City National Fulton's Million Dollar Bank

The announcement that the City National Bank of Fulton was a real million dollar institution, was no surprise to us or anyone else who has watched its steady growth from year to year. This splendid financial institution has been a success from the time it was organized in 1897 under the name of the Citizens Bank, with a capital stock of $12,500. On Feb. 1, 1898, it doubled its capital stock, making $25,000. The institution continued to grow as a state bank until March 15, 1902, when it was then changed to a National bank, the name being changed to The City National Bank. It had also done so well that its capital stock was increased to $75,000. It continued to flourish and in 1906 again increased its stock to $80,000 in order to purchase the splendid building in which the bank occupied. It was fitted up with elegant fixtures in keeping with the splendid record it had made and is one of the handsome banks of the State. The bank has always done a prosperous business and every step in its progress has been an upward one. Its deposits at the close of business on the 20th of April, 1925, were $758,152.51; its cash, exchange and due from U. S. Treasurer, $266,307.09; its loans, discounts and overdrafts $585,697.32. Besides paying a handsome dividend annually, it has a surplus, undivided profit and interest of $82,892.07. Its U. S. Government bonds and other stocks and bonds, $147,173.75.

The City National is a Federal Reserve bank. While careful and conservative, it has extended its powerful aid toward many enterprises that have helped to build up Fulton. Its officers and directors are gentlemen of high character and standing with W. W. Morris, president; N. G. Cooke, active vice-president; Clyde P. Williams, cashier; B. J. Pigue, assistant cashier; H. G. Pigue, assistant cashier.

Directors: W. W. Morris, Joe Browder, W. C. Croft, T. N. Fields, W. A. Terry, J. C. Brann, Enoch Browder, Sam T. Butler, N. G. Cooke, W. P. Murrell, E. K. Karmire, L. F. Burke.

CLEAN UP AND KEEP CLEAN

The work of cleaning up the city this week has been pushed forward vigorously. In fact, even before the announcement was made in the papers for the annual event, the city department was exerting every effort to clean up. The majority of citizens are rendering valuable assistance and taking pride in keeping their premises clean, while others are expecting unreasonable things of the department with a don't care spirit. It is how burden some they make the work. In the business section of the city an ordinance was passed to eliminate the dumping of trash in the alleys and creek, but little or no attention has ever been given it. What has become of the garbage cans, we do not know, but we do know that some are thoughtlessly using the streets and alleys, as well as the creek for dumping places. The city department is doing their part faithfully, and the citizens should lend every assistance in keeping the town clean.

Surveying Jeff Davis Highway

Chief Engineer Mack Galbreath, of the Federal Highway Commission of Kentucky, at the head of a party of surveyors, is in Fulton this week making final surveys of the Graves County section of the Jefferson Davis Highway, and from the viewpoint of the man in the street, the road will enter Fulton either by way of the present Water Valley road or through Mayor Wade's land adjoining the golf links on the east.

Preliminary surveys may mean much or little, according to which route is finally decided upon, so that at this writing it is not possible to state definitely which route will be the actual choice, but the fact that the surveys are actually being made means much to Fulton, and it is a foregone conclusion that as soon as Graves County votes for its road bonds the work will be started and ultimately Fulton will have another hard surfaced road leading to the north.

Every improved road leading into Fulton should be a cause of rejoicing to every dweller in Fulton county, not only to the City of Fulton, but to Hickman and the intermediate towns as well, for its means the ability to reach points within the county without the discomfort and delay of former years, adds just that much to the reduction of living expenses and pleasure of life.

While at the first thought it might seem that Fulton was reaping all the benefits, in reality, Cayce, Jordan and Hickman are benefitting proportionally with us in these improved roads. Many tourists passing through Fulton will avail themselves of the opportunity to see Reelfoot lake, if assured of a good road on which to reach there, and a little judicious advertising on the part of Hickman should attract heavy tourist travel through her gates.

The time when one community can progress without carrying its neighbors with it has gone forever, and towns of one neighborhood must learn that community interests depend on each member doing his part in setting forth the advantages of the neighborhood.

Railroad News

Freight Traffic in February
The volume of freight carried by the railroads during the first two months this year was the greatest ever handled by them during any corresponding period, according to reports compiled by the Bureau of Railway Economics.

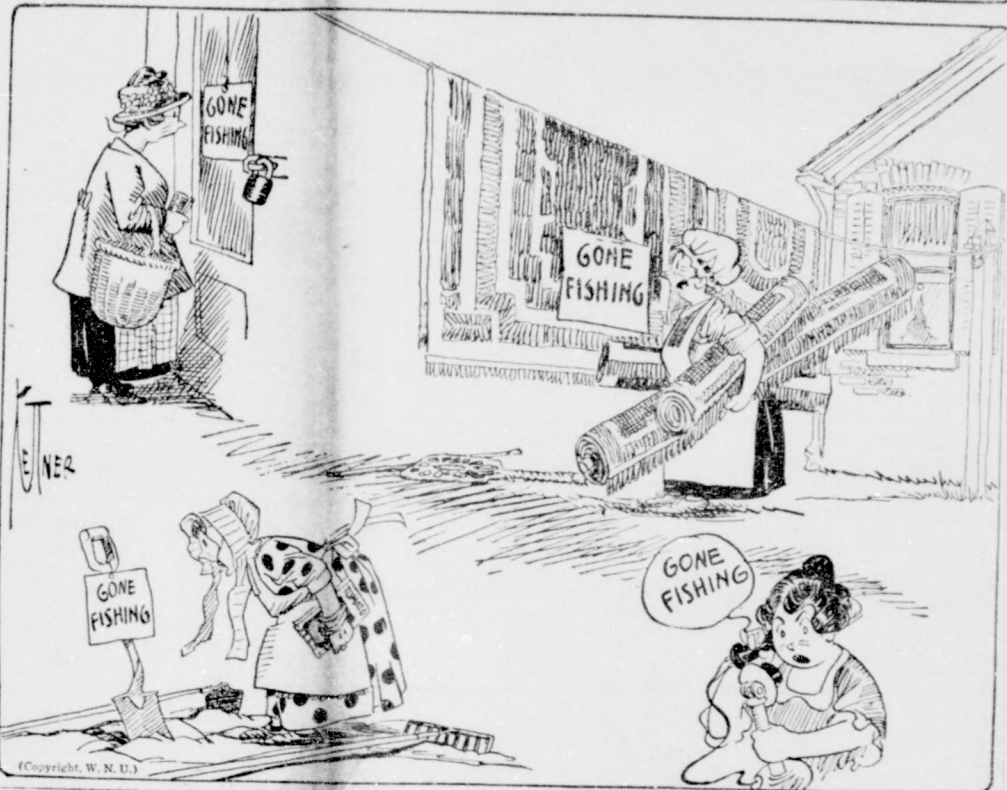

In net ton miles, it amounted to 70,500,495,000, an increase of two-tenths of one per cent over the corresponding period in 1924, which marked the previous high record, and an increase of three-tenths of one per cent over the same period in 1923. It also was an increase of 3.9 per cent over the same period in 1920.

Iron and Steel

The Illinois Central Railroad has ordered 620 tons of structural steel from the American Bridge Company, for use in new construction work now under way.

Guy Ledwidge Announces for County Judge

To the Voters of Fulton County:

I take pleasure in announcing my candidacy for the office of County Judge of Fulton County, subject to the August primary.

To you who are not personally acquainted with me, I feel that it is proper that I should say a few words about myself as an introduction, and as evidence of my qualifications for the office to which I aspire.

