their honeymoon and after July 10 will be at home to their many friends at Murray, Ky.
