THE BENTON TRIBUNE.

VOL. III.

BENTON, KY., THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1891.

STAN WARTS
No. 377

Secretary Blaine will be the leader of the republican party in 1892. Mr. Harrison will have to stir the boys in blue or he will get left with his republican party. He is not so popular with his party as most people have thought. He has, ever since he took the chair of the presidency, occupied a cool place in the hearts of his republican allies. The republican party would prefer Blaine, but will vote for Harrison if he is nominated.

We place at our mast head this week, the name of John W. Ogilvie as the democratic standard bearer of the democratic party for state senator. In doing so we are confident the people are presented with a gentleman in every respect worthy of their support. He is a farmer whose sympathies are with the working people; he is a poor man and needs the emoluments of the office; he is a christian, of undisputed integrity, and whose influences in the senate as well as at home will have a beneficial effect upon the members of that body. He is now and has always been a staunch democrat, and still believes in the principles of that party; he is a man of firmness, and when he takes a position on any question, he can be depended upon as solid as the rock of Gibraltar. He served the people of this senatorial district, one term in the state senate. He was faithful to his trust, and never forgot the interest of his constituents, and if he is elected this time he will still be found a friend to the people. Can a democrat be found who would fail to support such a true democrat as Mr. Ogilvie. During all of these long years of oppressive rule by the republican party, he has been ever found in the front rank of the party that champions the cause of honest government. Democrats if there ever was a time when you are needed at your post of duty it is now. There are three candidates in the field for senator. One the nominee of the democratic party, one the nominee of the people's party, and the other an independent—Ogilvie, Graham and Penn.

When a vote is given for John Ogilvie it is given for a man who, for fifty years, has been the same, politically. He is the same man in that respect, to-day that he has ever been. When a man has such a record as this, is it any wonder that the people have so much confidence in him. His constituents need have no fears of his being one thing to-day and another to-morrow. A man of this character is the kind of a man that can be relied upon.

It was such qualities that kept Webster, Otis, Clinton, Adams, Pinkney, Randolph, Calhoun and others in public life so long. This cannot be said of Mr. Penn or Graham. Both have been in the democratic party and are now out of it. They now belong to the people's party, yet until recently they claimed to be good democrats. But in 1883 Dr. Graham dodged and did not vote for state senator notwithstanding good democrats were before the people. In 1884 he voted for a prohibitionist, against such democrats as C. H. Starks and E. Barry. This was in a sheriff's race. He also voted for a republican for magistrate against such a democrat as J. J. Dupriest. In 1889 he could not vote for such a good democrat as Stephen G. Sharp, the regular democratic nominee for state treasurer, but voted for Alfred Cobb, the prohibition candidate. Does this look like he was a democrat in 1881 and 1883 he voted for a call of a constitutional convention and in 1885 he voted against the call. In 1890 he refused to vote for W. H. Yost for superior judge when he was a candidate without opposition, but because he was a democrat he could not vote for him. At the same election he did not vote for W. W. Longmoore, the democratic nominee for clerk of the court of appeals. If he was not an enemy to the democratic party, how could he refuse to vote for such a good and true, one as a democrat as Mr. Longmoore, who was known all over the state as a pure, upright gentleman without spot or blemish! The truth is, he is an enemy to the only party that can give relief to the laboring masses. He is so changeable that we have no assurance he will not advocate one measure to-day and to-morrow advocate another. Are such men the kind of men we want?

Senatorial Convention.

The democratic senatorial convention, of the second senatorial district, of Kentucky, met in Paducah on July 1st., for the purpose of placing before the people a democratic standard bearer for state senator. The convention was called to order at 2 o'clock P. M. by W. R. Truitt, of Marshall county.

W. M. Reed was elected chairman, and H. B. VanSelden, of the Standard, and H. E. Thompson, of the News, were elected secretaries. A committee on credentials was appointed and after a few moments, reported that all the counties in district were represented, and also recommended that each county be entitled to the number of votes in convention as they were entitled in the late state convention. The report of the committee was adopted by the convention. Only two names had been presented to the convention—John T. Davis, of Carlisle, and John W. Ogilvie, of McCracken.