My home is four miles south of Hickman, where I was born and spent my boyhood days. In June, 1915, I graduated from Hickman High school, and in the following September I entered the University of Kentucky where I remained until the following June, when at the outbreak of the Villa raids on the Mexican border, I volunteered my services and served in the United States army in the El Paso district until March 20, 1917. When war was declared on Germany on the following April 6, I reported for duty and served as a soldier in the United States and France until May 22, 1919, and in the following September, I resumed my work at the University of Kentucky and graduated there from the College of Law in 1922. During that summer I attended summer school at the University of Kentucky; and in August I took the bar examination at Frankfort, and was admitted to the bar to practice law. During the following year I taught as principal at Sylvan Shade High school in Fulton county, after which I returned to the University of Kentucky and completed a year and a half of graduate work there.

As a citizen and a democrat, my record is open for investigation and I hope every voter in Fulton county will make this investigation before he selects me as his candidate.

My chief motive in entering this campaign is to make an honest effort to win this important office, and if the good voters of Fulton county see fit to elect me, I pledge myself to an honest and progressive administration, and at all times to stand four square for the things which I deem most advantageous to the general interest of the people of Fulton county.

GUY LEDWIDGE.

GREAT DAY IN FULTON

BE IN FULTON
SUNDAY, MAY 3

Will Address Busy Men's Bible
Class at Carr's Park
Auditorium Sunday Morning

A treat is in store for all who attend the Busy Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist church Sunday morning at Carr's Park Auditorium. Hon. Alben W. Barkley will address the class and all who hear him will be benefited. Mr. Barkley needs no introduction to the people of this vicinity. We all know him. He is a fluent speaker and a gifted orator of national reputation, and never fails to interest his audience. He has a special message for this occasion and the Busy Men's Bible Class extends to all a special invitation to hear him. If you are unable to walk, phone No. 51 and a car will be at your convenience going and coming.

The Busy Men's Bible Class is now engaged in a contest with the Men's Class of the First Methodist Church of Dyersburg. The class which has the largest average attendance between now and June 7th will be entertained with a fish fry at Reelfoot Lake immediately following the contest by the losing class.

Last Sunday the attendance in Fulton was 312; in Dyersburg, 201.

Stanley D. Stembridge Announces for County Attorney

In today's paper we are authorized to announce the candidacy of Stanley D. Stembridge for County Attorney, subject to the action of the Democratic primary election, August 1.

This well known and popular lawyer has served the people of Hickman as City Attorney for the past seven years and is now anxious to serve the people of the entire county.

He is a native Virginian and a thoroughbred Democrat. He has always worked for the party's best interests when occasion demanded.

In asking the voters to elect him for county attorney he fully realizes the responsibilities of the office, of which he is in every way capable to fill with credit to himself and the people. This is his first time to ask for a county office and he is going to make an effort to see every man and woman voter throughout the entire county during the campaign. If elected, he pledges himself to fill the office to the best of his ability and treat everyone with impartial fairness. His campaign is directed to both men and women whom he hopes to have the pleasure of seeing personally during the campaign.

Stanley Stembridge is a good man for the office of county attorney and the voters will do well to consider his claims.

Moss & Bushart Real Estate Dealers

Boosting Fulton and Surrounding Country

The page ad in this paper of Moss and Bushart, real estate dealers, should be read carefully with intense interest. They not only quote attractive prices on farm lands and city property, but briefly give an interesting story of Fulton and surrounding country without exaggeration. They tell why buying farm lands in Fulton and adjoining counties is a good investment, also invest in Fulton property and grow with the town.

Moss & Bushart realize they have some extraordinary values to offer the man who wants to make a safe investment, an investment the purchaser can realize a handsome profit on at any time.

Moss & Bushart also specialize in the drawing of abstracts of title, writing deeds, mortgages, etc. And they can rent, sell or exchange your property, and collect your rents. They are men who stand at the top notch in Fulton's business circles; men who are fair in their dealings; men who lend money at 5 per cent on long time loans. They also write all forms of insurance on farm properties, also life, accident and health insurance. Their office is in the City National Bank, where they are pleased to meet any man who wants to make a safe investment.

A traveling exhibit of the above kind is something of a novelty for this part of the country and will attract prospective buyers wherever it goes.

Starting from St. Louis, the exhibit will take in all the principal towns and cities between that point and New Orleans, and probably on south into Texas.

tral R. R. covering its application for a long term lease of the Alabama & Vicksburg and Vicksburg Shreveport & Pacific Railroads:

"This is an age of expansion and growth. The Transportation Act wisely provides for the consolidation of railroads with the consent and approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission. In asking approval of its proposed lease of the Alabama & Vicksburg and Vicksburg Shreveport & Pacific railroads, the Illinois Central believes that it is seeking to expand along natural lines.

"The Illinois Central already has large interests in Mississippi and Louisiana, and by the lease of these railroads, its interests will be enhanced and its desire to promote the welfare of the states will be quickened. We are necessarily interested in industrial and agricultural development of our territory. It is through the growth and prosperity of the population we serve that we, in turn, can grow and prosper. Our interests are mutual. For our part, we want to give the best service possible. If our plans are approved, we feel certain that we will be in a position to do even greater things in the future than we have in the past for the people of Mississippi and Louisiana, and in so doing we will be able better to serve our own interests.

"We believe the taking over of the Alabama & Vicksburg and Vicksburg & Pacific Railroads, if approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission will strengthen the Illinois Central, and we believe the territory served by these lines will, in turn, be correspondingly benefited."

Look and Live—Safety First

With the return of spring and fine weather, the automobile once more takes the highway and the subject of care at railroad grade crossings is again timely. In the year 1923 there were 2,268 persons killed at grade crossings. This figure was reduced by more careful driving to 2,149 in 1924 and this in spite of many thousands more automobiles on the road.

The railroads have printed much in their campaign of Cross Crossings Cautiously and in this paper we believe the words of an automobile manufacturer will carry some additional weight. Mr. A. B. C. Hardy, President of the Olds Motor Works, utters the following of caution to automobile drivers:

"It takes a pretty good sized automobile to weigh two tons, but an 800 ton locomotive is not unusual. Those figures represent a part of the odds against the driver of an automobile when he risks contact with a locomotive. The weight of the train behind the engine adds to the odds; the automobile is always on the short end of the bargain. Another thing—the locomotive is engaged in the public service of transportation, whether it is drawing a passenger train or a freight. It is serving, either directly or indirectly thousands of people; you owe it to the public as well as to your own skin, to keep out of the way of railroad trains. They can't possibly avoid you because their path is fixed and immovable; they have to travel in a definite place, which is marked clearly for your protection. Moreover, they pass grade crossings at a high speed; seven seconds is all that the average fast train requires to cross the average street or road. That's too little time for the best engineer, with the best brakes, to stop for your benefit.

"It is safe to say that no sane person ever deliberately puts his automobile in the path of a locomotive, but it seems safe to say also that no wholly sane person ever takes a chance at a railroad crossing. And yet the only people who are killed at grade crossings are those who take chances. There are those who take chances. There are just two kinds of chance takers—those who see the train coming and think they can beat it across before the train reaches them, and those who are heedless and do not see the train at all until it is too late."

This is indeed an interesting statement coming from the manufacturer of automobiles, and is a strong appeal to the driver of automobiles to be careful at railroad crossings. We have said a great deal in our paper in the last few months about this subject, but if we can be instrumental in saving one life, or the maiming of one person at grade crossings, we will feel that our efforts have been well spent. Let's look and live.

