J. C. Wiggins Will Have Big Carnival

In this issue of The News we want to call your attention to the advertisement of the J. C. Wiggins department store, formally announcing their Fall Bargain Carnival in which many outstanding values are offered. Mr. Wiggins states that he has prepared for the event with a new stock of fall merchandise that will please every member of the family.

He invites the people of this entire community to visit his store and inspect the values offered in this bargain carnival, and points out that many items are selling for less than they would cost to replace today—all new merchandise bought in advance of rising prices, with the savings passed on to his customers.

REPORTS PILE UP

AT K. R. C. OFFICE

The Kentucky Relief Commission has two offices in Fulton county, one here and the other in Hickman, which are finding the relief burden increasingly heavy as old man winter approaches. Needy families are urged to fill application at the K. R. C. office, in order that their claims may be investigated.

Efforts are being made to provide as much work as possible during the harvest season. During the summer K. R. C. gardens grew vegetables which were canned and stored by the unemployed. But the demands are so heavy that other steps must be taken to provide succor.

After the harvest season, it is planned to furnish K. R. C. workers employment on county roads, bridges, cleaning out of the creek passing through Fulton, and various other city and county projects. It is proposed that the City Hall be painted, with the city furnishing the paint, the streets repaired, etc. Food, clothing, medicine will be issued in payment for K. R. C. work.

FULTON FIRE BOYS HELP IN PADUCAH BLAZE

Chief Lee Roberts upon hearing about the disastrous fire in Paducah last Friday, in which the large furniture store of Henneberger & Co. was completely destroyed in the $125,000 blaze, left Fulton at 6:00 p. m. and arrived in Paducah at 7:05 with firemen Julian Henderson, Milton Exum, Charles Barriger and Robert St. John. They went to work immediately, helping Chief Saugher in cleaning up the hose and loading the trucks. They arrived too late, however, to take part in the fight, but finding the Paducah boys all worn out from eight hours battle, Roberts took his boys and worked until 11 p. m.

Roberts went on his own accord, remembering the wonderful aid given him on Feb. 5 when Chief Saugher came to his assistance in the Kentucky Hotel fire.

Gentlemen, For Charity's Sake!

(EDITORIAL)

Recently a proposal was brought before the City Council in which a privilege tax or license for operation of a picture show in the city of Fulton would be raised from $100 to $500 a year. It is our honest opinion that this would be rather a drastic form of taxation in the face of the times and comparative taxes existing in other communities similar to Fulton. A four-hundred percent increase on this amusement license is a stupendous step upward and seems to deserve cold, sensible, unemotional reasoning.

The city is hard-pressed for funds for operation of its affairs. So the whole thing apparently reverts back upon the charity donation which has been going to a local organization, the Elks Charity Fund, for the past several months. Some members of the council are of the opinion that these funds should come directly to the city.

As we see it, there would be nothing wrong with the idea so far as the city is concerned in adding extra revenue to its coffers. But the tax in itself is exceedingly exorbitant and clean out of line. As the proposal now stands, the city would stand to lose more than it would gain. We are informed that the Elks club now receives ten dollars a week from the show this entire amount being used for charitable purposes. That would be $520 a year, while the new tax would net only $400 more a year, or $120 less actually staying in Fulton.

It is a well known fact in this community that the Elks club is active in charity work the year around, providing food, clothing, medicine, hospitalization, and other necessities to needy families. As the funds realized through the show donations, this Club puts on

SELDON REED MAKES GOOD IN TEXAS

The following article was taken from the Munday, Texas paper, and is about Seldon Reed, son of S. J. Reed, who resides east of Fulton:

Seldon James Reed was born January 19, 1909 near Fulton, Ky. His father, a proud farmer, started him to school in Water Valley grammar school. He graduated from Water Valley high school with high honors and lettered in football and baseball.

On leaving Kentucky he came to Texas, where he won more honors in Simmons University. He majored in chemistry, with zoology as his minor. He graduated from Simmons June 7, 1933, and came to M. H. S. as his first year of teaching. He has come to us with the best recommendation any teacher has for several years.