At this time in the convention the name of J. T. Davis was withdrawn and upon motion the nomination of Mr. Ogilvie was made unanimous and amid great enthusiasm the Hon. John W. Ogilvie was declared the nominee of the democratic party in the second district for state senator. The chair appointed J. R. Lemon and Judge Jas. Campbell a committee to escort Mr. Ogilvie to the chair which was done in a very graceful style.

Mr. Ogilvie thanked the convention for the honor thus conferred and said he was in fine trim for the fight and would do all in his power to carry the good old democratic banner on to victory at the August election, and asked the assistance of everybody in this great fight for democratic principles.

After Mr. Ogilvie retired from the stand, veriferous yells went up for Davis, which brought him to the stand. He thanked those who were his friends in the convention and said he entertained no ill will for those who were against him but he would nevertheless do all he could for the election of the new nominee and the success of the democratic party. Mr. Davis and his friends acted like true and gallant democrats, and the convention closed with everybody their friends. Thus the convention closed in peace and harmony believing in the success of the nominee.

Eternal Vigilance

Is the price of health. But with all our precaution there are enemies always lurking about our systems, only waiting a favorable opportunity to assert themselves. Impurities of the blood may be hidden for years or even generations and suddenly break forth, undermining health, and hastening death. For all diseases arising from impure blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is the unequalled and unapproached remedy. It is King of them all, for it conquers diseases.

Methodist Paper in Louisville.

The Kentucky Methodist is the name of the paper recently removed from Lexington, Ky., to Louisville. It is an eight-page paper, with five broad columns, in good type, and with excellent print, and is published at the low price of $1.00 per year. Address The Kentucky Methodist, Louisville, Ky., for a sample copy. An agent is wanted for this county, to whom a liberal commission will be paid.

As almost every denomination, except the Methodist, have a strong paper in the state metropolis, it would seem that the Methodists would also want one. If so, they should give this paper a hearty support, as it is, or will be, the best they can ever hope to have. We will club it with the Benton Tribune at $1.65 for both papers.

Purify Your Blood

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditarily transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than that the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

By virtue of a judgment and order of a sale of the Marshall court of common pleas, rendered at the March term thereof, 1891, in the above cause, for the sum of $306.66, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 1st day of March 1891, until paid, and the costs herein, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the court-house door in Benton to the highest bidder, at public auction, on Monday the 6th day of July, 1891, at 1 o'clock, p. m. or thereabout (being county court day), upon a credit of six months, the following described property, to-wit: The N. W. q. of sec. 31, township 4, range 3, E., in this county (except fifty acres off of the north side and ten acres in the S. E. corner) containing 100 acres, or sufficient thereof to produce the sums of money so ordered to be made. For the purchase price, the purchaser, with approved security or securities, must execute bond, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms. H. M. Heath, atty. Solon L. Palmer, Master Com'r.

Champion Harvesting Machine.

New and improved. The best cut, lightest draft, easiest handled and most durable of all machines. Sold by C. M. Green, Benton, Ky.

What Does It Mean?

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations taken according to directions are gone in a week. Therefore, be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

Henry Ballance has the republican nomination for representative in McCracken county, but Henry will hardly go this time.

If the corporations had wanted any one in this county to fight the new constitution, they would never have selected R. M. Neal. They want men of influence.

We are glad Hon. T. A. Miller, of Calloway county has the senatorial nomination of the democratic party in that senatorial district. Mr. Miller is a first class legislator and as true as steel to his constituents.

We see from exchanges published in New Whacom Washington that our old friend Lou P. Palmer is now called judge in that far away state, and frequently is called upon to solemnize the rites of matrimony between people, but to this good day we have never heard him calling on any one to unite him to any lovely woman of that new country.

If prospects continue good for crops the wind will be beautifully extracted from the howling politician, who is doing all he can to make the people believe the country is on the verge of starvation. The only thing our local politicians can do that would do their country any good is to deliver a few lectures on pride and extravagance. These are good subjects for such men.

