INSTITUTE.

Minutes of the Marshall County Institute and Other Educational Matters.

Greetings of welcome. Prof. J. G. M. B. Pace, Vice-President, and Dr. Wallace then introduced Prof. W. J. Parker. The meeting was opened by Prof. Ross, who gave a brief outline of the Institute's arrangements for the summer. The conductor then presented the conductor as having discussions on each of the subjects taught in the Institute. The discussions were conducted by Prof. Ross, Lovett, and Dr. Wallace, who gave a brief outline of the Institute's arrangements for the summer. The conductor then presented the conductor as having discussions on each of the subjects taught in the Institute.

3rd. Advanced work. - The subject of Orthography was then discussed by Prof. Ross, who gave a brief outline of the Institute's arrangements for the summer. The conductor then presented the conductor as having discussions on each of the subjects taught in the Institute.

4th. Advanced Geography. - Prof. Ross gave methods that were of great benefit to the students. The Institute adjourned to meet again at 1:30 p.m.

Then followed the enrollment of members of the Institute. Roll called, all present.

The above steps fully explained by Prof. Barnhart, the principal of the Murray School. Roll called, all present.