His favorites are: Subject: Science; Hobby: Chasing butterflies; Sport: Football (He likes the kick); Food: pies (are you its not eyes?)

Some of the few Reedsims that we are familiar with: He never goes to class without a tie. He never becomes humiliated. He doesn't part his hair in the middle. He attends church regularly. He goes to bed at an early hour (sometimes).

GAME LAWS WILL BE ENFORCED IN PURCHASE

Strict enforcement of Kentucky game laws is being urged by Otis Buegg and Frank Henson, game wardens for the eight Purchase counties. Already this month three game law violators have been arrested and convicted for killing and selling quail out of season. The wardens were also successful earlier this month in obtaining indictments against three other persons for allegedly saying and selling birds out of season.

SALES TAX STILL A MENACE CONGRESSMAN BROWN SAYS

Congressman Brown says that under the present system of taxation the railroads last year paid in $900,000 and the power companies $569,000. He said that should the real estate tax be abandoned and the sales tax substituted, the power companies and railroads would be practically exempt from taxation.

benefits and its members contribute to the charity fund, every cent of which is used for some good cause.

Charity work will be heavy this winter. The Elks Charity committee and all other relief organization will have its hands full in relieving the distressed. Every cent that goes into the Charity Fund will be just that much help in alleviating suffering and hungry citizens of our community.

Gentlemen, in all fairness, let's consider this problem seriously. Nothing should be done to discourage business or dissuade the relief agencies of our community. Times are gradually improving, but until the unemployed are again at work, hungry mouths must be fed, homes protected from the cold blasts of winter, and medical aid given to the sick. It is doubtful whether enough funds can be raised to do this despite all efforts in that direction. Now is no time to hinder or place a stumbling block in the way of charity!

Then, there is the other side of this question. The proposed $500 tax restricts competition. For instance, suppose another show should wish to open in Fulton. Two shows could not afford to pay this tax and operate profitably here. Such a condition would be extremely unfavorable and unconstitutional.

Fulton does not want the stigma of being a city that places such high taxes on any business that that business is compelled to stay away. We do not want to drive any business or industry away from Fulton. Rather we want to bring more here, and the people themselves have often voiced this opinion.

Let's concentrate on a constructive program. New activities for Fulton should be our slogan and goal.

After reading of minutes, a business session was held. This organization will sponsor a dance at the Usona Nov. 3rd, with J. Edward Butler and His Alabamians will furnish the music.

DeRoy Moore, Jack Maddox, R. V. Putnam and J. D. Hale are the new members. Bob Binford is directing a membership drive, and urges those eligible to join the association.

South Fulton

The basketball season was opened in the South Fulton gymnasium Friday night before a large crowd.

Two good games were played with the Troy teams. The South Fulton girls team composed of new players with the exception of one threw a scare into the veteran Troy team. The final count in this game was 29 to 21 in favor of Troy. No one had expected the Red Angels to hold their opponents to an eight point margin in this first baptism of fire. Doran led both teams in scoring as she rang up 14 points. Covington showed lots of polish and color as she handled play after play through at side center. The whole team did good work and worked together well for this early game. All of them seem to have the courage and fire necessary to take them to a successful season.

In the boys' game Coach Thomas held the men of Troy to four points. So sturdy was the South Fulton defense that all points made by the opposition were hope shots from far out toward midcourt. In the mean time the local team ran up 15 points to win this contest by a comfortable margin.

A. J. Mansfield was high point man with 10 points. James Cooley stood out as pivot man on offense and defense. Cooley made the other five points.

The next home games will be on Nov. 3rd when the Woodland Mills teams come for a double-header.

Friday night, Oct. 27 is to be Halloween Stunt Night at South Fulton high school. The different classes of the school are to give an individual act.

Each class will be represented by a most popular girl and boy. Various things are being done to raise money for the favorites. Votes will also be cast on this night, costing only a penny a vote. The girl and boy having the most votes on this night will be the most popular girl and boy of the school. There will be a favorite boy and girl chosen for the grades and one for the high school.

