happily married to Mrs. Edith C. Wells. They have one daughter, Mrs. Lee M. Barker.

Wells has made no move toward the county's affairs, but has remained within his own circle of friends and acquaintances. He is a Democrat, a member of the First Presbyterian Church, and has served on the board of directors of the Calloway County Bank. He is an active member of the local Rotary Club and the Masonic Lodge.

Wells has always been a consistent supporter of the Democratic Party, and has been active in local politics. He has served on the school board and has been a member of the Board of Education for many years. He is a member of the Calloway County Bar Association and has been actively involved in local legal affairs.

Wells has always been known for his integrity and honesty. He has served as a justice of the peace and as a county commissioner, and has been a respected member of the local community. He is a man of few words, but his actions speak for themselves.

In conclusion, A. J. G. Wells is a man of integrity and honor, who has served his community with distinction. He is a man of few words, but his actions speak for themselves. He is a man who has always been a consistent supporter of the Democratic Party, and has been active in local politics. He is a man who has always been known for his integrity and honesty.
Judge C. H. Bush, of Hopkinsville, was born in Montgomery county, Tennessee, and came to Kentucky with his parents at the age of seven and has lived in Christian county nearly all his life. He read law and was licensed to practice in Paducah, Kentucky, and located in Hopkinsville in 1881 and has been unusually successful in the practice of his profession, in both civil and criminal business. Judge Bush has been twice married. His family consists of a wife and five children, three of whom are grown, one deceased, and two yet in school. Judge Bush is regarded as one of the ablest lawyers in the state and has been connected with many celebrated cases. He has never engaged in politics to any extent, though he made the case for Circuit Judge in 1908 against Judge T. W. Prater, of Hopkinsville.

C. O. Gingles
Physician and Surgeon

JAMES BREATHITT, Attorney General.

Born Sept. 4, 1852 at Hopkinsville, Christian County, Kentucky, is a son of John William and Catherine A. Breathitt. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia from a long line of distinguished attorneys. His father was a prominent Kentuckian farmer and merchant, grandson of James Breathitt of Logan County Kentucky, well known attorney in his day. James Breathitt was educated in the common schools of Hopkinsville and Christian county and took a law degree from the University of Kentucky in 1877. Before graduating he had been pleasant to the important office of judge, Deputy Sheriff and Deputy County Clerk of Christian county. Shortly after he returned from the University he was presented to the important office of Circuit Judge, which he held for many years with great success. He was elected Circuit Judge of the Second Judicial District in 1874 at the annexed term of Judge John H. Grace. He later succeeded Judge Breathitt in the same office.

W. P. Dulaney, Druggist

General Merchant and Undertaker

Kirksey, Kentucky

W. P. Dulaney is a Postmaster and Postmistress. He believes in work hard and as it requires he will do it.
JUDGE S. P. SIMPSON.

Judge S. Simpson, head of the police court of Murray for 16 years, was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, October 25, 1835. He moved with his parents to western Kentucky at 16, first locating in Christian county then in Ballard. Mr. Simpson moved to Murray in 1852. Recognizing his worth the citizens selected him to the length by popular vote, a place he has filled nearly twenty years, with credit to himself and honor to the community.

E. A. HUGHES, MAYOR.

Now serving his second term as Mayor of Murray was born on a farm near Cadiz, Calloway county, Kentucky. He is a son of W. L. Hughes. Like everybody else in Murray Mr. Hughes was reared on a farm and received his education in the common schools. Mr. Hughes was married in 1846 to Miss Margaret Radford, daughter of the late J. M. Radford. They have five children, all girls. They moved to Murray about twelve years ago and, Mr. Hughes accepted a place in the Bank of Murray, and for several years he has held the place of assistant cashier, and is also a director in that old reliable institution. Mr. Hughes is very popular especially with the active young men, and with the business men of the town. As mayor he has always stood for promptness and his energy and influence has been given toward the advancement of the town. He stands for a better and better Murray, and as his greatest administrator and we believe that there will be great improvement of public utilities in the town.

GUS NIX.

Gus Nix, city marshal of Murray, was born on a farm in Calloway county 33 years ago. He is a son of Myres and Bettie Groogan Nix. He served as deputy sheriff under Edwards and Holland and was elected marshal in 1908 which position he has filled to the satisfaction of everybody. He attends to his duties without bluster or noise, without fear or favor. Mr. Nix was married ten years ago to Miss Alice Rhee. He is a brother of Enoch Nix, Mrs. Robert and Mrs. Wisher. He comes of a family long prominent in the affairs of Calloway. Mr. Nix is a member of the W. O. W. He is most noted in the work of handling the unruly element.

