Local Schools Show Increase in Enrollments

Fulton city schools opened today having more than 200 students enrolled. This appears to be a good indication of the improvement which Mr. Alton Draper, Superintendent of the schools, mentioned before the Board of Education at the last meeting. Mr. Draper stated that in the summer months, the enrollment is generally lower, but with the approach of the school year, there is an increase which he feels is due to the better economic conditions in the community. He also mentioned that the schools have been making improvements which are expected to attract more students.

Under Wings of the Blue Eagle

The name of the Folling that is the staple in Fulton and south Fulton appears on the list of post offices on the list of National Post Offices. The name is derived from a bird of prey which is common in the area. The Blue Eagle is known for its sharp vision and keen observation, which is why the name was chosen.

10,000 People Attended Fair

The 10,000 People Attended Fair was an event that took place in the city of Fulton. The fair was attended by a large number of people, and it was a great success. The fair included various attractions and activities, and it was well-attended by the local community. The fair was a great opportunity for people to come together and enjoy the festivities.

Flood Relief Is Urged

Without the assistance of the Red Cross, the flood relief would be impossible. People are urged to contribute to the flood relief efforts, as many lives and properties have been lost.

School Burden

The burden of the schools has been growing steadily. The need for more classrooms and facilities is great, and it is hoped that the community will come together to support the schools.

Elks Bring The Biscuit Corned Here Next Week

The engagement of the Elks Lodge, announced for next week, will be the highlight of the week. The Elks are expected to bring in a number of visitors, and it will be a good opportunity for the community to come together and enjoy the festivities.

SUGGESTIONS
RESIDENTS OF THIS TOWN, the time is at hand when your house should be looked after. The winter has passed and the spring is coming with its fresh breezes. The time is ripe for a new roof, painting, and other improvements. The cost will be higher in the fall. The weather is fine and the time is right for these improvements.

I. Agriculture

The school grower of Fulton County was selected by the Agricultural Extension Agent for the fall of the school year, and the grower was awarded the title of "County Grower" by the Department. He received a third place award for hismelon production, and the grower was given a certificate and a prize. The grower was also selected by the County Agent for his outstanding participation in school activities.

II. Education

The administration of the school for the year 1933-1934 will be in the hands of Mr. William S. Turner, who was re-elected to the Board of Education. The school will continue to provide a comprehensive education for all students.

III. Community

A community meeting was held on Tuesday, September 17th, at the school to discuss the current issues and the future plans of the community. The meeting was attended by many local residents, and the community leaders emphasized the importance of working together to achieve common goals.

IV. Sports

The school's football team was victorious in their first game of the season, against a neighboring school. The team played a well-coordinated game, and the coach praised the players for their hard work and dedication.

V. Social

A social event was held on Saturday, September 14th, at the local social club. The event was attended by many local residents, and the atmosphere was lively and festive.

VI. Business

The business community of Fulton County is growing steadily, and many local businesses are expanding their operations. The local banks and businesses are providing loans and other financial services to support the growth of the community.

VII. Religion

The local church was holding a series of services and activities to celebrate the upcoming holiday. The church leaders emphasized the importance of faith and community in achieving a better future.