Twelve Hundred Ton Coaling Station

The Illinois Central has awarded a contract for a 1,200 ton coaling station in their Markham Yards near Chicago.

General Superintendent Heyron was in the city one day the latter part of last week. Also the early part of this week.

Superintendent H. W. Williams of the I. C., attended the meeting of the Transportation Committee of the Southeast Shippers Regional Advisory Board, of which he is a member, at Atlanta, Georgia, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Williams spent the week end last at Paducah hospital where Mr. Williams' mother has been for several days, quite ill.

Mrs. J. B. Covington, wife of Signalman Covington returned the first of the week from visiting friends and relatives at Halls.

$300,000,000 SLASH IN TAXES LOOMS

COLLECTIONS FAR EXCEED ESTIMATES OF TREASURY

$100,000,000 AS SURPLUS

Collections for March Total $438,726,937, Which is Nearly Nine Million Above Estimate Made by the Treasury

Washington—Final tax collection figures for March, 1925, made public by the internal revenue bureau, show that despite the slashing of income and miscellaneous taxes in the last revenue bill, receipts for the first nine months of the fiscal year dropped only $217,821,134.

These figures give promise that the surplus for 1925, which the treasury has placed at $68,000,000 will exceed $100,000,000 and that Congress will find it possible to reduce taxes in the next session by from $300,000,000 to $350,000,000.

Income tax collections for March totaled $438,726,937, which was $8,700,000 above the estimated and compared with collections of $489,835,807 in March, 1924. It is pointed out that while Congress reduced taxes payable in 1924 by 25 per cent the reduction was not effective in March of that year, and for that month the revenue bill was almost as productive as the old.

For the nine months ended March 31, 1925, income tax collections were $1,299,850,42. For the entire fiscal year the treasury expects $1,660,000,000.

On that estimate bases its of a $68,000,000 surplus. Estimate for June collections is $320,000,000 and for April and May $50,000,000. It now appears that April, May and June receipts will exceed the amounts anticipated, and with customs collections running fully up to expectations the treasury will not be surprised to find itself with more than an excess $100,000,000 on June 30.

MILLIONS WASTED IN HANDLING OF COTTON

Standardized Baling Methods Suggested by Experts

Washington.—The American bale of cotton is the most wastefully handled article which enters the channels of commerce in any country, the Department of Agriculture has found after extensive investigations.

The annual losses incurred by the growers and spinners of American cotton by the present method of baling is estimated at $150,000,000. Weather damage to cotton through failure to archouse the bales is placed at more than $25,000,000 annually.

The department says that if better covering were used in baling cotton and the cotton compressed to high density, the industry would save at least $25,000,000 a year. Present use of loose baling allows only 50 bales to be loaded in a box car, a high compression baling would permit the loading of 100 bales.

The department is now investigating the possibility of standardizing baling methods and of selling cotton on a net weight instead of a gross weight basis. Standardization of baling methods, it is said, would save storage space, simplify trade practices and result generally in better business ethics.

DENIES STORY TELLING

Farmer, Alleged Moonshiner, Resents Dry Officer's Accusation
Louisville, Ky.—George Kircher, 60, farmer, might be an alleged "moonshiner" but he won't stand for being called a "dod barned story teller." It developed here when Prohibition Agent I. B. Morely led a raid to his farm.

Encountering Kircher, Morely inquired the way to the hills near his home where some stills were alleged to be hidden. "The ain't no road," Kircher replied.

"You're a dad-barned story teller," the prohibition agent said.

"You take off that jaw you got on and lay down your gun and I'll resent that remark," Kircher declared.

Kircher was brought from his farm to headquarters here where in addition to making bond on the still charge his bond was placed even higher on the "story telling" charge.

Its Spring Pressure Feature Insures Better Disking

We have in stock, ready for your inspection and use, a supply of disc harrows that are noted for doing a better job of diskings their entire width when going over ridges or depressions, or on side hills, as well as on level land. Come in and inspect the

JOHN DEERE Model "B" Disc Harrow

By means of the third lever, spring and John Deere pivoted yoke, this harrow can be given the required pressure to penetrate at even depth its full width under all the above conditions. It is a really flexible harrow—penetrates, pulverizes and packs in conditions where rigid harrows fail to work all the soil. Each gang works independently, like separate harrows, and both can be given the proper angle to pulverize under varying conditions. It is strong—will last years longer than ordinary harrows because of its all-steel main frame and double bar, riveted gang frames. It has oscillating scrapers with lock-down and lock-off features, and the most convenient grease cups—easy to fill and out of the dust and dirt.

We can furnish the John Deere Model "B" with rear gang and hitch to convert it into a double-action, horse- or tractor-drawn harrow—a good way to save money and get good results.

WHY BUYING FARM LANDS IN FULTON AND ADJOINING COUNTIES IS A GOOD INVESTMENT

To view the fertile lands of Fulton and adjoining counties is enough to give any one a new inspiration of love for the country in which we live, surpassing in productiveness the high priced lands of many parts of the country.

Fulton and surrounding counties is in the midst of one of the finest agricultural sections of the entire South. The surface is mostly a rolling level inclining toward the Mississippi river. The soil is as versatile as it is rich and will grow to perfection corn, wheat, cotton, all cereals, clover, alfalfa, grasses, tobacco, the dark variety, fruits, potatoes and vegetables of all kinds.

It is an ideal stock section, on account of the freedom with which grasses grow. The country is well watered by living streams. It would be hard indeed, to find any section of country so well adapted to so many leading crops, to stock raising and all kindred lines of agriculture, and it is inhabited by a happy, prosperous, progressive people.

During his visit to Fulton county some years ago, Morgan O. Hughes, the best authority in America on farming, said it was not factories Fulton county needed, the production of the soil was sufficient.

Prof E. S. Good, head of animal husbandry of the College of Agriculture during his visit some years ago, said, "Blessed is that county that can raise the crops and stock such as raised here."

During their visit here, Messrs. Hughes and Good talked to the farmers and all who heard the addresses were benefited, because every word uttered by these gentlemen was instructive, giving each and everyone an inspiration for higher ideal on the farm.

No farmer in this section is ashamed for you to view his beautiful fields of growing crops, sheep, hogs, cattle, etc. A trip through this section of the country will cure any man who has the "Florida fever."

INVEST IN FULTON PROPERTY AND GROW WITH THE TOWN

Fulton, Ky., is one of the most progressive, healthful small cities to be found anywhere and property values are the lowest. It has a population of about 6,500 and is growing steadily; more than one hundred homes having been built within the past year with extensive railroad improvements in course of construction which will make Fulton the hub of the great Illinois Central, destined to be one of the large terminal points on its system.

Having two main lines of railroad, Fulton has direct through service to and from Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis and Chicago on the North; New Orleans, Birmingham, Memphis, Nashville, Atlanta and Jacksonville on the South, making it one of the most accessible cities in the "Jackson Purchase." Being the largest city between Cairo, Ill., and Jackson, Tenn., it is the distributing center of a large and rapidly developing section; the commercial center of Western Kentucky and Northwestern Tennessee. It is a city of business enterprise and progressive ideas; a city of thrifty, intelligent, cultured, hospitable people, a city of churches and Christian homes.

"The Square Deal" characterizes its municipal life, and integrity is a distinguishing feature of its business life; the atmosphere of its social life is pure and wholesome, while the tone of its moral and religious life is high and refreshing.

Its banking institutions are safe and accommodating; its capitalists are ever ready to assist in establishing and maintaining manufacturing enterprises, its real estate men are always in position to offer inducements in building sites for homes, business houses, or factories, and the city government will do its part to encourage the new-comer on every hand, and only "Fair Play" is asked of all who become citizens of our city.

