Rev. W. L. Nourse received a telegram last Wednesday evening to come to Rockport, Ind., his old home, to preach the funeral of a son of Judge Runkhart, of that place. He left on the next train after receipt of the news, the Judge being an old and close friend of his. The Judge's son was almost instantly killed by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of one of the Eastern colleges, where he was attending, and the news of his death, consequently, came upon his parents with almost crushing effect.

Attempted Burglary.

A bold and daring but unsuccessful attempt was made to burglarize the residence of Mr. T. M. Edmondson on north Main, by two tramps Tuesday night. They entered the front gate and seeing the hallway clear walked in and passed into three rooms. The family were in the rear of the building. The tramp on hearing the approach of one of the family started out upon the lattice porch and concealed himself in the darkness. One of the young ladies had occasion to go out in that direction and discovered one of the tramps in the act of opening the door leading into the dining room, evidently bent on food. They quickly made their exit without giving satisfactory answers for their presence.

The Hop.

The top Wednesday night was not as largely attended as was expected, but it was a most pleasant affair. A number of ladies and gentlemen from a distance were present and these added to the dancing belles and good band, of our city, made the company quite select. The music was good and the festivities were continued till a late hour. The following are some of the costumes noted:

Miss Hattie Bryan, golden brown silk; Miss Valschinger, Franklin, Ky., cream satin, front hand-painted with white roses; Miss Mammie Henry, costume black broadcloth silk, ornaments and roses; Miss Louie Pennington, Pomona, orange satin, red trimmings; Miss Emma Wheeler, county, red cashmere, white lace over dress; Miss Rose Steinhilber, red velvet, blue ornaments, camos; Miss Cammie Martin, pink abito, white chemise front; Miss Johnnie Mills, broad satin; Miss Maggie Fairleigh, cream nun's veil, scarlet trimmings and roses; Miss Fannie Fairleigh, crimson silk; Miss Lizzie Wadsworth, wide broadcloth silk, in-train, pearl ornaments.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT LAFAYETTE.

W. T. Walker shot White Resisting Arrest by M. M. Hanberry.

Thursday morning deputy sheriff M. M. Hanberry left the city for Lafayette with two warrants of arrest for W. T. Walker.

Walker was arrested by Hanberry here from Trigg county and was one of the Lord crew and the other for Trigg.

Hanberry reached Lafayette about 9 o'clock. He announced Mr. Sam B. Hester to assist him in making the arrest, and the two proceeded to the furniture store of Mr. John Bayham, where they understood Walker to be.

Walker has a movable photograph gallery and usually does his business in a room at Lafayette, he had rented a room at Walker's store for the night.

They entered the store, Hester remaining in the front room while Hanberry went into the back room where Walker and several other gentlemen were engaged in measuring a cask.

He called to Walker and asked him to step into the front room as he wanted to see him. When they got in the front room Hanberry placed him in the front room and placed him in the front room.

Hanberry wanted to know where the warrants were. He called to Walker and asked him to step into the front room as he wanted to see him.
