Difficulties in Way of Construction of New Yard at Fulton Practically Ironed Out

We are informed that the work on the New Yards at Fulton will now very likely begin real soon. The work has been held up on account of some discussion about the location, and we are now informed that this matter has been practically decided upon. It is understood that the new yard will now probably be alongside the main line north of the coal chute, north of town, and will be a long and narrow yard, instead of a short and wide yard as was first contemplated. It was stated that this was due to the fact that with the large mountain type engines, the trains are so long, that short yards will not take care of them, and with the proposed yard, these trains will be able to pull their entire train in the yard without any possibility of blocking some other track, which will also avoid so much switching and delay to the high-class loading.

We do not know the exact plans, or the exact date that the work will begin, but understand from a reliable source that the equipment for the work has already begun to arrive.

Much has been said about the improvements in and around Fulton—that is, whether they would or would not be made. We are reliably informed that the improvements will be made, and that the only thing that has held the work up, has been a little difficulty in arriving at a suitable location for all demands, and that the matter has now been practically settled, with the exception of ironing out a few little kinks, and the work will begin.

City Election Tomorrow

GOOD MEN TO SELECT FROM

The city race for Mayor and Councilmen has been unusually quiet. Two good men are out for Mayor and nine for Councilmen. There should be no difficulty in making a selection quickly. In fact, most of the voters have made up their minds already. H. F. Taylor will be nominated for Police Judge without opposition, and so will Jess F. Nichols for City Attorney. Following is the ticket:

Democratic Primary Election Tomorrow

The 1925 campaign for county offices will go down in history as one of the hottest contests ever pulled off in Fulton county, featured with more barbecues, ice cream suppers and public speakings than ever known before. Most of the candidates have shaken hands with every voter in the county and often times wore a smile and pleasing countenance when almost choked with dust.

On the eve of the election if a man knew just who was the strongest man in the race for sheriff, he could clean up a stack of money by betting on the result.

From reports received from nearly every section comes the news that Goadler Johnson and Swaine Walker will get the big majority of votes in the lower end of the county while Thompson and Shupe will get the big majority of votes in the upper end of the county; Hales and Rankin will surprise the natives with their support, and who will be our next sheriff will not be known until the final count is made.

In the county clerk's race Edd B. Kelly is the only candidate from this end of the county with Guy Hale, Joe Roper and Miss Effie Bruer representing the lower end. A cleaner set of candidates never entered a county race. Each one has conducted his or her campaign in a most creditable manner and won the admiration of the voters.

Edd Kelly being the only candidate for county clerk from Fulton gives him an edge over the others if the voters stick by their home man, and they generally do. It is only occasionally that Fulton is given such an opportunity. Will the voters grasp it?

While Edd is the only candidate from this end of the county the voters of Fulton should not feel too safe in his election, because the others are making a strong bid for the vote, one of whom is a young lady who has made quite a hit with the women voters during the campaign.

But as it may, the candidate who beats Edd Kelly will be the next clerk.

The county attorney's race has been hotly contested between Adams, Roney, McNeill, Stembridge, and Finch. Adams and Finch are the Fulton candidates while McNeill, Stembridge and Roney represent Hickman. There are enough brilliant minds in this bunch of lawyers for the voters to make an easy selection. It is gently hinted, however, that the man who beats Lon Adams will be the next county attorney.

In the judge's race, Nugent and Ledwidge have presented their claims in a forceful manner. They have enlightened the voters with many things of which they were ignorant, and the people are better acquainted with county affairs today than ever before. Guy Ledwidge is a splendid young lawyer who has made many new friends and admirers during his campaign, but it is doubtful if he can cut Charlie Nugent's big vote down he received in the last election, sufficient to win.

In the representative's race, three good men have fought the battle for supremacy. Brown and Daniels of Hickman county and McMurry of Fulton county. Daniels is a young man just out of school and has made a good impression with the voters.

Probably the closest vote in the primary will be between Chas. L. Bondurant, and Chas. H. Moore for tax commissioner. Both are exceedingly popular and it is hard to predict the winner on the eve of the election.

All of the candidates are good citizens. We are not going to lose any sleep over the results. We are playing no favorites. We merely state the situation as it appears on the surface of the political arena and do not believe we are far wrong.

To the Voters of Fulton.

I have since myself a candidate for the office of mayor some weeks ago. I have endeavored to see every voter in the city personally as I felt that the people should know what I stood for, but as my time has been limited there may be some I have been unable to reach and I am forced to take this method of asking you to remember me when you cast your vote, and if you think me worthy to serve you with the six good men you select for councilmen, stamp in the little square opposite the name of W. O. Shankle, and I assure you that if I am elected, to do my best to make you a faithful official.

