DRINK OF WHISKY COST TEN DOLLARS

Princeton Man Gets Nabbed On Whiskey Dick When He Took One For Stomach's Sake

There will be no drinking of whiskey done on the "Whiskey Dick" train if Conductor Sam Matthews can avoid it, and it has been suggested that the name of the train be changed to "Water Wagon."

Herbert Williams, a young photographer from Princeton, who was en route to Cairo, pulled a bottle of whiskey from his pocket Monday morning between Paducah and Mayfield and took a "swig" and thereby hangs a tale. He was placed under arrest by Conductor Matthews and turned over to Poffeen Brown and Hamlet on the train's arrival at Mayfield. Williams was escorted to the county court house, where he pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Monroe and was fined $10 and costs.

The law is a new one and was passed by the last legislature of the state. The penalty for taking a drink on a passenger train is from $10 to $50. Williams was given the smallest fine, which he paid and went on his way, but not rejoicing.

The new law gives any of the train employees authority to make an arrest in a case of this kind and Conductor Matthews is hewing to the line. It is said that all trainmen have been given special instructions to see that the law is observed and they are doing it for fear of losing their jobs.

CALENDAR WRONG.

The calendar in this office must be a little off and as a result we made a mistake in announcing date for the opening of the baseball season in Fulton.

The opening games will be played Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Every body keep the correct dates in your mind. The fans are expressing great satisfaction over the fact that a first class team has been secured to represent Fulton and they say they will stick to the home team through thick and thin. This is the sort of encouragement that sounds good but the merry chink of the coin at the ticket window will prove more satisfactory to the man responsible for the players' salary.

Additional seats are being placed in the grand stand to accommodate the immense crowd that is expected to witness the opening games as well as all the others.

HARRY BARCLAY KILLED BY TRAIN.

Brother of Conductor Geo. Barkley Meets Death Beneath Wheels.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 23.—Falling between the cars of an Illinois Central freight train, on which he was riding to Cairo, Harry Barkley, 26 years old, son of J. W. Barclay, 512 North Fifth street, and brother of County Judge Alben Barkley, was killed Monday evening about 6:15 o'clock near Barlow, Ky.

About a mile east of Barlow, toward LaCenter, Mr. Barclay lost his balance and fell between the caboose and the last car of the train. The wheels of the caboose passed over his body, cutting him in two and so bruising him about the face that he was hardly recognizable.

When members of the train crew hurried back to where he had fallen they found him dead. He was placed in the caboose and carried on to Barlow, where his remains were cared for by relatives.

The body was brought to Paducah this morning at 7:40 o'clock and taken to the family residence. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, with burial in Oak Grove cemetery.

Harry Barclay was born in Lowes, Ky., where he lived until about nine years ago, when he came to Paducah. He was a potter by trade. He was perhaps better known to Paducah people as one of the best singers in this city. His voice was one of unusual quality and he had appeared many times before Paducah audience, where his merits were highly appreciated. For the past few weeks he had been singing at moving picture shows in Mayfield, Ky.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barclay, he is survived by three brothers, County Judge Alben W. Barkley, George Barkley and John Barkley, and three sisters, Mrs. Oscar Denker and Misses Adah and Bernice Barkley, all of this city.

BABIES ARE DRUGGED IN THEIR CRADLES.

New York Physician Protests Against Use of Medicines.

New York, Aug. 23.—That babies in their cradles contract drug habits through being dosed promiscuously with paragon, laudanum and other house hold remedies, is the assertion of President Lederle of the New York board of health. An effort will be made by the board to procure local legislation prohibiting the sale of the objectionable drugs except upon the prescription.

A statement by President Lederle says:

"Notwithstanding their dangerous nature the sale of these drugs for the relief of minor troubles is enormous. Mothers keep paragon on tap and are more careful to have it in their homes than they are to see that their sugar bowls are filled. At the first sign of an ache or pain, oft en the moment the baby cries, the mother dashes for the paragon bottle. As a result the baby is drugged unnecessarily."

