THE BENTON TRIBUNE.

VOL. III.

BENTON, KY., THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1891.

NO. 43.

New Constitution.

The constitutional convention will again assemble on Monday Sept. 2 1891, for the purpose of putting the finishing touches to the new constitution which was so overwhelmingly adopted and ratified by the voters of Kentucky on the first Monday in this month.

The members, no doubt think, that the convention will not be in session more than ten or fifteen days but if they complete the work, as they should, they will be there for at least one month. They upon re-assembling, will find many things confronting them; that will require time to do. During the long and hot canvass, of its merits and demerits, its framers, have learned many changes that are necessary to be made, before it will be the constitution the people want. Its main provisions, are satisfactory to the people, but there are many rough places, that with a little work, can be made smooth. There are many places that a reconstruction of the language, would save much litigation in the future. All of the minor details can with a little expense to the state, be corrected, and the convention do no violence to its powers. There is no doubt, but they have the power to make any changes they see proper, before they finally sign it and proclaim it the organic law of the land. Having this power, of course they will exercise it and do all they can to leave to posterity the best of the constitution in the United States.

The opposition was not so great after all, only three counties voting against its adoption. We believe that with such a constitution Kentucky will take on a new growth, and that her prosperity will be unbounded, and the happiness of her people complete.

Judge W. S. Bishop.

At a meeting of the bar and officers of the Hickman court of common pleas, on Friday, July 31st, 1891, to pass resolutions in respect to W. S. Bishop, retiring judge of said court, George L. Husbands was called to the chair and M. L. Morris was appointed secretary, whereupon the following resolutions were submitted, and were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, by the members of the bar of Hickman county and the officers of the court, that it is with feelings of deep sadness and regret that we contemplate the close of the official term of our much beloved and highly esteemed officer, Judge W. S. Bishop, who has for twelve years presided as judge of our highest court, and worn for so long a time the judicial ermine without spot or blemish. That during all this period he has presided with dignity and learning and with such absolute integrity that his long administration of justice has been signalized by the absence of a single adverse criticism.

Resolved, that we cannot part with him without giving him this last testimonial of our esteem for and confidence in him as a man and a judge, and expressing the hope that his eminent services and abilities have so far made their express upon the country that those who may be called to the difficult task of succeeding him upon the bench may emulate the example of his virtues and abilities.

Resolved, that he carries with him in his retirement our cordial sympathy and good wishes, and, having served his country well, it is our earnest prayer that he "may crown a youth of labor with an age of ease."

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this court, and also mailed to his family and published in the Clinton Democrat.

The first estimate was right, and the Fourth Senatorial district will be represented by a people's party man, John Orr, of Providence, who will be the only one of his party in the Senate. It will surprise nobody to see Mr. Orr offering credentials of his democracy and repudiating Third Partyism, though he defeated the regular democratic nominee, Pettit and Birkhead, of Davis, Stewart, of Larue, and Harned, of Nelson, all put into office by the Third Party movement over regular democratic nominees, are now piously protesting their political orthodoxy.

The doubtful districts have all been heard from in the legislative race and the House will stand: democratic, 70; republicans, 16; people's party, 9; independent democrats 5.

This is allowing every third party man who desires to do so to repudiate his allegiance to the people's party and to be called independent democrats. They have not all been heard from yet, and the list of people's party members may continue to dwindle and that of independent democrats to grow.

Ask Your Friends

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla is what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. One has been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia, and another finds it indispensable for sick headache, others report remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum, and other blood diseases, still others will tell you that "it overcomes that tired feeling," and so on. Truly, the best advertising which Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of the army of friends it has won by its positive medicinal merit.

BENTON, KY., AUGUST 20.

John Young Brown will be inaugurated governor of Kentucky on Sept. 1 1891. We anticipate a strong and powerful administration by the new governor. There will be as little partiality shown by him to individuals as has by any governor for many years.

We have received many compliments for the religious tone of the Tribune last week. We hope at all times to be able to give to our readers such a change in reading matter as will interest them. When we please our readers we are pleased. When they are not pleased we are not pleased. But if our readers will only do as much to please us as we do to please them we will be a happy little family.

