Commercial Club Meeting Tuesday Night

SECRETARY BARD REPORTS TRIP TO NASHVILLE ROAD OILING

"Better Farming" discussed by Farmers in Attendance with Business Men—Oiling of Streets Also Discussed.

Tuesday night's meeting of the Fulton Commercial Club was filled with "ginger" and "pep." The discussions were interesting and participated in by Messrs. John Wade, Jim Clements, J. C. Brann, A. M. Nugent, E. C. Rice, Leslie Weeks, S. W. Paris, J. H. Matthews, M. M. Gordon, J. D. Davis, R. S. Williams, G. G. Bard, Mayor Joe Brovder and Councilman J. A. Colley.

Secretary Bard gave an interesting account of his trip with Mr. Butt to the road meeting at Nashville, where they met with the legislative committee of Tennessee on roads. He said that while he had never been an active road worker, he was converted in Nashville and was enthusiastic over roads now.

Better Farming Auto Trip

After the usual business had been taken up and passed on, the county agent requested the co-operation of the Commercial Club in putting on a "better farming auto trip," to take place in Fulton County during the fourth week in April. Quite a number of enthusiastic speeches were made by business men and farmers present.

It was agreed that a dinner should be served, somewhere enroute, free to all farmers and business men taking this trip. It was also agreed that Morgan Hughes, the best agricultural speaker in Kentucky, should be secured for principal address, and the College of Agriculture should be requested to send Prof. Good, head of the animal husbandry department, to make an address on cattle and hog feeding.

Some dispute arose as to whether the dinner on this trip should consist of barbecue or fish, but this was left up to the dinner committee. In addition to the dinner committee, a route committee, a committee on finance and a committee on publicity were appointed.

This trip is planned to be one of the biggest events ever pulled off in Fulton County. Not less than 200 cars will be expected. On this trip visits will be made to red clover fields, sweet clover fields, alfalfa fields, both for hay and pasture, cattle barns, self feeders, pure bred hogs, pure bred cattle, poultry houses, poultry flocks—called of non-producers, and many other interesting things.

Later news on this trip will be given in next week's column of this paper.

Street Oiling

The club went on record last night as favoring the oiling of Fulton streets this year. The vote was unanimous. The question arises now as to whether the city should pass an ordinance forcing each and every property owner to pay their pro rata of the oiling or would the citizens volunteer cash subscriptions for oiling streets without an ordinance being passed.

We think the citizens should "beat the council to it" and volunteer to pay for the oiling of streets without any hesitation whatever in view of the fact that the city will be at big

YOU CAN HELP GET SCALPERS OF BONDS

The Federal Trade Commission at Washington is in the midst of an investigation of bond scalpers and stock jobbers activities.

The Treasury Department and the Capital Issues Committee have submitted to the commission a list of alleged swindlers in which persons were traded doubtful stock and securities for Liberty Bonds.

From commercial and personal sources the commission has secured and has commissioned the Federal Bureau of Investigation to send in any complaints on such transactions.

If any person—man or woman—offers you a stock or security in exchange for your Liberty Bonds get that person's name and all the "literature" offered and mail them to the commission.

Just address it: "Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D. C."

expense repairing the streets before the oil can be applied. It is a certain fact that oiling the streets is a permanent improvement. This has been fully demonstrated in Fulton and no better authority on the question of permanent improvement is needed than what has been actually done here, and this gives the city the right to pass an oiling ordinance. If the city had the money to pay for the oil, this argument would not be necessary, but they haven't and the citizens will be asked to foot the bill.

A Real Tank In Action

Fulton Will Be Visited by Special Train With Tank Manned by Soldiers From Overseas.

A real bona fide battle tank made by Uncle Sam to vanquish the Hun will be seen in this city on Saturday, April 19, 1919.

This tank will be one of the features of the Victory Loan special train that will visit Fulton on the date mentioned. It weighs more than seven tons, is armored, and is about fifteen feet long and ten feet high. It will be carried on a special flat car, and under its own power will parade the streets of the city.

The speed will arrive at 7 a. m., and will leave at 1:30 p. m.

The tank will be manned by soldiers who have seen actual service overseas. Brief addresses will be made by the soldiers and civilians who are the special train.

DANCE EVEN FOR VISITORS

A delightful informal dance was given last evening at the Elks Club following the wedding for the sorority sisters Vanderbilt and their escorts, who attended the Callahan-Hindman nuptials. Splendid music was furnished by the home orchestra. Those attendance were Misses Natalie Ball, Faith Clarke, Augusta P. Florence Tyler, Marion Legg, as Legg, Alice Colsher, Pearl A. Sarah Caston, Luella Whorley, Marion Huddleston, and Messrs. Chas. Bob White, Pete J. Chas. Thompson, Albert Brown, Rice, Hardeman Howard, Ryan and Eugene DeMyer.

