VOL. IV.

BENTON, KY., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1891.

NO. 5.

King of Medicines

Soreful Humor—A Cure
"Almost Miraculous!"

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well."

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better, and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC.
THE ORIGINAL

NO CURE, NO PAY.
The Tonic which has given such universal satisfaction, and which you hear your neighbors talking about, is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is as large as any dollar tonic and genuine, always ask for Grove's, and don't accept cheap, untried substitutes, claiming to be just as good.

A call will soon be made for a national meeting of the Anti-Sub-Treasury Alliance men. When this is done separate organizations will be made in each state and county. It is claimed by the knowing ones that the Anti-Sub-Treasury wing of the Alliance will soon outnumber the other wing of the order. The Rockdale platform was the most popular one in the national council at Indianapolis. It was almost unanimously adopted at that meeting. Several delegations left for home before the meeting closed on account of a shortness of funds.

The United States Grand Jury last week, while in session at Paducah, indicted Hugh Mulholland, late P. M. of that city, for tampering with registered letters. It indicted him three times with three counts in each indictment. This is rather tough on the young Napoleon, who attempted to manage the republican party in this congressional district. If Mr. Mulholland had gone to Paducah and after he received the appointment, as P. M. conducted himself as he should have done and transacted the business of the office in an honest business way he would have been an honored man, but instead he is now a disgraced man, whose reputation is gone forever.

Politics is a warring of human passions, interests and opinions. A son of William Lloyd Garrison is a democrat, a son of the late Attorney General Hoar is a democrat, a son of John A. Andrew is yet another democrat. On the other hand, the son of Clement L. Vallandigham is a republican. This recalls that a son of Ben Franklin was a tory during the American revolution and a son of William the Silent was a partisan of Spain when the Netherlands were in the midst of their most heroic of all struggles for liberty of action and liberty of conscience—Louisville Times.

Bob Anderson, a son of republican L. Anderson, of Mayfield, is a democratic mayor in Florida, and C. H. Starks, of this county, a son of a republican father, is a true blue democrat, while H. P. Kingsolving, P. M. at Malden, Mo., is a robed republican and a son of a democrat father. Politics make lively bed fellows.

The greatest commercial club of Louisville is about to go to pieces. This will be too bad, for it has done some good for that city, and could do much more.

Montgomery county voted $100,000 to the Ky., Midland, notwithstanding the new constitution to the contrary. The case will be carried for decision to the highest courts.

W. J. Stone, our congressman, we hope, is for Roger Q. Mills, for speaker. He is the representative of the reform democracy, and will give perfect satisfaction to his constituency.

Hon James A. McKenzie will be a candidate for congress in the second district. Mr McKenzie is a popular man up there, but our word for it, he will never again be elected by the people of that district to a seat in congress. His day is past, and his political sun is now quietly, but gradually sinking to rise no more. The brightest star in the political firmament of that district is now in eclipse.

On August 2d 1886, Judge Caswell Bennett of Livingston co., received in the Fourth Appellate District 45,330 votes. On August 2d 1892 another election for the same position would have taken place, but the new constitution has changed the time of the election to November of the same year. Six years is the length of time, for that office, and that being the case, Judge Bennett's term of office will expire in the year 1892. We have not heard from the judge, whether or not he will be a candidate or not, but if he is contemplating such a course, he had better begin to make a wish known, as a district so large as this, is full of aspiring young men, of a judicial turn of mind who would gladly ask for the position the judge now holds. There is an able jurist in this end of the district, whose name has never been mentioned for that position, that may ask the people to elect him, and if he does he will be a hard man to defeat, and it is no less a personage, than the able and learned Judge, who is now on the bench of the Common Pleas Court, Judge D. G. Park. There has been many suggestions to the turn of his ambition, but, in our opinion all speculation has gone wrong, that when the time comes, a strong candidate for a seat on the Appellate bench, will be found in the person of Judge D. G. Park, of Graves county. He is a good lawyer, a good judge and a popular man. Look out for him for Appellate Judge, in this district.