The public schools of Fulton are unsurpassed. The eight churches of Fulton represent the leading dominations.

A splendid water system, pure and refreshing.

Her climate not only makes Fulton a pleasant place at all seasons, but is such as to be conducive to healthfulness, and the country surrounding is such as to insure the future of Fulton.

But Fulton can boast of something greater than a city of material prosperity in the midst of a fertile region; more promising than a city producing only wares and merchandise; grander than a city made up of factories, banks and stock exchanges; more to be lauded than a city of much extent and traffic; more to be desired than any other products of civilization—For she can boast of her homes. These are her pride; in them is her happiness; on them her hopes center; from them radiate that influence which has made the future promise better things.

For the professional man, the business man, the laboring man and the capitalist, Fulton has a welcome.

"Come, and if you go away, you will then return to stay."

FULTON BANKS, A BLESS-
ING TO THE COM-MUNITY

Fulton has a right to feel proud of its financial institutions. The First National Bank, The City National Bank, and The Farmers Bank, are strong in finances and officered by the best men in the State of Kentucky. Each one has earned its part and is a constant factor in the upbuilding of the town and community. The First National has the distinction of being the oldest bank in Fulton, established in May, 1891, and has successfully weathered every financial storm. The Farmers bank is the youngest of them all, but has had phenomenal success, growing by leaps and bounds.

With such financial institutions, Fulton will continue to grow and prosper.

A HAPPY HOME MADE DESOLATE

"How are you, Mr. What do you know?" "I know I am the unhappiest man in Fulton. The sunlight of my life has gone out. The home once so dear to me is desolate. The flowers in the yard have lost their beauty for me, and everything I loved and treasured is gone. The Angel of Death has taken the spirit of my dear wife to its eternal home. She passed away in a distant city where she was taken for an operation. I was not with her at the time; my business at home caused me to leave her the day before the end came. I was to return the next day but missed connections. If I just could have been with her to receive a parting kiss and clasp her in my arms. But why burden my friends with my sorrows. The doctors said if she could have been operated on at home she might have recovered. Her condition was weakened on the trip going."

Mr. What's unhappiness and experience is likely to befall any of us at any time. A short time ago he and his wife were enjoying all the happiness possible, but for the lack of hospital facilities and conveniences in Fulton, one life has entered its eternal rest and another is adrift on a desolate sea of unhappiness.

Fulton's greatest need today is a first class, up-to-the-minute hospital where we can take our loved ones at the opportune time should occasion arise and at the same time be with them and not neglect our business affairs.

GUY LEDWIDGE ENTERS RACE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

In the regular announcement column of this paper will be found the name of Guy Ledwidge, candidate for County Judge of Fulton county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, election August 1, 1925.

This brilliant young attorney, leaving the office, feeling the people if elected. He is a Fulton county product and a thoroughbred Democrat. In his announcement he says that if he is elected, he will give the people an honest and progressive administration.

A VOTE OF THANKS

The citizens of Fulton are due to give our city officials a vote of thanks for promptly putting an end to using the street opposite DeMyer's Jewelry Store as a market place when their attention was directed to the fact that one of the railroad's beauty spots was being destroyed.

COMMENCEMENT TIME

Some schools have passed the great day—commencement—but others are still in session and the students are in the throes of preparation for the big event of their lives, which is a stepping stone to new experiences.

No other occasion in life, save possibly marriage, seems of such tremendous importance to these young people.

They now approach a great landmark of life, a time of fresh beginnings, and face untried issues. But young folks negotiate these sharp breaks with ease. Most of them are delighted to try their inexperienced wings.

Preparing for graduation, in the minds of some young women, means mainly long sessions with the dressmaker and a gorgeous display of fine feathers. The girl of the struggling home sometimes makes more show than one from the abode of wealth.

In the case of the poor girl, her parents may feel that this is her one chance to show that she is as good as anyone and according to true American standards, she is. Her father and mother may make sacrifices on the necessities of life to give her the one big send-off of her life.

Such a thing is to be discouraged and those who are able to make a big show at commencement time can be of great service by setting the pace so that the burden of expense will not be so heavy on those less able to afford it.

The necessity of providing costly graduating clothes and incidentals has deterred some parents from sending their children through high school. The principles of American democracy would have every girl graduate appear in a simple, inexpensive gown, not necessarily uniform in design or color.

Those who adopt such ideas show that school training has put something into their heads. Young people preparing for graduation should have their hearts on higher purposes than dress. They need to keep their minds on the high planes of achievement. They may continue their preparation for life in higher schools of learning.

MOTHERS' DAY

Sunday, May 10, is Mother's Day. It is her day—when the nation bows in humility, showing reverence for the composite Mother, who is typical of all that is good and wholesome and sympathetic.

Public recognition of the debt due mothers, that has been growing annually, is a splendid testimonial to human character, and a refutation of the common charge that people are mercenary.

A deep and abiding sentiment inspired the idea of Mother's Day and has fostered it and caused it to become more generally recognized each year.

Mother is a word expressive of tenderness and kindly sympathy. She exemplifies the spirit of service and self-sacrificing love—a practical sort of love that shows itself by giving all that it has.

It is the spirit of sympathy, appreciation and practicability that makes mother unspeakably precious and has won for her the expression of gratitude from a thankful people once each year.

The same measuring stick cannot be applied to all mothers. They differ just as all human beings differ, but they fulfill their obligations of motherhood according to their knowledge and understanding.

There are some who are concerned about the future motherhood—whether the present tendencies that detract from the home will lower the standards of motherhood. They need not be alarmed.

Mother will ever be mother, for her instincts are as old as the first mother, were she living, and as deeply imbedded as a part of her character. Mothers of today have as great concern for the welfare of their children as mothers ever did, but mothers change with the changing times, and their conduct as mothers can't be judged by the same standards as few decades ago.

GIFTS RECALL PIONEER DAYS

State Historical Society Is Given Relics of Early Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky.—Many are the gifts to the Kentucky State Historical Society which has its colorful quarters in the old capitol building here.

Thomas Hughes, King of Princeton, Ky., a member of the 1924 General Assembly, presented a silver-mounted gun used in the early 1850's by Miss Mary Hughes of Caldwell County, Ky., a young huntress, who after her marriage to Dr. Joel A. King, of Nashville, became his mother.

Mrs. Holmes Cummins, of Richmond, Va., has presented a knife used by Robert Mitchell to avenge the death of his wife, who was killed by Indians on Rockcastle River as the family was emigrating to Kentucky in pioneer days.

A Polk campaign banner of 1845, made by Mrs. Louisa Stout, of Frankfort, has come from Mrs. Louisa Luckett Thomasson, of Lexington.

Mrs. Charles F. Norton, of Lexington, has given a sheet from the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, containing a sketch of Dr. Joseph S. Halstead, of Breckinridge, Mo., aged 104, the oldest living Mason.

Judge James H. Polsgrove, of Frankfort, turned over to the society files of Kentucky newspapers containing accounts of the killing of Gov. William Goebel, and of the trials which followed.

State Senator James R. Bash, of Madisonville, offers a German 10,000 mark note.

A silver spoon from Mr. Murry, of Midway, Ky., was once owned by Christopher Miller, a scout for Gen. William Henry Harrison, who had been captured by Indians in Hardin County when a young boy and lived with them many years.

Saddledogs used by Gen. P. Watt Hardin in his various political campaigns in Kentucky, were presented by L. E. Johnson of Frankfort.

