Edgewood Cut-Off Is Taking Form of Real Road Bed

RAILROAD NEWS

The work on the Edgewood Cut-off, the new line the Illinois Central is building into Fulton, is taking the form of a real road bed.

At Camp No. 1, which is the only one we have visited, the large shovel is rapidly cutting through hills, and for something over a mile the level for the road bed has been practically reached. One large cut through a large hill has been completed, and another one practically completed. As the shovel cuts through it loads a car with about every three dips, and the small locomotives are pulling 8 to 10 car trains, hauling the dirt to a large fill about 40 or 50 feet deep.

Nelson and Company have recently received several new locomotives, and expect the work to progress much more rapidly than heretofore, as weather conditions are becoming more favorable.

The right of way has been cleared some distance in advance of the actual construction, fences being put up on either side of the right of way, and concrete culverts put in where necessary.

Although we did not visit the other two construction camps, Nos. 2 and 3, we understand that the work is progressing equally as rapid.

It is not known just when the work on the New Yards at Fulton will start, but probably in the near future.

I. C. Freight Agent Dead

Mr. J. E. Boone, freight agent at Fulton, died Sunday morning at 6 o'clock in the Paducah hospital. Mr. Boone entered the service of the Illinois Central, November 10, 1899, as an Agent-Operator at Bardwell, Kentucky, where he served until August 1, 1921, when he was promoted to agent at Fulton.

Mr. Boone is survived by a wife and three children, one employed in the office of the Chief Dispatcher at the Division office. The other two are small. Mr. Boone was a comparatively young man, only 45 years, and up until a few days before his death was apparently in good health. He was taken ill at his office in the freight house last week, and taken immediately to the hospital, where it was thought his condition was improving.

His death is indeed a shock to his many friends in this vicinity, and means a great loss to the railroad, as Mr. Boone was considered one of the best agents on the Tennessee Division.

His body was taken to Gates, Tenn., on train 133 Monday morning for burial.

Railroad Service and Efficiency Increases 239 Per Cent in 33 Years

The service which the American railroads rendered in 1890 was equivalent to hauling one ton of freight 1,836 miles for every man, woman and child in the country. In 1923 this service amounted to hauling one ton of freight 4,168 miles. Putting it in another way, between 1890 and 1923 the population increased 70 per cent, but the demand for transportation increased 239 per cent.

To meet the present demands for transportation, the railroads have expended since 1920 approximately $3,500,000,000 of new capital for the purchase of new equipment and the improvement and enlargement of permanent facilities. In the current year it is estimated that approximately $4,000,000,000 of new capital will be expended.

To cover the operating expenses, and the capital charges on investment already made and on the new investment necessary to hauling one ton of freight one mile, the railroads in 1890 received an average of approximately 9 1-2 mills. In 1923 and 1924 the average receipt for carrying a ton of freight one mile was only 1.6 mills greater than in 1890, or 1.11 cents.

Year by year the demands on the transportation system of the country are increasing, as well as better accommodations and faster schedules, until at present the movement of a high class freight train is given as much attention, as our high class passenger trains were years ago. This is a fair indication of the prosperity and advancement of our country in the last 20 or 25 years.

Mr. W. H. Cox, track supervisor for the I. C. has returned from the Paducah Hospital where he has been for some time.

HARRIS FORK CLEANED OUT

The month of March in Fulton was disastrous for law violators. In police court Judge Taylor reported $661.00 fines and costs assessed. Many had to work out fines so Chief Drysdale took a crew of eleven jail birds down to the placid little stream of Harris Fork, resulting in a much needed clean-out.

Shall Fulton Have A Hospital?

This is a matter in which every loyal Fultonian should be keenly interested. When we consider our geographical situation, our facilities for transportation and the needs of the community there is surely no one who would question either the need of a hospital nor the possibility of having one. Other towns all around us and some with less population and none of them with as good facilities as we have, have hospitals; why not Fulton? We are sending our people to out-of-town hospitals every week. This fact has a three-fold weakness; first, our sick are out of reach of their families; second, the danger to the patient is made greater by reason of the travel; third, several thousands of dollars go out of Fulton every year to other hospitals and other cities and towns which ought to be kept at home. There certainly is no good reason that Fulton can assign for not having such an institution which could not have been true to a greater degree with some of our neighboring towns.

For several weeks now a committee from the Chamber of Commerce has been working on the project of trying to get a hospital established in Fulton. The situation so far is very encouraging. It will remain largely for the people to decide whether we shall have a hospital and at least keep abreast of the towns around us or whether we shall sit still and let Murry, Ky., Martin, Tenn., Mayfield, Ky., and Dyersburg, Tenn., leave us and take care of our sick.

COMMUNITY STORE A FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Woman's Club Does Business in a Business Way

The Community store of the Woman's Club which opened on Monday has proved to be a most satisfactory undertaking and the sales have been as large as could have been hoped for.

The stock of goods displayed cover a wide field, there being shown almost anything one could desire on sale. Gentlemen's shirts, collars, ties, socks, children's clothing, both new and used. Many kinds of women's apparel, running from kitchen aprons to silk hosiery. Home made jellies and preserves, canned goods of every description, breakfast foods in great variety, and in fact, about all the good things to eat that can be imagined.

This noon and tomorrow, a luncheon will be served in the Chamber of Commerce beginning at noon and lasting till well into the afternoon. In conjunction with the luncheon there will be on sale all sorts of cakes, pies, baked chickens and eatables that will serve to make the Easter Sunday dinner easier to prepare and allow the housewife time for a better enjoyment of the day, and her new clothes.

The object of the sale is to start a fund for a Community Home, which the Woman's Club has decided to build, and the past record of the Fulton Woman's Club is ample guarantee that the home will be an accomplished fact at no very distant day. If one will think back over the past, they will realize that this organization of women has always succeeded in everything that it has undertaken, and if the public will come forward with the help it has always given in the past, Fulton will have a community center where the people of, not only the town, but the surrounding country will be able to meet and enjoy thoroughly educational and pleasurable contact with their neighbors, but a focus for the various movements for the making of Fulton a more pleasant and beautiful place to live.

While the Chamber of Commerce is cooperating with the Woman's Club in the movement, it is due entirely to the women that the project was started, and every citizen of Fulton should take pride in assisting every way in the making of this community home, and be able to feel that they have aided in a work that will last for all time as a place that can be pointed to with the pride of having had a hand in the work.

Enthusiastic Scout Meeting--Officers Elected for Year.

The Local General Committee of the Boy Scouts of America held its annual meeting at the Chamber of Commerce on last Tuesday night and re-elected the old officers, consisting of Joe Browder, President; J. E. Fall, Vice President; Dr. N. W. Hughes, Secretary-Treas. The other members of the committee are: T. M. Franklin, Dr. J. C. Seruggs, Leslie Weaks, J. W. Culver, Rev. C. H. Warren, G. G. Bard, C. P. Williams and J. D. Davis. Mr. Davis was the only new member joining the Scout movement at this meeting.

The old Examining Committee was also re-elected and is composed of the following: J. W. Culver, Chairman, Dr. Seruggs, Rev. Warren, C. P. Williams and Mr. Bard.

An Assistant Examining Committee, consisting of Paul Pickering, chairman, J. A. Normant, L. J. Clements, Leslie Weaks and Morris Howell was appointed. This committee takes the place of the Executors and Commissioners of the organization of large cities, and will examine candidates for the second and first class grades, before the candidates appear before the regular Examining Committee.

It is noteworthy that the last member of the new committee, Morris Howell, recently appeared before the Examining Committee and was passed to the Eagle Scout class, being the first Fulton boy to receive this honor, and the fact of his being appointed on a committee to serve with men, all of whom are much older than he, speaks well for the consideration in which he is held by his superiors in the work.

Mr. Joe Davis was appointed publicity officer for the Annual Drive for funds which will soon be inaugurated. Ernest Fall and Leslie Weaks were appointed as team captains for this drive and will have full charge of the work when started.

The meeting discussed a summer camp for all the scouts and intend to make it the biggest camp that has ever been held, and a committee composed of Clyde Williams, chairman, Dr. Seruggs, Leslie Weaks and Joe Browder was appointed to make plans and select a site.