R. M. NEAL.

This egotistical defeated candidate for delegate to the con. con. had the cheek last Monday to get up before a crowd of intelligent voters of Marshall county, and blow his dissonant bassoon, against the new constitution. As his appearance indicates, his stock in trade is nothing but slimy abuse, and in pouring his vials of wrath, discontent, and self conceit, the Benton Tribune and Murray Ledger came in for a large share of his misrepresentation and lying abuse. The Ledger of course can take care of its self, and as far as the Tribune is concerned, it only has this to say, that when Mr Neal said that it had accused him of being a member of a ring or clique, or corporation he knew he uttered an infamous lie, and when he said the Tribune had slandered him he told a lie. The Tribune has never said one word against Mr Neal or derogatory to his good name (if he has any,) and when he gets up in a crowd and misrepresents a news paper or any man, as he did the Tribune last Monday, it is plain to every one that he has not a spark of honor or truth in him as big as a mustard seed. He can make all manner of sport about the little Tribune, and little "thumb paper published at Murray" as he termed it, but if the Tribune, did not have more influence in this county among the people than Dick Neal, we would burn down the office, discharge the foreman and kill the devil; and if we did not know the same could be said of the Ledger we would get up a mob and destroy its office, and hang Logan Curd until he was dead, dead, dead.

Now Mr Neal, you can rant, quarrel, lie, misrepresent and vilify all who favor the new constitution just as much as you please, but we intend to carry Marshall county for it by 1500 majority.

No corporation or its tools can prevent the people from voting for the adoption of the new constitution.

So after this, when you want to tell a lie, tell one that some one will believe. Every body knew you were smarting under the collar, because you were not elected to represent our legislative district in the constitutional convention, but they did not know you would let stick out so plain that every body could see it.

To save you the trouble of begging the Tribune, of your neighbors we take pleasure in sending you a sample copy.

Speakers Where Are You? How is it that this county never furnishes a man to make speeches for the good of its country?

The people all over this county are hungry to here the new constitution discussed, and not a man has ever yet dared to publicly open his mouth either for or against it. Speakers all over the state in most every county, are on the stump doing all they can to enlighten the voters upon this important instrument, but not a word have we heard from a Marshall county speaker. Where is Reed, Dycus, Oliver, Heath, Bean, Fisher, Lovett, Holland and others that they are not in the field, laboring to enlighten their neighbors upon such important measures? Is it possible our public speakers can not go before the people except for office?

There was never a time for such men to do a little work in the interest of their county more than now. Gentlemen come to the front, and assist your people in doing a good work.

HAMLET NOTES.

A large crowd was in attendance, composed of neighboring people. Good order prevailed and less noise among the boys than we have noticed there for years.

Moon-shine whiskey was conspicuously absent.

The meat was well cooked, and the crowd was well fed.

J. C. Rudd the people's candidate for the legislature was on hand and made a speech. He spoke over an hour and a half singing the same old song misrule and oppression by the old parties and crying for a new order of things. He prefaced his remarks by a patriotic reference to Washington and the time when the declaration of independence was declared which was appropriate and in order. He tried to show the people that under the rule of the present political parties the country had been going to the devil for the last one hundred years and unless a halt was called and new and pure men put at the head of affairs the country was irretrievably lost. He shows he is not familiar with state politics or the policy of the democratic party in Kentucky not withstanding he has been a member of that party until within less than one year ago. He never showed any change in any laws he proposed to bring about, or any reforms in state politics, nor did he advise his hearers what he thought of the new constitution. He discussed nothing but national issues leaving such issues as the people would delight to hear, untouched.

W. C. Holland was called for and made a few remarks on the great importance of every body voting the democratic ticket. He showed how Kentucky had prospered all along during seventy-five years of uninterrupted control by the democratic party, and how she is yet growing in wealth and population under its honest government.

Lots people party men were on the ground. Misses Nan, Cora and Nola Goheen were present. Mrs Francis Stice and daughter were in attendance. Nearly every voter present is for the new constitution.

A. T. Sims, Clark Hamilton, Bart Jones, G. M. Nelson, Mag Sims and H. Washburn are staunch people's party men.

Mr Wallstreet. One of our county speakers in trying to interest his hearers said "ah gentlemen and ladies, there is an old man who lives in the city of New York, whom it is said has all the money of the country locked up, and swears he will never let it out until, the country is ruined;" yes they say that old man Wallstreet killed president Lincoln, because he would not borrow money of him to carry on the war, and now brethren I believe it is our duty to make up money and try to have him arrested and tried."