The Conley boys, living in Ashland, presented old bullet molds used in pioneer times by the Hord family of Mason County. Fossils uncovered at the Dix River Dam came from Paul Gillette, of Burgin, Ky.

To Test Dairy Herds

Padenah—Dr. F. C. Allen, representative of the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry, arrived in Metchen County to begin the work of testing dairy herds for tuberculosis. The sum of $1,050 was recently appropriated by the county to meet the expenses of the work. It is estimated that eighteen months will be required to complete the tests. Where reactors are found, the owners of the cattle will be indemnified by the state and federal government. The tests will be administered free of charge.

In Case of Emergency

When you want a thing in a hurry you rush to a local store and get it. But do you realize that the existence of our stores depends upon continued business.

If every person in this community were to use the stores only for emergencies there would soon be no more places to satisfy those urgent needs.

You should do your part towards keeping local business alive and in a constant state of betterment by doing all your trading at home. It will be profitable to you as well as to the entire community.

The Best Buying Policy

First Christian Church

O. J. Sowell, Pastor.

The services all went over the top in a big way Sunday. As it was the beginning of Boys' Week, the boys had charge of the Sunday school and church. The boys are to be congratulated on the way in which they conducted the Sunday school. The boys had their own officers and taught all the classes.

Then Bro. Sowell gave a fiery message to the Bible school as a whole, urging each member to be responsible for one person every Sunday and that they bring one person to the church. This will build the work up in every department.

A fine crowd attended the church service and the pastor preached a wonderful sermon for the young people on "The Four Seasons of Life." It was a real sermon full of oratory, power and philosophy of life, and good for the older ones as well as the young.

The Junior Endeavor held one of the best services since the organization began. There was a great crowd of the young people present and after the program, Mrs. Culver, the superintendent, served refreshments.

A great crowd filled the church for the evening service to hear the sermon on, "The 100 Per Cent Christian American." This is the only sermon of its kind ever preached in Fulton. It dealt with the situation of America as she stands today with men as leaders who will sell their honor, patriotism and life for the lust of office. Rev. Sowell stated that men and women of today were trying to be Americans, and leave off the Christian part. No man can be a true American if he is not a Christian. Our Government is founded upon the principles of Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ was a 100 Per Cent Christian citizen, none can doubt his sincerity as a loyal son of God and He was always upholding and obeying the law under which he lived. This sermon will remain as a warning to every true Christian American citizen.

The Junior choir gave some beautiful music for the evening service. We are proud of the work of the young people.

Miss Mary Shupe gave a beautiful reading on "America," which was very much appreciated by the audience.

MARION KING GETS FIVE-YEAR TERM

JURY FINALLY CONVICTS ALLEGED CAFETERIA BANDIT

ASKS FOR NEW TRIAL

Bobbed Hair Girl Convicted of Highway Robbery—Jury Spent 40 Hours Deliberating the Case of Girlish Defendant

Memphis—Five years in the penitentiary—the minimum sentence prescribed by law—was the punishment meted to Marion King Strait, alleged cafeteria bandit, by a jury in criminal court here.

The girl was found guilty under an indictment charging her with the robbery of Britling's Main Street Cafeteria in daring fashion, on the night of March 2. The cafeteria lost $131 in the holdup.

The verdict came after 40 hours' deliberation, and various rumors—the kind that always take the whiff of a case when a jury is deliberating—went the rounds while the jury was out. First the report got abroad that the jury stood 11 to 1 for conviction. Next it was rumored that the lone juror had won a recruit to his cause and that two members of the panel were holding out for acquittal. Still later the news—or rumor—was whispered that three men wanted to acquit the girl while the other nine held out for conviction.

The jury filed into the courtroom shortly after noon yesterday and reported that no verdict had been reached. Judge Richards declined to discharge the panel and sent the 12 men back for lunch and further deliberation.

A few minutes after 3 o'clock there was a knock on the door of the jury room. A deputy sheriff went for the judge. Only half a dozen persons from the throng that attended the trial lounged about the courtroom awaiting word for the jury. These straightened up with revived interest in the case—expectant, anxious, tense.

Marion King was brought up from the prison in the basement of the courthouse and took her seat behind A. B. Galloway, her counsel. Assistant Attorney General John T. Shea was seated at the end of the counsel table. He represented the state. Judge Richards ascended the rostrum for order—and there, with no disorder—and instructed a deputy sheriff to bring in the jury. The 12 men filed into the courtroom, ranging themselves in a line before the judge and facing the defendant. Judge Richards passed the papers to Mike M. Cohen, criminal court clerk, and asked him to read the verdict.

PLAN TO MAKE SACKS AT ROUNDWAY PLANT

Buyers of Big Tract Also Have a Straw Plant.

Clarksdale, Miss.—In discussing the purchase of the Roundway Manufacturing Company, at Roundway, Miss., for approximately $500,000, Stephen J. Adams of Chicago stated that he had a patent which was granted by the U. S. government on April 21, 1925, stated that he plans to make silas for the manufacturing of corn products and hydrolysing straw. He sugar sacks which are now imported into America and to manufacture brushes which can be made from wild cabbages.

Mr. Adams stated that the 2,000 farmers which he proposed to colonize on the 10,500 acres of the plantation were skilled laborers and that they would be brought here from the industrial centers of the northwest. He stated these people were American citizens. Mr. Adams is a native of Austria-Hungary and belongs to the royal family of that nation, he stated.

Organization Founded by Susan B. Anthony Disbands

Washington—The National Woman's Suffrage Association has formally ended its life of nearly 75 years devoted to the fight to obtain the vote for women.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the association, presided at a meeting of its officers and other suffrage leaders called here for the formal disbanding of the organization through which Susan B. Anthony and other suffrage pioneers started before the Civil War the movement which achieved its goal with the adoption of the nineteenth amendment, five years ago.

Addressing the meeting, Mrs. Catt urged more fighting spirit among women in politics.

Honoring Appointed to Federal Bench Washington—E. J. Hinning, assistant secretary of labor, was appointed to the federal bench for Southern California.

Lesson for May 3

THE BENEFITS OF TOTAL ABSTINENCE

LESSON TEXT—Dan. 1:1-29.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank."—Dan. 1:8.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Four Sensible Boys.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Benefits of Total Abstinence.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Sound Mind and a Sound Body.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Some Benefits of Total Abstinence.

I. Daniel and His Companions in Captivity in Babylon (vv. 1-4).

They were carried away to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar in the first siege of Jerusalem. At the command of the king certain choice young men, including the seed of the king and of the princes, were carried away that they might be made skillful in wisdom and cunning in knowledge, under standing science so that they might be trained to stand in the king's palace.

II. The Trial of Daniel and His Companions (vv. 5-13).

1. Their Conscience Tested (v. 5).
By the appointment of the king, a daily portion of the king's meat and of the wine which he drank was arranged for them. This was contrary to the custom among the godly Jews. Being contrary to the Jewish customs, they could not conscientiously partake of them. It should ever be borne in mind that conscience is the groundwork of human character.

2. Their Change of Name (vv. 6-7).

Among the Hebrews most significant names were given to children. Daniel means, "God is my judge." The significance of this name was that all the problems of life were referred to God for His decision. God was made the arbiter of his life. This was the secret of Daniel's life. No doubt this expresses the purpose of his parents in giving him the name. His name was changed to Belteshazzar meaning "Bel's prince," the one whom the chief god of the Babylonians favors. Hananiah means, "gift of" or "beloved of Jehovah," and his name was changed to Shadrach which signifies, "illumined by the sun god, Rak." Mishael means, "who is as God" and his name was changed to Meshach meaning "who is like the golden vessels." Azariah means, "Jehovah is our help," and was changed to Abednego which means, "the servant of Nego." Back of the change of names was the attempt of Satan to wipe out the name of the true God, and have these young men lose their separation and thus become assimilated among the heathen.