ANY GOOD MAN WILL DO.
The democrats should not be so anxious to have Mr. Cleveland the nominee of the democratic party for the presidency next year. They should wait and let the necessities of the times and circumstances dictate the man.

If Mr. Cleveland is not the choice of the democracy in the east and west, let them go and nominate a man who is and that can carry a united democracy to victory.

His silver letter does not necessarily disqualify him as the standard bearer of the democracy, but tariff will be the issue next year and his head is level on that important measure, and he has done valuable service for the party in New York, and all these things, but it is not right that democrats should now express themselves to the effect that there is no other man but Cleveland to be made the nominee for the presidency next year.

The democracy is wanting and needing a man who can write it in every state in the union. If Mr. Cleveland is not the man, the democracy must be prepared to furnish one who is, and to judge the man as the nominee.

The democratic party cannot afford to jump at conclusions. It must deal with conditions as they exist.

SHARP, KY.
Noticing that your correspondent "H. M. H." is giving your readers a few reminiscence of the early history of Marshall county, I have concluded to give them the benefit of what I know about the brush-breakers of our county.

These early pioneers were a hardy race of people and many humorous incidents occurred while they were blazing out the way for future generations.

They had to endure many privations of which the present generation knows nothing about.

"H. M. H." in speaking of "wild honey" reminds me of a rather humorous incident that occurred when this portion of the county was very sparsely settled.

Old Uncle Bill Lyles, one of these early pioneers, found a beehive one day which contained an extraordinary amount of honey. After cutting the tree Uncle Bill went to the house and got his sled to convey his honey home. "Trace chains, like many other modern conveniences, were unknown at that time, or at least they were not used by our fore fathers. Instead of these they used strips of raw-hide. While Uncle Bill was on his way home a shower of rain came up. He drove on to the house, but when he turned around he saw nothing of his sled. The rain had wet the raw-hide traces and their elasticity was such that the sled was left behind. Uncle Bill unhitched his horse and fastened the harness over a stump. Presently the sun came out and the traces began to contract. In a short time Uncle Bill looked down the road and saw his sled coming. It soon pulled itself up to the stump and Uncle Bill unloaded his honey.

This story is vouched for by many of our old citizens.

PIONEER

REV. LEVI LEE.

In mentioning men of note in this and Calloway counties, we can now recall no one better known than the name that heads this article.

We have known him since our extreme boy-hood, and we are now prepared to say that he is, and has been a man of strong conviction and religious zeal.

He was born in N. C., in 1820, where he was raised and lived until 1844, when he moved to the state of Mississippi, but he only lived there until 1849 when he came to this state, and located in Calloway county, where he has resided ever since.

He was married in N. C., and is now the father of twelve children, all of whom are now living save one who died many years ago.

He has one son that is now a member of the Memphis Conference, and bids fair to become famous as a circuit preacher.

Rev Levi Lee, began preaching in 1841, and has been regularly in the work every since. Fifty-one years is a long time for a man to be in the ministry.

He was a member of the Conference for thirty years, and preached in almost every circuit district in its territory.

For twenty-one years he has been a local preacher, and still continues in that work.

He always voted for rail road tax, and is a man for public improvements.

He is well known to the Methodist people, in this county, as any other man in the ministry.

He was a powerful preacher in his day, but since the church has become fonder of style than religion, he don't stand quite so well with the body in the church.

He always spoke his sentiments and never any kind or character of sin untouched. He would attack sin in all of its forms, in places high and low.

Always use the medicine that will do the most good, and for kidney and liver trouble, Lightning Kidney & Liver Remedy is the best. Messrs. Gray & Haddock, Barlow, O., say: "We have handled medicines of different kinds for several years and have never handled anything that equals Lightning Kidney & Liver Remedy. One of our customers has been suffering for years with kidney trouble and has used a great deal of kidney and liver cure, but did not receive much if any benefit. He finally tried Lightning Kidney & Liver Remedy, and will use nothing else. He says he would rather pay the price for it than to take the other for nothing." For sale by all dealers.