The meeting was the largest and most enthusiastic that the Scout movement has ever held in Fulton, there being a large number of non-members present and the enthusiasm was contagious. Everyone present was strongly for the boys, and it will undoubtedly be the means of making more parents think of what the scouts and their work mean to a community.

No thinking parent could attend a meeting of this sort and not go away with a thorough idea of what it means to their sons to become members of the troops and a firm determination to assist in the work in every way possible. It is hoped by the officers that at the next public meeting there will be even a larger attendance of the general public.

"SERVICE WITH A SMILE"
W. H. Scates, the Ford dealer, has adopted for his slogan, "Service with a Smile." He lives up to it, too. And it matters not whether you ride off in a Ford or just buy a new part or accessory you get the service with a smile.

Elizabeth, the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Shankle, has been quite ill this week. She is reported to be some better today.

The friends of Mrs. M. L. Short welcome her home and are glad she is recovering her health.

This Is Dress Up Week

PERSONAL ATTIRE IS AN EXPRESSION OF PERSON-AL EFFICIENCY

Personal Clothes Reveal the Value We Set On Our Own Worthiness

FULTON MERCHANTS ARE READY TO DRESS YOU UP

DRESS UP WEEK was not originated by a community, that its members might gloss over their imperfections and appear to be what they are not—it was not intended to make a company of hypocrites. Many a man is hiding genuine mahogany behind cheap veneer—basically the average individual possesses real worth—most men are not accurate in their appraisal of self—they need the advice of men of experience and judgment.

IT IS INTENDED to inculcate in all self-respecting individuals an appreciation of the worth of personal appearance and its value to the community as an index of personal character. Our clothes reveal the value we set on our own worthiness.

PREPAREDNESS FOR PROGRESS demands high pressure efficiency. It calls into action all the resources of the individual and the nation. The man who puts up a good bluff may "get by" at times, but the man who delivers the goods "brings home the bacon"—and that's what counts in these stirring days of progress.

PERSONAL EFFICIENCY is what the nation needs. It needs keen thinkers, clean liners and clear consciences. It needs men who are potentially strong and who are proud of it. It needs women who possess innate beauty of heart, soul and body, and who make us proud of it.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED from what they were sixty years ago. The patched pantaloons went out of style with the hoopskirt. The twentieth century business man does business today with modern tools. He fights with modern weapons. He wins because he deserves to win—and because he never overlooks the smallest element that leads to success—he is always at his best.

THE MENTAL PICTURE of success never carries the figure of a slovenly man or a dowdy woman—the characters are always clean cut—they make the picture live because they have the right character, clothes and poise—ah, that's the word, "poise"—it's dynamic with culture, refinement, style, grace—all that's desirable of attainment—"DRESS UP."

The show windows of Fulton stores reflect the Dress-up spirit. They are ready for you.

Easter Egg Hunt At Fair Grounds

The Easter egg hunt planned by the Lions Club for the children today at the Fair grounds is an event that will long be remembered by the little folks of Fulton. It is the biggest thing ever attempted in our city for the amusement of the little ones, and we will add, for the grown-ups, as nothing will please the parents of the children more than to see them engaged in the hunt. There are hundreds of prizes and no child will be disappointed. A large number of the children will be accompanied by their parents and everything will be done to make the event a happy occasion. The Lions are to be commended on their thoughtfulness in providing the day of amusement.

SPECIAL NEXT SUNDAY FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.
Sunday School 9:45

MORNING SERMON

"Lord show us the way"

EVENING SERVICE

Easter Cantata

BIG MUSICAL PROGRAM.

First Christian Church O. J. Sowell, Pastor.

The Sunday School was well attended last Sunday. The superintendent is delighted to see the fine increase as the spring time opens up in all of its glory and splendor. We hope to make a great Sunday school record next Sunday, by having a great crowd. The Loyal Lou's Bible Class extends an invitation to all men to attend the class and enjoy the fellowship of Christian men.

The church services were well attended Sunday and Bro. Sowell preached two strong sermons on "The Christian's Victory," in the morning and "Fulton's Idolatry," in the evening. These two sermons should cause the people of Fulton to sit up and take notice. Until the good Christian citizens of a town take a hand in cleaning up the sin and vice, there can't be much accomplishment.

The Junior Endeavor was well attended Sunday night and they enjoyed a fine discussion by the boys on "The Ideal Girl." Next Sunday the girls will discuss, "The Ideal Boy." The Juniors are doing some fine work and are being trained for future leaders in the church life.

The week of prayer service will be held at the church on Friday afternoon at 2:30. All are urged to attend this service.

The India-Gordon Missionary Society met with Mrs. Fred Brady on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. A good meeting was held and much accomplished for the benefit of the church life.

Mr. J. E. Boone passed away in the Paducah hospital last Sunday morning after a serious illness which lasted for several days. We extend our sincere sympathy and prayer to the family. Mr. Boone was a member of the Christian Church and a fine Christian man in every respect.

Mrs. O. J. Sowell is improving rapidly after undergoing an operation in the Paducah hospital.

Mrs. J. M. Culver is improving after being ill for several days at her home on Third street.

Rev. O. J. Sowell spent Monday in Paducah with Mrs. Sowell.

The Knight Templars of Fulton and the surrounding towns will be guests of the First Christian church Sunday night. There will be reserved seats and a special address along with the cantata.

Mrs. Jake Huddleston was a visitor in Paducah this week.

Miss Georgie Long is improving after being ill of pneumonia for some time.

Sunday school—9:45.

Lord's Supper and Church—11:00.

Junior Endeavor—6:30.

Easter Cantata—8:00.

All are welcome.

B. P. O. E. INSTALL OFFICERS FOR 1925

Monday night, April 6th, the local lodge of the B. P. O. E. installed the following officers for the year 1925:

R. A. Stille, Exalted Ruler; T. J. Grigg, Esteemed Leading Knight; W. W. Claypool, Esteemed Loyal Knight; J. E. Boone, Jr., Esteemed Lecturing Knight; P. M. Newhouse, Secretary; H. H. Murphy, Treasurer; H. Ed Wade, Tiler; R. M. Walch, Inner Guard.

The officers were installed by S. D. Stenbridge, Grand Exalted Ruler of Hickman lodge. The attendance was very good, and after the installation of officers a banquet was spread which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Harpole are the proud parents of a pretty little daughter, born Sunday at their home on Jackson street.

Miss Mollie Hall Passes Away Tuesday Night

Tuesday at midnight, April 7, the death angel entered the home of Miss Mollie Evelyn Hall and carried her spirit away. The end came after many months of patient suffering, and while she has gone from the scenes, the conflicts, the sorrows and pleasures of life, she will still live in the hearts of those who knew her best. Her Christian life was beautiful from its beginning to its close, and through all the vicissitudes and sorrows that she met in the way, her faith in God never wavered. Miss Hall was a devoted member of the Methodist Church and will be sadly missed by a large circle of friends.

Deceased is survived by one brother, Will Hall, of Toledo, Ohio, and many relatives, besides a devoted sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Hall, who nursed and tenderly cared for her through her long illness.

Funeral services were held on Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Jack Hall on Park Avenue, conducted by Rev. J. V. Freeman and Rev. R. H. Pigue, burial following in Bethlehem cemetery near Pilot Oak.

The friends of Mrs. Lee B. Rucker are pleased to learn that she is recovering her health since being treated at a Memphis hospital.

JOHN DEERE Model "B" Disc Harrow

By means of the third lever, spring and John Deere pivoted yoke, this harrow can be given the required pressure to penetrate at even depth its full width under all the above conditions.

It is a really flexible harrow—penetrates, pulverizes and packs in conditions where rigid harrows fail to work all the soil. Each gang works independently, like separate harrows, and both can be given the proper angle to pulverize under varying conditions.

It is strong—will last years longer than ordinary harrows because of its all-steel main frame and double-bar, riveted gang frames. It has oscillating scrapers with lock-down and lock-off features, and the most convenient grease cups—easy to fill and out of the dust and dirt.

