WOODMEN!

July 4th, at Murray, Will Be Biggest Day in History of Old Calloway.

The above occasion means something. About one hundred and fifty enthusiastic Woodmen of Murray Camp No. 50 met in their hall here Monday night and proceeded to shape the finishing touches for a grand, free picnic and barbecue to be given here on July 4th. Each camp in the county is responding liberally and cheerfully with money, carcasses and baskets. They are joining hands with each other, and everybody to make this day the biggest and grandest occasion ever celebrated in old Calloway.

An Illinois band of thirty members has been engaged to furnish the music. This will be supplemented by the Murray string band.

Delightful grounds have been selected and are now being prepared. Able and eloquent speakers secured, and everything is being shaped up for the grand and glorious event.

All the committees are working harmoniously and industriously to make the day a success, and to this end, they ask the aid and assistance of every citizen of the county.

Come everybody. This includes all. Come early and stay late. Bring your neighbors and friends, also a big box or basket of good things to eat. If you can't bring a big basket, bring a small one, but whether you bring any or not, come, you are invited, and your wants shall be looked after.

Be assured that this occasion is not for the exclusive benefit of the Woodmen, or any other organization, man or set of men, but for the benefit of everybody in Calloway county. The Woodmen are simply taking the lead and in this, they ask the aid of every man, woman and child in the county, regardless of religion, politics, isms or factions.

We ask the aid and assistance of the tobacco association and the anti-association, the farmers, the doctors, merchants, lawyers, bankers and laborers.

The speakers will discuss all subjects. Come, everybody come.

Murray-Nashville.

In the series of four games of ball played here Thursday, Friday and Saturday between Murray and the Nashville shop team, the home boys came out victorious, winning three of the games. The first game, went to the Murray team by the score of 5 to 2. The feature of this game was the steady pitching of Gatlin and the all round good work of the team behind him. The second game played Friday morning was hotly contested, both teams being determined to win, but the superb pitching of Davis again brought victory to Murray. The fielding of Miller, Downs, Cutchin and Williams for Murray and the all round good playing of Black and Nelson for Nashville were the features of this game. In the afternoon Nashville won by the score of 5 to 3. The loss of this game was due to Cutchin's wildness, however after the first inning he got warmed up and the boys from the Tennessee City were unable to touch him throughout the remainder of this contest, but the lead secured in the first enabled them to win. The fourth and last game played Saturday was a beauty. The game was in doubt until the last half of the ninth. The score was 8 to 6 in favor of Nashville and everything looked very blue to the fans, but the boys turn came and as each batter came up in that inning, he determined to win and they did. When the smoke cleared away, the boys had counted three times making the score 8 to 9 with Murray holding the long end.

North Calloway.

Mr. J. C. Shelton and family and Mrs. Nat Fisk, of Graves county, visited B. E. Bazzell and family Saturday and Sunday.

S. F. Pool rode the goat in the W. O. W. lodge at Kirksey a few nights ago. His goatship must have been a little unruly as Mr. Pool has been under the weather ever since.

People had better be a little careful about violations of law and not let the big fat J. P. of Brinkley district get hold of them or he will make the fur fly. There was a fight in the neighborhood of Jackson school house last Sunday in which whiskey, clubs, brickbats and post augers played a conspicuous part, among three brothers, and it is said that the Brinkley J. P. actually fined each one one dollar for such a light offense.

There is a great deal of dissatisfaction about the condition of the telephone lines in these parts. It seems that the most of the time two or more of these are connected and can't give good service.

People are not done setting tobacco yet and plants are scarce. H. Y. Bean is mourning the loss of a nice lot of plants that some one borrowed without any probability of paying them back.

A. Y. Tidwell says he is having to wean some of his plants young but hopes that they will live over it.

Ball Game The Fourth.

To swell the big list of amusements promised for the W. O. W. picnic Manager Williams, of the local ball team, has just closed a deal with the manager of the Cadiz team for a series of four games, the first game to be played on the afternoon of July 4th. This W. O. W. picnic is going to be the biggest occasion ever witnessed in Murray. Come and make one of the big, jolly crowd.