The favorites for the different classes are as follows: GIRLS—3rd grade, Reba Joan Brown; 4th grade, Nell Bizzell; 5th grade, Martha Neil Houston; 6th grade, Ruthella Ferrell; 7th grade, LaDonne McCain; 8th, Katie Lou Estes; 9th, Sarah Agnes Williams; 10th, Margaret Warren; 11th, Florence Pickle; 12th, Ruth Tucker.

BOYS—3rd, James Easley; 4th, James McKinney; 5th, Joe Trease; 6th, Robert Vancil; 7th, Charles Cannon; 8th, Harry McKinney; 9th, Stanley Jones; 10th, Norman Josahin; 11th, Gaylon Mallory; 12th, James Cooley.

Admission 5c and 15c. Time 7:30.

AT THE ROTARY

Joe Bennett was in charge of the program from the first annual banquet, and spoke on "Lost Opportunities." Mr. Bennett created quite a bit of interest when he read a program from the first annual banquet of the O'D Bachelors' Club, which was held in this city in September, 1892. At that time this club had 42 members. Dr. Cardin called attention to a special meeting at Bardwell soon when Governor Laffoon and the State Highway Commissioners would be present. Efforts are being made to get the Dukedom road surfaced, and P. C. Ford, proprietor of the Usona hotel here, has offered a free banquet if these officials can be persuaded to come to Fulton. W. R. Butt issued a call for volunteers to assist in the Red Cross drive to start soon. Theodore Kramer pointed out the needs of the kiddies lunch fund sponsored by the P. T. A. and the club donated $10 to this work.

OTTO VANCIL PUTS ON "NEWS" SIGNS

Otto Vancil, local sign painter, put the brush to two nice signs for The News this week. Since removal of the old location we have been delayed in getting a sign designating our place of business. But thanks to the good work of Mr. Vancil, our friends and readers will have no trouble in finding us now on East Fourth-st in the building opposite Bob White Motor Co.

Local Red Cross To Start Drive

The annual drive of the American Red Cross will begin here November 11th, with Mack Roach chairman. Committees have been appointed, and the P. T. A. will assist with the work. The relief burden is expected to be heavy this year. With the funds of the Kentucky Relief Commission small, local relief agencies will probably face additional problems this winter.

Everybody is urged to join the Red Cross and contribute a small share in caring for the needy. Clothing and flour, which is furnished by the Government through the National Red Cross, cannot be obtained unless 500 members join the local chapter. Fifty cents of each contribution goes to the national organization, the remainder being used here. And in case of fire, cyclone or some other disaster the national organization comes to the aid of the community.

Mrs. Alexander, field agent for the Red Cross here, has been active in organizing the Junior Red Cross in all schools of the county, and also some hygiene classes. "Give a dollar and don't hollar," is the Red Cross slogan this year.

"One manifestation of national recovery should be a generous outpouring of popular support for the American Red Cross in its annual membership Roll Call, November 11 to 30," says Gen. Hugh Johnson, Administrator of the National Recovery Administration.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK TAKES FINAL BOW

Receivers for the defunct First National bank of this city wound up their business here this week. Trucks hauled away a mass of records to Paducah where the federal court will have charge of their disposal. Ben Sneed, the receiver, was assisted by Mr. Crawford, in settling the affairs of the closed bank. The third and last dividend was paid out this week, to make a total payment of 75 24-100 percent since the bank closed in November, 1930.

The building and equipment of the defunct bank were taken over by the West Kentucky Finance Company some time back. Although Mr. Sneed urged all depositors to appear for the final dividend, more than 100 persons failed to show up and their checks will be mailed to them from Washington when they are located.

