May 8, 1992

Welcome to Murray State University for the celebration of Honors Day, 1992. This special ceremony, which is held by tradition just before Commencement each spring, permits us to recognize the academic accomplishments of Murray State students.

Murray State University is dedicated to the promotion of academic excellence. The students we honor today for their record of achievement represent the main business of this university: ensuring that our students receive a college education equal to that available anywhere.

In meeting this goal, we rely on the contributions of a distinguished and dedicated faculty, capable and well-prepared students, and a stimulating and supportive learning environment. Our degree programs receive ongoing review and enrichment to maintain their effectiveness and currency. We are awarded for our efforts through the accomplishments of outstanding Murray State students like those we honor today.

To those of you receiving awards and recognition, please accept my warm wishes for continued success. Be proud of what you have accomplished and grateful to those faculty and staff at Murray State who have contributed to your success. To those visitors who have come to our campus for this celebration, I extend a cordial welcome and the hope that your stay is a pleasant one.

Sincerely,

Dear Parents and Friends:

On behalf of the entire Student Body of Murray State University, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Murray State.

This afternoon we will recognize those students who have attained excellence at Murray State. Their achievements bring honor not only to themselves but to Murray State as well, and that is something of which we can all be proud.

We appreciate your presence today for it is through you, the parents and friends, that the honorees have been afforded the opportunity and freedom to search for and achieve excellence.

We hope that your visit to our campus will be an enjoyable one and that you will return here again as still other students build their futures at Murray State. Thank you for your support and prayers.

Sincerely,

Bart Schofield
