Emergency Drive For Polio Funds Is Underway In County And Nation

INCREASE IN NUMBER OF PATIENTS IN THIS STATE HAS EXHAUSTED KENTUCKY'S FUNDS

This is an emergency. The heading on hundreds of letters going out to Marshall County this week by the Benton Rotary Club is "Polio is an emergency." The letters are asking for help in the emergency drive for more funds to combat polio and care for the victims who have contracted this disease this year.

According to the information received in this letter, the present rate of expenditure for the care of polio patients will be five months before the state will have enough money to pay for the care of the victims. It also points out that the state will have to pay for the care of the victims for the entire year. The state will have to pay for the care of the victims for the entire year. The state will have to pay for the care of the victims for the entire year.

Calendar set: Fishing no good balance of this and next week. Fish and whale tales are again scarce. They just don't seem to want to bite.

A few "hearsay" tales have been going around that so and so caught a few strippers on the side of river below dam.

Mrs. Tom R. Jones, who is an ardent follower of winton, reports landing a big 12 inch crappie Saturday while fishing near the dam. A few days prior to Saturday Mrs. Jones landed the limit. Mrs. Jones has been doing a lot of fishing this year and has had unusually good luck.

The Hot Store League is due to go into session here long, so send in reports of that big one that DID NOT get away. It will be the tale of the winter.

Benton's much cursed and discussed parking meters have arrived, according to a city official, and it is believed the meters will be installed within the next week or two.

The meters are being installed to raise revenue for the city.

Sharpe Veterans Farm Training Class Has Field Day September 12, On Lindsey Farm

YOU MAY BE THE NEXT ONE THAT NEEDS HELP!

This week in Marshall County and throughout the entire nation, local Polio Campaign organizations are making a frantic effort to raise funds to help fill the coffers of a practically depleted Polio fund. A fund which helps each and every child that is stricken with the dreaded disease.

In this county one child suffers the bulbar type polio -- she is in an iron lung, battling bravely for her life. In other counties in Kentucky there are many more young citizens doing the same thing. They need help and they need it badly. Not later, not tomorrow, but TODAY!

The Benton Rotary Club and Holland Rose, chairman of the Polio Campaign in this county, have sent out this week, 3,000 letters appealing for your help. Along with these letters are return addressed envelopes, enclosed for your convenience. When you receive this literature, don't throw it away -- place any amount of money you feel you can afford in this envelope and return it at once.

We hope none of us ever need the help of the Polio Foundation, but if we do -- we sincerely hope all of us will feel we have done our part in this great humanitarian project.

Don't Delay -- Mail Your Personal Help Today. Just a Dime -- Just A Dollar -- Will go a long way.

Twenty Acres Of Permanent Pasture Is Sown On Field Day

Twenty acres of permanent pasture was sown September 12, 1949 on the farm of Leland Lindsey, Calvert City, Rt. 1.

The land was limed and fertilized, seeded prepared, and seedling done in one day. All the work was done on the contour and was part of a complete soil and water conservation farm plan.

This was one of five days to be held by the Sharpe classes this fall and next spring. The classes have been divided into small community groups of eight to ten farmers. Each group selected one farm on which to hold a field day.

William Edwards in Graves County will be the next farmer to get this group work on September 15 and following this will be J. D. Bradley on the Lowell Bradley farm at Palma September 20.

The purpose of these small community group workings is to teach the veteran farmers how to establish good farming practices by using the equipment available on the farm.

It is hoped that other farmers in communities and neighborhoods will see that they too can work together on soil and far improvement.

Equipment for the Lindsey Field Day was furnished by the Martin Ford Farm Equipment Dealer in Benton and the veterans in the group. Dinner on the grounds was furnished by the Banks in this county. Soil Conservation Service technicians working through the Marshall County Soil Conservation District assisted the farmer in laying out the contour lines.

Observations

(Ye Old Koder)
A news item in a large daily appeared soon after the semi-annual Bank statements were made on June 30, and it stated that total deposits in state banks had dropped off 11 million dollars over the previous year.

Where is this money going and where will most of it stay? Of course money isn't everything, but it is a big part of our economic life. Once it drifts into the big money centers it will take more than a crowbar to pry it loose.

It isn't hard to find where a lot of that 11 million dollars went to. And, regardless, Kentucky depositors are short that much over a period of one year. A few more slices like that and our state banks will be back to the 1931-32 level.

If Kentucky Bank deposits continue losing 11 million each year in deposits, it won't take many years for our money wealth to be transferred wherever it is going and a drop in bank accounts also means a drop in property and other wealth. It might do all of us some financial good to stop and figure out just where we are headed.

Taxation grows each year and there's not much information being given out as to what the total indebtedness of each of us may be. Our town obligations are heavy; our county debts are big enough, and our national debt continues to soar. There will be a day of reckoning. If our money has flown away to other parts and our taxes continue to rise, all of us may be living in trailers or tents before it is over.

A radio commentator says our national debt runs around two billion each month—24 billion a year, and brother that ain't hay. It will have to come out of your cornfield whether you believe it or not. England's socialist government is now seeking some way out of a crisis. They have come across the Atlantic asking for a loan. It looks now like we will have to "divvy up" and hold the bag again.

It sometimes appears that we are playing money godfather to the whole world. In England it is said that 40 cents out of every dollar income goes to the government, and still the heads of government cannot make ends meet. I know what an individual does when he has men who cannot produce—there is a change. If one heads of government are bad managers, it makes a fellow wonder why they don't step out and let someone else try to govern.