I certainly appreciate the encouragement the good men and women have given me during my brief campaign and want to say here, if it is in my power to lift some of the burdens of taxation off of your shoulders I will do it. I am the people's candidate and want to be of real service to you and do everything I can for Fulton. No selfish motive prompts me in seeking the office, but I feel that I can serve the good people with credit to myself and those who support me.

Respectfully,
W. O. SHANKLE.

Ordinance to Be Revoked

Jess F. Nichols to Be Our Next City Attorney

In announcing that the recent ordinance passed by the city council, making the office of city attorney appointive, would be revoked, the council did a wise thing, especially after a candidate had already announced for said office. Mr. Jess F. Nichols is the only candidate who thought enough of the office to make a bid for it, and will be elected without opposition. He is a lawyer of experience and will no doubt serve the people with credit to himself and the city of Fulton.

FULTON WATER WORKS

On our rounds this week we took occasion to visit the fountain head of our city water supply and found Supt. J. E. Rankin in charge. We had often visited the plant before, but this time we noticed many improvements in the machinery of the pumping station and the surrounding premises. Everything was clean and in perfect running order, and we could not resist complimenting Mr. Rankin and his assistants, E. R. Williams and E. P. Tull on the splendid services rendered the people, but Mr. Rankin quickly halted our flow of compliment and said it was Mr. Murrell, chairman of the City Water Works committee, and his associates L. S. Phillips and Enoch Browder that was responsible for the improvements and excellent service.

Some of the improvements made in recent years, is a new well with a capacity of 1400 gallons to the minute and the overhauling of the old well with a capacity of 1,200 gallons per minute. In the overhauling of the old well the tax payers saved at the lowest estimate 4,000. The city now has two good wells with a flow of as pure and fine water as can be found anywhere.

In 1923 the city put in 725 feet of new mains and in 1924, 1690 feet. In the past few years new, up-to-date fire plugs have been installed throughout the city with many other improvements too numerous to mention here. Of course the lot purchased across the street from the pumping station where the new well is located is now a valuable piece of city property with a frontage of 175 feet. On this property is a good dwelling and other buildings used for storage purposes, in which the street roller and other city machines are kept.

It is pleasing to note these improvements being made by the city which the people take little notice, notwithstanding the fact that it is for your comfort and benefit.

But if the tax payers want to see where their money goes, take enough time to look around a bit, examine the records, attend the council meetings, and you will find each councilman and the mayor spending your money as carefully as their own. The people of Fulton have been unusually fortunate in having their affairs attended to in a business like manner by a set of as capable business men as any city can produce. Few cities of this size can boast of a $15,000 fire equipment which is saving the people of this little city around $25,000 a year in fire insurance alone.

Don't talk about your city officials until you investigate their record—then you will be a booster instead of a knocker.

STATEMENT OF G. G. BARD

In making the race for the office of Mayor, I have attempted to see all voters; however, there are some I have not had the opportunity of meeting, yet I want to ask their support. Naturally it would be impossible to see all in so short a time.

I resolved in the beginning of my campaign for this office to make the race in a clean, gentlemanly manner, without criticism or malice, for I have the kindest feeling possible for all. I know that each and every person is merited by the standard of service he has given to the city and community in which he lives, and it would be useless for me to call attention to my activities in civic affairs, for every citizen of Fulton knows that I stand for a progressive, wide awake city. I have, for the last fifteen years, devoted much of my time and means for the upbuilding and betterment of Fulton. I have been reared here—this is my home town—and there is a sense of pride that runs through me as I watch its constant growth. You do not owe me one thing for the past. I have had in the making of this, one of the best towns in Western Kentucky. My efforts were nothing less than the duty that rests on the shoulders of every good citizen.

As secretary and president of the Chamber of Commerce, for four years, I received the greatest cooperation possible. You will recall that it was during this period that many improvements of a permanent nature were added to the city and community, and I am willing to go on record as to the part I had in all this work.

As most of you know, we are approaching the most critical time in the history of Fulton. We will remain to be a good town or we will go forward to the extent that we will be the pride little city of all Western Kentucky and Western Tennessee. As for me, I am willing to do my very best in an official way and as a citizen, to make it a place that we would all be proud of. I know that it will require a great deal of the time of the next administration, and I am fortunately situated in a business association so that I can give all the time that is necessary in the great movement for a larger and more prosperous town.

In this letter, I am taking the privilege of asking for your vote and support for mayor of Fulton. If elected, I promise to serve wholeheartedly, with equal consideration and service to all.

Yours, for a greater and more prosperous city,
GUS BARD.