Married Before Sun Up. Last Thursday morning as day began to break, Ira Crump, Miss Dora Duse, Levi Rudolph, Miss Addie Dowling, Elbridge Sargent and Miss Mate Sargent came dashing into town, and around the square, finally stopping in front of the hotel, but no sooner had Mr Crump planted his foot upon the rocky streets, than he made inquiries for the home and whereabouts, of his honor Judge DuPriest, then and there we caught on to the racket of the anxious young man, when we proffered him our assistance by calling at the door of his honor, and after waiting a few moments, the head of the county judge was gently stuck out of the door, when he was informed that too hearts wanted to beat as one, and his services were required at the court house. In less time than it takes to write this, he was there standing before the determined couple, asking Mr Crump and Miss Duse to join hands, and in a moment her lily white hand was at home in the rustic hand of an honored son of toil, resting as easy as if it was planted there for life. In a trembling voice, the judge quietly spoke the terrible words that made them man and wife, when a smile of relief came over her beautiful face, they turned away and in a short time, with swift horses and elegant buggies carried them out of town in the direction of their home, saying "parents may kick, pistols may click, but our hearts will stick" forever. Tribune extends congratulations.

County Court. Last Monday was county court day, but only a small crowd of people was here. The day was beautiful and most of the farmers remained at home finishing up their crops. Hon John W. Ogilvie the democratic nominee for state senator made a speech, which was well received. He has a strong following in this county. Dr. Graham the new party candidate for the same position was not present, but his faithful ally Dr Curd took a few notes and like a school boy at a country debating society read them to the crowd with out any particular comment. The doctor was wrong when he said that Dr Graham was nominated before the new party was organized. It was just after and not before. We hope the doctor will stand corrected. The candidates for representative were not present. There was but little business transacted in the county court that our readers care to know. The contest in the Local Option case was continued until the next term of the court. An order was made allowing the people in district number six to vote, whether or not liquors should be sold in the district. So at the August election a vote will be taken in this district on Local Option.

A Pleasing Sense. Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive, or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Additional Locals. This district will vote on the local option August the 3rd. Benton is very much in need of a good butcher at this particular time. Newton Lamb has moved into town and lives in one of Judge Barry's houses. Gentlemen if you are for the new constitution, why dont you go to work for it. Mr Epperson the mail carrier from Paducah has moved into the Nelson house.

J. M. Tichenor of Calvert City, was granted druggists license last Monday with whiskey privileges. When we wanted a railroad built in this country it was full of orators, but now we want a new constitution and not one can be found. R. L. Ely, of Atchison, Kansas, is back in Kentucky on a visit to relatives. His wife preceded him a month, and both of them will visit Benton this week.

W. M. Oliver makes a good law speech. Look out for Mike, he is destined to be one of our prominent attorneys.

That tired feeling now so often heard of, is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives mental and bodily strength.

Carr & Alexander have the contract for furnishing all the material in the building of the new houses now going up here. They are enteringprising men and are building up a large business in their line.

Little Ben Ely the infant child of Mr and Mrs Pete Ely died early Monday morning after a lingering illness of several weeks, and was buried Tuesday morning at the family burying ground in the Thompson cemetery. Its parents, have the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of their dear little child.

County Court. Last Monday was county court day, but only a small crowd of people was here. The day was beautiful and most of the farmers remained at home finishing up their crops. Hon John W. Ogilvie the democratic nominee for state senator made a speech, which was well received. He has a strong following in this county. Dr. Graham the new party candidate for the same position was not present, but his faithful ally Dr Curd took a few notes and like a school boy at a country debating society read them to the crowd with out any particular comment. The doctor was wrong when he said that Dr Graham was nominated before the new party was organized. It was just after and not before. We hope the doctor will stand corrected. The candidates for representative were not present. There was but little business transacted in the county court that our readers care to know. The contest in the Local Option case was continued until the next term of the court. An order was made allowing the people in district number six to vote, whether or not liquors should be sold in the district. So at the August election a vote will be taken in this district on Local Option.

A Pleasing Sense. Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive, or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

WHY NOT USE Pomroy's : Sweet Chill Cure? Only 50 cents, and as sweet as honey. Pomroy's Sweet Chill Cure is guaranteed to make a prompt cure of any case of chills and it is the best known remedy for malaria in all its forms. It contains nothing in the slightest degree harmful to the smallest child with perfect safety. Children especially like to take it on account of its pleasant taste. Give it a trial and be convinced that it will cure any case of chills.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Mrs Jesse Lindsey has been very sick for some time, but is now better.

