Dyspepsia

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1871 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 160 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

BENTON, KY., DECEMBER 3.

The Southern Journal, a temperance paper, published at Louisville, Ky., is the ablest and best edited paper in the state. It is the official organ of I. O. G. T. and deserving of the patronage of all good people.

BUD DALE.

Bud Dale, the original owner, proprietor and publisher of the "Dale House," of Paducah, was in town Tuesday, mixing among the boys. He was in company with W. W. Holland and R. H. Frizzell.

Mr. Dale is a great third party man, and by the way, he is the chairman of the congressional committee.

He is against Mr. Stone for congress, and says he thinks he will be elected next year, but he is not to say whether by a democrat or a third party man. There is but one way by which Stone can be laid on the shelf, and that is by the nominee of the democratic party.

Mr. Dale looks well, and is doing a prosperous hotel business in the city.

Norton Ford.

Norton Ford, a dashing young widower, who resides about one mile west of town, had a sad misfortune to befall him the other day.

He owns a nice gang of turkeys, but they have occasionally been annoyed by a wild gopher, that paid occasional visits to them. He seemed to exert a bad influence on the plump home turkeys, and Mr. Ford concluded to stop the interference, by killing the intruder.

So he loaded his shot gun and made a slow advance to the grounds where the turkeys were enjoying themselves, hoping to separate the wild one from the tame ones, so he could take the life of the wild gopher.

As he advanced the wild one moved away until he had gotten, as Norton thought, a proper distance from the tame ones when he took down his gun, and after taking deliberate aim, bang! went the gun, and down fell the wild gopher and two of his tame ones—three at one shot.

When Norton saw two of his favorite turkeys dead, he turned away with bitter tears in his eyes.

An Alliance Store.

W. W. Holland, state agent of the Farmers and Laborers Union, was in town Tuesday to meet Mr. R. H. Frizzell of Fair Dealing. Mr. Frizzell came over to meet Mr. Holland, for the purpose of further arranging the necessary details to begin an Alliance store at Fair Dealing.

The old store house at that place is being made longer, and otherwise repaired in order to receive a $5,000 stock of goods, which will soon be opened up, under the auspices of the state and county unions.

Mr. Frizzell is the county agent and will have charge of the store from the time it is opened. The union may see proper to change.

We are not advised.

manner in which business will be conducted; nor do we know upon what basis of per cent the goods will be sold. They will be furnished by the National Supply Co., a big combine with a large capital—to be sold to the people at low prices. They contemplate a medium of exchange, that is, to exchange goods for the products of the country, thereby saving a per cent profit, that now goes into the pockets of the middlemen.

We can see the object in establishing the store on one side of the county, when it could have been established at a more convenient place for the people.

Mr. Frizzell is a nice young man and as honest as the days are long, and we can now bespeak for him honorable dealing at Fair Dealing.

Organize a Debating Society

It is a custom in all towns and cities for the teachers and young men to organize a debating society. There is no place where the young need such a society, worse than they do here.

Nearly all the great self-made men of our country, became inspired, first, at the school boys' debating society. The histories of such statesmen as Patrick Henry, Henry Clay, John Randolph, Thos. Jefferson and hundreds of others, whose names have been written high up on the ladder of fame, show the great value of the country debating societies.

They improve old as well as young men, in many respects, and in many instances they are the foundation of future greatness.

The nights are long and the opportunities great for our young men to improve themselves in all kinds of history and literature.

It is really the duty of all teachers to assist in organizing such societies, and aid the young men in the proper advancement in both literature and elocution.

We have many bright young men, who spend these long nights in idleness, that with the proper encouragement, might begin a work, in an ordinary debating society, that would end in high positions at the bar and in the pulpit.

These societies cause study in history and an improvement in speaking. We hope to see such a move here among our literary young men.

The lower room in the new addition to the seminary is an excellent place and now is the time to begin, as the long nights are now on hand and every body in good health and well prepared to do a good winter's work.

Organize and stick to it and it will do you good.

A Separation.