MRS. HAACK SR. DIED SUDDENLY IN MEMPHIS

Mrs. Eva Mae Culley Haack, wife of Billy Haack Sr., boxing promoter and deputy city tax assessor, died from a heart attack Friday at her home in Memphis. She was 56 years old. Her death is believed to have occurred in the early hours of the morning. She was found dead in her bed when her husband returned from Greenwood, Miss., where he refereed a boxing match the night before. Following his wife's advice he went to work at the courthouse the morning of her death instead of first going home after the trip.

Mrs. Haack was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Thomas L. Shankle of this city, who is a sister of the well known promoter, Billy Haack Sr.

LOWELL WILLIAMS NOW WITH OWENS TRUCK LINES

Lowell Williams, who was recently employed with the Read Transfer company operating between Louisville and Memphis, with headquarters in Fulton, is now associated with the Owens truck lines operating between Paducah and Memphis.

R. T. TAYLOR OPENS OFFICE IN PADUCAH

R. T. Taylor of Fulton, recently appointed as deputy internal revenue collector in the state of Kentucky, has opened his office in Paducah. He succeeds Richard Miller to the post. For many years he has been active in the Democratic ranks of this district.

100 PERCENT FOR FULTON

Every act of an individual or citizen of this community has a bearing on Fulton—for good or for bad. So, lest we forget, always remember we have our individual part in the life and progress of our community. We have a responsibility as a citizen of this community, and we should do our bit toward its welfare.

A community is nothing more than a group of individuals living, working and cooperating together to form a collective body of people who realize large dividends as a result of this mutual harmony and cooperation. Every dollar we spend at home eventually makes its way back to us, to again start out on another circuit. One dollar can pay a lot of debts, buy untold merchandise, feed hundreds of mouths, merely by exchanging hands in a community. But when it is spent elsewhere it is lost forever, and the community is that much poorer, collectively and individually.

So, after all, Mr. Citizen or Mr. Business Man—it is to your personal interest to SPEND YOUR DOLLARS AT HOME. You should do it from purely selfish reasons, because you benefit personally. Then, as an integral part of the community in which you live, your civic pride and community spirit should always your footsteps. Think it over! Let's join the "boosters club" and carry the banner high for Fulton.

Within a few decades the funeral director has evolved from a mere seller of funeral merchandise to a professional man rendering an important human service. In addition to supplying everything needed for the funeral, he lifts many burdens from the shoulders of the bereaved family.

the community itself. These unfavorable adverse influences should stop.

Local stores, shops, laundries and business firms are not getting a fair deal when they have to pay license fees, taxes, rent, and out-of-town concerns send their representatives and truck drivers in here to take business right out of Fulton, without paying for the privilege or operating a local establishment. This is unfair competition.

Local firms contribute a very important part of the life and trade to the community. While these fly-by-night salesmen and "peddlers" never leave anything to build up a community. Instead their business, in the final analysis, is tearing down vital community features which have taken years to build up.

Don't be misled. You can be easily fooled by a stranger who tells you a flattering tale in order to sell you. It is always safer and wiser economy to deal with your next door neighbor. You have known him longer. You know he is honest and asks only a very small profit in order to take out a living and continue to play his part in the life of the community. He can't afford to mislead you, for he has to do business with you today tomorrow and the next day. He is here to serve you faithfully and courteously year in and year out.

Thousands of people go blindly into pitfalls of "hot-air artists" every year, who paint a rosy picture that misleads the average citizen. The government issues public warnings to the people periodically to keep them from being fleeced, and yet the gullible heed not.

Even business men fall into these carefully laid traps—spend their money for some "new" unworkable scheme. It is, indeed, wise judgment and good policy to turn a deaf ear to ninety-nine percent of these "good buys" shoved in our face unexpectedly.

Just think it over next time you are tempted to swallow "hot" talk, line and sinker. A thought beforehand will probably save you a care later.

A CHURCHLESS COMMUNITY

In this day and time of Christianity and religious tolerance most of us are inclined to give little thought to just what our churches mean to us. We do not ponder seriously what a churchless community would be like.

But a community without churches just would be a community. We would be without a place to worship God that divine giver of all good things. An individual or a community must be four-square to enjoy the perfect life. This four-square life should be composed of the spiritual, mental, physical and social—with the spiritual the predominating force.