Miss Rubie Mason, of Hazel, and Mr. Robt. Hicks, of Paducah, were united in marriage Wednesday night at the home of the bride's father, Dr. W. M. Mason, Sr., Hazel, Ky., in the presence of members of the family and a few friends. The couple left Thursday for the Jamestown exposition and eastern cities on an extended bridal tour. Miss Mason is one of the county's most beautiful girls and is widely popular. Mr. Hicks is a native of Tennessee and is a traveling salesman for the Smith & Clark wholesale grocery company of Paducah.

Rev. W. A. Swift, of Little Rock, Ark., will deliver two addresses at Mt. Carmel on the 5th Sunday, June 30th. Mt. Carmel is two miles north of Kirksey. Subject 11 A. M. will be "My visit to the historic places of Wesley in England and Methodism as a world wide force." 3 P. M. "Looking over the battle-menus." Dinner on ground.

STRAY. White, dehorned cow. Left last Saturday. Notify J. H. Churchill, Murray.

HON. RUBY LAFFOON

Democratic Nominee for State Treasurer and One of Kentucky's Most Eloquent Speakers Will Be Here July Fourth.

The chairman of the committee on entertainment for the big W. O. W. picnic, July 4th is just in receipt of a telegram announcing that Hon. Ruby Laffoon, democratic nominee for state treasurer, had accepted an invitation to speak here upon that occasion. He is an able, eloquent and forcible speaker and the committee is to be congratulated upon securing him.

The District Conference.

Appropos of the meeting of the district conference the Benton Tribune gives the following bit of interesting information.

"The District Conference for the Paris District, M. E. Church, South, will be held here June 20, 21, 22, 23. Bishop Hendrix will preside. The Paris District has 21 charges representing from one to seven churches, which has about 9000 members. There are 241 preachers and delegates, including Benton and Hardin charges. To The Tobacco Growers.

The Murray Association Warehouse Co., have sold 450 hogsheads tobacco to June 19, 1907 and of this amount we have sold 80 hogsheads over the graded price from 25c to $2.00 per 100 pounds. The demand continues very active for all grades of tobacco from trash lugs to the best grades of leaf. There is no reason why the prices should decline, there being only about 65 per cent of an average crop planted up to this time. Owing to the great amount of tobacco sold for the past few weeks our Mr. C. H. Moore is a little behind with his work in getting out the account of sales, but we are giving the matter all our attention. In a few more days we will be in shape to give you the account of sales the same week that your tobacco is sold. Our business relations have been very satisfactory with the people who have stored their tobacco with us, and we will be glad to have you pay us a visit. We are closely looking after the interest of our customers by assisting our inspector in getting as good a sample as each hogshead is entitled to, and using our best judgement in selling your tobacco for full value.

From the above you can draw on your conclusion as to whether we are looking to your interest in every way.

HICKS SAYS

An Enormous Sun Spot Will Cause Severe Electrical Storm This Week - Look Out.

St. Louis, Mo., June 17. - An enormous sun spot, announced to be the largest discovered in years has been found on the east line of old Sol by Rev. Irl R. Hicks, the famous astronomer of this city, who predicted the Galveston tidal wave, St. Louis cyclone and the recent tornadoes and hail storms. The spot was first discovered Saturday morning by Mr. Hicks, who makes it his daily custom to search the heavens for phenomena, and was then at a distance from the east line which he calculates caused its first appearance on Friday morning of last week. On that day the clouds hid the sun, and when discovered the following day old Sol appeared to be in a state of terrific eruption, the lines showing an area which seem to be under a tornado-like whirl.

The spot is easily discerned by the naked eye through a piece of colored glass. At first the glare blinds one temporarily, but by looking steadily for a few moments the spot becomes visible, gradually growing larger until it appears to be about one-eighth the size of the entire sun.

The big spot is dangerous, too, according to Dr. Hicks, who says that throughout the storm area of the United States the public may look for terrific electrical storms accompanied by high winds. This will reach the country between Wednesday and Friday, just at the time the spot crosses the meridian of the sun.

The object will be discernible to people in this country until next Saturday when after passing to the west line of the sun, will disappear over the edge. If it is strong enough to brave the rotation of the sun, it will appear again in either a much larger or smaller state about twelve days from next Saturday, and is expected to again "kick up a row" in the United States.

Dr. Hicks says the spot is the most remarkable he ever saw, both in size and shape. He also says the eruptions going on in the spot are increasing as it moves and that many persons will become interested when his discovery is announced.

