We have always been aware of the need for a newspaper that represents the interests of the community. That is why we started this newspaper and why we continue to support it. We believe that a free press is essential for a healthy democracy, and we are committed to providing an independent voice for our readers.

Three years ago when the first issue of the Tribune was published, we were optimistic about the future of the newspaper. Today, we can say with confidence that the Tribune is thriving. We have a loyal readership and a dedicated staff, and we are proud of the role that the Tribune plays in our community.

As this is a time of the year when we often reflect on the past and look forward to the future, we want to take this occasion to say, thank you, to all of our readers and to our advertisers.