The church is the head under which people gather to humbly pay worship to their Maker. When we cease to look to Him for guidance we return to the land of heathenism where we become nothing more than an animal. Here today, gone tomorrow.

Fulton has its churches—and they are a strong and vital pillar in the life of our community. Thank goodness for these churches and their leaders who seek to uplift mankind. May their great work go on forever. There is the greatest work known to humanity.

DON'T SEND THEM AWAY

It seems to us that it is rather poor business policy, and at least displays no community spirit, to allow outsiders to pest bills and cards in our store windows, inviting our people go elsewhere to seek their entertainment, or to do their buying. Next time some outside town wants to use our windows for posting places, let's all say no. Put Fulton first, last and always.

This-That

In the first six months of legalized beer, taxes on the 3.2 beverage enriched the U. S. treasury $74,944,483. To this is added $105,121 from 3.2 wine and $6,164,967 from special taxes on brewers and distributors. Statistics also reveal total internal revenue collections of $613,258,977 for the first quarter of the current fiscal year, an increase of $255,150,912 over the corresponding period of a year ago.

Eight Kentucky distilleries have a total of 1,729,186 gallons of old whiskey subject to a tax of 50c a gallon, to net the state $864,593.

Enormous salaries being paid executives may be slashed if a group of Senators now investigating Wall Street practices have their way about it. Revelations show that as high as half a million dollars have gone to one financier in salaries and bonuses for one year. Is any man worth his "hire" in a case like this?

While Europe is in a turmoil over the breaking away of Germany from the League of Nations, and with the disarmament conference in Geneva at a crisis, a giant book weighing more than a ton, which is to be signed by millions of petitioners for peace, was unveiled in Union Square New York City. Americans want no war.

Joe Crawford of Morehead, Ky., deciding he had lived his allotted time, went out the other day and started digging his grave. But he never finished digging. Neighbors found his body beside the grave several hours later.

Recognition of Soviet Russia by the United States got under way last week, when President Roosevelt communicated with Mikhail Kalinin, premier of the soviet republic, and invited him to send a representative to Washington to "explore with him personally all questions of standing between the two countries." An understanding between Russia with 160,000,000 people and the United States with its 125,000,000 people should have significant influence and bearing on the international situation, and encourage moves toward peace.

Mae West, who is paying at the Warner Theater here in "I'm No Angel" Oct. 31-Nov. 1, has been commended a Kentucky colonel by Governor Laffoon.

The economic research division of the NRA has recommended a 13-percentage calculator for statistical purposes to NRA authorities and business. Experts see its general adoption within a relatively short time.

The Public Works Administration has allotted $25,999,000 to the army and navy for national defense. A study is also being made for financing of army, navy, air force and aviation construction program for both the army and navy.

Dr. Thomas Hunt Morgan, a Kentucky biologist, is now connected with the Columbia Institute of Technology. He has been awarded the 1933 Nobel prize in medicine, for his discoveries in biological sciences. His discoveries are very close to the source of life itself, and his work has added important knowledge to medical science.

It is said there is but the space of a hair between the ridiculous and the sublime. There isn't that much between a political leader and a political boss.

Some people imagine that declaring all molehills mountains is progressiveness.

Far too many young men just loaf around waiting for Old Opportunity to knock at their door.

It is said that a certain young Fulton man is undecided whether to get married or buy a new car. He is hereby advised to get the wife for he can divorce her, but if he gets a car he may not be able to get rid of it so easily.

Think It Over

BY THE MEDITATOR

IMPOSING ON GOD

Faith without works is dead, so "de good book do declare." Sitting down on the stool of inaction and praying to God, expecting Him to do for you what you refuse to do for yourself, is the act of a mollycoddle. I have been interested in the call of a minister in a mining town for a "season of prayer." Not that a call for prayer shouldn't be issued but the purpose for which it is called. The "preamble" declares that "conditions are deplorable in the community; that so many men are leaving the town, going elsewhere to seek work that there is danger the churches will become lean in membership."