Deaths in the County.

The six months old infant of Sam Smith, of the Cherry section, died last Monday.

The seven year old son of P. J. Henry, of near Cherry, died of congestion Sunday.

Frank Farris, who also lives in the Cherry neighborhood, lost a three year old child Tuesday.

Roy Herndon's four year old baby died Monday. He lived west of Murray.

Wilson Lentz died last Friday at his home west of town and the body laid to rest in the Willow Springs grave yard, near Fair Dealing, Marshal county. He was about 40 years of age and a well-known citizen.

Edgar Outland who has been suffering with his face for the past ten weeks, resulting from the extraction of a wisdom tooth, is now under the treatment of Dr. Howard, the Paducah specialist. Mr. Outland makes three trips each week to Paducah for treatment. His friends hope that he will be permanently benefited.

Make Your Guess Early as Possible.

It Takes Nerve

Everything depends upon your nerves. It is nerve force that causes the brain to direct the motion of your body; it is nerve force that causes your heart to pulsate, and send the blood through your veins; it is nerve force that causes your stomach to digest food, your kidneys to filter the blood, and the liver to secrete bile.

In fact, nerve force is the power that runs your body, so if you feel worn-out, irritable, nervous, cannot sleep, or eat well, have pain or misery anywhere, your nerves are weak, and your system run-down. To restore this vitality take Dr. Miles' Nerveine which will strengthen and build up the nerves. You cannot be healthy without strong nerves.

"For eighteen years Dr. Miles' Nerveine and Anti-Pain Pills have been my close companions. Early in married life, while raising children, my nerves became all worn-out—could not sleep, had no appetite, could not work, and had such awful dizzy spells. Then I began using Dr. Miles' Nerveine, and at once I began to improve, and soon found myself in perfect health."

MRS. S. L. YOUNG.

224 Pittsburg St., New Castle, Pa.

Dr. Miles' Nerveine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit you. If it fails, he will refund your money.

LONG-LETT WANT SUPPLIED.

Antimale Social Club Evidently Just the Thing Needed.

Miss Antique (ancient maiden with modern ideas)—We had such a glorious meeting this afternoon to organize the Antimale social club.
In response to my call over 50 beautiful and charming young ladies presented themselves, and all were enthusiastic over my plan of escape from the thrall of men. The first entertainment is to be given next Monday night, and not a man is to be allowed to enter. I am to deliver an address, Miss Highnote is to sing, the Misses Ivory are to play.
Miss Totter is to give recitations, the members of the art club are to bring specimens of their work, and we are to have a perfectly delightful time. Can't you come?

Friend—I have an engagement for Monday evening.

Same Friend (the following Tuesday)—Well, I suppose there was a noble feast of reason and flow of soul at the Anti male club last night?

Miss Antique—I'm—er—the fact is, at the last moment I received an invitation from Mr. Oldtime to go to the theater.

"How did the club get along without you, its organizer, I wonder?"
"I heard this morning from the janitor of the hall that there wasn't anybody there."—N. Y. Weekly.

CONCEIT.

Geraldine—People say that my heart is in the right place.
Gerald—I wonder how they know that I've got it?

LONGED FOR PEDIGREES.

Some curious letters are received by men who make a business of searching for pedigrees. For instance: "I am a plumber and gas-fitter who is out of work. My stomach is empty, but in my art is the blind of noble birth. I claim the family title and tenements which I will not be denied the same." A clerk writes: "I have long suspected that I am of high birth. People tell me that I have manners above my station of life. My photograph herewith shows that I have an aristocratic cast of face, and will, perhaps, be a clue to my ancestry. I do not ask for fortune, but I aspire to the pride of race."

SAVED FROM SNAKE BITE.

An instrument called the "snake-bite lancet" has been introduced in India with splendid results. It is being widely distributed by the authorities to police outposts in Bengal and Assam, the central provinces and united provinces, and also to all village officials by some of the native states in upper and central India. A report by one person is to the effect that he had saved the lives of 20 persons bitten by cobras and serpents within the last year by the use of one lancet. The use of this simple instrument may be the means of saving thousands of lives annually in India, and hence will prove a great blessing.

"CONSPICUOUS BY ABSENCE."