$40,000 VOTED IN SEWER BONDS

The forty thousand dollar
sewer bond issue voted on July 25 by South Fulton, Tenn., just across the state line from this city, carried by a majority of two votes. The total number of votes cast was 176. This practically assures an entire sewerage system on both sides of the two cities, since Fulton voted a bond issue of $70,000 more than a year ago for this purpose, and have been awaiting the action of South Fulton people. The first test in South Fulton, when the issue was offered during last year, showed that the citizens did not favor the issuing of these bonds, for the proposal lost by a small majority. Not losing hope, the city council of South Fulton again passed the ordinance and again presented the issue to the people, with the above result.

CITY AFFAIRS

During the past few months
a great deal has been said about city affairs, especially by some who never attend the council meetings or take time to visit the clerk's office, and examine the records to get the true facts as to how the city business is conducted, notwithstanding that council meetings are open to the public and city records can be examined at any time.

It is the duty of every good citizen to take an interest in city affairs. Every taxpayer is a partner, and it is a big business. We elect men whom we think are capable of conducting this big business and it is just as easy to get on the right side of the ledger as on the wrong side.

Some years ago the city's financial conditions was apparently in bad shape. So had that prudent financiers did not want to recognize city warrants. But today every city warrant issued is cashed at its face value; old debts are being paid off and all obligations contracted promptly met.

In 1922 the total revenue collected from all sources by the city was $54,751.16, and the expenditures $44,420.95.

In 1923, the total collections
were $61,570.93, disbursements $57,396.56.

In 1924 the total collections
were $59,605.67, and disbursements $48,426.17.

No sane man can study the above figures and say that the present administration has failed in its performance of duty, especially after examining the records at the city clerk's office. And just here we want to say that the records of the city kept by Thomas H. Chapman is as clean and as perfect
as any we have ever examined.
Every item, it matters not how large or small, is recorded; every bill is O.K'd. by the proper authority before a voucher is given and all checks signed by the mayor.

In our judgment the city officials have used every precaution to protect the city's business affairs, and in our judgment the voters will make no mistake in re-electing W. P.
Murrell and L. S. Phillips on the council with four other good men and a mayor to serve with them.

We are not out election-
eering for any special candidates because all of them are good men, but after a close inspection of the splendid work done by Murrell and Phillips
during their terms as councilmen it would be indeed ungrateful not to give them an endorsement with an overwhelming majority and keep them at the top of the list which they have always adorned by our vote tomorrow.

er list as a regular subscriber.

E. A. HILLIARD RE-ELECTED

Director for This District of the Tobacco Association

Representatives of the various districts of the Dark Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, from the western end of Kentucky and Tennessee,
met last Monday in the Chamber of Commerce and re-elected E. A. Hilliard as director for this district, for the ensuing year.

A number of members spoke on the outlook for the coming year and told of plans for the association, and when the time for the election arrived, only one name was placed before the members, thus showing their entire approval of Mr.
Hilliard's work during the past year, and their hearty and enthusiastic support of his work
during that time.

MONDAY NIGHT'S FIRE

The friends of Mr. and Mrs.
T. J. Wild regret the misfortune they suffered Monday night when fire destroyed their home on Eddings street.

The origin of the fire is unknown as Mr. and Mrs. Wild were not at home. Only a few of the household goods were saved and the dwelling was completely destroyed.

GET READY FOR POULTRY SHOW

Now is the time to prepare your birds for the coming poultry show to be held August 25
to 29, at the Fulton County Fair. Go over your flock carefully and pick out your best birds and groom them carefullly, pay particular attention to the feet and shanks of all clean legged fowls, plucking out all stubs and feathers that may show on any part of the leg from the hock to toes. This is a disqualification and if the judge catches your bird with stubs or feathers it will be thrown out of all chances of winning.

Another disqualification that knocks out your bird is the presence of side sprigs on the comb. Look them over carefully.

After you have decided on the birds you wish to enter, examine the legs thoroughly for "scaly leg." This is the rough feature of the shank that is caused by the presence of a louse burrowing under the scales of the legs causing sore-ness and can be easily cured by the liberal application of common kerosene, repeating the dose in about five or six days and about a week before the show, wash them good with warm soap suds, grease them
good with carbolized vaseline, rubbing well into the legs with a soft cloth.

Fulton County Fair August 25 to 29.

"Meet Me at the Fulton County Fair, Fulton, Ky., August 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29," is the slogan with everybody
now. The fair this year promises to be unusually entertaining and educational. The superintendents of each department are working overtime to make the exhibits outclass all former efforts and the premium list this year will help materially to do this. Of course, the races will be a feature every day. Many of the best pacers and trotters are already booked and arriving on the grounds.

The Fulton Poultry Association is cooperating with the Fair Association to make the poultry show a glorious success
with a large list of added premiums.

Secretary R. H. Wade is making every effort to obtain the best free attractions to amuse
the crowds, and if Henry Ford's fleet of aeroplanes can be obtained, there will be something doing all the time. Everybody likes a free ride, either in the air or on the ground.