We can furnish the John Deere Model "B" with rear gang and hitch to convert it into a double-action, horse- or tractor-drawn harrow—a good way to save money and yet get good results.

NEWSPAPER FOR THE COLORED POPULATION

The Harmonizer is a new paper in Fulton, published by C. C. Carter, in the interest of the colored race. It is well edited and will be helpful to the colored population in keeping them in close touch with news happenings of special interest in their group. Since coming to Fulton, the publisher has associated himself with the leaders of his race and a stock company has been organized to obtain funds with which to install a printing plant in a building on the Tennessee side. At present the paper is being printed by the Paducah Printing Company at Paducah.

The Dahlia

No Flower Garden is Complete Without It. Easy to Grow

The Decorative Dahlia is the pride of all Dahlias, standing out pre-eminently. In the garden the plants are strong, sturdy, vigorous growers, with heavy, dark green foliage, and a remarkable constitution. The blossoms are produced in great profusion, which is exceptional for a type of giant flowering Dahlias. For cut-flower purposes they are unsurpassed, having long, straight stems of wiry stiffness and producing their flowers in a pleasing upright manner; then principally their lasting qualities when cut they are unequalled, lasting longer than any of the other types. As an exhibition flower the Decorative Dahlia is the most gigantic of all Dahlias, blossoms having beauty, substance, quality—all essential characteristics of a true "Model of Perfection." As a decorative flower they are first in every respect; being graceful, adapted to designs, and most artistic.

No flower garden is complete without Dahlias. But all Dahlias are not alike; there are a number of varieties. It is just as easy to grow the best varieties as the ordinary kind.

HILL'S "America" THE ROSE OF THE CENTURY

This superb rose, for which the horticultural world has been waiting for so long, is now ready for distribution, and we consider it a great privilege to help the E. F. Hill company in its dissemination.

We have tried it out in our test garden. It blooms continuously from early May until heavy frost, on stems two to three feet long, and the color is the most glorious glowing rose-pink imaginable. The buds are long and pointed and open up most artistically as the petals fold back, leaving the high-pointed center fully exposed.

It is as near disease resistant as a rose can be, always having a clean, glossy foliage at all seasons of the year. It rivals the American Beauty in size of flower, and if you are looking for a marvelous rose you will make no mistake in growing "America."

This wonderful rose has captured the prize in every rose show where it has been exhibited. In Paris and New York International show it was awarded the gold medal for being the best pink.

The price is $1.00 for 2-year old plants, guaranteed to bloom this year. R. S. Williams, Fulton, Ky.

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., D.D., of the Evening School, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(18, 1875, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for April 12

THE CRIPPLE AT THE BEAUTIFUL GATE

LESSON TEXT—Acts 3.
GOLDEN TEXT—"I am the Lord that health thee"—Is. 53:6.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of a Lame Man.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Care of a Cripple.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Care of a Cripple and Its Results.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Church's Ministry to Body and Soul.

The indications are that some months had elapsed since Pentecost. The believers were being taught by the apostles who were showing their credentials by their mighty works (Acts 2:43).

1. The Lame Man Healed (v. 1-11).

1. The Occasion (v. 1).

Peter and John were going to the house of worship. They were friends who were mutual complements—each having that which the other lacked. This fellowship was according to the Lord's own arrangement and was most fitting. They were going up to Jerusalem to worship, though they knew full well the corruption of Judaism.

2. The Place (v. 2).

It was at the gate which leads from the outer to the inner court of the temple. It was called beautiful because of its magnificent bronze doors. This man was placed at the entrance to the place of worship because when a man comes closest to God he also comes closest to his fellowmen.

3. The Man (v. 2-3).

This beggar was infirm from his birth. He was a familiar figure, known by the people for years. When he saw Peter and John he asked alms.

4. The Method (v. 4-8).

(1) Gained the Man's Attention (v. 4). Peter and John commanded him to look on them. The sinner's attention must be secured before Christ can heal him. Having secured his attention they gave him more than he asked or expected. He asked for money and got healing.

(2) Peter Commanded Him in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth to rise up and walk (v. 6). This was the very thing he was unable to do for so many years. Was not this mocking his very impotence? No! Not for it was in the name of Jesus. With the command went the ability to do.

(3) Peter Took Him by the Right Hand (v. 7). This act was meant to give impetus to his faith, not strength to his ankles.

5. The Man's Response (v. 8).

Strength came to his feet and ankle bones at once. He stood; he walked; he leaped and shouted praises to God. He thoroughly advertised the miracle. He ascribed the honor to God for his healing, and walked into the house of God.

6. The Effect (v. 9-11).

The people were filled with wonder and amazement. The multitude ran together to see this remarkable thing. There was no question as to the genuineness of the miracle for this man had been a familiar figure for many years. It was evident that something supernatural had occurred.

(1) The helpless beggar had to be carried to the temple gate. Men and women out of Christ are spiritually helpless. We should bring sinners to Christ.

(2) Taking him by the hand shows the manner of Christian help. Ministers of Christ may not have silver or gold, but have something infinitely better to give.

II. Peter Witnessed of Jesus Before the Multitude (v. 12-20).

This miracle focused the attention of the people upon Peter and John. Peter immediately turned their attention from himself to Christ. Peter seized the opportunity to present Christ to the people who had assembled. He told them that it was by faith in Jesus Christ whom the God of their fathers had glorified, whom they had delivered up and denied before Pilate when he desired to set Him free, and had desired a murderer to be granted to them instead. He showed that the disciples were also witnesses that God had raised Jesus from the dead, and charged home upon them their awful guilt; for they had denied the Holy one and chosen Barabbas, a murderer, instead of Christ, and even killed the Prince of Life. Despite their crime he appealed to them to repent (v. 19). Since they had committed this awful crime in ignorance, God would pardon their sin if they would repent, and he assured them that they should yet enjoy refreshing seasons from the Lord when God would send back Jesus Christ to earth to consummate the work of redemption.

Your Conscience

HATCH CHICKS EARLY FOR WINTER LAYERS

Early hatched chicks are the ones that make the early and consistent winter layers. However, this does not mean that earlier than around March 15 is desirable. Neither does it mean that late April and May hatched chicks are the desirable kinds. The problem is to have the chicks hatched sufficiently early to have winter laying pullets and yet not have them so early that they will molt in the late fall. Again, the quicker-maturing, smaller breeds like the Anconas may be safely hatched later than the larger breeds like the Wyandottes. Yet, all in all, it appears to me that in far too many cases, the hatching of chicks on farms is so late and that few are they who have their chicks coming off too early, writes A. C. Hartenbowe in the Oklahoma Farmer.

Whether to incubate the eggs on the farm or to buy baby chicks must be governed to no small extent by the equipment on the farm, by the prices of eggs when compared with that of baby chicks, and by the breeding stock available. In many cases, it will be a paying proposition to purchase baby chicks from reliable breeders to the end, especially, that good stock may be had to replace the mixed stock now on the farm, while in still other cases, where the farmer makes consistent improvement in his flock of pure bred chickens by culling, using high-class males or keeping a breeding pen, it would be folly to send away for baby chicks. I know there are thousands of dollars practically thrown away each year in purchasing baby chicks for the simple reason that the equipment at hand for caring for the chicks is not suitable, and the result is a good per cent of the young chicks never reach maturity. In other words, the cost of those raised is away out of reason when compared with what they will bring when sold either as breeding stock or on the market.

Incubation of Eggs of Various Fowls on Farm

The eggs from all but Muscovy ducks will hatch in twenty-six to twenty-eight days. Muscovy duck eggs require from thirty-three to thirty-six days. Guinea eggs take from twenty-six to twenty-eight days to hatch. Turkey eggs hatch on the twenty-eighth day, but it varies on an egg hatch on the twenty-seventh day and the hatching continues until the twenty-ninth or thirtieth day.

Duck eggs in an incubator require a temperature of 102 degrees. This is also satisfactory for turkey eggs. The guinea eggs will hatch at 102 to 103 degrees. Incubators are very satisfactory for duck eggs. Turkey eggs are seldom hatched in incubators. Neither are guineas.