Benton has been here ever since the adoption of the present constitution of Ky, and its prosperity has been marked, with about as much growth, in proportion as the growth of the state has been under the old constitution. With the new constitution, will begin a new growth in every character of investment in Kentucky from one end to the other, so it will be with Benton. It will now take on new life, and in perfect harmony with the new instrument will move on to wealth and population.

There are three Marshall county boys on the police force in the city of Paducah. When they were appointed our people rejoiced at the honor conferred, and expected great results, but imagine our chagrin when we saw in the city papers that Walston and Crow were laid low, by some foe in front of a baggio out on court row. When we heard that our beloved Crow was lying low, out on court row, then for the first time we knew it would do to "Jump Jim Crow". Dick and the two Jims should look out.

The train does not stop at the new place called Hardin near Dexter on the P. T. & A. R. R. The local freight stop there but the passenger goes by giving no one a chance to get off or on. The builders of this new town may know what they are doing, but if the railroad co. continues to refuse to stop its mail train there, we are forced to believe it will result in a bad investment on the part of those who are building houses under the impression that a thriving village will grow up. The railroad company may have given assurance that if a good business town is built up, that trains will stop but unless such has been done we are inclined to believe it is not a judicious investment. There is Dexter at present a thriving young town with a new depot, side tracks and many prosperous business houses, within one and one half or two miles of where Hardin is located. The territory is too small to build up and support two towns so near together. The stage factory that is now located at Hardin and employs so many hands will only remain there but a short time, at least no longer than the timber holds out. When it is gone one of the principal sources of trade is gone. The town can't expect to draw much trade from the East side of Clark's river nor south towards Dexter, but can only be supported by the territory north and west. If its promoters can get the trains to stop, so as to bring travel, and also make a good shipping point out of it, then there is some show of its success, but unless this can be done we fear they will not hold the winning card.

To Louisville and return from Calvert City. Train will leave Calvert City on next Saturday August 22nd 1891. Everybody ought to go and spend a few days in the great city.

Glade.
This is a post office and the name of the first town south of Benton. It is from here about four miles. Heretofore there has only been one store and one grist and saw mill there all owned by Cope Bros. Thomas Harrison our ex-surveyor was called there the other day and laid off quite a town into town lots. It may not be long before a sale of town lots will be announced and another new town spring up. This is where the people from the country of Olive get off and on the train going either north or south. From a business standpoint we can't see that Cope Bros. would be benefitted by other merchants locating there. But a town at Cope's will be a great convenience to a small territory of people.

SALOONS.
At the next sitting of the county court a motion will be made asking his honor to grant saloon license. The trustees of the town of Benton were called together for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not they would grant saloon license, if the county court granted them. The board fixed city license at $300, and agreed to grant the privilege to as many persons as complied with the law. It is said the county judge is adverse to granting any one license, but it seems the people are so dissatisfied with local option, and are so anxious for a change claiming that the option law is now repealed, that the county judge would only reflect the will of the people to grant saloon license for one year at least. Then if the people were dissatisfied they could repeal the law. There is but one way of satisfying average Kentuckians and that is to give him all he asked for. It is claimed that there is as much whiskey sold here and as much drunkenness without saloons, as there would be with them; if this is so the county judge ought by all means to grant saloon license so that the town can receive the benefit of the $300. We believe in order to satisfy both sides and let the people convince themselves which is best for the town the people and the community the county judge would do right to grant a license.

STAVE TIMBER WANTED.
It will pay you to bring your white oak timber to the Stave Factory, where you can get $5.50 per cord for it. For further information apply to B. J. ROBERTS, or T. B. GARDNER, 43-4t Benton, Ky.

One or two interesting letters were crowded out this week but will appear next.

OTIS L. KARNES KILLED.

Mr. Sparks, son-in-law of Mr. Jacob Karnes, received early Thursday morning, a telegram from Paris, Tenn., announcing the death of Otis Karnes, and that the morning train would bring his dead body to Benton, where it would be turned over to his father, Mr. Jacob Karnes, who lives near Briensburg.