Tacitus, the great Roman historian, was the originator of the phrase "Conspicuous by his absence," when, describing the funeral of Junia in his Annals, he said that the images of her famous kin-men Brutus and Cassius shone by their absence. Lord John Russell popularized the phrase in England in 1850 by saying of Lord Derby's reform bill, "One provision is conspicuous by its presence, another by its absence."

THEN CHANGES HER MIND.

"Woman's a queer creature," said the bachelor. "When she will she will and that's all there is about it."
"But," remarked the youth who was once engaged, "sometimes she never gives up."

TIGER SUBDUED BY MAN

Turkoman's Courage and Firmness Cowed Savage Beast While Collar and Chain Were Attached.

"In a cage near the room in which I lived while in Khiva, was a tiger from the Oxus swamps. He had taken a dislike to me, and every time I passed his cage he got up and paced angrily toward me, snarling.

"In the cage of this beast, at the command of the prince, a Turkoman stepped, armed with a short stick as big round as his wrist. With this stick he struck the tiger's nose as he made for him, and then, with palms out and eyes fixed, he walked slowly up to the snarling beast and stroked his face and flank.

"The tiger snarled and took the man's hand in his open mouth. I held my breath and looked for the bleeding stump to fall away. But keeping that hand perfectly still, with the other he tickled the tiger's jaw and scratched his ear, till with a yawn and a pleased snarl the big cat rolled over on his back to have his belly scratched.

"The man then sank to his knees, always keeping his hands in motion over the glossy fur, and with his foot drew toward him a collar attached to a chain. This he snapped round the beast's neck and, rising to his feet, laid hold of the chain and dragged the tiger out.

"This was only the second time that the cage had been entered. As soon as the tiger was outside he escaped the watching party and started for them, but came up short on the collar. If he had chosen to use his weight and strength no four of them could have held his tether, but as it was, the Turkoman found little difficulty with him, and held him, snarling, while a camera was snapped."—Century Magazine.

CAPTURE OF SANTA ANNA.

Early in a Mexican war battle, Santa Anna, seeing his men falling on every side, had mounted his horse, crying: "Die—these Americans; I believe they will shoot us all," and had taken refuge in flight.
When the summing up of prisoners came this "Napoleon of the West" was missing, and Houston remarked to some of his men: "You will find the hero of Tampico, if you find him at all, making his retreat on all fours, and he will be dressed as bad at least as a common soldier."

It was even as Houston predicted.
Santa Anna was shortly taken, disguised as a rustic, with a skin cap, blue cotton pantaloons and a round jacket, but beneath peeped out the fine linen shirt and more obtrusive still, and not to be mistaken, were the manners of El Presidente. He was crawling along through the long grass, intent upon saving at any cost a life which in his eyes was of more value than many Mexican armies.—Metropolitan.

TOO MUCH SUSPENSE.

Melton C. Weeks in the course of an address in Denver on the new pure drug law told a drug story.

"Dear friends," said Mr. Weeks,
"we ought to give the people pure drugs—we charge them enough for them. Sometimes I think we drug dealers would get along better if we didn't show ourselves so greedily in our charges. We are too much like a druggist I used to know in Santa Fe. A miner rode into Santa Fe with dyspepsia one day, consulted a doctor and took his prescription to my druggist friend to be made up.

"Well, how much?" said the miner when the prescription was finished.
"Let's see," said the druggist.
"It's a dollar ten for the medicine and 15 cents for the bottle. That makes—" He hesitated, afraid he might have forgotten something, and the miner, said impatiently:
"Well, hurry up, boss. Put a price on the cork and let us know the worst."

GOOD MAN TO LEAVE ALONE.

We have noticed that the man whose only contentment is in reading the paper is a "kick" on the things he does not like is the same one who "kicks" on his friends. Think the man who lives in the darkest on earth, complains because it rains too much or does not rain enough; thinks the weather is too hot or too cold. It is no use to discuss anything in the world with a man of that kind. The only sensible thing to do is to give him time to think by letting him alone. — Atchison

The Murray Ledger

O. J. JENKINS, Editor and Owner.

Entered at the postoffice at Murray, Ky., for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

REPRESENTATIVE:

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of J. B. SWAN, for representative in the lower house of the state legislature, subject to the action of the democratic party.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of J. F. MILES, for representative in the lower house of the state legislature, subject to the action of the democratic party.

