Murray State University

Honors Day Program

3:30 p.m. Friday
May 8, 1981
University Center Ballroom

Murray State University

Office of the President
Murray, Ky. 42071 (502) 762-3763

Welcome to the Honors Day ceremonies for 1981.
No other event typifies a university's reason to be more than this one.

The students receiving awards today have in common a record of dedication and achievement at Murray State.
Their work serves as an example for all students and makes our work more worthwhile.

As the University continues to move towards true academic excellence, Honors Day is an opportunity to recognize students who are helping to reach this goal.
For them, and for Murray State, today is time to savor the past and anticipate the future.

With warm regards,

Constantine W. Curtis

President's Welcome

Murray State University

Murray, Ky. 42071

Dear Parents and Friends,

As the elected representative of the students, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Murray State University.

Today, we will be honoring those students who have been chosen the most outstanding in their fields. Not only do these awards represent superior individual achievement, but they also represent the continuing development of Murray State University.

It is most befitting that we welcome you, parents and friends of The Honorees; for through you, many of these young men and women have been afforded the opportunity and freedom to search for and achieve this excellence at Murray State University.

We are most gratified to you for your presence today and we covet your continued interest and support.

Sincerely,

Terry Clark, President