The telegram gave no particulars, and it was thought by his friends that he may have died of heart disease, or by a piece of heavy timber falling on him, as he was engaged in the timber business near the mouth of Sandy on the Tennessee river.

But when the 9 o'clock train came in, a certificate attached to the lid of the coffin, signed by a physician, told the story that Otis Karnes came to his death by a knife, in the hands of Johnnie Estes. A young Mr. Williams accompanied the corpse and gave the following particulars of the killing: That both Karnes and Estes were boarding at Mrs. Presnell's and both slept upon the same bed, and were, and always had been the best of friends.

On Saturday morning before the killing, Karnes got out of bed and pulled the cover off of Estes, and Estes remonstrated and told him not to do so any more, but neither one seemed to be much offended and everything moved along all right until next morning, which was Sunday morning, when Karnes again snatched the cover off of Estes, which made Estes mad. He got up and struck Karnes a slight blow and told him not to repeat it again. The stroke from Estes did not suit Karnes, and he told him if it were not for the respect he had for the family of the house he would give him a thrashing, but the blood of both began to boil, until a difficulty was eminent, but they both took the advice of the land lady and, for the time being, dropped the matter. Estes was mad and refused to eat any breakfast, but Karnes, "eat his breakfast and said no more about it. Each one went his way and no more was said about it until Wednesday morning, each one all the while nursing his wrath and becoming more and more indignant. After breakfast they concluded to walk off down the fence into the woods and settle it.

Karnes inviting Estes to go with him, both went away apparently in a good humor, jesting, joking and talking. Some parties near by started to go, but they were told to go back, their presence was not desirable, that they would settle it alone. They were only gone a short time until they were seen coming back towards the store, Karnes in front with Estes after him striking at Karnes with his knife. Parties interfered and stopped any further trouble, but it was stopped too late, the fatal work had been done, and Karnes had been stabbed four times, any one which would have proved fatal. He called for a drink of water, but in ten or fifteen minutes he was dead. The stout, young and brave O. L. Karnes, who, but a few minutes before, was the picture of health and honor, now lay dead by the road side, the result of only a trivial quarrel.

The friends of Johnnie Estes claim he did the rash act in self defense, while the friends of the deceased claim it was a cowardly murder.

We visited Mr. Ester in jail at Paris, and found him in good spirits, claiming he was compelled to do what he did in self defense. Parties living where the crime was committed claim that Estes is not justifiable in the killing, and that he will not have an easy thing of coming clear.

He was held over by Esq. Wimberly and his bail fixed at $5,000. In default of which he now languishes in jail at Paris, Tenn., where he will remain until the next term of circuit court, which convenes there on the 4th Monday in September.

JOHNNIE ESTES
was born in this county about 21 years ago. He is a son of John Estes and a grand child of Elisha Luter, deceased. He is a stout healthy young man who has always borne a good reputation, having never heretofore been engaged in any difficulties. His father died when he was quite young, but his mother is still living and known as the widow Lilly.

OTIS L. KARNES
was a son of Jacob Karnes, and was born in McLean county, Ky., May 9th, 1867, aged, at his death, 24 years, 3 months and 3 days. He was an honorable, upright business man, and in all of his dealings, the soul of honor. He has been engaged in the timber and lumber business for several years for different firms at Evansville and Paducah, always giving perfect satisfaction to his employers, but at his death was doing business for himself with R. P. Rowe as his partner. Notwithstanding he was possessed with a reasonable amount of temper, yet he was always kind, clever and obliging to all persons who did not mistreat him. He was free from the use of intoxicating liquors, and free from the pernicious habit of carrying concealed weapons. He was not a member of any church, but was a moral and a dutiful son. He was buried at "Old Union," amid a large gathering of his relatives, friends and neighbors, Eld. Wm. J. Cox performing the funeral ceremonies at the grave. His sudden and untimely death was a great shock to his parents, who are sorely stricken on account of this, their great trial. They certainly have the full sympathy of their entire acquaintance.

John Mitchell and Will Peck of Calvert City visited our city the other day. They report crops &c all right in their locality.

