EELFOOT SCENE OF TRAGIC KILLING.

Two Wounded—Men and Woman Mix In General Shooting.

Union City, Tenn., Aug. 22.—In a shooting affray, which occurred at Samburg, on Reelfoot lake, Saturday afternoon, one man lost his life, one woman was seriously wounded and a man is suffering from an accidental shot in the stomach.

The trouble originated over a quarrel between Martin Leonard's wife, the daughter of a man named Tucker, the men taking up the quarrel.

From the best information obtainable, it seems that while Martin Leonard was advancing on the daughter Keesucker with a knife the latter opened fire, killing Leonard instantly and accidentally shooting his brother in the stomach and a woman named Pitts in the breast. Both are seriously though not dangerously wounded. Keesucker surrendered and is lodged in jail at this place. While the feeling at Samburg is rather intense no further trouble is anticipated.

TWO LADIES MEET TRAGIC DEATH

Were Wading In Stream and Getting Beyond Depth Drowned.

Jackson, Tenn., Aug. 22.—At a late hour last night I. B. Tigrett, cashier of the Union Bank and Trust Company, received a telephone message from Columbia, Tenn., telling of the death by drowning of Mrs. A. Virginia Patton, wife of A. Y. Patton, the insurance manager of the Union Bank and Trust Company of this city, and Miss Christine Patton, of Santa Fe, Tenn., sister of Mr. Patton's brother, Eugene Patton, Rochester, N. Y., and the two were fishing in Duck river and had to go into the water. The two were wading near Duck Island and gentlemen were swimming distance away when suddenly they got too near a strong current and were drawn under. Men saw them and almost lost their lives in a desperate attempt to save them.

The body of Miss Christine was found in about an hour, but up to the last message received Mrs. Patton's body had not been found, though the river has been dragged and every effort made to locate the body.

The Patton family were having a family reunion at their home near Columbia, and A. V., Eugene and Miss Christine are the only children of the Rev. J. W. Patton, a well known Baptist minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Patton have only been married about two years. Mrs. Patton was a Miss May Paschall, of Nashville, before her marriage. They are prominent people here, and the tragedy is sincerely regretted. I. B. Tigrett and Ben H. Blalock, also of the bank, went to Columbia today to render any assistance possible.

FARMERS FIGHT.

Sunday afternoon at the New Yard restaurant, Will Thompson and Frank Twigg, two well known farmers mixed in a one round battle which would have probably had a serious ending for the intervention of friends. The best of feelings has not existed between the two men for several months and quarrels have been frequent. When the two men chanced to meet Sunday at the above designated place the old difficulty was renewed. Twigg struck Thompson on the head with a stick or piece of plank cutting a gash which required nine stitches to close. Thompson slashed Twigg with his knife but inflicted no serious wounds. Both men were cited to trial by Deputy Sheriff Huddleston.

MAKE WHISKY NEAR REVIVAL.

Illicit Still Raided 400 Yards From Meeting—Business Was Good.

Bremen, Ga., Aug. 22.—Within 400 yards of New Canaan camp ground, where a great religious revival is in progress, United States Deputy Collector Bush yesterday raided and captured a large plant which was busy making "moonshine" whisky. There were two stills in operation, one of them a 100 gallon affair and the other with a 50 gallon capacity. Mr. Bush captured 2,000 gallons of beer, 18 fermenters, 500 pounds of granulated sugar, two copper worms, two double worms, two fluke stands, two worm stands and over 2,000 gallons of corn whisky. The moonshiners were doing a land office business, scores of their customers being men who were attending the camp meeting.

Deputy Bush says the knowledge that whisky could be procured drew numbers of persons to the meeting who had not been to religious services in years. The disorderly conduct of some young men who had procured whisky made the church people suspect that a still was near and they notified revenue officers.

TOBACCO BOOKS CLOSED.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 22.—The books of the Planters' Protective Association for 1910 have been closed and the officials are highly pleased with the amount of tobacco pledged, which is about twice the amount pledged last year. The report is:

Carlisle 35 per cent.; Trigg 80 per cent.; Dixon 62 per cent.; Ballard 10 per cent.; Henry 25 per cent.; Weakley 20 per cent.; Marshall 40 per cent.; Christian 40 per cent.; Logan 90 per cent.; Montgomery 80 per cent.; Davidson 90 per cent.; Stewart 80 per cent.; Todd 60 per cent.; Coloway 75 per cent.; Simpson 90 per cent.; Robinson 85 per cent.; Christian 95 per cent.; McCracken 40 per cent.