J. F. Miles.

The Ledger announces this week the candidacy of Mr. J. F.
Miles, of Hico, for representative of Calloway county in the lower house of the Kentucky legislation.

Mr. Miles is a young man of splendid ability and is readily recognized as one of the best men in the county, and a true blue democrat of the old school. He is at present engaged in the mercantile business at Hico where he has built up a nice business by treating the trade fair and honorable in all transactions and by his pleasant and affable manner and deportment. He is clerk of Palestine lodge, W. O. W., No.
201, and takes an active interest in Woodcraft.

He is a native of Stewart county, Tenn., where he was born and reared on a farm, and the success he has achieved has been due solely to his own efforts and energy. He has been a citizen of Calloway for a number of years and is closely allied with her best interests and thoroughly acquainted with her needs.

He is a young man worthy of the support of all democrats and should be elected will represent the county to the full extent of his ability. He asks your consideration of his claims and if you decide that he is entitled to your vote will appreciate your assistance.

The republican county mass convention held here last Saturday was a regular love feast, a perfect blending of the oily, warring factions. Things were harmonious, so smooth and glossy it reminded us of a new celluloid collar. Hon. Henry Clay Erwin was elected chairman and Thomas Watson Patterson selected to make record of events that might and did occur. A committee on resolutions was appointed and retired for a few brief seconds and returned with a "beautiful bunch" of type-written resolves that went through with a majority. A. Downs, J. M.
Cole, T. W. Patterson, C. H.
Redden, H. C. Erwin, D. L. Redden, E. D. Hart and Eli Alexander were elected as delegates.
Of this number Mr. Downs, Mr.
Cole, D. L. Redden, and Mr. Erwin left Tuesday for Louisville with the vote of this county tucked away in their inside breaches pockets for A. E. Wilson, of Louisville, for governor, Jas. Breathitt, of Hopkinsville, for attorney general, and Capt.
Ed. Farley, of Paducah, for treasurer. The boys left Murray really feeling good, and each one of them imagined that they already had a big, juicy slice of the pie and were actually eating it.

In the consolidation of the National Fraternal Union, of this city, and the American Patriots, of Springfield, Ill., Murray loses one of her most promising financial institutions. This fraternal insurance company was organized here about two years ago by Mr.
J. F. D. Woodruff, and since that time he has devoted his whole time and attention to its propagation. His efforts met with success but not, however, to the degree Mr. Woodruff anticipated in the beginning. His plan of insurance was one of the very best, similar in many respects to the American Patriots, with which it is now consolidated.

The head offices of the new union will be in Springfield, Ill., and Mr. Woodruff retires from the business entirely.

State Auditor S. W. Hager, Democratic nominee for Governor, at Frankfort Tuesday announced his position on the liquor question in answer to a letter from the editor of a temperance paper. He declares himself in favor of the county unit law and the further extension of it and also pledges himself, if elected, to a strict enforcement of the law regarding Sabbath observance.

I Took Pe-ru-na, Hardly Daring to Believe

So Writes Mr. Newhof, of Albany.

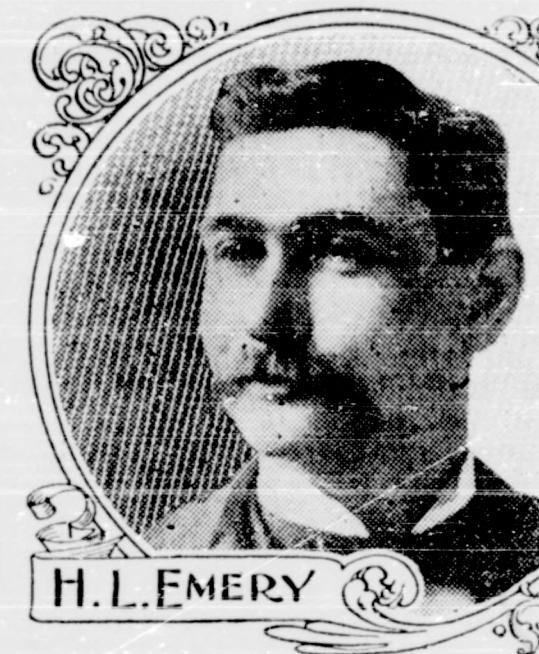

Pelvic Diseases in Men.