CHILLY WEATHER COMES FROM WEST

Washington Predicts Break in Hot Wave For Chicago Excursion- ists.

Washington, Aug. 23.—Chilly weather is on its way, according to the general forecast for the coming week, issued by Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau. The chilly wave will begin its sweep across the country the middle of the week, starting from the northwestern states and reaching the Atlantic coast by Friday or Saturday. Its appearance will be rendered the more disagreeable by reason of the fact that it will be preceded by moderately warm weather, so that the drop in temperature will be more severely felt. As a result of the sudden change there will be almost continuous showers in the southeastern states.

During last week temperature slightly below the normal ruled throughout the country, and there were light frosts in the extreme north west.

AN APPEAL FOR AID.

The following appeal for assistance has been issued by the commanding officers of Camp Jim Pirtle and the people of Fulton should all in their power to render the assistance desired by the old veterans. The letter reads:

Fulton, Ky., Aug. 23, 1910.
To the Public:

The 2nd Kentucky Brigade of the U. C. V. will meet again in happy reunion in Fulton, Ky., on Sept. 1, 1910, for one day and one night.

Upon this occasion the most notable speakers will entertain the crowd. Among the speakers will be Dr. Powell and Dr. Lynn Cave. The latter will deliver at night his famous lecture on "The Life of Gen. R. E. Lee," which is the most magnificent eulogy of the Confederate chieftain ever spoken by mortal lips. Every school child is especially importuned to hear this lecture.

In order to insure the success of the reunion the members of Camp Pirtle appeal to the people of Fulton to co-operate with them in providing entertainment for the many guests who will be here on this occasion. Be with us in heart and home upon this occasion and support us with your attendance. We will have dinner on the ground in Meadows Park and to do this we must ask our friends to us by furnishing edible or by provisions so that all who come from a distance will have plenty to eat.

Those who can and will assist us by furnishing edibles or by providing sleeping quarters for those remaining over night will please communicate with.

R. A. BROWDER, Adjutant.

CLOTHES CAUGHT FIRE AND GIRL MAY DIE.

Young Mt. Sterling Woman Ran In- to Yard and Wind Fanned Flames.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Aug. 23.—The clothing of Miss Markoleta Wallace, 22 years old, caught fire in the residence of Geo. W. McCormick, near Spencer, and the girl ran into the yard, the wind fanning the flames burning the clothing from her body. Miss Wallace inhaled flames and is dying. She is the daughter of Clem Wallace, of Corsicana, Texas, and was visiting her aunt, Mrs. McCormick at the time.

CONTEST WAS THROWN OUT OF COURT

Judge Naylor and Magistrates Dis- miss Contest Filed By High License Advocates.

As predicted in these columns several days ago the high license people introduced no evidence yesterday when the contest case came up before Judge Naylor and two magistrates. As the motion to dismiss the case was not objected to by the high license lawyers it took the court but a few minutes to dismiss the case.

The high license people claim that they do not wish to show their hands yet as the case would have to go to the higher courts in any event, regardless of which side won the opening battle.

MUCH ROWDYISM.

Fulton, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Liquor was sold in church grounds during service and boys and men loitered about the building, drinking and having to be dragged away from the roads leading to churches that vehicles containing sober, religious families might return home from the place of religious worship, are the conditions that have prevailed in the vicinity of Wilderville, in this county for several weeks.

Confident that two or three illicit distilleries are in full blast in that section of the county, the better citizens formed themselves into a mass meeting to take steps to suppress the sale of liquor and other lawlessness. The meeting was held Saturday afternoon at Wilderville. Ringing speeches were made by Prof. W. R. Wilson, Rev. Fleetwood Ball, A. H. Fronebarger, Rev. J. A. Spence and others.

EX-SHERIFF JIM SEAT GETS OFF EASY.

Man Who Put on Show At Hickman Gets Off With Payment of $125 and the Costs.

J. T. Seat, ex sheriff of Fulton county, who while under the influence of steamboat whiskey attempted to take the town of Hickman, has been released from jail.