President's Ship Will Sail Next Friday

GEORGE WASHINGTON ORDERED TO SAIL TOSS

No Light on Order—Washington Officials Decline to Comment on Change.

Washington, April 9.—Specific instructions from President Wilson to the sailing of his steamer, the George Washington, be expedited immediately were received yesterday at the Navy Department through Admiral William S. Benson, chief of naval operations at Paris. As a result the vessel will leave New York for Brest at the earliest opportunity, probably next Friday afternoon. Admiral Benson's message gave no reason for the President's order, and the White House refused to have any information on the subject, but interpreting it in the light of press dispatches from Paris telling of the President's determination that delays at the peace conference must end, most officials regarded it as significant. Added importance also was given by the fact that this was the second message from the admiral regarding the ship's departure, the first received Monday being inquired of to the time the vessel would get under way.

Hindman Callahan Wedding

BRILLIANT WEDDING SOLEMNIZED AT METHODIST CHURCH.

Beautiful Musical Program Rendered—Church Filled With Friends to Witness the Ceremony.

A beautiful wedding, distinguished by its simplicity of appointment and quiet elegance was solemnized at the First Methodist Church Tuesday evening when Miss Lois Callahan became the bride of Leol Heywood Hindman, of Anna, Ill. The church, which lends itself so well to decoration, was beautiful and the scenic effect during the ceremony was unusually attractive.

A conventional wedding motif of pink, white and green was chosen for the occasion and artistically carried out. The organ loft and chancel were wrapped in white with draperies of pink, caught with fluffy bows of pink tulle and along the chancel rail at intervals were many beautiful ferns and vases of huge pink and white carnations; pink tapers gleamed in brass cathedral candelabra resting on pedestals, while through the pink light shown from the chancel a charming harmony

ENTERTAINED AT O'CLOCK

Miss Marion Huddleston presided at a beautiful program of music was rendered. The "Bridal Chorus" from "The Rose Maiden" being sung by Mrs. R. S. Williams, Miss Jessie McDade and Ezra Vance, followed by a violin solo, "Simple Aven," by Master Searcy Callahan, brother of the bride, after which Miss McDade sweetly sang "Because." At the appointed hour the familiar strains of "Mendelssohn" broke forth in a glorious welcome and to its inspiring notes the bridal party entered. First came two dainty flower girls, Little Misses Sarah Butts and Ruth Wade, dressed in white frocks with pretty butterfly bows of tulle on the hair, carrying French baskets of rose pedals, which they scattered in the path; following was the dearest little couple, Thomas Callahan, Jr., and Lillian Wade; ring bearers, who brought from the audience spontaneous murmur of tender admiration for their dainty loveliness. Little Lillian was dressed as a miniature bride in a dainty white frock, wearing a tulle veil caught in the hair with a wreath of orange blossoms and extending the length of her dress, and Thomas as representing little Lord Fauntleroy. They carried white satin pillows which bore the rings. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Estelle Grogan, of Paducah, cousin of the bride, gowned in a lovely costume of white chiffon, wearing a picture hat of georgette and carrying Killarney roses.

The bride was a picture of loveliness in her bridal robe as she entered on the arm of her mother, Mrs. L. T. Callahan, who was dressed in a handsome gown of black georgette, with bead trimming and wore a corsage of lavender sweet peas.

They were met at the altar by the groom, who entered through an opposite aisle attended by Lieutenant Lynn Siffard, of Anna, Ill., as his best man. The groom was attired in a conventional black dress suit, while Lieut. Siffard wore his full khaki uniform and looked the part of a stately army officer. The impressive double ring cere-

REMAINS OF MRS. O. COOKE BROUGHT TO FULTON

The remains of Mrs. Owen Cooke who died at the home of her son, Owen Cooke, Jr., near McConnell, Tuesday morning, April 8th, were brought to Fulton this afternoon and laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery.

Mrs. Cooke had been in declining health for some time and for several weeks her death has been expected. She was well known and loved by many Fulton friends. She is survived by five children, two sons of McConnell and three daughters, Mrs. Dianna Rankin, Mrs. J. H. Rankin and Mrs. Powell, of this city. The bereaved ones have the heartfelt sympathy of a

SEE IT THROUGH!

What though the guns begin to rust,
The fire of war is ash—
What matter if the vineyard land
Forgets the pounding clash?
We cannot say we saw it through
Until the last bill's paid,
Until the road of peaceful gain
Is stanchly, firmly laid,
We cannot gloat our arms,
The deeds of heroes there,
Until we've nursed them back to health
And paid the homeward fare,
We loaned our dollars while they bled,
Now Victory Bonds let's buy
To guarantee the things for which
Our brothers went to die!

mony was eloquently performed by Rev. H. G. Ryan, pastor of the church. During the ceremony Miss Hughes softly played "Call Me Thine Own," using Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" as a recessional.