A mixture of equal parts of bread crumbs and rolled oats, and a sprinkling of about 3 per cent sand is a good starting feed for ducklings. Bread and milk is also satisfactory. Stale bread soaked in milk and squeezed nearly dry is a good first feed for poults. When three weeks old they can be worked over to rolled oats and fine chicks' scratch feed, and larger grains added as the birds develop. There are many good rations for turkeys, but do not use sloppy mash. Guinea-like bread crumbs and rolled oats and can soon eat fine chick feed. They are great foragers and insect eaters and will soon gather most of their ration.

Iowa Ration No. 11

Here is Ration No. 11, recommended by the Iowa experiment station. The mash is as follows: Two hundred pounds ground oats, 100 pounds ground corn, and 100 pounds of 80 per cent tankage. This is fed with scratch feed composed of 200 pounds shelled corn and 100 pounds oats. It is considered one of the lowest priced and one of the most practical rations, the college states, that can be recommended for farm conditions.

Poultry Hints

Gather eggs twice a day.

Keep the eggs in a cool, fairly dry place.

Remember quality is essential for best prices.

Know the shipping requirements of express or railroad companies when you use their services.

Market eggs at least twice a week. Delay in marketing means selling stale and deteriorated eggs.

Keep an abundance of clean litter on the poultry house floor. Clean floors mean fewer dirty eggs.

Don't crowd the winter layers. Each hen should have at least three square feet of floor space, where the flock is confined in the house, for maximum egg production.

Provide one nest for every four or five hens and make the nests of clean material. Plenty of clean nests reduce the number of stolen nests and the number of cracked and dirty eggs.

The White Hyacinth

By NELLE R. EBERHART

(© 1935, Western Newspaper Union.)

SIDE by side they sat in the beautiful auditorium in orchestra chairs. It was Marcia's birthday and this concert with a little supper afterward had weeks before been chosen by Judson for an extravagant celebration.

Such luxuries were few, yet they wasted little breath in lamentations. Young, healthy, in love, their simple pleasures were many. A Sunday morning walk in one of the parks, a ferry trip to Staten Island, a moonlight bus ride along the Hudson, the nine o'clock singing hour at St. Mark's-on-the-Bowery, the discussion of their daily affairs, the details of his study, the planning of their future home—these joys were unending springs of delight.

One thing they lacked—passionately fond of music, they never heard enough good singing, for Judson's salary was small, he was attending night classes as well as educating a talented brother. Marcia, herself, supported her mother and high school sister.

From this strange sell the thought of the concert had bloomed like an orchid on a window sill. It was a wonder, an excitement, an entrance; an operatic concert, too—almost as good as the opera. And for once they were to hear the performance nearby instead of from the dizzy heights of the family circle.

For the occasion, Florence had fashioned her a straight, sleeveless gown from three yards of midnight blue moire. She had no ornaments, but her slim white arms needed no further adornment than the dimple at the elbow and the adorable young curve of her wrist.

Knowing that many men wear business suits to concerts, Judson contented himself with buying a handsome tie and a new pair of gloves.

Then, suddenly, their first quarrel! Sitting now in the luxuriousness of her velvet seat, her eyes strained to her program, Marcia, thinking back, could scarcely remember what had caused the unexpected flareup. Seemingly without provocation they quarreled bitterly and parted in frigid silence.

In the early next morning's mail, Marcia had received a stiff note from Judson enclosing the tickets and requested her to take Florence with her as he would be busy that evening. Marcia had been aghast and had flown to the telephone just in time to catch him before he left for business. There had been a compromise but no reconciliation. Marcia returned Judson one ticket and they had each gone alone, hurt and aloe.

Marcia sighed—without response; Judson's gaze explored the parterre, the grand tier, the dress circle, the balcony; it dared the family circle and dropped to the stage as the conductor took his place, yet never brushed the edge of Marcia's gown. Very sleek and handsome was Judson in his well pressed suit and new tie. Marcia thrilled with pride, casting furtive, hungry glances toward his stony profile. In her abstraction, the overture left her cold. Then a familiar strain; Marcia caught her breath; Judson's immobile features changed noticeably. This was Judson's song—Judson, who could not sing a note but nightly voiced his love to her in De Gorge's phonograph record of Massenet's "Fleeting Vision." Now for the first time they were to hear it sung by a living voice, yet they were not to enjoy it together! Through all its heavenly melody they were to sit apart, though side by side, separated by a foolish, almost forgotten, misunderstanding. And this was her birthday treat!

Marcia recalled what Judson had said when he first shared with her his golden idea:

"Suppose I can't afford the money, Marcia. Suppose I have no spring overcoat and Chester needs a new piano. This concert is to be a white hyacinth for our souls."

Marcia's prudent objections had died. She had added joyously:

"And we'll remember it afterward, note for note, word for word, to help us over the hard places."

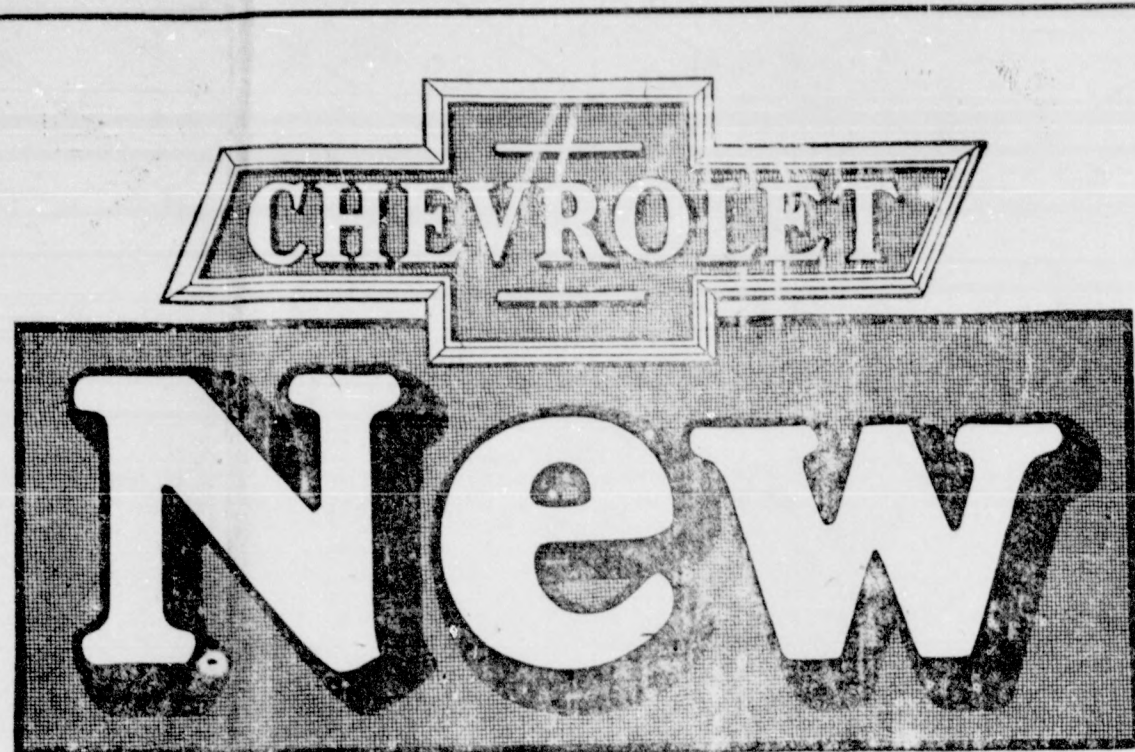

Marcia sighed again as the music stopped and the applause assaulted her ears; she looked openly, invitingly at her lover. His stubborn mouth had relaxed, his hands gripped the chair arms, he looked woefully tired. And here was his beautiful thought for her, carried out at the cost of wearisome self-denial, coming to a pitiful end. If she spoke now they would still have an hour of music and the intermission together. One of their plans had been to promenade the Metropolitan corridors during the intermission.

Impulsively she turned to him and intercepted a shy, fleeting glance. Before her lips opened, however, she heard the prelude to the Habenera. She sank back mentally following the glorious voice and translating:

"Love is like a woodbird rebelling."