Mr. J. C. Hicks and wife separated from each other last Tuesday morning. They had only been married a few months, but had gotten along together in perfect harmony during that time. She was a Miss Martha McMannas, and was living in Mayfield when the nuptial knot was tied. She was living at the time of her marriage with her mother and two sisters. When Mr. Hicks and his wife came home from Mayfield her mother came with them and has been with them ever since. From some cause she was not well pleased with her son-in-law, and encouraged her daughter to leave her husband.

Mr. Hicks insisted that he loved his wife, but they could not live in perfect love, while in the same house with his mother-in-law, so when the old lady decided to move out, Mrs. Hicks said to her husband, that she was not happy, and was not pleased with the beauties and pleasures of a married life and would therefore leave him. So they all gathered up their effects and left Mr. Hicks one time more alone in the world.

After he discovered his situation, he looked about and then moved to the hotel where he is now stopping. Mr. Hicks is a nice young man, and his wife is a lady in all respects, but their unhappiness came about by suffering the mother-in-law to come between them.

They both have the sympathy of the Tribune, and its sincere wish is, that they may kiss and make up, and live happy together.

To much mother-in-law, causes trouble and sorrow.

BENTON, KY., DECEMBER 3.

A rich coal vein has been found at White Plains, in Hopkins county, only 55 feet under ground. It promises to be one of the richest.

The grand jury in Calloway county, only returned into court eleven indictments. This is pretty good for Calloway, or any other county. We are glad that the people of our neighboring county are doing so well as law abiding citizens.

A republican paper is soon to be started in Paducah on the usual basis we presume, to grow up like a mushroom in the night and melt away with the morning sun. The republicans of that city of course can't agree to support one, but will of necessity require at least two in order to represent the republicans.

While in Paducah the other day we were irresistibly drawn into the News office, but why, we did not know until we were startled by the splendor and magnificence of everything in it. The new home of that newsy and spicy paper, is a beauty and joy forever to its owners and employees. Every one connected with the office, and in any way interested in its welfare seemed to be joyous and happy. We have known the News from the day it was born, and during its childhood, knew it was a promising lad, that the day would come, when it would be prosperous and useful, and now we are happy, to note that we have not been disappointed in the least. In a business point it is a success, after years of incessant toil and labor by its owners and supporters, as a News Journal it is not surpassed by many papers which make pretensions of a metropolitan character. Paducah has two excellent news papers of which the entire public are justly proud. Both the News and the Standard, are in new quarters, and are elegantly fitted to do a great business, which with the growing and flattering prospects of their city, they cannot fail to do. They are both owned and controlled by working men, who believe that honest toil is necessary to earn an honest dollar, and with such an array of talent and muscle, success can but crown their efforts. Long may the banner of prosperity, wave from the temples of these two great papers.

Save Your Timber.

This part of Kentucky, has for many years been noted for its heavy timber. For the past twenty years, thousands of feet of timber have been destroyed and wasted along Clark's river. This was done in the absence of no transportation facilities, but now there is a way to the timber, and as a matter of fact the timber is more valuable owner of such timber, should carefully and save their timber prices are at the high-

OHIO'S VOTE.

The Official Figures of the Buckeye State Election.

Columbus, O., Nov. 23.—The official vote of the state was completed to-day by the secretary of state. The vote on governor is as follows: McKinley (rep.), 386,739; Campbell (dem.), 365,228; Aspinhurst (prob.), 20,190; Seitz (people party), 23,482. McKinley's plurality is 21,511. The remainder of the republican ticket is elected by pluralities ranging from 27,061 to 29,422.

FARM MORTGAGES

Liens on Kansas Land, Recorded and Released Shows Reduction.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 23.—An official report of the mortgages recorded and released in filing of the eastern counties of Kansas shows a reduction of $302,407 indebtedness during October. For five months the net reduction of farm mortgage indebtedness in Eastern and Central Kansas was $2,300,000. The excess of releases on farm property, as shown by the report, is proportionately greater than on town property. In Eastern Kansas the per cent of releases is 8 per cent over new mortgages recorded on city mortgages, and 56 per cent in Central Kansas. The excess of farm mortgages released in Eastern Kansas is 7 per cent and in Central Kansas 25 per cent. The total excess of farm mortgages released in fifty counties in Eastern and Central Kansas is 20 per cent.