3. Their Religious Life (v. 8).

This involved their refusal to eat meat and to drink wine which was contrary to their teaching. In the case of Daniel, at least, it also involved praying three times a day.

4. Their Courtesy (vv. 8-13).

Daniel seems to have been the spokesman for the company. Although Daniel's heart was fixed, he did not forget to be a gentleman. He requested to be excused from this meat and drink in order that he be not defiled. Christians should learn from this to be courteous even in times of great trials. God had brought Daniel into favor and tender love with those who were over him.

III. The Success of Daniel and His Companions (vv. 14-21).

1. Their Physical Health (vv. 14-16).
A test was made for ten days, and it was shown that they were fairer in countenance and fatter in flesh than those who indulged in the king's meat. Godly and temperate living pays. It is obligatory upon God's children today to conscientiously abstain from that which is contrary to His law. It means total abstinence from intoxicating liquors, and everything which would injure the health.

2. Mental Growth (vv. 17-20).

Daniel and his companions were found to be ten times superior to their comrades in matters of wisdom and understanding. It is always true that those who abstain from indulging in the use of strong drink have clearer minds and are mentally better equipped for their work than those who indulge.

3. The Social and Political Preference (v. 19).

They stood before the king. They were all advanced to positions of influence and Daniel became president of the college of wise men, and the prime minister of the nation.

4. Spiritual Insight (v. 22).

Because of Daniel's loyalty to God, visions embracing the entire history of the world came to him and Nebuchadnezzar's dream was revealed.

Do Right

Do right, and God's recompense to you will be the power of doing more right. Give, and God's reward to you will be the spirit of giving more. Withhold from God and the accounting will follow.

Society

Society is a more level surface than we imagine. Wise men or absolute fools are hard to be met with, and there are few giants or dwarfs—Hazzitt.

A PLAIN TRUTH.

A man may patronize the mail order houses for years—may send them in that time hundreds of dollars—and at the same time they wouldn't accommodate him for a two-cent stamp. This is the plain, unvarnished truth. If you think otherwise, try it for yourself and see. These out-of-town houses do not know you—do not care to know you—are not interested in you in any way—only in the money you send them. Spend your money with your own townsmen, who know you for what you really are, who appreciate your worth, your business, your assistance in building up home interests.

KENTUCKY BRIEFS

Middlesboro—Curtis Bates, 23, committed suicide by throwing himself in front of a fast passenger train on the I. & N. R. R. track near Cumberland Gap.

Winchester—The 8-year-old son of Tom Epperson was bruised and shaken up when he was struck by a passenger bus. He received only slight injuries and was removed to his home.

Louisville—Two women and three men were hurt when a touring car in which they were riding plunged into a ditch. Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, 24, and Paul Sewell, 17, both suffered fractured arms.

Flemingsburg—Sawing their way out of jail, Richmond Royce, former convict, held under indictment for a third violation of the liquor law, and Ezra Banfield, 17, charged with chicken stealing, escaped.

Carlisle—Robert Walker suffered a badly cut arm while working with a saw mill on a farm near here. His arm was caught and nearly severed before he was released. He was taken to a Lexington hospital.

Frankfort—State Highway Commission has opened bids for improvements of 33 miles of road and for six concrete bridge projects. The contracts will be made at the semi-monthly meeting of the commission.

Owensboro—Docket of the U. S. Court, which convenes here on May 4, has been made up. There are 144 criminal cases, many of them involving more than one defendant, mostly for some infraction of liquor laws.

Elkton—The 12-year-old son of Lam Ray of Lewisburg, was injured seriously when he was thrown from a horse he was breaking to ride. The boy struck the ground on his head and was unconscious for several hours.

Bowling Green—Serious injuries were received by Henry Bright, elderly farmer, when a team he was working in a field became frightened and ran away, the lines entangling his feet and dragging him some distance.

Richmond—County Jail's office is drawing candidates from every quarter. Horace Wells has announced, bringing the field to 14. A. J. Long, one of the aspirants, has died, and another, Charley Rogers, has withdrawn.

Franklin—Only the presence of mind of Felix Martin, negro, press-feeder for the Franklin Favorite, saved the building from destruction when a gasoline container, from which he was filling the tank, exploded and set fire to the building.

Elkton—Charles W. Lehman received a severe cut on his left foot when a mule he was riding became frightened and ran away. The mule ran between a barn and a fence and the boy's foot was slit open by a nail sticking out.

Richmond—Burglars forcibly entered the postoffice and general store at Quicksick and got away with stamps, money and other government property. They also stole several articles of value belonging to Howard & Gibson, who operate the store.

Frankfort—Court of Appeals approved a loan of $54,000 made by the city of Ashland to the Ashland Board of Education, holding that the loan merely was an accommodation to taxpayers in that the city had a surplus and the Board of Education needed the money.

Georgetown—County Health Department has issued a ruling that all persons who have been vaccinated successfully within the last five years must be vaccinated at once. This order came following a meeting and discussion on smallpox by county physicians.

Benton—Through the courtesy of the children's bureau of the State Board of Health, with headquarters at Louisville, Miss Edna B. Hill, a representative of this organization, and physicians of Marshall County and Benton, have concluded the examinations of more than three score children in Marshall County. The final clinic was held here.

Ashland—Mrs. Emma Sloan, 57 years old, killed with a hatchet her two sleeping children, Margaret Sloan, 18 years old, and Jack Sloan, 18, and then attempted to end her own life with the same weapon, after locking herself in the bathroom and turning on all gas jets in the house. She is expected to recover. It was said at the King's Daughters' Hospital.

Richmond—Individual deposits subject to check in the four banks of Richmond amount to $2,187,710.97, according to certified reports. Outside of the city there are other banks in Madison-co which show equal prosperity.

Paducah—Discovery that a bar at one of the windows of the county jail had been partly sawed forced an attempted jail break. The weakened bar and the small hack saw, which had been used, were discovered by Jailer Sam B. Gott.

EX-TREASURER OF WINCHESTER INDICTED

CHARLES B. STROTHER ADMITS USING FUNDS OF CON. GREGATION

Friends Offer to Supply Funds for Bond, But are Rejected in Embezzlement Case.

Winchester, Ky.—Charles B. Strother, defaulting city treasurer of Winchester, indicted on four additional counts of embezzlement and facing a shortage in his books of probably $30,000, occupies a cell in the County Jail. He refused to accept bond from his friends following the return of the new indictment by the Clark County grand jury which has made a sweeping investigation into the case.

"I'm guilty," said Strother, as Deputy Sheriff Dan Insko read the warrant at his home on South Main street "and rather than ask my friends to sign a bond I'll take my medicine and go to jail."

That Strother will plead guilty when arraigned in the Clark Circuit Court is almost a certainty, according to close friends of the defaulting treasurer, who say he will accept sentence from the court.

Many prominent citizens offered to sign the bond of $5,000 when Strother was served with the warrant.

The indictments returned named J. O. Tyler, the First Christian Church, and C. J. Sipple as property owners whose money had been taken by the City Treasurer. The fourth charged the defaulting of $25,000 belonging to the city of Winchester. The indictment returned charged embezzlement of the funds of the Winchester bank.