Her hand slid over the chair arm, found Judson's, which stole to meet it. With tears raining down her face, oblivious of the surrounding audience, she turned to her lover. To her joy, his transfigured gaze met hers.

"L'amour! L'amour!" Their hands clasped fervently. Inspired by the spirit of song, their hearts again marched to the music of the spheres. It was a white hyacinth for their souls. Note for note, word for word, this concert would go with them even to the gates of Paradise.

EASTER

Awake, wintry earth—
Fling off thy sadness!
Fair vernal flowers laugh
forth
Your ancient gladness!
Christ is risen.

Let all the jubilant sounds of earth rise up and in a resonant
wave of triumphant song proclaim:

Spring bursts today.
For Christ is risen and all the world's at play.

Again, amid the season of sun and shower—Nature's smiles and tears—seed so long
in darkness sleeping have burst
the bonds of winter's snows, invisible germs imprisoned in the bosom of the earth are born again, and live again in the radiant Easterday of Nature's resurrection.

We may have borne the burden of sorrow, felt the sore-sting of disappointment; have wept above the still form, and sighed for the touch of a vanished hand, the sound of a voice that is still, but let us
robe ourselves anew in the sunny gladness of a hope so bright
—the hope that defies the grave and goes forth to meet
the shadowy future fearlessly
and unafraid.

The glory of Easter and a risen Lord bring healing to earth's wounds, and as the vernal sun lifts the mists and shadows from the mountain-

tops, so the pledge of Easter
holds before our eyes, the vision
of immortality, the blessed hope—the promise, "Because I live, ye shall live also."

AN ANNOUNCEMENT RE- CEIVED WITH REGRET

The announcement of the resignation of Rev. O. J. Sowell, pastor of the First Christian church, effective May 1, was received with general regret.
Rev. Sowell will return to Phillips University, Enid, Okla.,
where he will further prepare
himself for the general evangelistic work.

Rev. Sowell is a brilliant young orator who expounds the gospel as only few men are capable. His pastorate here
has been crowned with phenomenal success and the membership blessed by his coming.
The church was never in better working spirit. Every department is organized and all church work systematized. The membership has been largely increased.

Mr. and Mrs. Sowell will be greatly missed in Fulton social circles. They have won the love and esteem of the entire community. Both are gifted with unusual talents and few entertainments are given but what they take part.

It would certainly be a blessing to the community and the First Christian Church if the Rev. Sowell's resignation was not accepted and he continue his good work here.

some tie and a new pair of gloves.

In Case of Emergency

When you want a thing in a hurry
you rush to a local store and get it.
But do you realize that the existence of our stores depends upon
continued business.

If every person in this community were
to use the stores only for emergencies
there would soon be no more places
to satisfy those urgent needs.

You should do your part towards keeping local business alive and in a constant state of betterment by doing all your trading at home. It will be profitable to you as well as to the entire community.

COMMUNITY STORE ON MAIN STREET

The "Community Store" conducted by the Woman's club of Fulton, on Main street during the week has been well patronized. Many useful articles were purchased at reasonable prices, and everyone left the store as walking advertisements.
The stock, contributed by the various firms, is attractively arranged, and the sales-
ladies are alert in offering them
to their patrons in a pleasing
way.

The members of the club
who are in charge of the actual work of conducting the store deserve much credit. There has never been anything in Fulton to equal it.

If you, gentle reader, failed
to attend the opening of the Community store, better get busy and attend the closing.
You will find some real bargains.

PROTECTION NEEDED

Now that the spring season
is here and new vegetation of tender shoots of grass are putting out, we are horrified to see fish wagons and banana
wagons back up to the railroad park to sell their stock. The buyers from these wagons do
not realize the damage done
to railroad property when they walk on the grass.

The city should protect this property. The railroad company spends lots of money in beautifying their grounds in Fulton. They have made it one of the beauty spots of their entire system. All of the Lake street front has been beautified
and to allow a public market
place at one of the most prominent points, destroying growing vegetation and causing this spot to be an eyesore is beyond reason.

CITY GARAGE ENJOYING GOOD BUSINESS

Earle & Taylor, proprietors
of the City Garage on Lower Lake street, are enjoying a splendid business, due to honest work and efficient service.
They sell the Chevrolet car, one of the best low priced cars on the market. In their advertisement in this paper all of the new models are displayed with prices quoted. The pictures are not as pretty as the cars themselves. If you are interested in a car it will pay you to call at the City Garage and examine the Chevrolet.

"JUST LOOKING AROUND"

A large crowd of visitors
were in the city Saturday, mostly "looking around." Some,
however, took advantage of the pre-Easter sales and dressed
themselves up with springtime beauty.

Chicken Fanciers Meet.

A number of chicken fanciers
met at the Chamber of Commerce on Monday night to organize a Poultry Association, but owing to the fact that sufficient publicity had not been given the meeting, only a small number was present. The few who did attend were extremely enthusiastic and it was decided that they form themselves into a committee and appear before the Chamber of Commerce on next Tuesday night and request that body to endorse the movement
and assist in giving the movement publicity.

A list made up from memory
by those present indicated that there must be a large number of people in the neighborhood of Fulton who were already raising thoroughbred chickens, as a list
of more than forty names was made. With that number to start with, it would seem that there should be no difficulty in securing a large membership.

Tentative efforts have already been made to secure larger quarters from the board of managers of the Fulton County Fair Association, and it is believed that if a sufficient number indicate their intention of exhibiting at the next county fair, that the request
will be heeded.

When it is realized that it does not cost any more to raise good chickens than it does to raise scrubs, the organizations feel
that more people will try to own
good stock, and reap the profits
that can be made by selling their birds to others who wish to start
a good strain of fowls.

While the fair has always had some chickens on exhibition and given prizes that were worth while, it is felt that by forming an association the interest can be greatly stimulated and gate receipts considerably increased.

It should be understood that the Fair Association is not fostering the movement, however,
but it is a purely spontaneous
movement of those who are already fanciers of the chicken as a means of money making or for the pure pleasure of raising a little better chicken than their neighbors.

It is hoped that every one who is interested in chickens will be at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on next Tuesday night, April 14, and signify his intention of joining the association. Further information can be had by calling at the Chamber of Commerce.

Streets to Be Oiled.

At the regular meeting of the City Council, last Monday night,
it was decided that the streets
should be oiled, at least in the business section, and another
meeting will be held next Monday night to make final arrangements.

The subject of a sewer system
was also discussed and it is quite likely that this work will be inaugurated soon. This subject will be further discussed at the next meeting.

Should the City Fathers decide
to start this work it will give
work to a large number of men
and the long delayed paving of the streets in a permanent manner will be in sight. Citizens of Fulton should hail this movement
of the Council with pleasure and urge the members to start the work at the very earliest moment possible.

IT'S THE EXTRA MILK

That more than pays the slight difference in cost between PURINA COW CHOW FEED and other rations.

What if it does cost about one cent more per cow per day to use PURINA COW CHOW FEED—it makes a cow give from one to three pounds more milk
per day.

Then too—PURINA COW CHOW keeps
cows in better condition even when on test giving record yields—a 24% protein ration, (20% digestible protein) all a cow can assimilate, with no waste energy and ideal physical condition.

Try a ton and you will realize why PURINA
COW CHOW FEED is the most used quality
ration in the country.

Easter Sunday, 9:15 a. m.—Church school. The Lenten offering boxes for 1925 will be collected and those holding them are requested to return them today.

8 a. m.—Early Holy Communion services.

11 a. m.—Holy Communion and sermon on the subject of the Resurrection of Jesus.

4 p. m.—Evening prayer and address on the subject of the day.

Morning and evening, the Lenten self-denial envelopes will be collected and the Easter thanks offering will be called for. The former for the spread of the Gospel among needy people and the latter offering for the local necessities of the parish.

Special music by the vested choir and appropriate sermons for the occasion.

Services This Week.

Wednesday, 4 p. m.—Anti-Communion services and short address.

Thursday, 7 p. m.—Choir practice at the church.