J. B. Ford is on a visit to relatives in this county. His home is in Brown county Texas. He left this county 24 years ago.

We frequently are asked by our neighbors why we dont boom the town. The question is easily answered. Only drop a nickel in the slot.

Mrs. Dora Lee, her two charming little daughters, Miss Dora D. and Clarice and her niece Miss Lillie

Chiles of Mayfield are visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. Mattie James is visiting Sul-lur Springs in Tenn. for a few weeks trying to recuperate her health. She will also visit friends at Paris, before she returns.

Mrs. Cassie Reed, the wife of Grandy Reed, one of our worthy colored citizens died at her home last Saturday night. Mr Reed has the sympathy of the community.

The school teachers Institute will convene here on the 31st inst.

A large attendance is expected and desired. Prof. J. C. Willis an able educator of Shelbyville Kentucky will be the conductor.

Mrs. Genoa McCoy visited her parents last Friday near Dexter.

She is teaching an interesting school two miles west of town.

This is her third term at that place.

She is one of our best teachers.

Prof Thos Phlegley lectured at the Union church one night last week to a large and appropriate audience, on the culture of the Mind and Memory. He is a fine lecturer and a scholar of a superior order.

John Evan Hamilton has been visiting his old friends in Marshall county for the past two weeks. It has been ten years since he left this county. He has been all over the West. He will soon return to his family.

Mr. Will Gray of Paducah came out Saturday night and escorted his wife, Mrs. Irene Gray, home

Sunday morning. Mr. Gray need not have been in such a hurry, we would gladly have given him a royal welcome.

The donation party that met at

Mrs. Bettie Nelson's new home last Thursday night left over so many valuable presents. A new home together with so many new things to go to housekeeping on looks like visitor Nelson "mou" get married some of these warm evenings.

Will Stratton who was hurt a few days ago by being thrown from a buggy is improving.

Calloway, Marshall, Livingston,

McCracken counties will no doubt constitute our Judicial district.

The school will begin here on Sept 7th 1891. T. B. Wright Principal and Miss Gania Holland Ast.

A good rain fell Monday night and the people as well as the crops are greatly revived.

Hardin Ford is having a full school. Only 65 pupils in the district yet his daily average is over 50.

Ezekiel Holland paid our sanctum a sanctimonious visit the other day. We are always glad to meet the genial Ezekiel.

J. C. Parker left for his Jackson home, yesterday morning. He is engaged in United States Railway mail service between Cairo and

New Orleans. Mr Parker is an intelligent social gentleman.

If the ladies interested in the Union church at this place, would only get up one or two ice cream suppers, they would soon be in possession of money enough to have the church repaired and painted. Such things are done at other places, why not here. Get yourselves together and go to work, do something for your church.

The work on the new Stave factory is now under full way, and it will not be long before it will be in full operation. This will be a great additiion to the business interest of our town. Mr. Roberts and Gardner its builders are both clever men and came among us highly recommended as men of the highest honor and integrity.

Since the burial of Thomas Lindsey, speculation has run rife that he was murdered and all that part of the county between here and Gilbertsville, has freely discussed its probability in all of its bearing, but as time goes on and the case is more closely investigated, the people are more inclined to the opinion that he was killed by the train. From the circumstances in the case, as they have developed, themselves, in the past few days, there can be but little doubt he was killed by the limited express that passed there at 11:55 that night After he left Covington's store he only went a short distance before he took a seat on the track at the end of the trestle, where he unconsciously went to sleep and never awoke until the train came along, when he raised his head, just in time for the extended part of the engine to hit him.

Several car loads of stock, consisting of cattle, hogs and sheep were shipped on the P. T. & A. R. R.

last week, to Louisville and other points by our Marshall county cattle king Frank Eley. He is now buying up all kinds stock for Mr.

H. B. Sweeney, paying the highest market prices. Mr. Eley has been of great value to the people of this county in the past few years bringing money to this country and buying up the surplus stock of the people at good market prices. He will return in a few days, and will then begin buying several car loads more for shipment.