NOTICE.—We take this method of informing the public that the business heretofore conducted by Carr & Alexander will be conducted by me as the surviving partner of W. T. A LOVING HUSBAND AND WIFE.

We have in our mind a man and woman who are truly married. They have been married ten years and have had born unto them four children—two boys and two girls. The youngest one is now three years old.

The man is a sober, kind husband, devoting all of his time to the every day comfort of his wife and children.

His wife is six years younger than her husband, but she says she never loved any man but the one she now calls husband and thinks she would rather die than to run the risk of ever trying to love another man.

They have a little home and they use it as a mansion. Their hearts are blended so closely that the little trouble of one is also a trouble to the other.

The husband never leaves home on a long or short errand but he imprints a gentle and affectionate kiss upon the cheeks of his devoted wife and loving children. When he returns the same happy meeting takes place. To be absent from each other is equal almost to the second death.

They love each other beyond reason almost. It is no Sunday affair with them, but it is love for breakfast, dinner, and supper.

They have a large supply of pure love on hand for each other, and their main object in life is never to do any thing to lessen it in any way whatever.

They never, in a jest or otherwise, say or do any thing that it would require an explanation. They only want to give their entire lives to each other, as God intended that man and wife should do when he instituted the marriage ceremony and obligation.

We have, in our short life, seen never known one (except me and my wife) that come up in all respects to what we considered husband and wife according to the original design of the marriage vow.

We are not ready yet to believe marriage a failure, but when we think of this man and wife and watch them in their daily lives and their pleasant years of happiness with each other, we become a little shaky on the subject.

We see and know of so many who are living together where there is no love, that we wonder how society can be held together as well as it is, but these people go along in an every day hop-hazard way until the poor deluded wretches believe their love for each other is not excelled by any body in the world.

Oh! what a shame, that so many husbands and wives live out a lifetime without that love that God intended they should have.

"DRIFTY NO. 2" AGAIN.

Rather Gossippy.

TRIBUNE.

BRIENSBURG, KY., NOV. 22ND.

—Bro. T. N. Wilks left Monday for Covington, Tenn., to attend the Annual Conference, which convenes there on the 25th instant. He will be returned to this circuit, where he has given so great satisfaction to his church during the past year. Bro. Wilks and his excellent wife are dearly beloved here.

Mrs. Nimmo still lingers on her bed of affliction. She bears her sickness with becoming fortitude.

Dr. J. M. Mooney is now doing as much practice as he did twenty years ago. He has been a man who has done a great practice of medicine in this county, during the past twenty years, but he has never enjoyed the fruits of his labor. His troubles and misfortunes have been many and he has tried to stand up under them like a giant, but after he has lived out his days, at hard labor, he will go to his final resting place conscious of the fact that he, in the past, was to blame for some of his unhappiness. The Doctor, like all of us, can see the weak points in his life as well as strong ones, but he is now too old to remedy all of his mistakes. As a physician, he has been a success, but as a minister and financier, he has been a failure. If he had the cash for all of his bad debts and the money paid out as security, he would be a rich man for a country like this, but he is now too near the grave to make up for his many financial mistakes.

The school in this district is getting along reasonably well, but I will risk one suggestion, and that is, the district, with the number of children in the school age that it now has, ought to have a male teacher for principal. The present teacher is a good one and does all she can to teach a good school, but she nor any other lady teacher can manage the children here like a man.

Our merchants are all doing a very nice business, but they complain of a scarcity of money.

The people in this section of the country are blessed with an abundance of the necessities of life and expect to spend the winter in ease and idleness.