Jesse Harper, the new party man speaks here next Monday, and John A. Murray on Tuesday.

Mr Mack Chaudler was in the city last Friday. He will soon leave for Springfield Mo, where he resides.

Next Monday will be a big day. The town will be full of new party men anxious to hear Jesse Harper.

Mrs Ben Huston is visiting friends and relatives in McLean county. The clever squire is ever so lonely without her.

Ben Huston, Esq., of Gilbertsville, married a young couple on the bank of the Tennessee river. Their names were Wm Fowler, and Miss Ellen Todd.

What gets the matter with the Standard? The papers last Saturday and Sunday morning never came to this office until Monday.

Why is this?

Prof. J. M. Gilbert of Paducah was a visitor here last week.

J. K. Bondurant the big grocery man of Paducah was in town Friday last.

J. M. Chaudler a veteran friend of the Tribune was in town this week.

Court of claims meets next Monday and will be in session two or three days.

How can you expect to live and die happy and vote against the new constitution?

All the school districts in the county will have a four month's school, save one.

John W. Kinney and family have returned home after a month's sojourn in the country.

Bro. Wilke called to see us the other day and reports church work as promising as the crops.

Really, there is now no opposition to the new constitution in this county that amounts to anything.

The P. T. & A. R. Co. would do the handsome thing for the public by putting on more passenger coaches.

All the barbecues in this county that were held on the 4th passed off quietly without any accident or disturbance.

J. F. West, of Lutertown, made us a call the other day. He is certainly the hottest democrat in all that portion of the county.

Several of our Alliance friends visited Mayfield last week to hear "boss" McCune speak. There was a large attendance there Saturday.

R. C. Walker, of the Crittenden Press, is now publishing one of the best papers in the first congressional district. It is an excellent paper.

Judge J. A. Murray will speak at Benton, Tuesday July 14th, on state politics. Don't fail to come out and hear him for he is a good speaker.

Jesse Harper of Illinois one of the political reformers of the day will speak here next Monday July 13th. Everybody invited to be present and hear him.

Hon. W. M. Reed left Monday for Rusk Texas where he goes to defend Walter Freeman who was recently captured and carried back there for murder and other crimes.

Johnnie Walker living near Hamlet, has a girl ten years old and she weighs about 125 pounds. Her name is Janny Eunice Walker. She is a well formed, beautiful girl.

Verne Holsapple an infant babe of Bro. J. W. Holsapple died very suddenly at their home in Texas last Thursday morning. It had only been sick but a few days when it died.

Mrs Joe Flowers, of Paducah, and her cousin, Mrs Baily, of Taomsa county Miss., were on a visit of a few days to the family of Judge Brian who resides near Briensburg in this county.

31 school teachers were examined here last Friday and Saturday for teachers certificates. The result of the examination has not as yet been announced but as soon as it is, we will publish it.

Sam Hill, the veteran reformer spent a day or so in town, attending the school examination.

Rev Carl, of Oak Level, and Rev Wilkes of Briensburg, and their families were the guest of Judge Dupriest Thursday.

James Wyatt, living near Briensburg went into his field the other day to move a pile of old rails and in doing so he killed 41 snakes from 3 inches to 3 feet long. This is a true snake story.

Mr James Foster and his beautiful young wife of Paducah spent a few days in our little city visiting relatives and friends last week. They left for home Tuesday. We are always glad to meet Mrs Nola Foster.

We hope no Marshall county man will so far forget himself, as to shoot a pistol on an excursion train. Others are guilty, but no such charge is thus far, laid at the door of one of Marshall's citizens. We know where they live.

Dr J. W. Johnson and wife left yesterday via Bowling Green, to Franklin, Simpson county, where they will remain until about the 20 of July. The Doctors health has not been good for some time, and he leaves for recuperation.

Mrs Ida Parker, nee Miss Palmer, of Jackson Tenn, is back to her old home on a month's visit. Her many friends were joyous to meet her and will do all they can to make her stay one of pleasure and happiness. A hearty welcome is extended to her.

Joe Green and Bill Smith who lives near each other in the vicinity of Little Cypress, had a "bout" at Farley's drug store in Paducah the other day in which pistols and words were seen and heard, but no blood was shed, yet it is expected that ere long blood will flow freely in that community.