Many an invalid is dragging out a miserable existence with catarrh of the kidneys, catarrh of the bladder, or both.
There is no disease equal to catarrh of the bladder in producing complete wretchedness, absolute despair, haggard misery and stubborn weakness.
An army of this sort of victims have one by one discovered that Peru-na could be relied upon to relieve such cases.

One man tells another man, and in this way the news spreads until in all parts of the country are to be found men who have been permanently liberated from the tirade of catarrh of the bladder by a course of Peru-na.

Many cases of catarrh of the stomach, kidneys and other abdominal organs have reported themselves as cured.

We give below two prominent testimonials which illustrate the benefit of Peru-na in these cases.

H. L. EMERY

Catarrh of Stomach and Kidneys.

Mr. H. L. Emery, Vice Chancellor and Master of Arms, K. P's., of Omaha, Neb., writes from 205 North Sixteenth street, the following words of praise for Peru-na as a tonic. He says:

It is with pleasure I recommend Peru-na as a tonic of unusual merit.
A large number of prominent members of the different orders with which I have been connected have been cured by the use of Peru-na in cases of catarrh of the stomach and head; also in kidney complaints and weakness of the pelvic organs.
"Peru-na tones up the system, aids digestion, induces sleep, and is well worthy the confidence of sufferers of the above complaints."

Mr. David L. Jaycox, Chaplain, Clarified L. O. G. T. and Chaplain G. A. R., 30 Broadway, Oakland, Cal., writes:

"I am an old war veteran. I have suffered severe bladder and kidney trouble.
I spent hundreds of dollars and consulted a host of doctors, but neither did me any good.

"Finally some of my comrades who had been cured by Peru-na advised me to try it. I at once bought a bottle, and found it helped me so much that I kept using it for nearly four months.

"Peru-na has proven the best medicine I ever used. My pains are gone and I believe myself to be cured. I feel well, and would not be without a bottle in time of need for ten times its cost."

Mr. Robert E. Hanvey, Treasurer Knights of Industrial Freedom, also a well known writer and lecturer, writes

CHARLES B. NEWHOF

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Mr. C. B. Newhof, 10 Delaware street, Albany, N. Y., President Montefiore Club, writes:

"I was in good health until about four years ago, when my back became lame and sore. The pains kept increasing, with severe twitches and slow exhaustive aches. Urine was highly colored and passed with great irregularity. I knew this must be inflammation of the bladder.

"Having read of Peru-na I decided to try it. I found relief from the pain within ten days. The aches gradually diminished, and it was a blessed relief
I can assure you. Within three months I was well once more. My appetite had returned, nervousness and irritability were things of the past, and for over two years now I have been a healthy man.

"I give all thanks to your Peru-na, and believe that it is a blessing to mankind."

from H. South Nicholas St., Chicago, Ill., as follows:

"I was in good health until about four years ago, when my back became lame

with severe twitches and slow exhaustive aches. Urine was highly colored

TURKEY.

She Was Not His Wife and He Was Not Her Husband.

A laughable but rather endearing case of mistaken identity occurred the other day in a large draper's shop. A gentleman who is a little too fond of joking entered the shop for the purpose of meeting his wife at a certain counter.

Her back was turned, and no one was near her, so he quietly approached, took her by the arm, and said, in a voice of simulated severity:

"Well, here you are, spending my money as usual, eh?"

The face turned quickly toward him was not his wife's; it was that of an angry, brown-eyed woman of about 50 years, who attracted the attention of everybody in that part of the shop by saying in a loud, shrill voice:

"No, I ain't spending your money or no other man's money, and I'll be—"

"I beg your pardon, madam," cried the confused gentleman. "I supposed you were my wife, and—"

"Well, I just ain't your wife, nor no other man's wife, thank fortune, to be jested at every time I buy a yard of ribbon! I pity you, wife, if you go about shaking her like you did me. If I was her I'd—"

The chagrined joker waited to her no more, but made his way out of the shop, amid the titters and sly chuckles of those who had witnessed his confusion.—Tit-Bits.

THAT THING CALLED LOVE.