W. B. Hamilton and family expect to leave us within the next three weeks. Their neighbors dislike very much to give them up, but they are not going so far but what we can see them often. Mr. Hamilton has an interesting family, that will be a valuable addition to the society of Benton. This entire community wishes them abundant success in their business venture.

H. O. Hast'n is now putting on all the airs of well informed J. P.

J. E. Wyatt is now giving his time to the nursing of his first born child, and is also nursing the hope that some day he may be elected circuit court clerk. Nursing both of these excitable pets at the same time must be very weighty to so small a man. It is pleasant to a new father to nurse the hope of his country, but it is not so pleasant to nurse such an unknown quantity as a prospective office

There is a little wedding breeze blowing in this part of the county and may not stop until it has effected many of the young men and women so that it will be nothing new to hear the wedding bells jingle.

A new mill will soon be located here, which will prove a great convenience to our community.

Two of James Chandler's boys will soon be married to beautiful women. Their father married a good looking woman, and why not his boys marry women of like beauty?

L. J. Gossett is doing a thriving business.

Ira O. Maddox will soon be the senior blacksmith of the town.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

The over-seers of roads are now having the roads put in good condition. We would like to see a new interest in our roads by the people. It would help everybody.

The sheriff is now hustling up the boys for tax. Several officers in the state have received their quotas and now Mr. Little is shivering for such a settlement, and in order to get it, he must collect the taxes.

Marshall county, lacks $4313 paying into the state treasury as much money as she spends. We are lashed badly on the pauper side of the ledger, but if our county continues to improve it will not be long before we will be able to balance our account on the big book of the state.

Winter, is now coming on, and things for the people to look after, before the dark days of bleek December dawn on, there is no class of people, but can do something in preparing for cold weather that will be of great benefit to them, in mid-winter. The rich as well as the poor have something to do for comfort in winter. Out in a poor country like this, a little common sense and fore thought, together with only a small amount of labor, would add greatly to the comfort and happiness of our people in winter. Many people fill premature graves, from colds, coughs, consumption and pneumonia, brought on by exposing themselves to do such work as should have been done during fair weather. It is a duty that people owe to themselves to make the preparations for winter. Crops should all be gathered, milling attended to, and wood hauled up enough to use during the winter.

ARE YOU IN IT?

If not, why not? Why don't you always keep on hand a bottle of Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure to allay the first irritation caused by a sudden cold. This is the finest remedy in the world for every kind of cough. You feel the good effect of the first dose, and by thorough using your cough is soon cured. 25 and 50c bottles at J. R. Lemon's drug store.

Secrete good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils and gives a good complexion. A SHOWMAN CONVERTED.

What Religion Will do For a Man.

Ligo (Lat.) to bind. Religio, to bind back, to restrain. Hence, the inference is, man is very far gone from original righteousness, and of his own nature incline to evil, and that continually. Again we may see in some degree why God said in Gen. 6th ch 5th vers. "that the wickedness of man was great in the earth and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually." David in Psa. 51st chapter 5th vers. corroborates, and says; "behind I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me;" and Paul (the pet of all preachers) in the New Testament, to clap the climax exclaims in Rom 8th ch 7th verse, "the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be." Any one, disposed to set aside these words of divine inspiration, could easily set aside a hundred more of the same import. So without further scripture statements, we will at once, enter upon the subject of our article.

What religion will do for a man. Without giving the previous requisites, for fear we might have an Ecclesiastic collision. On last Wednesday, Mr. Fred Clark of Grand Rivers, who is perhaps known to some of the Marshall county people as a showman, slight of hand performer, in connection he had a dwarf man to assist him in his exhibitions. Wednesday evening he left for Grand Rivers. Some said his wife was sick and had sent for him. He was to have showed here (Briensburg) Thursday night, but sent word he could not come, but would show Friday night, Friday evening he came in as the people thought to show that night, but he got his "little man" who had been left at Mr. Marsh Field's and started for home. He said, I have been a rving the Devil for 10 years and got nothing for it; I am going to serve a better pay master, I am going to take this little man home. So religion said no show to night.