On the night of the 18 of July, at Briensburg, there will be given an ice cream supper for the benefit of the M. E. church south. This being the night after the barbecue at that place, a large crowd and a pleasant time is expected. Young men take your best girl, and enjoy the refreshments.

Miss Francis Goheen an aged unmarried lady and a daughter of Aunt Betsy Goheen, died at the residence of her mother Wednesday July 1st at 10 o'clock a. m. of dropsy. She was born and raised in this county. Was a member of the M. E. Church south; was always a friend to the poor and did all she could to accommodate her friends. Her relatives have the sympathy of sorrowing friends.

Arnett Story, a middle aged man living near Scale, has a very peculiar habit, the first one of the kind we ever knew. He is an incessant chewer of tobacco, in fact he is a slave to its use, but the strange part of the story is, that all the "am-beer," which the chewing produces, is swallowed by him and is never spit out of his mouth. He chews all day from the time he gets up at morning until he retires at night, but all the juice he squeezes out of his tobacco he swallows as a sweet morsel.

Only two prisoners in jail at present.

The rain continues to fall, and the crops to grow.

Clint Strow and Clay Lemon took in Paducah Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Jones, of Paducah, is visiting relatives in town.

Wm J. Hatfield the popular shoe drummer was in town Tuesday.

Miss Sue Jones of Paducah is visiting her grand ma, Mrs Palmer for a short time.

The superior washing fluid is all the go now. Dick Heath is selling stacks of receipts at 50c.

Mrs J. R. Hardin and charming daughter Miss Grace are on a visit to relatives and will remain for some time.

J. C. Gilbert, of Paducah, left with W. M. Reed Monday for Rusk, Texas to assist in the Freeman defence.

The Dishman mill will begin business next Tuesday. This will be a great convenience to the people in that vicinity.

The case of the commonwealth against George Spraggs was tried in the quarterly court Tuesday, and the jury acquitted Mr Spraggs.

Dick Neal is too stingy to subscribe for his county paper, but he will slip around and borrow of others, and fill himself full of its many good things and then go to kicking.

If W. C. Holland, after working so hard last year for the nomination of the primary election, had changed, and this year run on the independent people's ticket for the legislature who would have been the first to say, "a little too thin, just changed for office?"

Shelby Whiteside, an honest colored citizen living near Birmingham in this county has only two boys; these two boys have been married five times, one three times the other two; one wife of one of the boys is dead, but the balance are living; this gives Shelby two sons and four daughter in laws. Can any colored brother beat this, if so send in, and we will forward the cake.

Indicate... imply that the farmers' Alliance will prove strong enough to put down bossism within its own ranks, exclude partisan politics from the counsels and thus prolong its existence as an organization helpful to people engaged in productive agricultural industry.

Possibly some weeding of its membership may be necessary to accomplish this. The real farmers in it seem determined not to allow the political farmers to sell out the order nor give it away to any political party, real or alleged.

In Missouri there is a wholesome tone in the responses to president Hall's warning against the danger of committing the farmers organization to the kite-flying scheme set on foot at Cincinnati. Many of the Missouri unions unqualifiedly indorse president Hall's official acts both in the state of Missouri and at Ocala. Forest Union No. 3,249, in Scotland county, now declares that the county union acted too hastily in condemning president Hall for his action in the Illinois senatorial contest. Indian creek union, No. 1,383 though approving the Cincinnati convention, declares president Hall "a man after our own hearts." Brice union, No. 547, in Balls county, declares that a third party "would be detrimental to our order," and resolves "that we fully endorse his (Hall's) acts and rulings so far." There is evidently disappointment in store for the schemers who hope that the Missouri union, when it meets at Fertle Springs in August, is going to be led into somebody's political trap.

In Texas also the real farmers are beginning to assert themselves emphatically against the schemes of the political farmers. They do not mean to let their organization to be wrecked by a "steering committee" nor sold out by corrupt men who may have been entrusted with positions of responsible leadership.

In order to maintain the integrity of the Alliance as an organization of and for farmers, several prominent Alliance members have issued a call for a convention to meet at Fort Worth on July 10 and 11, to be composed only of Alliance members as follows:

- All members who oppose the sub-treasury bill.
- All who do not endorse the conduct of the so called Legislative Committee that assumed to represent the Alliance at Austin.
- All who are willing to organize for the purpose of defeating the bargain and agreement believed to have been entered into between the representatives of the railroads and other corporate interest of this state and certain Alliance leaders.
- All who are in favor of preserving the fruits of the great victory won over corporate power in the adoption of the railroad commission amendment.
- All who favor maintaining in their original sympathy the objects and purposes of the Alliance for their political opinions.