I wonder what this preacher and his kind have done in the past, by their present and example, by their votes at elections, to prevent such a catastrophe as they describe? Having done all they could to bring the plague on the community, they now propose to "stand with God" to undo the work of their hands. And suppose God would come to their relief now, would these same Pharisees do anything to continue the change? Or would they, like Pharaoh of old, harden their hearts and continue to keep the people in bondage?

I have no sort of patience with such people. To sit still and permit such calamity to come upon us and then go to God "in whining prayer" and plead with Him to help, is imposing on God. Prayer is all right but if we would brush the dust from the seats of our trousers and use a little sense and unselfish judgment ourselves, if we had anything except a "loose extension of the neck above our shoulders," it might help some. Faith without works is dead. Making promises before election, voting to place a burden on the people and then expecting the Lord to lift it off certainly is an imposition on Him. Think it over.

Whenever I have over-indulged and feel restless, I take one or two Nervine Tablets just before I retire. In the morning when I awake I feel like a new person and can go about my work as usual. Dr. Miles Nervine Tablets quiet your nerves, brace you up and are the simplest, most convenient tablets I have ever found.

Before using your Nervine I was very nervous and irritable. Since I have started to take it I feel so much better that my family notice the difference. I still take it from time to time and the good result is wonderful. J. H. Harding, 1921 18th Ave., Rock Island, Ill.

such a one—who is so constituted he isn't satisfied with anything. Everything is wrong. The other day he came into the office and because he could find nothing else to knock about he began to find fault with the construction of Noah's Ark and to tell wherein it was faulty. I have no patience with a knocker. I am inclined to think that when the Creator made all good things in the world, He wanted to give the devil a chance to try his hand at creating. So the devil made all the reptile and poisonous insects. After he finished these he had some scraps left that were too nasty to put into rattlesnakes, the hyena, the scorpion or the shunk, so he scraped all the refuse together, wrapped it with suspicion, covered it with jealousy, marked it with a yellow streak and called it a knocker.

This product of the devil was so fearful to contemplate that God had to make something to counteract it. So He took a sunbeam, put into it the heart of a little child and the brain of a man. He wrapped this in Civic Pride, covered it with Brotherly Love, gave it a mark of velvet but a grasp of steel, and named it "Booster." God made him a lover of equality and justice. Ever since the creation of these two creatures, mortal man has had the privilege of choosing one of these two as his associates. Which are YOU? Think it over.

One Man's Journey

Human interest is rated dominant in "One Man's Journey," starring Lionel Barrymore at Warner's Orpheum theater Thursday and Friday. The story centers about one character, a country physician who achieves greatness through unselfish service, while considering himself a failure in life. Barrymore plays this role, declared by critics to be his greatest characterization. While service and sacrifice of self-interest is its theme, the film ends happily, with Barrymore receiving double reward for his devotion to duty. Young love interest is prominent, Dorothy Jordan and James Bush being the principals of one romance, and Joel McCrea and Frances Dee of another.

Wild Boys of the Road.

"Wild Boys of the Road," showing at the Warner theater Saturday only, is a masterful production, and presents startling revelations of present day conditions which caused a veritable army of boys and girls to quit their homes and roam wildly about the country. Danny Ahearn, who wrote the story, lived for six months in hobo jungles and road boy camps to absorb color for the story. He paints not only the tragedy of their lives with stark realism, but he tells of their joys and their loves, the romances that blossom even in sordid surroundings. The picture is a thrillingly dramatic picturization of the nomadic life of 500,000 of homeless boys and girls who are fast turning into tramps and potential criminals. Fortunately, in the picture, a sympathetic judge takes steps to get them jobs. It's a gripping bit of entertainment and a fine portrayal of "life on the road."

