Honors Day Program

3:30 p.m. Friday
May 11, 1984
Curris Center Ballroom

Murray State University

Office of the President
Murray, Ky. 42071 (502) 762-3763

Welcome to Honors Day ceremonies for 1984. Honors Day is one of this university's most important annual observances, because this day symbolizes and recognizes the academic excellence that is our most important goal.

The students recognized on this day have in common a record of achievement and dedication that serves as an example to us all. Their pursuit of excellence is ours. It is their interest and determination in particular which make the efforts of Murray State University's faculty and staff important, worthwhile, and ultimately rewarding.

If you are a student receiving an award on this occasion, I heartily congratulate you and wish you continuing success. If you are a guest of Murray State today, I speak for the entire community in thanking you for joining us. I hope you take the time to look around our beautiful campus while you are here. Enjoy your visit and please do come again.

Sincerely,

Kala M. Stroup
President

On behalf of the Student Body, I take this opportunity to welcome each of you to Murray State University's Annual Honors Day Program.

It is indeed a pleasure and a privilege for Murray State University to recognize those who have excelled in their chosen area of endeavor.

It is most befitting that we welcome you, parents and friends of the Honorees; for through you, many of these young men and women have been afforded the opportunity and freedom to search for and achieve this excellence at Murray State University.

We are very pleased to have you here. We hope that your visit is pleasant, and that you will return soon to share in our hopes and dreams as we pursue our education at Murray State University.

Sincerely,

Don Thomas, President
Student Government Association