The British empire is not the only place where men are hired for public work that have failed to make a success in other lines of work. Our town, our county, state and in our national capitol we have many who have failed to be a success for themselves, yet we place them in the toughest jobs. We have—that of running our governments. We have all kinds of men who have failed in business, farming, and other professions, who are now going about the business of telling others how to be successful.

Our colleges are partially responsible for a part of this. We have been led to believe that if a college graduate said so and so, it must be true. They come out with a diploma, a degree in "book larnin'" and no practical experience and begin to advise the most successful business men on how to run a business on his own hand earned money. Is it any wonder our debts increase and our governments face financial bankruptcy?

Each week thousands of pieces of literature go out from these sheepskin specialists and each week our various governments go deeper in the red. These splurgers of other peoples' money ought to see what type of managers they are and get out of the way, but instead they begin to look for another loan to tide them over for another day. We have these brain trusters all around us. Their teen-age experience is wonderful and it makes one wonder how we got along without them and their ever increasing debts.

It is the brawn of youth that is needed to work out of our trouble—not their advice on how to go deeper and deeper in debt. It isn't unusual these days, in fact it is a growing and common thing for these freshets or brain busters to speak right out and tell the head of a railroad how to run the business, and usually, if heeded, it comes out in the wrong end of the horn. But, if they hang on until the borrowing spree reaches the end.

There's an unmistakable stamp of distinction about the new Pontiac. It's a beauty from the front and from the rear! on the highway, or silhouetted at the curb—you know among automobiles.

"Sure, you can ride... but you'll have to buy a rail first!"

You'd be mad as a hornet—and rightfully—if a railroad demanded that in addition to your ticket, you had to buy a section of rail for its steel highway. Fortunately railroads don't ask you to pay for their roadway... but unfortunately, other forms of commercial transportation do!

Your tax dollars go to support and maintain airway, highway and waterway transportation, which compete with the railroads. We don't think it's fair to ask you to dig in your pocket for tax money to help us buy rail and other materials, or to pay wages of employees who build and maintain our roadway. If other forms of commercial transportation felt the same way, your tax dollar and ours wouldn't have to go toward helping them maintain and run their business. You would have more money to spend on yourself and everybody would be better off.

Polio Foundation Asks Dimes and Dollars Now to Pay for Patient Care in Epidemic Infantile Paralysis Throughout Country

With thousands of children and adults in hospitals today as the result of current widespread polio epidemics, and with many new cases likely to develop in the months just ahead, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has launched a Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive to provide immediate funds for patient care.

The price-tag on this year's epidemic will be so enormous, according to Basil O'Connor, National Foundation President, that $14,500,000 must be raised to meet the national polio bill.

During 1948, when there were 27,908 cases in the country, the highest number since the record total in 1916, the National Foundation and its Chapters spent $17,000,000 in March of Dimes funds to provide epidemic services, he said. With even more cases this year, it looks as though it may cost $25,000,000 in 1949 to pay for that part of medical and hospital care which families cannot pay themselves.

By the end of August, as much money had been advanced in epidemic aid to National Foundation Chapters whose March of Dimes funds have been exhausted by the cost of care as was sent in all of 1948. The nation's total number of cases now is as large as a full year's toll in previous years, with predictions for at least double that number before December 31.

Furthermore, it is estimated that a minimum of $5,000,000 will be required to continue helping 1949 patients who still need clinic or hospital treatment. The National Foundation gives assistance as long as medical care is necessary, regardless of age, race, creed or color. The money raised in the Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive will be used exclusively for services to polio patients in all states, Mr. O'Connor said. Contributions may be mailed to POLIO, care of your local Post Office.

"This emergency drive is our only hope of providing care for patients without slowing up scientific research and professional education programs of the National Foundation," Mr. O'Connor explained. "It is an ironical fact that this heavy incidence of severely taxing March of Dimes resources, comes at a time when the nation's leading scientists are more hopeful of finding an answer to the problem than ever before.

"Scientists working under 68 March of Dimes grants at top medical and educational institutions are waging the largest research attack ever attempted against a single disease in this country, supported by March of Dimes funds. We must not interrupt the search for a solution because of lack of funds. We must—and we shall be able to do both jobs—help pay for the care of the stricken while finding a means of prevention or control—if the American people contribute now to carry the work through until the next March of Dimes in January."

Progress since 1938 when the National Foundation was formed, was indicated by Mr. O'Connor as follows: More than $23,500,000 has gone into a comprehensive research and education program, seeking control of polio and training of experts—virologists, orthopedists, pediatricians, public health physicians, nurses, physical therapists, and other medical workers who make up the professional army now battling the disease in laboratories and hospital wards.

At least $35,000,000 had gone for patient care prior to 1949, in payment of polio bills families could not meet themselves; in staffing and equipping polio centers for modern care and treatment, in establishing equipment depots in six strategic locations throughout the country from which respirators, hot pack machines, beds, cribs and other emergency supplies can be rapidly dispatched to hard-hit areas.

"We know now that fully 75% of those stricken make good recoveries if good treatment is available," Mr. O'Connor said. "Surely no one would deny a child a three-to-one chance for recovery because of lack of money."

Pennsalt's Calvert May Become One

The Pennsalt plant at Calvert City will be expanded as demand for flourine chemicals grows, the Wall Street Journal reported this week.

"Ultimately it may be one of the largest and most important in the company's string of plants," the story added.

The story said "The new plant, built at a cost of $2 million, is expected to be a substantial factor in the overall profit picture as fluorides are becoming better known to industry and their uses multiplied."

"The new fluorine chemical plant is located within 30 miles of the mines where the fluorine ore is mined. Previously the ore was transported from the Kentucky mines to the plant at Easton, Pa., for processing."
