Honors Day Program

3:30 p.m. Friday
May 8, 1987
Curris Center Ballroom

Murray State University

Office of the President
Murray, Ky. 42071 (502) 762-3763

Welcome to the 1987 Honors Day ceremony. Honors Day is an annual observance which highlights the academic accomplishments of our students.

Dedicated faculty, outstanding and diverse programs, highly capable students, and a stimulating learning environment combine to create excellence and achievement. We are celebrating that excellence today.

The students recognized on this day have in common a record of achievement and dedication that serves as an example to us all. Their pursuit of excellence is ours. It is their interest and determination in particular which make the efforts of Murray State University's faculty and staff important, worthwhile, and ultimately rewarding.

If you are a student receiving an award on this occasion, I heartily congratulate you and wish you continuing success. If you are a guest of Murray State today, I speak for the entire community in thanking you for joining us. I hope you take the time to look around our beautiful campus while you are here.

Sincerely,

Kala M. Stroup

On behalf of the student body, I take this opportunity to welcome you to Murray State University and our Annual Honor's Day Program.

This afternoon, the University Community comes together to recognize students who have attained excellence at Murray State. Their achievements bring honor not only to themselves, but also to you, their parents and friends; for only through you have many of the honorees been afforded the opportunity and freedom to search for and achieve this excellence.

We appreciate your presence today, and hope you continue to share in our hopes and dreams for the future.

Most sincerely,

Louis Zimmerman