The bride's costume was an exquisitely girlish but elegant dress of white charmeuse satin, with pearl trimmings with a court train of satin hung from the shoulders. From a castle cap wreath of orange blossoms her veil of tulle fell the length of the train caught here and there with orange blossoms. She carried a splendid bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She carried a lace handkerchief, which had been carried by twenty-three other brides.

The ushers, intimate friends of the bride and groom, were: Mrs. Alf Hornbeck, Mrs. Ramsey Snow, Mrs. Curtis Ledford, Mrs. J. C. Scruggs and Misses Marion Huddleston, of this city; Miss Hindman, of Anna, Ill., a sister of the groom; Miss Betty Grogan, of Paducah, cousin of Berlin, April 9.—A state of siege has been proclaimed at Bueberg to which city the Hoffmann ministry was removed several days ago.

Paris, April 9.—Ukrainian soviet troops have captured Odessa, according to advices from Kiev, transmitted by wireless from Moscow under date of April 7th. The news has not been officially confirmed, but late dispatches indicated that Bolshevik pressure against Odessa, the great Russian port on the Black Sea, was increasing and intimated imminent evacuation of the city by the allied forces. The Paris Matin said the allies would probably withdraw ultimately to Dniester in order to protect Bessarabia and Roumania. The Isthmus of Perekop has been fortified as protection to the Russian naval Munich, April 9.—The general strike called as a festival in honor of the proclamation of a soviet government developed without trouble. Everyone is taking a holiday. Soviet leaders have drawn a bill for confiscation of property. In the bill all fortunes of more than 10,000 marks shall be seized, a part confiscated and the balance retained by the state which will pay the legitimate owners about 4 per cent interest. It is planned to reduce rent and food prices forcibly. Five thousand citizens of Munich held a demonstration Monday. The first infantry regiment of Munich troops, it is reported, will serve as a basis of a guard to be created. Many prominent persons were reported arrested.

Methodists Favor League of Nations

Memphis, Tenn., April 9.—A league of nations for the purpose of "promoting liberty and safeguarding the peace which has been won" through the greatest sacrifices of the allies, was approved Tuesday by the Woman's Missionary Council of Methodist Episcopal Church.

Copies of the resolution will be presented to President Wilson, former President Taft and to the United States.

Jackson, Tenn., April 9.—The city commissioners have about decided to lay sheet asphalt on the downtown streets. Improvements will begin about May 1st. Over $200,000 worth of permanent streets will be laid in the business section. Plans have already been drawn and there is little left of the preliminaries. Mayor Taylor states that the commissioners will finish these in short order and the actual work will begin soon.

CARRANZA BOOSTS AMERICAN ENEMY

Luis Cabrera Has Been Appointed Head of Mexican Treasury.

Washington, April 9.—State Department officials are much interested in news from Mexico City that Luis Cabrera has been appointed by President Carranza to succeed Rafael Nieto as head of the treasury. It is understood that this change has been contemplated for some months. Nieto has just returned to Mexico City after a fruitless effort to secure a loan for his government from New York bankers.

Cabrera is regarded in Washington as one of the bitterest enemies of the United States in Mexico.

During the war he toured Latin America, endeavoring to align the Latin republic in a policy of neutrality with Mexico, where the German minister, von Eckhardt, was operating his anti-American activities unchecked.

Cabrera was a member of the Mexican commission that came to the United States at the time of the A. B. C. conference. At Atlantic City his conduct there so aroused Judge Gray and Secretary Lane that the negotiations were for a time suspended.

During the revolution Cabrera was close to Carranza and to him is attributed largely the adoption of a new constitution instead of the old one of 1857 to which the "Constitutionalists," headed by Carranza, were supposed to have pledged themselves. The new constitution permitted the "confiscation" of properties against which the United States, British and French governments have protested and which is now the point of issue between these countries and Mexico.

ANOTHER FULTON CASE

It Proves That There's a Way Out
for Many Suffering Fulton Folks.

N. B. James, propriety of livery, Paschall street, Fulton, says: "My kidneys were out of order and my back ached. The kidney secretions were irregular, scanty and painful in passage, highly colored, and changed me to get up several times during the night. My back pained me so badly sometimes I could hardly get about. When I would try to get a sharp, stabbing pain caught me. A friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills and I bought some at Bennett Bros.' Drug Store. They relieved me and I haven't had to use a kidney medicine since."
Sixty cents at all dealers. Foster-
Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Peace Clothes at Peace Prices
In this age of reconstruction there are big jobs ahead for men who have the "sand" to undertake big things.
"Sand" is confidence and good clothes inspire it, especially clothes that have the styles and the tailoring that give you entree anywhere. Such are
Society Brand Clothes
Are for Young Men and Elderly Men Who Wish to Look Young.

They rank highest favor with men who don't want
"second best." Due to the hand tailoring every garment receives, the style remains till the fabric wears out.