Good Friday, in commemoration of the crucifixion of Christ on the Cross. The three hour services will be held from 12 noon to 3 p. m. with an offering for Near East relief of the Christian church in and about Palestine. At 7 p. m. Litany and short address by the rector. These services will conclude the Lenten services for the year 1925.

Church News

Dr. Boyd is slowly recovering from his temporary collapse from overwork and was able to hold short Lenten services throughout the week. Last Sunday he officiated at both the Church school and the Church service during the day. He is still indisposed, but improving in health.

Mr. Thomas Moss of Columbus, Ky., was a visitor at the rectory on last Sunday and attended the services at the church.

William Roberts, who went to Texas for his health last autumn has returned to his home in Columbus, Kentucky, and has resumed his duties as R. R. ticket agent at South Columbus, and his duties at the Christ's Church there. He is reported in good health and again feeling fine. This is good news for his many friends in Columbus, Ky.

Neal Karmire is added to the working staff of the Hornbeak bakery for Saturday and Sundays and will learn the art of dough-mixing.

Mrs. John Hoar's health remains about the same since her removal to her people in Jackson, Miss.

Some new faces in last Sunday's congregation were appreciated and will be again welcomed.

The rectory grounds are being beautifully decorated by the variety of spring flowers, now in bloom. Dr. Boyd has planted out about 500 choice bulbs of different kinds and more than sixty different kinds of roses. Some of his dwarf fruit trees are in full bloom and he expects a crop of fruit on them the second year after planting.

Tobacco News

Last week was the lightest of the season at the Association barn, only $94,505 pounds being delivered, making a total of 1,831,100 pounds for the season, to date. The small amount of leaf delivered was due to the very dry weather that has prevailed for the past week or more, which caused the tobacco to become too dry to handle with security.

The registrations for the ensuing week were also greatly diminished by the same cause, only three farmers having registered up to 4:30 Saturday afternoon.

Unless more favorable ordering weather develops soon, the delay in getting the crop hauled off will cause a considerable increase in the cost of handling the seasons crop, and it is greatly to be hoped that every farmer will take every advantage of the weather conditions in order that the barns will not be required to remain open longer than can be avoided this year.

Sales for the week were also lighter than usual, only $2,775 pounds having been sold during the week. The best grade delivered for the week was $3D22 bringing $20.00.

The work of installing the hydraulic press was completed this week and from now on the major part of the prizing will be done at the new barn, and thus make a considerable reduction in the cost of that operation, as heretofore, the tobacco has been hauled to the old Browder barn of the Williamson barn to be prized. From now on this haulage will be unnecessary and a great deal of time and expense will be saved.

The arrangements in the new barn allow of the packing of twelve hogsheads at one time. The hogsheads when filled will be carried to the press on small cars running on rails, deposited on a scale and from there be placed under the press, all without being removed from the car.

As soon as the press has finished its work the hogshead will be delivered by the press on the shipping floor, thus saving a considerable amount of hand labor that will make the quick handling of the packed cases much more easy than was possible under the old screw press system.

Bundle kindling is clean and easily handled. Makes a fire quickly. Call us for your needs. CITY COAL CO.

A NEW SUIT

With spring here, everybody wants a new suit. Everyone wants to look the part. No one wants to be regarded as a back number.

That is well enough as far as it goes—pride in personal appearance is to be commended, but it doesn't go far enough.

The home and its surroundings should keep pace. It is scarcely fitting to trip along in new toggery and stumble over tip cans and other refuse in the front yard.

Get the new spring suit by all means. You will look good to others and feel satisfied with yourself.

But let's dress up Fulton at the same time. If every resident of the city would take the proper care of his premises, there wouldn't be any eyesores left—and nothing left to criticize.

It doesn't require very much time and expense to set out some shrubbery and plant flowers and bushes and keep the lawns well trimmed.

We can't live forever, but we can enjoy life more while we are here if we make our surroundings as pleasant as possible.

Don't shrug your shoulders and complain that it is "too much of a task," for it isn't. Nothing is too big a task for the man who makes up his mind to do it.

Fulton has long had the reputation of being a place of attractive, well-kept homes. Let's not allow our reputation to suffer any this summer.

The Big Sale is now on at Hemra Bros. Bargains! Bargains!!! Bargains!!!! for everybody. Don't miss it.

What is the Chamber of Commerce?

The Chamber of Commerce is the voice of the city. It reflects the ideals of the community.

It expresses the aspirations of the people.

It gives direction to the aims of the Citizenship.

It combines the efforts of those who think in terms of helpfulness.

It reduces unorganized elements to an organized unit.

It speaks in defense of the good name of the city.

It defends the city against the traducer.

It is the spotlight that reveals activities that are worthy.

It pleads in behalf of the voiceless.

It is the center of worth while enterprise.

It is the magnet that draws the outside world to your midst.

It is the clearing house of civic pride.

It is the power house of progress.

It is a composite picture of a city as its citizenship would have it.

EXTREME PENALTY

"ATTILA OF CRIME" IS CONVICTED OF MURDER

DESPERADO HOLDS NERVE

Doesn't Flinch When Jury Verdict Is Read—"Guilty as Charged" Was Jury Decision on the Very First Ballot

Hartford, Conn.—Standing, head up, arms folded, like a lonely antagonist of destiny, Gerald Chapman, shortly before noon, heard himself condemned to death for the murder of Policeman James J. Skelly in New Britain, Conn. on the morning of October 12, 1924.

There was not a flicker of emotion on the pallid countenance of this comely criminal, when the boyish, round-faced superior court judge, Newell Jennings, looked placidly at him through tortoise shell spectacles, and said in a conversational tone of voice:

"The sentence of the court is this: You, Gerald Chapman, are remanded to the custody of the warden of the state penitentiary, to be, by him, forthwith, conveyed to, and safely kept at the Connecticut state prison at Wallingford until the twenty-fifth day of June, 1925, upon which day before the hour of sunrise, within the prison walls, and by the prison warden, or deputy warden, you shall be hanged by the neck until you shall be dead."

More carefully guarded than before, the notorious mail robber and international crook, is the one lone inmate of a death cell. He is almost within touching distance of the execution chamber—a one room red brick building where in less than three months from now at one minute after midnight, a group of men will escort him to the gallows. This gibbet with its special electrical device, that jerks a man 15 feet toward the high ceiling, is guaranteed by science to effect the purpose of the law in 12 seconds' time.

Drama and emotion such as I have never before witnessed in years of similar experience, marked today's last, but one milestone in the career of America's most extraordinary criminal.

Ninety minutes before Chapman stood at the bar, gruff, rugged, old Samuel S. Chamberlain, Hartford merchant, foreman, by election, of the trial jury, turned to his fellow jurors in their tiny room.

"Well, gentlemen," the foreman's keen eyes swept the chairs in which the other hard-headed Connecticut Yankees sat. "It seems to me we are now ready for the ballot."

Chamberlain passed out slips on paper. Each jurymen wrote something upon it and tossed the slips in a hat. One by one the foreman read the slips.

Upon each was scrawled: "Guilty as charged," or guilty of murder in the first degree.

So, on the very first ballot, Chapman's fate was sealed. Gone were his hopes and those of his lawyers, Groehl, Freeman and Murphy, that the overnight consideration of the case (it was given to the jury at 1 o'clock Friday and seven hours and 35 minutes had actually been spent in formal deliberation) spelled hope for the bandit.

Even Chapman himself was optimistic, saying upon his arrival at the courthouse:

"The show is most over. I think I have won."

MUSSOLINI WILL HOLD

Temporary Move Until Service Merger Planned

Rome—Premier Mussolini will hold the war office portfolio and interim, delaying appointment of War Minister Di Giorgio's successor until some decision is reached on the proposal of Deputy Roberto Farnacci, Fascist leader, to merge the army, navy and air service into one ministry of national defense.

Speaking shortly before the Chamber of Deputies adjourned for the Easter vacation, Mussolini, who looks decidedly better than last week, answered the opposition press criticism about increased pay for public servants. He pointed out that this was made necessary by the high cost of living.

He said no new money has been issued to cover the extra 755,000,000 lire for relief of civil servants but the government had chosen to decrease inland mailing and railway transportation tariffs.

