TWO LADIES MEET TRAGIC DEATH

were washing in streams and settling down in gullies. Paducah, Aug. 22—A body was found in the Ohio River, a day after it was reported missing. Miss Lula A. Cooley, of their parents and friends, and Miss Ellen Boyd has returned to their city last Monday. The body of Miss Cooley was found on the banks of the stream, a short distance from the village of Cruthfield, where she lived. The body was washed up by the current and discovered by some boys who were playing in the river. Miss Cooley was a graduate of the Paducah High School and had been teaching in the Oak Grove School near Paducah. She was 21 years old and leaves a sister and a brother. The body of Miss Cooley was taken to Paducah and will be sent to her home in Cruthfield for burial.