A. S. BROOKS.

A. S. Brooks, deputy marshal of Murray, is a son of John and Sarah Brooks. He was born in Calloway county Dec. 24, 1867 and reared on a farm. He was married Nov. 12, 1888 to Miss Chlo Morris. They have two children, Clyde a grown son, and Miss Rexie. Mr. Brooks served as deputy sheriff under J. M. Radford and deputy assessor with Bert Peterson. He was elected deputy marshal by the city council of Murray in 1901. He has been a native of Murray for seven years and no man stands higher in the estimation of the people. He has made a faithful official in the positions he has occupied.
JOHN AND PERRY MELDON
Publishers of the Calloway County Gazette.

Calloway County Gazette
Melton Bros. Publishing Co.

JOHN M. MELDON, EDITOR
PERRY MELDON, BUSINESS MANAGER

ὺe monthly meeting of the J. N. Williams chapter L. C. T. will be held with Miss Mary Wil- bolns on Friday evening Jan. 13 at 7:30. The members are urged to be present as business of important will be discussed.

Rev. W. T. HOLLY.
(Humboldt Chronicle)
Rev. W. T. Holly left last week for their new work at Mur- ray, Ky. Rev. Holly has been pas- tor of the M. E. Church South, here for three years, and while here, he and his wife have made many warm friends who will always have a warm place in their hearts for them. Rev. Holly was not only a good preacher, but was a good husband and father. He died Feb. 2.

The cover page from showing a itself on progress of Kentucky is typical of other States. Both the story from the soil and the language to the people is improved form and great progress. This cut was designed by Mr. Thacker.

MELDON
This men's wear is a brand new edition of Mr. Thacker.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Holly left last week for their new work at Mur- ray, Ky. Rev. Holly has been pas- tor of the M. E. Church South, here for three years, and while here, he and his wife have made many warm friends who will always have a warm place in their hearts for them. Rev. Holly was not only a good preacher, but was a good husband and father. He died Feb. 2.
Oak Ridge Stock Farm.

City Official

JUDGE P. SIMPSON.

Judge P. Simpson, head of the police court of Murray for 16 years, was born in Shelby County, Kentucky, October 21, 1836. He learned his trades in Kentucky in 1845 from locating in Owsley county then in Barren. Mr. Simpson moved to Murray in 1859. Recognizing his worth the citizens soon elected him to the bench by fair means. Here is a man of judgment.

![Image of a man standing in a field with a horse and a dog]

DOE'S 1 SIMPSON.

Mr. J. S. Simpson, son of Judge P. Simpson, was raised on a farm south of Murray. His father had been a farmer and storekeeper, and Mr. Simpson had a small store in Murray. He first went to college, but afterward decided to enter the publishing business. He is now the owner of the Daily News, and his store is located on the main street of Murray. He is a man of considerable business ability.

![Image of a horse and a dog]

HERMAN O. DUGGER.

Mr. J. S. Dugger, a native of Murray, is a well-known farmer and stock raiser. He has raised a fine stock of horses and cattle, and is doing a thriving business. He is also interested in the flourishing lumber industry, having established a sawmill on the banks of the Cumberland River. Mr. Dugger is a man of energy and resource, and is doing a good business.

![Image of a man standing in a field with a horse and a dog]

INTERIOR OF THE DUGGER STORE.

The interior of the Dugger store, located on the main street of Murray, is a well-stocked and well-kept place. The store is well-lit, and the goods are displayed in an attractive manner. Mr. Dugger is a man of business, and the store is doing a thriving business.

![Image of a horse and a dog]

SHROPSHIRE SHEEP.

POLAND CHINA HOGS.
I. Chrisman

Newton Chrisman was born at Potortown, Jan. 11, 1879. Having completed his education he located himself in business with his father at Potortown and later at Hazel. He was a partner in the wholesale grocery business and is now manager of a big store and hotel company, which has extensive interests in Marshall and Calloway counties.

Mr. Chrisman is a thoroughbred progressive business man. He takes an interest in the development of the county and around good feeling, and has a host of friends who regard him as being a positive character as also has a few occasional enemies.

He is a man of high business capacity, and over the able and energetic business he has been of valuable servicio. He is a good fellow, and has a hunch of friends who swear by him.

In his business and political life Mr. Chrisman has been a Democrat. He is now the chairman of the Democratic County Association of Calloway and has been of valuable service in the party. It is a thankless and expensive job and Mr. Chrisman says that that does not in the least discourage him, as he has a fine taste for both.

Mr. Chrisman is a member of the Methodist Church and of the Shiloh Lodge, and is a member of the Shiloh Masonic Lodge and the Shiloh Odd Fellows Lodge.

He is a happy, healthy, and merry man, and is as active as child.
City Men Who Uplifted of Their Race.

JUDGE P. SIMPSON
Judge P. Simpson, head of the police court of Murray for 16 years, was born in Webster county, Kentucky, October 25, 1839. He moved with his parents to west Kentucky in 1840. First, he worked in the Christian County then in Clay county. Mr. Simpson moved to Murray in 1852. Recognizing the needs of the citizens, he agreed to go to work for the police force. He was a well-respected man.