In going over the accounts Strother from memory picked out those he had tampered with and when he reached that of the Christian Church he faltered and then nodded his head in the affirmative as H. F. McFarlin, special examiner of the bonding company, turned the page.

Until a short time ago Strother was a member of the board of deacons of the First Christian Church and had always been active in Sunday School work. The street assessment of the church was paid some time ago by John Hodgkins, church treasurer, and Strother had used it in playing the stock market. Mr. Hodgkins produced his receipt signed by Strother.

A legal question came up in a discussion of the speculations of Strother by city officials, representatives of bonding companies and tax payers, and City Attorney J. T. Metcalfe was asked to give an opinion as to how the city would proceed to make good the difference between the amount of Strother's bond, which is $25,000, and his shortage, which probably will reach many thousands of dollars more.

BULGARIA SEEKS AID FROM ALLIES

MINISTERS PREDICT WAR UNLESS BIG POWERS INTERVENE

BORIS' EFFORT PATHETIC

Tzankoff's Enemies Refuse to Help. Maintain Throne—Peasants and Communists Make Common Cause to Defeat Common Foes

Rome—Comparative quiet has returned to Bulgaria, but all there are agreed that it is a lull before a worse outburst by the rebels. Ministers who have given out interviews, later much censured, say the situation is dangerous and demands aid and money from the big powers unless Europe desires to see another war.

Opposition leaders threaten fresh efforts to oust Premier Tzankoff from power and are so confident of success that they refuse King Boris' pathetic effort to form a coalition government through the Democratic deputy, Malinkoff, hoping thereby to pacify the much irritated Bulgars and save his throne.

"Why should we try to work with men we hate when we are sure of possessing Sofia and power before long?" the opposition leaders ask.

The middle class is the smallest in Bulgaria, where the bulk of the population are peasants. The newly rich war profiteers are tired of Tzankoff's regime because they see it will only mean more trouble from the peasants; so the government is entirely dependent on the loyalty of the army, which is not above suspicion despite the war minister's official statements to the contrary.

However, Tzankoff can not boast 400 summary executions, the victims including Grouff, leader of the Agrarians. Other prominent men of that party, Deputies Bakliff, Janoff and Tomaff, already have been given up for dead by their friends. They were arrested two days ago after energetic resistance.

Sofia is connected with the outside world by cable but the censorship is very strict. Even foreign newspapers are seized, while the opposition paper Slovo has been sequestered for publishing the facts about the government's means of dealing with insurgents.

The peasants are by no means pacified, and terrorists in the towns threaten a fresh series of outbreaks, communicating their intentions by posters mysteriously appearing on walls and houses despite the strict police guard and sunset curfew.

The troops are wavering in allegiance to the regime which by every tie of flesh and blood they are led to abhor. The peasants will not be satisfied until they have had Tzankoff's blood and driven the Coburg dynasty from the country. The communists want a soviet regime, and the peasants do not; but for the present they are working together to drive out common enemies. Tzankoff speaks much of the loyal militia, but this is no more dependable than the regulars.

Every possible precaution is being taken to prevent an attempt to blow up the Sobranje, or Parliament. The most faithful troops guard the precincts while as many as the roof can bear are hiding there to avoid a bomb placing there in imitation of the Cathedral outrage.

POUND STERLING NEAR PARITY WITH DOLLAR

Loan Considered for Purpose of Making It Actual

New York—The pound sterling climbed to the highest point in 10 years, bankers predicted its early parity with the dollar and considered the possibility of arranging a $250,000,000 credit here for the British government.

It would be entirely a banking credit, involving no sale of securities to the public. The purpose, largely psychological, would be to maintain sterling at par.

Sterling touched $4.8150, highest since Feb. 21, 1915. This is 98.34 per cent of parity, which is $4.8965. Its low point, reached five years ago, was $3.19.

An advance to parity meaning a jump of about a nickel in the price of a pound here, would be one of the most important financial and trade events in many years, having a far-reaching effect. Many bankers believe parity will be reached when Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, presents his new budget in the House of Commons.

Washington—The capital's smallpox scare invaded the Veterans' Bureau, and a special doctor's office was opened in the building so that all employees could be vaccinated.

SENATOR WHEELER FOUND NOT GUILTY

VERDICT RETURNED AFTER TWO HOURS' DELIBERATION

JUDGE'S CHARGE STRONG

Inclined Strongly to Favor Senator Wheeler—Jury Did Not Accept Hayes' Testimony

Great Falls, Mont.—After only two hours' deliberation, a federal jury found Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana not guilty of a charge of appearing before government department in behalf of a client, after his election to the Senate.

The accused senator received two pieces of good news simultaneously, his acquittal and the birth to Mrs. Wheeler of a daughter in Washington. It is their sixth child.

Senator Wheeler only smiled when the verdict was announced. Judge Frank S. Dietrich, before the verdict was read warned spectators against any demonstration.

Exactly two hours and thirteen minutes elapsed between the time the jury retired to deliberate and the time the verdict was returned. Out of this time the jury took one hour to dine. The actual time for deliberation was but a few minutes, according to court attaches.

But one ballot was taken. In spite of Judge Dietrich's order against demonstrations there was a rush toward the bench when the verdict was read. Friends of Senator Wheeler crowded about him and offered double congratulations, on the birth of a daughter and acquittal.

His chief counsel, Senator Thomas J. Walsh, declared, however, that he had regarded the case as merely an offshoot of the Teapot Dome investigation which he started nearly two years ago and said he had felt it his duty to appear as counsel for his accused colleague.

District Attorney Slatery shook hands with Senator Wheeler and spoke of both the verdict and the new daughter.

"I hope they both get along all right," the prosecutor said to the senator.

Senator Wheeler rushed forward as soon as propriety permitted and shook hands with each of the jurors.

Court session, only two hours' duration, was read and the formalities completed. Judge Dietrich discharged the jury and the trial of Burton K. Wheeler, storm center of politics, was over.

COOLIDGE TO SPEND VACATION IN VERMONT

Purposes Several Weeks' Visit With His Father

Washington—President Coolidge let it be known that he would spend from three to four weeks at his father's home at Plymouth, Vt., this summer.

His other vacation plans, however, are still indefinite.

The president hopes, it was said at the White House, that he will be able to spend altogether from four to five weeks somewhere in New England during the hottest part of the summer.

It is the belief of White House attaches that the president's party will leave for New England the last week in June or the first week in July. It is understood President Coolidge expects to return to the White House some time during August.

It was announced that President Coolidge would take a week-end trip down the Potomac in the Mayflower, leaving the White House Saturday.

Sheriff Knight Pours Out 1,500 Gallons of Seized Goods

Memphis, Tenn.—A strange aroma of bygone days filled the air in the neighborhood of the courthouse. Policemen sniffed and endeavored to get on the trail of what might be another large batch of hooch manufactured for local consumption. Rum hounds quickened their strides in hope of reaching the supply of liquid before it gave out.

It was Sheriff Knight at the courthouse pouring about 1,500 gallons of whisky seized in the last few days by his deputies and police. So much liquor has been seized lately that there is no room to keep it.

300 Apply for $1,680 League Job

Geneva—More than 300 people applied for a job with the League of Nations the other day. It was a position as "secretary first class" to one of the department chiefs.

Berlin—The entire directorate of the Krupp Works at Essen, resigned in a body in keeping with the determination announced to inaugurate a far reaching policy of retrenchment in the Krupp enterprises. The future operations of the giant plant will be confined to only the departments that are profitable, it was decided.

New York—Thomas H. Walsh, actor, leading man in "Hell's Bells," a Broadway production, dropped dead in his apartment here.

