May 10, 1991

Welcome to Murray State University for the celebration of Honors Day, 1991. This special ceremony, which is held by tradition just before Commencement each spring, permits us to recognize the academic accomplishments of Murray State students.

Long recognized in the state and the region for the quality of the education it provides, Murray State University has recently reaffirmed its commitment to academic excellence. The students we honor today for their record of achievement represent the main business of this university: ensuring that our students receive a college education equal to that available anywhere.

In meeting this goal, we rely on the contributions of a distinguished and dedicated faculty, capable and well-prepared students, and a stimulating and supportive learning environment. Our degree programs receive ongoing review and enrichment to maintain their effectiveness and currency. We are rewarded for our efforts through the accomplishments of outstanding Murray State students like those we honor today.

To those of you receiving awards and recognition, please accept my congratulations and my warm wishes for continual success. Be proud of what you have accomplished and grateful to those faculty and staff at Murray State who have contributed to your success. To those of you who are visitors who have come to our campus for this celebration, I extend a cordial welcome and the hope that your stay is a pleasant one.