The signers of this call declare their belief that the object and purposes for which the farmers Alliance of Texas was formed, are not being carried out by those who now control its executive machinery, and they do not propose to let this abuse of trust, pass unrebuked.

Like every strong movement ever started in this country the farmers' Alliance has attracted a large body of camp-followers and suttlers, who have no other interest in it but their own personal gain. It is this disorganizing element that the foes of the order have in view when they predict that it will speedily come to naught, as the old Grange movement did. But the farmers of this country have received a great deal of valuable, though costly, education in the last twelve or fifteen years, and are better prepared to look after their own interests.

The convention that nominated John W. Ogilvie for state senator was called by the regular constituted authorities, and every county in the district was represented. The convention was well attended and was enthusiastic for the party's success. It was no such a tame affair as the one that nominated Dr. Graham in May.

Since John Young Brown, the democratic candidate for governor, has declared for the new constitution and the big C. J. and the little Times have dropped out, the ardent opposers look like the boy who lost his mother-in-law in Arkansas. Glad of it, but afraid to acknowledge it.

Judge Pryor, Judge Bennett, Judge Lewis, Judge Barbour, Judge Yost, Judge Lindsey, Judge Randle, Judge Grace, Judge Gilbert, Judge Campbell, Judge Bullett, Judge Saunders, Judge Reed, Judge Fisher and Judge Dupriest are all for the new constitution. Why is it that the judges are all for it? Because they know it is a good one.

There is at present, no fight from any source against the alliance, but on the other hand hardly a person or party can be found but believes in the declaration of the principles of the order and its effect socially among its members. The only disturbance to be noticed is within its own ranks. The next eighteen months will be the trying time, as an organization that has ever been in its history. It is now right on the eve of internal volcanoes, convulsion and disturbance. If the order can only hold together until it can become a unit on the treasury either for or against it, and rid itself of its most dangerous foe the grasping office hunters, and rule or ruin members, it will then be the most powerful labor organization in the world. If it can control its membership and hold it together until it gets rid of its excrencences and incumbences, it will then be in a condition to dictate terms to any party.

Judges in Favor of It.
In another column today The Post publishes interviews with Judges Pryor, Barbour, Bennett and ex-Judge Lindsey in favor of the new constitution. Of the seven judges who preside over our two courts in banc, every one but Judge Young is in favor of the new document, Judges Holt and Yost have not been heard from on the subject, but it is understood both favor the constitution. Judge Lewis was not interviewed, but he has repeatedly stated his belief in the excellence of the new document. Judge William Lindsey, regarded as the foremost lawyer in Kentucky, is also heartily in favor of the adoption of the new constitution.

In the face of the support and indorsement of such menow weak and puny the legitimate opposition to the constitution seems. Hardly one lawyer in a dozen who has read it but believes that its adoption would be of great benefit to the state. There are a few good lawyers opposed to it, of course, because differences of opinions exist on all topics, but the majority of lawyers who are antagonistic are the lawyers who serve corporations and who are now serving them. They are men whose personal interest so biased their reading of the new constitution that they failed to see anything good in it at all.

The indorsement of the new instrument by such men as the judges of our court of appeals, and two out of three of the superior court judges should at once set at rest all of the ridicule that has been attempted at its expense. These men would not be in favor of an instrument that was ridiculous. They would not be in favor of an instrument the provisions of which were not practicable. Each has read the document for himself carefully and has studied its every provision thoughtfully. It is only after such deliberation that they have expressed themselves. Surely the people of the state can depend with more confidence upon the wisdom of Judge Lindsey and Judge Pryor and his associate than upon the wisdom of John S. Rhea, a corporation lawyer and John M. Asherton, a millionaire bank director. When seeking advice we think the gentlemen favoring the new constitution will be safer guides than those opposing it.

Let every citizen read the expressions of these judges, then let him read one of Rhea's speeches. We do not think it will take him very long to make up his mind which course to pursue upon the constitutional question.—Louisville Post.