Covered Bridges.

The county judge and county attorney, should at the next term of Marshall county court of claims, call the attention of the magistrates to the fact, that all bridges of any size, that are to be built, should be covered. It is economy that this should be done. It is high time, that the tax payers of the county should demand of the court of claims, a better class of work, on a better basis of economy. The class of bridge work heretofore, has been of a trifling character, and our court should begin to look after a halt in this respect. The bridges in this county are very expensive, and cost the people lots of money, and their public servants, should now begin a rigid rule of reform, and do no work, except of the best character. A bridge covered will last it is, said four times as long as one exposed to the sun and rain. The bridges that are built of green timber, do not last many years and we think that our county court should exercise the discretion in building bridges for the public, out of the public money, as it would to build a house for private use. Until this is done the tax-payers of this county will always be burdened with a high rate of taxation. The policy that should guide our county courts, should tend to a lower rate of taxation, and a better quality of public work. The people should ask that the bridges be covered.

Prevention is Better

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. For this purpose Hood's Sarsaparilla is used by thousands with great success. It is the best blood purifier.

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver.

If you have any of these feelings, begin at once to use Dr. Hale's Household Tea. It will give you a clear complexion, will restore you to health and strength and will make you feel like a new person. Get it to-day at J. R. Lemon's.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE, with its varied and excellent contents, is a library in itself.

It was indeed a happy thought to print an entire novel in each number.

Not a short novelette, but a long story such as you are used to get in book form and pay from one dollar to one dollar and a half for.

Not only that, but with each number you get an abundance of other contributions, which gives you a good magazine besides the novel.

The rising stars which have been struck on the gateway of popular favor, have resounded throughout the entire land, and to day Lippincott's Magazine stands in the front rank of weekly publications, and is the most widely read and talked-of publication of its kind in the world.

Rev. J. V. Fly, a well-known Methodist minister, died last Saturday and was buried Sunday in Paducah. His mind became wrong while on his way from the M. E. annual conference, from which he never recovered. He was a member of the K. of H. and was buried with all the honors of the Order and the church of which he was a member. He was well-known in this county and his many friends will greatly regret his strange and sudden demise.

A medicine to meet the public favor must necessarily have merits. Lightning Hot Drops has been before the people for several years and has grown in demand each year. Mr. J. L. Goodwin, of S. C., says: "I have been selling patent medicine for a long time, and have handled nearly all kinds, but have never found any remedies to equal the Lightning medicines. Lightning Hot Drops is wonderful, and has no equal." All druggists sell it and want you to try it just once to see. 25¢ and 50¢ bottles. Guaranteed to relieve or money refunded.

Christmas with all of its good, as well as its bad results, is now upon us. Some will enjoy it, others will rue it. Some will do good, while others will do bad. Some will sorrow, while others will rejoice. Some will drink water, while others will drink egg-nog and Tom & Jerry. Some will be sober and others drunk and so it goes. Some will appreciate the day, while others will not. Some of the rich folks, will remember and assist the poor, in the way of some nice presents, while others will let them suffer. To-morrow will be a day that everybody should be in a good humor; and for one time in life feel kindly toward his fellow-man. Let us remember each other in a spirit of neighborly kindness, and assist the poor and do good to ward our friends and enemies and feel at peace with all mankind at least for one day. Try it and it will do you good.

A Woman's Hate.

[From the wasp.]

"I hate you, I hate you!" the maiden said,
And her eyelids dropped and her face grew red;
And she turned from her lover and hung her head.

The flush crept to her rich brown hair,
And she plucked to pieces a rosebud fair,
As she stole a glance at her lover there.

And he, these men are so full of guile;
His eyes a glistening with mirth the while,
Looked calmly on, with a doubtful smile.

"I hate you I hate you!" she said again,
And she tapped her toe on the carpet then,
As if each tap were a stab at him.