An Atchison young man not many years ago commenced to call on a girl. He kept her out on the front porch late at night, he made life a torment for her if she looked at any other man and finally he married her. He is poor, and her father was in fairly good circumstances, so that for the first time in her life she began to taste privation and self-denial. She cooks for him, cleans, sews, mends and slaves for their two children. Do you want to know why this man put her in a position where she would experience such hardship in addition to his tyranny? Because he loved her.—Atchison Globe.

JUST AS GOOD.

She says:—Have you any stuff that will make my sweetheart think I am the whole cheese?

Witch—No; but I have something that will make her think you're a honey-suckle.

VON BUELOW'S HUMOR.

At a recital it so happened that two ladies were making their way to their seats at the very moment Von Buelow finished his introduction of the first movement of Beethoven's "Sonata Pathetic." This so irritated him that he purposely commenced the allegro at such an awfully slow pace as to make the quavers in the bass correspond exactly to the time of the ladies' footsteps. As may be imagined, they felt on thorns, and hurried on as fast as they could, while Von Buelow accelerated his tempo in sympathy with their increasing pace.—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Apothecary Objects to Being Universal Philanthropist.

"I guess I'll have to open a check stand in here," said a Denver druggist, who has a store downtown, according to the Denver Post. "People are forever coming in here and asking us to take care of their bundles, etc. Saturday I counted the things left here, and there were 21. That number included three baby buggies, a pair of boots and a guitar. One woman the other day wanted me to let her leave her baby here for a while. She was going to shop in one of the big stores, and said he'd be in her way. I refused, and she went out mad. I presume I lost a customer, but I can't help it. I draw the line at babies. And then, early in the week a young woman came in here leading a great big Newfoundland dog by a chain."

"Oh, Mr. Druggist," she said, with a sweet smile, "I want to go to the matinee. Won't you let me leave Nero here for a couple of hours? He's an awfully nice dog."

"I'm sorry," I replied, "but I'm afraid we couldn't afford to have Nero chained in here for two hours."

HOW ENGLISHMEN WASTE COAL.

That open grate is a mere farce when the real cold comes, says Modern Society. If you sit very close to it you may get each part of your body warm in succession, though the only real way to comfort would be to hang yourself on a roasting jack and twirl. Even then the halls and passages, to say nothing of the other end of the room, are arctic. We waste hundreds of thousands a year on coal which does not warm us just because, with that stolid English conservatism, we think the coal fire in the open grate so good to look at. It is. For ourselves we would always like a coal fire to look at, to poke, to talk to. But not for the purpose of warming a house. If we are hungry it is not enough to look at a meal and if we are cold it is not enough to gaze in admiration on a fire that is only warming the chimney.

APPROPRIATE.

The minister had just finished his discourse when a deacon stepped forward and whispered something in his ear, whereupon the good man faced the assembled worshippers and said:

SUFFICIENTLY COMPETENT.

"I want ter git me cousin Mike Flannery on the police force," said the ward heeler.

"What?" exclaimed the machine boss. "Why, he's almost blind and he's lame, besides."

"Well, he kin draw his pay all right," Philadelphia Press.

ANOTHER RECORD.

Rail—My chauffeur has made another record.

Gracie—Good! What is it?

"He was the first one to be fined in town in 1907."—Yonkers Statesman.

FOOLED AGAIN.

The angular chap in the frayed silk hat and blue carnuffa dashed into the toughest saloon in the district and announced in a stentorian voice:

"Say, you shrimps think you are a whole can, eh? Well, I can just clean up the bunch."

There was a squirming maelstrom of projecting chins and hamlike fists, but the stranger was unabashed:

"Come outside," he shouted. "I haven't much use for barrooms anyway."

Of course this intensified the desire to make mincemeat of the challenger and a score of determined characters rushed through the swinging doors.

And was there a fight? Not a bit of it.

The angular chap smilingly removed his frayed silk hat and began to distribute boxes of a cleaning compound labeled:

"This Will Clean Up a Crowd in Ten Minutes."

STEAMSHIP'S LARGE CREW.