W. C. SHOFFNER
A native of Hollow Rock, Ten. He attended the public schools of Franklin, Kentucky, and graduated at Roger Williams University. He married Erly L. Oglesby of Federickville, Ten. The couple has two children. Mr. Shoffner has been an active member of the colored school board. He is a member of the Murray Colored Masonic Lodge No. 116 and has been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for years. He is a member of the church.

W. A. L. HARCOCK
Another progressive colored man who is much admired by his race. He has a large grocery store in Murray.

J. W. GOOFL
Pastor of the A. M. E. Church in Murray, Caldwell county, Ky. Born, Oct. 15, 1861, in Pittsburg, Pittsburgh county, Miss. He was educated in a public school in his native city. He moved to Kentucky in 1876 for the purpose of being near his father and was educated in a private school. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge and several other fraternal orders. He is a father of two children. He is a member of the A. M. E. Church in Murray.

ANDREW ROWLETT
Another progressive colored man in Murray who is much admired by his race and has the confidence of the white citizens of Murray.

GALEN GROGAN
Galen Grogan was born in Murray July 17, 1879. He learned the blacksmith trade under John H. Thompson, a famous smith, in 1888 and has since been in the trade. He is a member of the A. M. E. Church and is a member of the Masonic Lodge. He is a member of the Grand Masonic Lodge.

COLORED MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

COLORED SCHOOL BUILDING.
The subject of this sketch is a native of Calloway county, having been born and reared in the southeast part of the county. At an early age he took up the profession of teaching and followed this occupation for four years, being principal of some of the best schools of this county and Graves county.

In the summer of 1908 he took his position and returned to Hazel to assume the management of the Hazel News. By a close application to business and having the local support of the people of his town and county, he has built up a splendid reputation for his paper.

C. A. SINGLETON, Editor Hazel News.

The Cash Grocer
He peddles and delivers

GROCERIES
He buys and sells the best grade of

GROCERIES
He carries a ready stock of

GROCERIES
He keeps his goods in good condition.

Good Reasons for

BUYING GROCERIES
from

L. E. OWEN
The Cash Grocer

The subject of this sketch is a native of Calloway county, having been born and reared in the southeast part of the county. At an early age he took up the profession of teaching and followed this occupation for four years, being principal of some of the best schools of this county and Graves county.

In the summer of 1908 he took his position and returned to Hazel to assume the management of the Hazel News. By a close application to business and having the local support of the people of his town and county, he has built up a splendid reputation for his paper.

C. A. SINGLETON, Editor Hazel News.

The Cash Grocer
He peddles and delivers

GROCERIES
He buys and sells the best grade of

GROCERIES
He carries a ready stock of

GROCERIES
He keeps his goods in good condition.

Good Reasons for

BUYING GROCERIES
from

L. E. OWEN
The Cash Grocer

The subject of this sketch is a native of Calloway county, having been born and reared in the southeast part of the county. At an early age he took up the profession of teaching and followed this occupation for four years, being principal of some of the best schools of this county and Graves county.

In the summer of 1908 he took his position and returned to Hazel to assume the management of the Hazel News. By a close application to business and having the local support of the people of his town and county, he has built up a splendid reputation for his paper.

C. A. SINGLETON, Editor Hazel News.
In 1908, J. Higgins, the son of Judge F. E. Higgins, moved from his home in Kentucky, to Murray and opened up a small store. He was a man of many hobbies and interests, and he was always ready to talk about the area. He was a perfectionist in his work, and he was noted for his honesty and integrity. He was a man who believed in hard work and dedication, and he was always willing to put in extra effort to get the job done.

The store, called J. Higgins' Old Reliable Jewelry Store, was situated in the heart of Murray, on a main street. It was a small store, but it was well-stocked with a variety of items, from fine jewelry to watches and clocks. Higgins was a man of many talents, and he was respected in the community for his knowledge of the trade.

We desire to thank our friends for the liberal patronage given us during 1910, and to say that it is our intention to merit your further patronage and good will through 1911, by showing dependable goods, correct styles and right prices.

Make our store your shopping place.

With best wishes for a prosperous year.

Yours for good values,

E. B. HOLLAND & CO.

WEAR'S
DRUG STORE

We take great pleasure in sending to our many friends their bi-weekly magazine, THE BEST OF THAT.

And are better prepared than ever to care for All Business

We desire to thank our friends for the liberal patronage given us during 1910, and to say that it is our intention to merit your further patronage and good will through 1911, by showing dependable goods, correct styles and right prices.

Make our store your shopping place.

With best wishes for a prosperous year.

Yours for good values,

E. B. HOLLAND & CO.

Nothing But Insurance

THE BEST OF THAT

M. D. HOLTON

MURRAY, KY.
Calloway's Best Product.