Owing to the pledges in Graves county being so few, that county has been dropped. However, this does not prevent growers pledging their crop. Approximately 40,000 hogheads of tobacco were handled this year, and next year fully 75,000 hogheads will be sold. The board of directors will meet the fourth Wednesday in September for the purpose of letting contracts for storage and transacting other important matters.

SUNDAY WEDDINGS.

Esq. J. T. Futrell was not as busy yesterday as he usually is on Sunday, but during the day he was called upon to officiate at two marriages. The first couple, E. N. Shelton and Miss Pearl Wyatt, of Mayfield, arrived at 6 o'clock a. m. just as the magistrate was trying to get the slumber signs out of his sleepy eyes. The appearance of the young couple awakened the great marrying squire as quickly as a dash of ice water would have done it and the silken knot was speedily tied. Mr. and Mrs. Shelton returned home on the 10 o'clock train.

The second couple, Melvin R. Kell and Miss Lula A. Cooley, of Hickman county, near Clinton, were happily married at 10 a. m. and after sight seeing about town for a few hours they returned home to inform their parents and friends of their "rash" action.

NEGROES BURY FRIENDLESS WHITE MAN

Memphis Resents Action of Government In Awarding Negro Contract.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Without the presence of tender, loving hands to smooth the brow of death, and without so much of ceremony as "from dust to dust and ashes to ashes," but the hands of mercenary negroes who have the contract for the burial of the dead from the local United States Marine Hospital, the body of W. H. West, a seaman on a Mississippi river packet, whose home was in Kentucky, has been hauled from the hospital and lowered to its last earthly resting place in Forest Hill Cemetery.

The requiem and the last sad rites of the dead were absent from this funeral—if funeral it may be called. It was rather a scene in which a white man, with the dark plumes of death nodding over his body, was taken to a lonely spot in a cemetery, and there dumped into an unknown grave by negroes. As the clouds of the valley rattled upon his plain coffin no feeling of loneliness stole into the heart of any bystanders, and when the heap of earth was rounded over his body, no tear was dropped upon the newmade grave.

The undertakers who have the contract with the Marine Hospital are McCoy & Joyner, negroes, at 157 South Fourth street. They were awarded it this year, in competition with other undertaking establishments of the city who had bid for the contract.

This is the first case that is known in Memphis where a white man has been buried by negro undertakers, and the few who know of this instance and are reminded of the contract, are open to the idea of the hands of negroes resent the idea of their handling the bodies of white people.

The authorities at the hospital say that it is a government matter, and that they are instructed to place the contract with the lowest bidder, regardless of color.

West's relatives live at Hickman, Ky., and did not know of his dangerous condition until the crisis had passed and he was dead.

West was taken to the hospital several weeks ago, and placed under treatment for stomach trouble. But two days before his death symptoms of an abscess in the skull cavity developed, and the authorities stated yesterday that it was their intention to operate as soon as he was able to stand it, but that he grew worse so swiftly that he died within two days after the abscess was discovered.

News of his death was communicated to his sister, whose address had been given by West as R. F. D. No. 1, Hickman, Ky. They have not heard from her in response to their announcement.

Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 22.—Sheriff Jake Houpt, who was mortally wounded Wednesday morning in a pistol fusillade with George and Oscar Chitwood, mountaineers, died here after pneumonia had developed in his right lung, through which a bullet passed.

George Chitwood, one of the mountaineer combatants, was killed by Houpt in the affray.

OLD LEAGUERS WILL PLAY BALL HERE.

Manager Alf Kindred To Give Base-Ball Lovers a Treat. Runyan
Will Pitch.

AN ALL STAR ORGANIZATION

The best base ball team that has ever represented Fulton on the ball grounds is that now being got together by Alf Kindred, the well known sportsman.

Mr. Kindred realizes that Fulton needs some sort of interesting sport and he proposes to organize a ball team here that will awaken the enthusiasm of the fans. He is going into the matter entirely on his own responsibility and if the people do not show their appreciation by a liberal attendance he stands to lose a nice little pile of money.

Mr. Kindred has already signed his men and some of them have arrived in Fulton, the others to be in tomorrow. From the names printed below lovers of the national sport
will be able to see that this is no kid game affair as most of the men are old leaguers.

The season will open Thursday,
when the crack team from Martin will arrive here for a series of three games.

Pat Runyan, the great Paducah twirler, who last night resigned from the Kitty League and quit the kittens because his demand for more money was not responded to, Mercer, crack short-stop of the Kitty quit
for the same reason and will be here with the redoubtable Pats. Hastings, from the Southern League will do the back stop work for the locals. Hay the splendid little catcher from Morray will cover the initial sack and be ready to go under the bat in case
Hastings should get a finger injured.
Downs, of Murray, a member of the old Jack Frost team, will play second and will probably do the twirling Friday. Each individual member of the Fulton team is a star player and will be found there with the goods.