Night Flight

John Barrymore, Helen Hayes, Clark Gable, Lionel Barrymore, Robert Montgomery and Myrna Loy form an amazing multi-star cast which interprets "Night Flight," to show Sunday and Monday at the Warner theater here. The story is a vivid, powerful tale of flying the mail by night in South America. It breathes reality. It combines both the drama of flight, and the pathos of the wives who must remain on the ground. It is undoubtedly one of the greatest air stories ever written. Antoine de Saint-Exupery is the author, and he was an actual pilot on the very line he writes about. It's a great picture.

I'm No Angel

Mae West, as Tina, in "I'm No Angel," coming to the local theater next Tuesday and Wednesday, the curvaceous "mid-way" dancer, has every man she meets in the palm of her hand, and manages to keep him there. Miss West's new picture tells the story of Tina, million dollar carnival beauty, who "shimmies" her way into the minds and hearts of the boys of the small towns. She turns lion-tamer, becomes a sensation, etc. offers from the big city show and breaks hearts among society playboys just as she did under the big tent in the "sticks." She wrote the story herself and Wesley Ruggles is the director. Cary Grant is again her "tall, dark and handsome" lover.

Footlight Parade

"Footlight Parade" is a handsome narrative of a stage show director's ups and downs. Better musical numbers, more handsomey staged than those in "Gold Diggers" and "42nd Street" distinguish this third production of the all-star musical eye which comes from the Warner Bros. studio to the local Warner theatre Nov. 5-6-7. Once more Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler represent the young love interest in a story of backstage, while stars play the character roles surrounding them. And the most spectacular star this time is James Cagney, jauntily making his debut as a movie song and dance man, and scampering away with the picture. You expect to be entertained, and will be mightily. It is packed with surprises and sensations—hundreds of Hollywood beauties—20 headline stars. It is a pageant of feminine beauty, dance and song.

Ann Vickers Coming

"Ann Vickers," coming soon to the local theatre, is based upon Sinclair Lewis' novel of that name and is said to follow the author's story with fidelity. Ann Vickers is a modern girl who is determined to have a career and love regardless of conventions. Successful in settlement and prison reform work, her romantic experiences border on the tragic until she meets Judge Dolphin. Even then love has its obstacles. Judge Dolphin has a wife who does not care for him, but refuses to divorce him. He becomes involved in a bribe taking scandal. Awakened to the necessity of choosing between love and her career Ann makes her dramatic decision. Irene Dunne is playing the title role.

ORPHEUM THEATRE PUTS ON NEW COAT OF PAINT

This week the local Warner Bros. Orpheum theater is undergoing a renovation in the way of new paint on the front of the playhouse. The show is taking on a new coat of white in the outside lobby, which adds much to the appearance of the exterior.

FAMOUS MAGICIAN COMING TO FULTON

Princess, the Vanishing Pony, will be in Fulton when she will assist her master, Birch, the Famous Magician, in entertaining the children of the city, those who are youthful in spirit as well as those who are youthful in age, during the engagement at Science Hall, Wednesday, Nov. 1.

Princess is one actress who enjoys her work and who is never temperamental. She takes life philosophically and displays little or no vanity. She likes children, and a crowd dies, is four years old and weighs one hundred and fifty pounds.

But Princess is only one small portion of the great Birch array of thrilling illusions and demonstrations of the magic art. Included in the production are many tricks that require a veritable menagerie for presentation. Of these may be mentioned the canary that appears in a burning light bulb, the vanishing ducks, the elusive doves and many others.

Children are always made welcome at the Birch show. The magic-of youngsters may always be seen gathered about her as she takes her daily sightseeing tour through the city.

The cooler months of the year are working months for Princess for it is then that she is called upon to make her appearance at each Birch performance where she is hoisted in mid-air, then disappears at the snap of her master's fingers.

It might also be said that Princess is the only living actress of note who has never sought publicity. She has never been known to give an interview to the newspapers and has never voluntarily been quoted or had her photograph taken. She comes from the Dutch West In-lan likes to work with them, and frequently calls them to the stage. "I like to play to adults, of course for they can really appreciate to the fullest the beauty and wonder of my illusions, but it is really much more fun to work with the kiddies. Their naive enthusiasm and the pure enjoyment which they get from the show is something infinitely precious to me."