Representative Frank Moore, from whom Seat is alleged to have taken a sum of money, and over whose head he fired two pistol shots, vowed at the time that he would prosecute the former sheriff to the limit but after a few days his anger subsided and when the cases were called in court he not only declined to prosecute Mr. Seat, but actually appeared as attorney for the defense.

The result was that Mr. Seat was merely fined $125 and the costs for his little fun.

Mr. Seat has many friends in this end of the county who regret the incident very much and who will be glad to know that he succeeded in getting out of the scrape so easily. Seat is a fine fellow when sober and it is to be hoped that he will steer clear of trouble in the future.

OLD LEAGUERS WILL PLAY BALL HERE.

Manager Alf Kindred To Give Base- Ball Lovers a Treat.—Runyan Will Pitch.

AN ALL STAR ORGANIZATION

The best base ball team that has ever represented Fulton on the ball grounds is that now being got together by Alf Kindred, the well known sportsman.

Mr. Kindred realizes that Fulton needs some sort of interesting sport and he proposes to organize a ball team here that will awaken the enthusiasm of the fans. He is going into the matter entirely on his own responsibility and if the people do not show their appreciation by a liberal attendance he stands to lose a nice little pile of money.

Mr. Kindred has already signed his men and some of them have arrived in Fulton, the others to be in tomorrow. From the names printed below lovers of the national sport will be able to see that this is no kid game affair as most of the men are old leaguers.

The season will open Wednesday, when the crack team from Martin will arrive here for a series of three games.

Pat Runyan, the great Paducah twirler, who last night resigned from the Kitty League and quit the kittens because his demand for more money was not responded to. Mercer, crack short stop of the Kitty quit for the same reason and will be here with the redoubtable Pat. Hastings, from the Southern League will do the back stop work for the locals. Hay the splendid little catcher from Murray will cover the initial sack and be ready to go under the bat in case Hastings should get a finger injured. Downs, of Murray, a member of the old Jack Frost team, will play second and will probably do the twirling Friday. Each individual member of the Fulton team is a star player and will be found there with the goods.

Martin has won practically every game this season. Their line-up contains several imported men of superior ability and the games to be played Wednesday, Thursday and Fri day will be the classiest ever witnessed in Fulton. If you want some good sport during the remainder of the season boost for the ball team and attend every game.

The Martin boys come only for a cash guarantee and as the players Mr. Kindred has signed will not play for experience it will take money to keep the sport going.

TERRIBLE FIGHT WITH BIG SNAKE.

Mississippi Farmer Bitten Repeatedly By Reptile.

Columbia, Miss., Aug. 22.—News has just reached here of a personal encounter of Clown Clark, a farmer of Bassfield, with an enormous rattlesnake and in which the farmer barely escaped with his life.

Clark had gone a short distance into the woods from his house on his way to chip some boards, when he felt what he thought was a sting of a hornet on his bare foot. He was horror stricken when he saw that he had been assailed by a large rattlesnake, and before the terrified man could strike at him with his axe the snake had struck him on the ankle, the effect which knocked the man down. Clark describes the feeling that came over him as he was falling as being like an electric shock. Three times the huge snake struck the fighting man, who had lost his axe in the fall, and this time the bite was on the opposite ankle.

Then began a battle for life that Clark will never forget. The monster snake with a darting tongue striking at his face, the man guarding with his arms and bare hands. When the snake's teeth were caught in his shirt sleeve, the man tore loose. Seizing a nearby stick the man struck the snake a terrific blow, but the rotten stick only fell to pieces.

The frenzied snake bitten man scarcely remembers anything else, except that he was terribly thirsty and actually licked dew from the grass as he was making his way back to his house.

Three quarts of whiskey was poured down his throat before a physician could be obtained. Clark says that the whiskey had no more taste to it than water. The promptness of his people in giving him this whiskey is probably what saved his life, as he was bitten in three places. Under the care of a physician, he is improving.