A modern ocean greyhound has in its crew men enough to make quite a village ashore, and the general public, and even passengers on the ships have no idea of the number of men necessary to man and handle one of the big ocean-going passenger steamers. The master of the new North German Lloyd steamship, Kronprinzessin Cecilie, has command of a force of 697 persons, divided as follows: Twenty-four officers, surgeons, purser and mail officers; 61 engineers, electricians, boiler makers and oilers; 231 firemen and coal heavers; 229 stewards, stewardesses and twelve-deck stewards; 33 dishwashers and pantry men; 33 cooks, confectioners, bakers and butchers; nine Marine operators, baggage masters, barbers and booksellers, 59 quarter-masters, boatswains, carpenters, sailmakers, sailors and lamp trimmers.

THE MALE POINT OF VIEW.

After the musicale two women and one man sat in a window seat under a rose lantern. In a few moments the man left to get them some salad.

"I thought I'd drop dead," whispered one of the women, "when I heard you complimenting Mrs. Jones so, saying how exquisite her complexion is and how beautiful her hair. The last time I heard from you on that subject you said she was a cat, her hair was false, and the way she painted and powdered was scandalous."

"Yes," the other whispered back, "but you must remember I said that to you. He is a man. The more you hate a woman the more you must compliment her to a man or he will think you are envious."

RUBBING IT IN.

"One of the most distressing things about the time of the year when I am trying to see some light on the financial situation owing to the Christmas present business," remarked a worried looking citizen, "is the habit banks and trust companies have of sending me personal letters calling attention to their business. Fancy my joy in getting several notes of this kind in one day, every one of which begs to call my attention to the facilities we have for taking care of your banking business, when I'm trying to figure out how I can manage to keep one small balance on a working basis. It is flattering, of course, but each new note of this kind only seems to rub in my financial distress just a little bit harder."

THE DOCTOR AND HIS BILL.

"Perhaps, doctor," said the sick man, "you'd better present your bill."

"No," replied the doctor, "I don't want to worry you with that now."

"Oh, well, if you think it's best."

"Yes, I'll send it in to your undertaker in good time."—Catholic Standard.

THE TABLE D'HOTE CAT.

At the table d'hote restaurant he took a piece of roast from his plate and was about to give it to the large black cat that blinked on the floor at his feet, but she stopped him.

"Don't do that," she implored. "He is a table d'hote cat. You are only wasting your roast. He won't touch a bite of it until he has had his fill."

SKIN DISEASES HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

When the blood is pure, fresh and healthy, the skin will be soft, smooth and free from blemishes, but when some acid humor takes root in the circulation its presence is manifested by a skin eruption or disease. These humors get into the blood, generally because of an inactive or sluggish condition of the members of the body whose duty it is to collect and carry off the waste and refuse matter of the system. This unhealthy matter is left to sour and ferment and soon the circulation becomes charged with the acid poisons. The blood begins to throw off the humors and acids through the pores and glands of the skin, producing Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum and skin eruptions of various kinds. Eczema appears, usually with a slight redness of the skin followed by pustules from which there flows a sticky fluid that dries and forms a crust, and the itching is intense. It is generally on the back, breast, face, arms and legs, though other parts of the body may be affected. In Tetter the skin dries, cracks and bleeds; the acid in the blood dries up the natural oils of the skin, which are intended to keep it soft and pliant, causing a dry, feverish condition and giving it a hard, leathery appearance. Acne makes its appearance on the face in the form of pimples and black heads, while Psoriasis comes in scaly patches on different parts of the body. One of the worst forms of skin trouble is Salt Rheum; its favorite point of attack is the scalp, sometimes causing baldness. Poison Oak and Ivy are also disagreeable types of skin diseases. The humor producing the trouble lies dormant in the blood through the winter to break out and torment the sufferer with the return of Spring. The best treatment for all skin diseases is S. S. S. It neutralizes the acids and removes the humors so that the skin instead of being irritated and diseased, is nourished by a supply of fresh, healthy blood. External applications of salves, washes, lotions, etc., while they soothe the itching caused by skin affections, can never cure the trouble because they do not reach the blood. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and forces out every particle of foreign matter and restores the blood to its normal, pure condition, thereby permanently curing every form of skin affection. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write. S. S. S. is for sale at all first class drug stores.

Infused with Eczema for forty years and could find nothing to cure me until I tried S. S. S. I suffered intensely with the itching and burning pustules would come from which there flowed a sticky fluid that dries and forms a crust, and the itching is intense. I suffered agony in the long years I was afflicted, but when I used S. S. S. I found a perfect cure. There has never been any return of the trouble.