Not only will Mr. Birch perform the most sensational feats of magic ever presented on a local platform, but he brings a program varied with pleasing novelties. Miss Mabel Sperry, musical artist extraordinary, will play on her special built World's Fair Marimba at each performance.

Tiptonville Here For Game With Bulldogs Tonight

Friday night the Fulton Bulldogs meet Tiptonville High at the Fair Grounds. Despite injuries and scholastic ineligibilities, Fulton came out of their slump last Friday and seemed to take on some of that winning spark that is so hard for a losing team to pick up.

Tiptonville tied Gleason 6-6, and as Fulton won 7-6 over Gleason, it is a toss-up as where to place the advantage.

Tiptonville has a heavy team and a knack for making end runs but as Fulton has an exceptionally fine end in Curlin they want have to worry about this. That is, if he plays anything like he did last week. The team has looked good in practice this week.

This will probably be the last night game of the season. Game will be called at 7:30.

The Western Kentucky Athletic conference enters the second half of the season with three teams, Marion, Owensboro and Paducah still boasting of perfect conference records. Of these Paducah seems to be the most powerful team. The big blue Tornado has a team that averages 168 pounds, and is fast, aggressive and smart.

BULLDOGS TAKE GAME FROM GLEASON 7-6

In the most brilliant game played here this season the Fulton high school Bulldogs took the football game from Gleason on the local athletic field Friday night by a score of 7-6. The game was hotly contested thruout, with the Bulldog line standing firm against the pounding of the Gleason eleven. Neither team scored in the first quarter, but both crossed the goal line in the second. Starting a drive from the 45 yard line the Gleason boys marched down the field for the first score of the game, and shortly afterward Reaves' punt from the 50 yard line was fumbled by a Gleason player and recovered by Curlin behind their goal line, scoring a touchdown. Reaves and Curlin were Fulton's star players but the entire team showed excellent spirit and determination.

"Gum Machine Produces Local Race Horse"—Yes, and believe it or not it is true. A ball of chewing gum bought in a local cafe the other day had a race horse name inside. Expecting it to be a winner the purchaser opened it excitedly. Lo and behold it turned out to be a name of a well known suit presser of Fulton. It read Bill Looney also ran, try again. But I didn't. Bill the big shot will be after you if you don't watch out.

Will Hair Grow On An Onion? Well, I don't know about that but I do know that hair is growing on the scalp of a well known grocery man in Fulton, who has been without hair on his top-knot for nearly two decades. He has been bald since he was 12, but now special scalp treatments given locally are reaping good returns. Now 'Slick' Hudson will have to change his nick name.

I was told the other day that the City Dads had put the law violators on the city on the spot. Well, that's about as good a thing as could be done at present. So don't forget to watch your step.

The goblins will get you if you don't watch out. Rumors have it that persons who have been destroying flowers and shrubbery during previous Hallowe'en nights will get what's coming to them this year if they are daught. I have been notified that trouble and plenty of it is in store for anyone caught destroying these beautifiers.

We have heard that a young lady on Walnut-st is about to join the ranks of the married ladies. It comes straight too, and if it is true her friends should hear about it. Bet you can't guess who it is.

Just what the trouble is between some of the boys and girls of Fulton remains to be explained to Me. But anyway I know a very nice young man here who weighs coal for one of the coal companies that says the girls of Mayfield have the girls of Fulton beat. He states that during the past few weeks he has had at least a dozen dates in Mayfield and 'nary' one in Fulton. Oh girls! Raymond Peoples, one of Fulton's laundrymen, had a long trip for naught last Friday night when at the ball game he heard of the big fire in Paducah. Believing all he heard that the town was in a mass of ruins, he rushed home, grabbed his wife (forgetting about his son at the ball game) he lit out. Before he got far he thought of his son, then rushed off again. When he arrived in Paducah he was disappointed because the town was still there with only one store burned, and the fire extinguished. Too bad, Raymond.