Methodist Church

Rev. J. V. Freeman, Pastor

Sunday school 9:30 a. m.
Epworth League, 7 p. m. every Sunday.

Prayer service 7:45 every Wednesday. Everyone urged to attend.

Preaching both at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. by the pastor. All cordially invited to attend these services each week.

The services of last Sunday were well attended, being the first day of Boys week, the boys had charge of everything but the sermon. Rev. Freeman preached splendid sermons both morning and evening.

The Men's Bible class was well attended. They have now outgrown the City Hall and will meet at Cary's Park auditorium on next Sunday. Come out, men, and bring a friend and help eat that big fish.

The Methodist Missionary Girls met Tuesday with Elizabeth Butt at her home on Pearl street. Meeting was called to order by the president, Estelle Herring, who also conducted the devotions. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the new secretary, Elizabeth Butt. After short business session, the leader for the afternoon conducted a splendid program. Madeline Roberts gave a leaflet on "Friendship. House Deaconess and Annie May's Ten Wishes." Mayme Bennett gave a leaflet on "Testaments in the Sleeves and Testaments in the Hearts." The bulletin was given by several members. During the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments.

The Warner Blackard's met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Wright with Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Dickey hostesses. The meeting opened with song, followed with prayer by Mrs. Freeman. A short business session followed the minutes of last meeting and some reports from the committees and an especially good report from the local treasurer. The president, Mrs. Scruggs, gave a few interesting and splendid points from the minutes of the annual conference, held some weeks past in Ripley. Mrs. Hardin was leader for the afternoon and she and her helpers presented a splendid program. Mrs. Hardin read the scripture and commented. Mrs. Guy Gingles gave a paper entitled, "Stewardship of Life." Mrs. Edward Heywood gave a leaflet on "Testaments Up the Sleeve and Testaments in the Hearts." The members were then favored with a piano solo by Margaret Allen, a member of the Missionary Girls.

Mrs. T. D. Clark then read a letter written by a member of a missionary society in Japan. The meeting adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Cloe and Mrs. Clark. During the social hour the hostesses served an ice course.

The Mission Study Class of the Warner Blackard Society met in an all day session Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Boyd Bennett. The members of the class arrived at 10:30, bringing their lunch with them. The committee in charge of the menu had prepared a lovely chicken dinner. The program for the day was opened with a song. Those presenting the chapter of the mission study books entitled "Ming Kwong," were: Mesdames, Hardin, Heywood, Clowe, Vester, Freeman, Gingles, Koehn, sang a trio, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus." During the day the members served for a needy family. There were 29 members and two visitors present.

Mrs. Dave Lowe has returned from the Paducah hospital and is doing fine.

Mrs. Paul Hornbeak left today for Lakeland, Fla., to join her husband who has been there several weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. Freeman attended District Conference in Hickman last week.

The Senior Epworth League met at its usual hour last Sunday evening. As it was the first meeting since the election of the new officers, no program had been arranged. The scripture lesson was read by Wade Joyner and prayer by Mrs. Freeman. Then the meeting was turned into a business session.

A good program will be arranged for next Sunday night and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The retiring officers of the Senior Epworth League entertained with a wiener roast, last Thursday evening. About thirty boys and girls met at the home of Miss Mildred Graham and motored to Enon Church, where a few hours was much enjoyed in roasting wieners, marshmallows and playing games.

Mrs. Bonnie Rose Thacker Called to Her Heavenly Home.

The friends of W. B. Thacker sympathize with him in the loss of his beloved wife, Mrs. Bonnie Thacker, who died Wednesday morning, April 29, at her home on Arch street. Besides a devoted husband she leaves a sweet little daughter.

FULTON POULTRY ASSOCIATION

A small but enthusiastic crowd of chicken fanciers met at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night and perfected the organization of the Fulton Poultry Association, by electing the following officers: Dr. J. R. Hillman, President; Tom Exum, Vice-President; H. S. Stansbury, Secretary and W. F. Hudson, Treasurer.

At a later meeting a board of directors will be selected and complete plans for a first-class exhibit of thoroughbred chickens to be held at the coming Fulton County Fair will be completed.

A list of some fifty first-class chicken owners was made and each one on the list will be seen and asked to join the association. Plans for the display of at least three hundred birds are well under way and every member present at the meeting was most enthusiastic over the successful exhibition this fall.

It is the intention of the members to constitute the organization into a "committee of the whole" to induce every chicken owner residing near Fulton to select their best birds and show them, thus stimulating, not only their own interest, but that of the entire community in breeding better and more profitable chickens.

The dues will be nominal, and the secretary, Mr. Stansbury, will be glad to furnish information to any one interested. A little later, printed matter on chicken exhibitions, such as rules and instructions will be available.

One of the principal efforts of the association will be directed to the inducing of the Fulton County Fair Association officers to provide more room for the display of birds, and it is also hoped that the association will become sufficiently strong enough to obtain membership in the American Poultry Association, which will show to be held under the rules of that Association, which will entitle entrants to receive medals and diplomas, that will be of nation-wide acceptance as proof of merit.

The public is cordially invited to join the association and full information may be obtained from the officers at any time.

Beloved Woman Passes Away.

Funeral service for Mrs. Dr. D. L. Jones was held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Central Church of Christ, L. A. Winstead officiating, interment following at Fairview cemetery. The entire community extend sympathy to the bereaved husband and loved ones left behind.

2,347,560 POUNDS ASSOCIATION TOBACCO ARE DELIVERED

The dry spell following the rain of Friday, a week ago, caused the deliveries at the Association barn to drop off the latter part of the week, though the first few days brought in a heavy delivery, 202,765 pounds being the amount up to Friday night. This brought the total for the season up to 2,347,560 pounds.

Monday's rain had a very beneficial effect on the undelivered crop, and while only six registrations had been made up to Saturday noon, the deliveries for the week, so far, show that the farmers are making special efforts to get their crop marketed before the close of the barn on May 15.

Sales for the week were not as large as shown on former weeks, but 74,7110 pounds were sold to dealers up to Friday evening.

The new hydraulic press accounted for 31 hogsheads during the week, with only two packers working. There were 25 hogsheads prized at the other barn, a total of 56. With the full force of twelve packers working at the new press, the seasons crop can soon be prized, and the decision to close the barn at the early date set will allow the pricing to be finished at a much earlier date than in previous years. The fact of the tobacco not having to be hauled to the other barns for pricing, as was the case in the past two years, will mean a very substantial saving to the members, not only for this season, but for the future, as well.

The constant reiteration of the advice to take more care in the classification has borne some fruit, but there is still decided room for improvement along this line, and as the season is getting short the farmers may fail to take the care that they should in separating the different classes.

One who does not know the tobacco game thoroughly would be surprised how much of some crops are placed in better grades by the classifiers while pricing operations are in progress. While this helps the general returns for the season it increases by just so much the work of the classifiers and could be materially avoided, to the benefit of the growers, if more care were taken by the farmers in the first handling of their crops.

HERRICK

THE ARISTOCRAT OF REFRIGERATORS

Your Biggest Wishes Answered!

You Get Extra Service if You Own a Herrick Refrigerator

There are two reasons for this double economy. The first is the HERRICK design, which insures a constant, self-purifying circulation of cold dry air throughout the interior of the refrigerator. The second reason is the construction of the HERRICK. From the kiln dried solid oak used for the frames to the lever fastener placed on the doors, everything that goes into a HERRICK helps to keep cold air in and warm air out, and strengthens its resistance to heat, dampness and deterioration.
