JUDGE P. SIMPSON.

Judge P. Simpson, head of the police court of Murray for 16 years, was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, October 25, 1835. He moved with his parents to west Kentucky in [illegible], first locating in Christian county then in Ballard. Mr. Simpson moved to Murray in 1852. Recognizing his worth, the citizen selects him to the length by popular vote, a place he has filled nearly ever since, with credit to himself and honor to the community.

Now serving his second term as Mayor of Murray was born on a farm near Coldwater, Calloway county, lately in 1867. He is a son of W. L. Hughes. Like nearly everybody else in Murray, Mr. Hughes was reared on a farm and received his education in the common schools. Mr. Hughes was married in 1872 to Miss Margaret Radford, daughter of the late J. S. Radford. They have five children, all girls.

They moved to Murray about twelve years ago and, Mr. Hughes accepted a place in the Bank of Murray, and for several years he has held the place of assistant cashier and is also a director in that old reliable institution. Mr. Hughes is very popular especially with the active young men and with the business men of the town who do things. As mayor he has always stood for progress and his energy and influence has been given toward the improvement of the town. He stands for a greater and better Murray and is his greatest administration ends we believe that there will be great improvement of utilities in the town.

GUS NIX.

Gus Nix, city marshal of Murray, was born on a farm in Calloway county 33 years ago. He is a son of Myers and Bettie Groogan Nix. He served as deputy sheriff under Edwards and Holland and was elected marshal in 1908 which position he fills to the satisfaction of everybody. He attends to his duties without bluster or noise without favor or fear.

Mr. Nix was married 10 years ago to Miss Atlantic Liles. He is a brother of Edith Nix, Mrs. Roberta Nix, and Mrs. Wisher. He comes of a family long prominent in the affairs of Calloway. Mr. Nix is a member of the K. O. W. He is least modest in the work of handling the unruly element.
The regular monthly meeting of the J. W. William's chapter L. D. C. will be held with Miss Mary Williams on Friday evening Jan. 12 at 7 o'clock. All members are urged to be present as business of importance will be discussed.

JUDGE P. SIMPSON.

Judge P. Simpson, head of the police court at Murray for 16 years, was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, October 20, 1838. He moved with his parents to west Kentucky in 1845 first locating in Crittenden county then to Barren. Mr. Simpson moved to Murray in 1852. Recognizing his worth the citizens soon elected him to the bench by their vote in a sea of France. Here is a man who looks ahead and finds out what he talks about.

Oak Ridge Stock Farm.

JUDGING FROM progress no man deserves so much credit for his contribution to the county as Mr. Henry Bible, head stockman on the farm run by T. J. Bible, west of Murray. Mr. Bible takes the best Shropshire breed of sheep in the state. His farm is well managed. Others acquire good, pure Shropshire blood stock. At the present time Mr. Bible has some of the best in the state. He also raises a fine lot of Poland China hogs. The barns on the farm are large and commodious. Mr. Bible is one of the largest stockmen in the county, and he is doing a good business.

The farm is well managed and has a fine kind of stock. The farm has made so much progress in the last five years that it is now the envy of the county. The farm is well managed and has a fine kind of stock. The farm has made so much progress in the last five years that it is now the envy of the county.

HERMAN O. BISHOP.

Mr. Bishop, a farmer in the vicinity of Murray, is well known and has a fine farm. He is a good stockman and has a fine lot of stock. He is a good manager and has a good farm. He is a good manager and has a good farm. He is a good manager and has a good farm.

C. A. SINGLETON, Editor Hazel News.

The subject of this sketch is a typical Calloway boy, having been born and reared on the west side of the county. At an early age he took up the profession of teaching and followed this vocation for four years, being awarded the principalship of one of the best schools of this and Graves county.

In the fall of 1902 he, together with his brother, purchased the Hazel News from Perry Molenaar and has since devoted his time principally to newspaper work. In the summer of 1906 he leased his Hazel post-office and migrated to New Mexico, where he was given a position as a city reporter for the Golden Record published in Las Cruces, finding employment at a paper in Silver City and Graves county.

JOHN G. LOVETT, Attorney, of Benton, Ky. "Conscionability."

In the spring of 1865 he assumed the management of the Hazel News. By a close application to business, and having the local support of the people of his town and community, he has built up a splendid patronage for his paper.

S. Higgins' Old Reliable Jewelry Store.

In 1906, Mr. S. Higgins opened his first jewelry store in Murray and opened up another store in Paducah. He was also a member of the police force in Murray. He passed away in 1912, but his reputation for honesty and integrity continued even after his death. Under his leadership, the store expanded, and in 1909, the store moved to a larger location in Murray.

Mr. Higgins' jewelry store was not just about selling jewelry, but about providing the best customer service. He was known for his fairness and integrity, and his reputation spread throughout Kentucky. In the 19th century, when there was no regulation of jewelry stores, his presence was regarded as a refreshing change.

Mr. Higgins was a member of the B.P.O.E. and the Odd Fellows. His store was located at the corner of Main and Market streets. He was a keen horse racing enthusiast and was regarded as the greatest jeweler in the county. He was also known for his generosity, donating a large amount of money to the Christian Church and supporting the local schools.

In 1910, Mr. Higgins sold the store to his son, who continued the tradition of honesty and integrity. The store became known as S. Higgins' Old Reliable Jewelry Store.

WE desire to thank our friends for the liberal patronage given us during 1910, and to say that it is our intention to merit your further patronage and good will through 1911, by showing dependable goods, correct styles and right prices.