NEW AIR GIANT WILL OPEN SPEEDY SEA SERVICE

WILL BE 520 FEET LONG

New York Business Men May Spend Their Week-Ends in Sussex, If They Desire—England Building Largest Dirigible

London.—To move in three dimensions at the speed of 200 miles an hour and surrounded by all the luxuries of a modern hotel, is the enchanting experience that will shortly be placed within reach of anyone with money and the inclination.

The gigantic airship that will make this possible is now under construction in England. Its completion will make the beginning of inter-continental passenger traffic through the air. And when its seven Herculean engines are finally tuned up to their highest pitch, the tired New York business man who always so desires, can spend his week-ends in the English countryside and be back at his work bright and early Monday morning. More than that, a man may lunch in London and breakfast early next morning in New York, if the weather is propitious, and vice versa.

These possibilities are not merely imaginative inferences. The "blueprints" of the coming dirigible call for a series of adjoining cabins attached to the body of the ship, in which will be installed all of the perquisites and paraphernalia of a modern ballroom, a dining room, a smoking and reception room, lounge rooms, and sleeping quarters for a hundred passengers and a crew of the same number. The ship will be the largest and most complete vehicle of its kind in existence.

It will be 720 feet long with a diameter of 130 feet, as against the 460-foot length and 90-foot diameter of the German-built "Los Angeles." Into its construction will have gone many new ideas, including a framework of rustless steel with the greatest precautions taken against fire, and with engines using heavy oils, instead of the volatile petrol, which has heretofore been such a menace to airships.

The ship will, of course, be comfortable—that is, available for use in both peace and war. In case of hostilities, it could transport 100 fully armed soldiers to any threatened spot, or with the passenger-saloon turned into sick bays, operating rooms and the like, it could be admirably adapted to hospital use.

The form of this ship, according to the plans, is entirely different from any other dirigible in use today. It is not such a long, slim ship as the British R.34, or the two great American dirigibles but it is so arranged in its design that the head-resistance is not increased.

Each of the seven 600-horsepower engines will be contained in a car suspended from the ship's body, and each will drive directly a steel propeller of the new type. The gasbags will be made from gold-beater's skin, for which it has been necessary to kill one million oxen.

The ship will be worked from an especially designed mooring mast. This will be planned to accommodate passengers going to and from the ship. It will be 60 feet tall, and an elevator will be operated up and down its central shaft. Once the giant is tied up to the mooring cone, a covered gangway coming out of its nose will be attached to the passengers' platform, which will be a sort of balcony running around the top of the mast. From this the passengers can make their entrance.

The dirigible is said to be the most stable instrument of transportation on land, sea or in the air—a circumstance which makes the glowing promise of the forthcoming vessel anything but an exaggeration.

THE secret of good paint is "Purity." Ask any master painter the ideal materials for use in a house paint, and he will tell you Pure Carbonate of Lead, Zinc Oxide, Linseed Oil, Turpentine and Drier and there you have the formula of Monarch 100% Pure Paint.

No substitute or cheapeners ever find a place in a can of Monarch 100% Pure Paint and you will always find "100% Pure" the "Sterling Mark" of paint on every can of Monarch you buy.

Give your home the best paint protection available by using Monarch 100% Pure paint. It requires a 100% Pure Paint such as Monarch to really protect the surface over a period of years and it is poor economy to use cheap paint that will not withstand the elements.

It will cost you less in dollars and cents if you specify Monarch 100% Pure Paint and you will always be satisfied.

GETTING A WIFE BY MAIL

This young man, trained to look for "bargain" from pictures, falls for the matrimonial

Good Roads Are To Be Real Connecting Links.

Eleven million dollars' worth of good roads have been completed in Kentucky under the Federal aid plan since its inauguration in 1916. Almost five million dollars was the government's share of the cost of construction of these highways. Of the 450 miles that have been built in the state under this plan, 149 miles were completed up to the end of the last fiscal year at a cost of $4,901,665, of which the Federal government contributed about half. Practically all of this money went into the construction of concrete highways.

Investigation of road conditions before and after improvement has shown that good roads reduced hauling expenses 50 per cent, according to the Blue Valley Creamery Institute. The expense of hauling crops from the farm to shipping points is one of the most expensive steps in the marketing system. Under average conditions expense of hauling milk is 4.5 per cent of its value and of potatoes 15 per cent and hogs 2 per cent of their value.

Good roads are making hauling possible the year round in Kentucky, regardless of the weather conditions, and reduce marketing expenses through larger loads carried at greater speed. For every urban family in the state 3,936 pounds of dairy products, vegetables, fruit, grain and meat products are hauled over country roads. Good roads will help materially to bring down the cost of living under the present conditions.

I. C. Merger of Roads Will be Benefit to South.

The purchase of the Gulf & Ship Island R. R. by the Illinois Central will mean much to the South. It will connect this line with the Gulf, and banana boats will land at Gulfport at a dock with which the Illinois Central has connection, which means the tropical fruits may be delivered to such northern points as Chicago from 24 to 36 hours earlier than under the existing transportation schedule.

The purchase of this road by the Illinois Central will be of great advantage to Gulfport, Miss., and will route via the Illinois Central a great number of cars of perishable freight that would otherwise have gone to northern and eastern markets over some other line. This will give this freight a speedy short cut to Chicago, via the Fulton-Edgewood Cut-off, and will put this fruit and vegetables on the market many hours earlier than at present.

Not only this, but the Illinois Central has acquired control of the Alabama and Vicksburg and the Vicksburg and Northern, which latter offers a connection into Texas territory. It is believed that the Illinois Central will construct a great interstate bridge at Vicksburg. This will mean a great increase in freight movement over the Illinois Central via Jackson, Tenn. and Fulton, to Chicago.

Beclerton News

A meeting was held at the school building last Monday evening for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm for the road bond. Mr. Leslie Hindman made a splendid talk on "Why We Should Vote for the Bond," and interesting picture was shown.

Last Thursday afternoon Mr. Aubrey Clifton and Miss Robbie Canon were married by Rev. E. S. Hicks at his home near here. They were accompanied by Miss Lois Grissom, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Ray Neighbors. Mrs. Clifton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cannon of Fulton, and is an attractive young lady with a large number of friends. Mr. Clifton is from Tennessee, but has spent a few years in this community. May much happiness be theirs.

Rev. D. W. Fooks of Nashville, Tenn., gave an address on "China" at Mt. Zion last Thursday evening. Dr. Fooks spent several months in China and Japan last fall organizing a presbytery for the Cumberland Presbyterian church. He gave a splendid address on the different customs and beliefs of the Chinese and showed interesting pictures of the mission work there.

While he was in the community Dr. Fooks was the guest of Rev. E. S. Hicks and family.

DR. COOK ENTERS PENITENTIARY

PARTY EULOGIZED AT THE SAME HOUR IN ARLINGTON

COOK IS GIVEN A NUMBER

By Queer Prank of Fate, Oil Swindler Enters Prison on Sixteenth Anniversary of Actual Discovery of North Pole.

Leavenworth, Kan.—From near the top of the world to Leavenworth federal prison is a long, long way, but Dr. Frederick A. Cook has finished the journey.

By a peculiar prank of fate, while the man who hoaxed the world into believing that he had discovered the North Pole was entering the penitentiary, the memory of the actual discoverer, Robert E. Peary, was being honored in Arlington Cemetery. Peary discovered the North Pole just 16 years ago today. He was eulogized at his tomb in Arlington by Rear Admiral Luther Gregory and Dr. J. Howard Gore, of the National Geographic Society.

While the honors were being paid Peary, Cook, now convict No. 231118, was walking from the penitentiary receiving ward here into the sunlit area between the grim brick buildings.

His grizzled head was bare, his stocky form draped in new prison denim, much too large. On his face, pallid from many months of close confinement, was a half quizzical, half pitiful little smile, just the shadow of an expression, but poignantly familiar to those who have seen Dr. Cook in his moments of travail.

Just after 11 o'clock Monday morning Dr. Cook and his party, including United States Marshal Sam S. Gross and Charles Levy, both of Dallas, and the reporter, entered the barred wire gate, climbed the long, drab flight of steps, and were admitted to the prison administration building.

