The Week in Social Circles.

Visiting Yacht Parties. Several parties on yachts were held recently in the city, notably by the mayor and Mrs. Torian, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Walker. The latter had a crew of 18 men, and the Torian party was also a large one. These parties were quite sociable, and the yachts were decorated with flower arrangements. The evening was spent in music and conversation.

The Torian party took the Yacht “Monument for Women.” The guest of honor was Miss Eliza Woodson, sister of Mrs. Torian. The party was a large one, and the yachts were decorated with flowers and streamers. The evening was spent in music and conversation.

Mrs. Elmer Walker’s party was held on the Yacht “The Red Cross.” The party was large, and the yachts were decorated with flowers and streamers. The evening was spent in music and conversation.

The mayor and Mrs. Torian’s party was held on the Yacht “The Mayor.” The party was large, and the yachts were decorated with flowers and streamers. The evening was spent in music and conversation.

The Social Events. Several social events were held recently in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson entertained on Friday evening at their home. The party was a large one, and the guests were all from the city. The evening was spent in music and conversation.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Decker entertained on Saturday evening at their home. The party was a large one, and the guests were all from the city. The evening was spent in music and conversation.