The simple facts was, when he got to Grand Rivers Wednesday he found a revival meeting in progress and his wife praying for him, he began praying for himself, and on Thursday night he was converted. "Now unto others he's telling how Jesus saved a poor sinner like him." The writer over heard a conversation between he, and Mr. Marsh Fields, in which Bro. Fields said I hope the next time I hear from you, you will be preaching. He said, I don't know about preaching, but I do know one thing, I can do my fellow man good. Soon they parted with a "may the Lord bless you upon this trip."

The hearing of this called to mind a case of which we heard years ago. A showman had in his employ a young man who was receiving good wages, he attended a revival meeting, in which he professed religion. Coming to his employer, he said, I professed religion last night, and this business don't suit me, I want to be released. I am going to preach the gospel. What a fool you are, said his employer, quit a $100.00 salary, for what you can eat and wear, for that is all you will get. The young man was persistent. So the show man paid him up, and let him go, but said the showman I want to make you a present before you leave, so he presented him with a gold headed cane in token of the fact, of all the fools he had ever met, he was the biggest. The show man said the condition is this: If you ever meet a bigger fool than you are, you are to present him the cane. They separated. The young man went to preaching the gospel, years passed away, when one day while the young man was preaching in a certain city, a messenger came for him saying, that a man at the depot was dying, and had sent for him. The young man went, and when his eyes fell upon the dying man, he recognized him as his former employer, the giver of the gold headed cane, you remember said the young man the condition of this present I hold in my hand, (holding the cane before the dying man's eyes) you said when we parted if I ever met with a bigger fool than myself, to present him with the cane. Here it is I give it back to you, for you are the biggest fool I have met since we parted years ago. Here you are dying without God, the hope of eternal life, the biggest fool I have ever met.

Yes religion causes us to desert the devil's ranks. Religion binds us back to God. Religion makes seek good company and his people. Religion believes not itself unseemly. Religion seeks not to serve her own. Religion looketh not on the wise when it is read. Religion whippeth not his wife. Religion doeth no evil to his neighbor. Religion goeth not to brand dances. Religion quarrelth not with her husband. Religion curseth not. Religion putteth not the bottle to his neighbor's lips. Religion back biteth not. Religion abstaineth from ever appearing of evil. Religion singeth good songs. Religion talketh not about her preacher. Religion readeth the bible. Religion sendeth the gospel to the heathens. Religion goeth to church. Religion prayeth. Religion payeth her preacher. Religion deirandeth not. Religion it the chief concerned of mortals here below. May we its great importance learn, its sovereign virtue know. Religion should our thoughts engage, amidst youthful bloom. 'Twill fit us for declining years, and for the awful tomb. 'Tis religion that can give, sweetest pleasures while we live. 'Tis religion must supply, solid comfort when we die.

The Best Authorities,

Such as Dr. Dio Lewis, Prof. Gross, and others, agree that catarrh is not a local but a constitutional disease. It therefore requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which effectually and permanently cures catarrh. Thousands praise it.

Hood's Pills cure Liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all troubles of the digestive organs.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved

From letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Grotton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it was cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at J. R. Lemon's drugstore, regular size 50¢, and $1.00.

Briensburg, Ky. Rest for the old woman and peace to the children and chickens.

An old tree that had been looked upon with an eye of hatred has become a fruitful tree in the last fourteen days.

The top of the tree was sawed off and a steel trap put on it, and in the last fourteen days it has caught six owls, two hawks, two sap-suckers and two red-heads. 'Tis a pretty good and we want some one, if possible, to make a better showing than this and report it to the Tribune.

Very respectfully, JOHN FOUST, C. T. STEPHENS.

We hope there is no such thing as the people of Ky., opposing a liberal or at least a reasonable, appropriation to the World's Fair. No spirit but a spirit of cowardly demagoguism, can oppose an exhibit on that occasion.