Marshall Gross presented his prisoner to W. I. Biddle, warden of the institution, who shook hands cordially with Dr. Cook. Luther C. White, superintendent of the federal prisons, was present in the warden's private office, and also greeted the convict celebrity.

After a brief talk with the warden, Dr. Cook was turned over to the receiving office. He said farewell to the party, who had accompanied him from Fort Worth, warmly thanking Marshal Gross for the kindness shown him on the trip. Then he vanished into the inner recesses of the great penitentiary, to be stripped of his shabby citizen's garb and arrayed in dungarees, to be assigned a cell in the detention ward, and to become another number among more than 2,000.

Though prison officials naturally were reticent on the subject, indications were they hold the opinion that Dr. Cook will not be required to serve any considerable portion of his 14 years and 9 months sentence. Two more years, besides the 16 months he spent in the Fort Worth Tarrant County Jail, and for which he finally received credit on his penitentiary time, was the official maximum estimate of the period he will remain here.

MEXICO IS NOT INVITED TO JOIN LABOR BUREAU

League Officials Fear Non-Membership Problem

Geneva.—Mexico will not officially be invited to join the international labor bureau but genuine efforts will be made to bring her gradually to the bureau's portal in the hope that one day she will find herself within.

Such in effect is the decision reached by the governing board of the bureau, which instructed the director, Alberto Thomas, to open negotiations with Mexico in connection with the participation of that nation in the next labor conference at Geneva beginning May 19 without previous application on her part for membership in the Geneva labor organization.

The board said that a precedent for such procedure was found in the Washington labor conference when Finland, which was a member of neither the league nor the labor bureau, was invited to participate, and accepted. After considerable discussion the board decided that it was undesirable to open up the juridical problem of whether a state which, like Mexico, is not a member of the league, could join the labor bureau without first becoming a member of the league.

Slayer Is Executed

Huntsville, Tex.—Sidney J. (Pete) Welk, 31, convicted of the murder of Willis Champion, Dallas county assistant jailer, went to his death in the electric chair.

Kentucky Drivers

Louisville.—Auto driven by Alfred E. Welton, a truck and seriously injured Herbert Beech, 7, while on his way to school here.

Louisville.—An estate of $225,000 was left by Louis Seelbach, hotelkeeper. The widow, Mrs. Marie H. Seelbach, is sole beneficiary.

Worthville.—While on a visit here Thomas N. McGowan, 73, retired merchant, became ill and died. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Arthur B. Suter.

Marion.—Federal prohibition agents raided the home of George Russell here and found two gallons of moonshine whisky. He and his three sons were arrested.

Painville.—H. L. Green was killed when a pole he was working on broke and he fell across a high tension wire. He was division superintendent of the Cumberland Telephone Co.

Danville.—A large number of Mexican quail were distributed in different sections of Boyle-co, where they will be protected. It was announced by Herbert Price, game warden.

Marion.—P. B. Croft, president of the defunct Merchants Bank of Tola, was found not guilty in connection with the burning of the institution. The jury was out less than one hour.

Danville.—Announcement has been made that the Boyle Bank & Trust Co. will erect a $100,000 bank on its lot on Main street here. The cashier went to Louisville to consult an architect.

Paducah.—A special election will be held in McCracken county to decide whether the present commission form of government shall be retained or the former municipal system adopted.

Elkton.—A suitcase of M. D. Duncan of Bowling Green, containing clothes and other miscellaneous personal property, was stolen from Duncan's auto while he was visiting his aunt in Oakville.

Frankfort.—James Hackett was held to the grand jury on a charge of having handled away tobacco from the barn of John Collins. The auto carrying the tobacco was ditched and both it and the cargo seized.

Jackson.—J. E. Quicksdale, deputy sheriff, left for Greendale with four boys between 10 and 14 years of age who were sentenced to the state school of reform on a charge of steal-

At the Sunday School hour
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Emery had their baby Lloyd, Jr. christened. Mrs. Emery was formerly a member of this church, and organist of the late D. W.
Hughes, who gave his services
for a number of years as S. S.
superintendent. The baptismal cup used on this occasion was the one that was used at that time.

The East Fulton Circle met
Monday with Mrs. Will Mc-Dade and Miss Kate Thompson
as hostesses. Meeting opened with song and Mrs. Cequin had charge of devotional. Mrs.
Boutwell led in prayer. Business session followed with good reports from the committees.
Mrs. Butt gave report of extension work from the conferences
in Ripley. Mrs. Lon Jones presented the Bulletin. Mrs. Ed
Thomas closed with prayer.
The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. McDade's sisters, Mr. Mc-Dade and Mrs. Joyner in serving delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Mary Collins is spending the week with relatives in Mayfield this week.

Mrs. C. A. Wright has recovered from a short illness at her home on Park Ave.

Mrs. Joe Davis is able to be out some after a three weeks'
illness.

Mrs. Abe Jolly is recovering from the flu at her home on State St.

The Primary department has completed the plans for the Egg Hunt for Easter Sunday to be had at the home of Mrs. J.
J. Owen at 3 o'clock. All the children are requested to meet

666 MAJORITY FOR ROAD BONDS IN HICKMAN COUNTY

Hickman county took a progressive step Saturday in voting for the issuing of $200,000
bonds for good roads by a majority of 666. This closes
the gap between north and south in Kentucky of the hard surfaced road projects. The bonds voted will be applied principally to the building of a federal aid highway through the county, connecting with Fulton county's project near Enon church, three miles north of Fulton, and with Carlisle
county's project on the north.
Now that the connecting link
has been welded with all the river counties in this end of the state, the time is not far distant when tourists can travel
in their machines from Minnesota to Florida without making unkindly remarks about Kentucky.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH ITEMS

This is one of the most thriving institutions to be found anywhere. Its people are loyal and cordial.

As usual, the seating capacity of the house was taxed to take care of the congregations
last Sunday. The sermons of the pastor were cordially and warmly received.

The contract for the completion of the Church building has been let to Valentine Bros. The material has all been ordered
and the work of construction
will begin as soon as the brick arrives from Nashville, Tenn.

The last note of $1,000.00 on the basement was paid off last week. We begin the completion with no indebtedness on the unit already built.

Last Sunday's services resulted in one conversion and three additions. There is rarely a service without additions to the membership.

The music of the choir and
congregation is always fine,
but last Sunday was especially good.

The Volunteer choir of more than thirty voices is getting in fine shape for some special Easter anthem music for Easter Sunday night. The public should hear these youngsters
sing.

The service of the Lord's Supper was well attended last Sunday afternoon.

Fifteen of the twenty deacons were on hand at the deacons meeting Sunday afternoon. A finer body of Church officers cannot be found anywhere than that composing this deacons body.

The Sunday school is still running considerably more than three hundred. Our enrollment is above five hundred.
When the building is completed we will be able to take care
of seven hundred in Sunday school and 1,000 in the preaching services.

Most of our sick are reported improving though some continue quite ill.

Mrs. C. H. Warren has about
recovered from a severe spell
of flu.

Deacon J. W. Elledge is improving rapidly after an operation for appendicitis and will soon be out.

Mr. W. H. Cox has returned from the hospital at Paducah
and is improving.

Mrs. A. L. Bradley continues
quite ill.

Mrs. Amos Stubblefield went to Memphis yesterday for treatment.

Rev. Earle Gooch spent last week in Bardwell assisting the Baptist Church at that place in the Howard S. Williams meeting. He reports a great meeting in progress.

Mrs. Smith Fields and grand daughter, little Lillian Cook,
have returned from Florida
where they spent the winter.

Miss Inez Binford has returned from Springfield, Mo.,
where she spent the winter
with relatives.

Mrs. Katherine Ledford has recovered from an attack of cold and flu.

Mrs. M. A. Norman, who has been ill for most of the winter, is improving.

Mrs. Otis Norman reports
her sister, Ruth Millan, in the hospital at Paducah for an operation.

The Lottie Moon Circle met
at the church Monday in a very fine meeting. Several other circles of the Missionary Society met during the week.
