WATER VALLEY ROUTE 3

We were certainly pleased to see the announcement, as so many are, of the opening of the new road, getting dry and solid.

Pineville, Aug. 23.—A telegraph message from Four Mile in respect to that well known[crossed-out] highway, that, as we understand, should be open soon, is to the effect that the road is now ready for use.

TERRIBLE Fight WITH BIG SNAKE

Mississippi Farmer Bitten and Struck by a Snake

Cohutta, Miss., Aug. 6. — Robert W. Smith, a farmer here, just reached home late tonight of a fearful experience. He was bitten by a large cottonmouth moccasin on the leg, which had struck him on the shoulder, the effect which knocked him down.

Chick described the feeling that came over him as if he was feeling one being hit on the shoulder. Twice the huge snake struck the fighting man, who had but little time for the fell, and the time the bite was on the opposite side.

This began a battle for life that Chick will never forget. The cottonmouth snake with a darting strike at his feet, then started stinging with the jaws and back and front. When the snakes were under his shirt, the man lost hope. Sitting on a chair, the snake struck the man a terrible blow, but the man felt only a few pangs.

The fumes of the cottonmouth man, however, remained excruciatingly strong, except that he was rapidly killing and actually felt like dying from the poison as he was making his way to his home.

Three quarts of whiskey were poured down his throat before a physician could be obtained. Chick expected to die and had no more thought of life in the manner. The physician was called and Dr. Mason, a man of experience, was called to his home.