The line-up of the two teams as they will play Thursday is as follows:

Fulton	Martin
Runyan, pf.	Miller, p.
Hastings, c.	Moore, c.
Hay, 1st b.	Estes, 1st b.
Downs, 2b.	Turner, 2b.
Mercer, ss.	Elliot, ss.
Black, 3b.	Hillis, 3b.
Beaman, rf.	Butler, rf.
Shepherd, cf.	Oliver, cf.
Big Eye Dizard, lf.	Jolly, lf.

Martin has won practically every game this season. Their lineup contains several imported men of superior ability and the games to be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be the classiest ever witnessed in Fulton. If you want some good sport during the remainder of the season boost for the ball team and attend every game.

The Martin boys come only for a cash guarantee and as the players
Mr. Kindred has signed will not play for experience it will take money to keep the sport going.

and to pull a pish-
first shot and kill-

MRS. LOTTIE WARREN.

After an illness of several weeks
duration Mrs. Lottie Warren died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. S. Phillips, in East Fulton.
Her death was due to general debility. Mrs. Warren being 84 years of age.

A strange coincidence is that she died at the same hour and on Sunday as did her husband, who died exactly six months ago. The funeral services were conducted this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Phillips, Rev. Marshall, pastor of the Christian church, officiating. A large number of friends accompanied the remains to their last resting place in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Warren was a devoted Christian and a woman who made the world better for having lived in it.

Mrs. Phillips has the sympathy of her man friends in her hours of be-griefment.

ENGINEER HURT.

A. C. Auld, a well-known engineer with a run between Jackson, and Mounds, was seriously injured Sunday at Sharon. He was wielding a coal pick when the handle broke and inflicted serious injuries to Mr. Auld.
The injured man was relieved from duty and rushed to the Illinois Central hospital at Paducah.

BASE GAME TOMORROW.

The Fulton and Milan colored ball teams will play at Reeds Park on Tuesday and Wednesday. Reserved seats for white people. These will be good games.

W. B. Roper went to Clinton today.
J. J. Gaven and family left this morning for a few weeks visit in Hot Springs.

NEGROES FIGHT.

Charlie Jackson, colored was fined $25 today for his part in a scrap in which he and Kid Toliver engaged Sunday afternoon.

The evidence showed that Jackson was the aggressor and that he attempted to cut Toliver with a knife.
Chief Linton made the arrest.

TERRIBLE FIGHT WITH BIG SNAKE.

Mississippi Farmer Bitten Repeatedly By Reptile.

Columbia, Miss., Aug. 22.—News has just reached here of a personal encounter of Clown Clark, a farmer of Bassfield, with an enormous rattlesnake and in which the farmer barely escaped with his life.

Clark had gone a short distance into the woods from his house on his way to chip some boards, when he felt what he thought was a sting of a hornet on his bare foot. He was horror stricken when he saw that he had been assailed by a large rattlesnake, and before the terrified man could strike at him with his axe the snake had struck him on the ankle, the effect which knocked the man down. Clark describes the feeling that came over him as he was falling as being like an electric shock. Three huge snakes struck the fighting man, who had lost his axe in the fall, and this time the bite was on the opposite ankle.

Then began a battle for life that Clark will never forget. The monster snake with a darting tongue striking at his face, the man guarding with his arms and bare hands. When the snake's teeth were caught in his shirt sleeve, the man tore loose. Seizing a nearby stick the man struck the snake a terrific blow, but the rotten stick only fell to pieces.

The frenzied snake bitten man scarcely remembers anything else, except that he was terribly thirsty and actually licked dew from the grass as he was making his way back to his house.

Three quarts of whisky was poured down his throat before a physician could be obtained. Clark says that the whisky had no more taste to it than water. The promptness of his people in giving him this whisky is probably what saved his life, as he was bitten in three places. Under the care of a physician, he is improving.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 19.—With tears streaming down his cheeks a workman, lashed by a stricken conscience, walked up to Police Commissioner Arthur Marbut Wednesday and paid him 15 cents for a watermelon taken from Mr. Marbut's father thirty years ago. The price of the melon, the man said was 16 cents, but Mr. Marbut couldn't make the change and agreed to take 15 cents. The workman said he kept the melon out of a load he was hauling. As Mr. Marbut's father is dead, the commissioner declared he would turn the money over to his uncle, his father's former partner in business, now visiting here.