Her lips a quiver, her eyes in mist,
Her cheek and throat, as the sun gods kissed,
Were bathed in the essence of amethyst.

And then her love, with a startled look,
Grew serious quite, and his face forsook
The confident glow which it erst while took.

And "Oh very well," as he rose to go,
"And if it please you to have it so
Why, so it shall be, as you doubtless know."

He took one step, but sudden turned
Oh, much the sweetest is bliss unearned:
And looked in the tear-wet eyes that yearned.

No word she spoke, but her arm entwined
Around his neck. Oh a woman's mind
Is a puzzle, to which no key you'll find.

Upon his shoulder she laid her head
And he kissed her cheek, which was still rose-red;
"You know I hate you," was all she said.

BUD ANDERSON.

Sentence Passed on Bud Anderson,

And the Time Fixed For His Execution,

MARCH 11, 1892.

The readers of the Tribune, will remember the memorable trial, at the last June term of the Marshall Circuit Court, in which Bud Anderson, his wife and Lacy Roberts, were tried for the murder of Peter McCain, and that the jury found Bud Anderson guilty of murder and fixed his punishment at death, and also found Lacy Roberts guilty and fixed his punishment at hard labor in the state penitentiary for life, and acquitted Mrs. Anderson.

These facts are all familiar to everybody.

A motion was made then for a new trial, which has been pending ever since, until it was called this court.

The motion for a new trial was ably argued by James Campbell, one of the attorneys for the defense, but Mr. Reed another attorney for the defense was sick and could not argue the motion. Mr. Crossland, attorney for the Commonwealth, refused to argue the case, but submitted it to the court.

After mature deliberation, the court over-ruled the motion for a new trial, and at once proceeded to pass judgment on both Anderson and Roberts.

After the usual questions in such cases, the court passed judgment on Lacy Roberts, instructing the sheriff to carry him to state prison, there where he should be confined to hard labor for life.

The judge then passed sentence on Bud Anderson, in the usual way fixing March the 11th 1892, as the day, for him to be hanged until he was dead, after which an appeal to the court of appeals, was asked by Anderson and Robert's Counsel, which was granted by the court.

Judgment was then suspended, by the judge, for sixty days, in so far as it applied to Roberts, giving his attorneys time to take the appeal.

Thus it will be seen another important step has been taken, and that the prisoners are nearer their doom than ever before.

It is hardly probable, that a new trial will be given them, by the higher court, in which event, it will only be a short time, before Lacy Roberts, will be sent to the state prison, where he will spend the balance of his natural life at hard labor, and that Bud Anderson will pay the penalty of his crime, in giving up his life, by being hung.

Unless a new trial is given him, and a different verdict returned by another jury, his stay on earth is growing short.

The 11th of March will soon arrive and the time in this case will appear exceedingly short.

The judgment of the court was a sad one, but Judge Randle delivered it from a conscientious conviction of his duty under the law.

Not over fifty persons will be allowed to be present at the hanging, which is in accordance to the requirement of a recent law.

H. C. DODD.

It has been about four years since Mr. Dodd was in town. When he came in last week he was very much surprised to see what a change had taken place here since he left.

He found the old court house and clerk's office torn down and magnificent new court house in their places. The old hotel was gone and a new block of beautiful two-story bricks in its place. The corn field between here and F. M. Pool's is now North Benton, with a rail road, a stove factory, a new depot, and about fifty new houses.

This is certainly a wonderful change for a country town like this.

He was also surprised to notice the increase in business.

He has been living in Missouri for three years and is now on his way to Union county, Ky., where he will spend the winter.

He is now getting old and gray and his hearing is failing him.

He is a man that was once prominent in this county, but for many years has been a wanderer in different parts of the country, teaching most of the time, but for all of his troubles and misfortunes he has not the time been an honorable man.

He has two boys living, both of whom are promising young fellows and live here with their mother.

Prof. Dodd was raised by a parent an given a fine education. He left Thursday for Memphis to visit his sister a few days.