Make your arrangements
now to attend the Fulton County Fair, August 25 to 29.

ables one to call for an invalid

of morbidly curious on-lookers,
for the car so closely resembles

that it passes unnoticed.

It is the very latest and best;
hence we added it to our equip-

UNION CITY MEN HELD FOR BIG GEM THEFT

Jewelry Worth $15,000 Yielded by Cockrill, Malone

The Memphis Commercial Appeal says that B. M. Cockrill and Tom Malone, of Union City, Tenn., are being held in the city jail charged with the theft of about $15,000 worth of jewelry, from Cecil Moss, of Union City, on July 10. They were arrested yesterday by Sergeants Quianthy and Fox and Charles Roach, of the O'Haver Detective Agency.

The O'Haver Agency took the case shortly after the theft and a reward of $1,000 was offered for recovery of the jewels which, for the most part, were old family heirlooms. Charles Roach was sent to Union City to investigate and found that Cockrill, a neighbor, had been in the Moss home on the day of the robbery. Cockrill is said to have intimated that he knew something of the affair and told Roach that woman had gone to St. Louis to pawn the gems. Investigation was made there without results and then Cockrill, who had asked if he would get the reward if he could aid in the recovery, said he thought that he could redeem the jewels in Memphis and asked that he be given money for that purpose.

An agreement was made that Roach should bring $440 to Cockrill in the Claridge yesterday morning so that he could redeem the stolen property. Once there, Cockrill stated that he might be able to get them all and wanted to go alone. Detective Sergeants Quianthy and Fox were then called in and they arrested Cockrill and Malone who had come to Memphis with him. After much questioning all the jewelry was found hidden in a can of grease in the car in which Malone and Cockrill had come to Memphis.

Cockrill went to the Moss home, as other neighbors did, when the robbery was discovered. Cockrill told officers yesterday Malone had nothing to do with the robbery.

"OLD DOBBIN" REMAINS ON THE JOB

Now I know that "Lizzie" is not infallible, because last Monday I saw "Old Dobbin" carrying two small boys on his back, while draped more or less artistically about his neck was a new tire for the ubiquitous "Lizzie," still wrapped in its original spiral paper cover.

Now, while it may be a fact that "it will take you there and bring you back," still, gasoline, and tires are very necessary for "Lizzie's" proper functioning, and a great deal of dependence has to still be placed in "Man's best friend," now and then, in order to keep "Lizzie" up to the mark.

"Old Dobbin" still fills many uses, in spite of the automobile. Just imagine a small boy on the farm with no old, reliable saddle horse, on which he can jump, sans saddle or bridle, and bring the cows home, or run over to see "Bill" about going fishing "tomorrow," or Susie, having to wait till big sister can "doll up," and get "Lizzie" out to take her over to spend the afternoon with Kitty. No, Sir! Dobbin is still in the ring and likely to stay there for a long, long time.

A JAY WALKER.

GOOD MONEY CROP

The tomato shipping season closed at Greenfield Saturday, both packing sheds snatching down with that day's deliveries. Greenfield this year shipped 40 cars as against 12 cars last year. Sharon loaded out 9 cars, Martin 9, and our neighbor Bradford over in Gibson county, 9 cars. Weakley county sent out 58 cars that brought around $100,000 in cash to our growers. This a small showing for Weakley county to make, but when you consider that the drought cut the crop here at least 50 per cent—possibly 75 per cent, it isn't so bad. More people were interested in tomatoes this year than ever before and with a season favorable to the crop our car shipments would have been three or four times what they were. We look now for a real tomato crop here next year with shipments around 500 cars. There is no reason why this should not be. Our lands here are peculiarly adapted to tomatoes as few others are and we think an effort should be made to make this our principal crop, for as a money getter you can't beat it.—Greenfield Gazette.

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., Dean of the Evening School, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago)
(C. 1928, Western Newspaper Union)

Lesson for August 2

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

LESSON TEXT—James 1:19-27.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only."—James 1:22.
PRIMARY TOPIC—"Living and obeying."
JUNIOR TOPIC—"Be Ye Doers of the Word."
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—"Doers of the Word."
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—"Religion According to James."

The book of James was written to Jewish Christians, scattered abroad who were passing through sore trials and persecutions. The pre-eminent aim was to show these humble believers how to live in such trying times. James recognized the difficulties of Christian living resulting from the attitude of the unbelieving Jews, and knew also the added difficulties of pride, jealousy and cowardly compromises which might spring up within. He showed that all these must be met with the realities which inhere in the religion of Jesus Christ.

I. Receiving the Engrafted Word (vv. 19-21).

1. What is the Engrafted Word? "Engrafted" means implanted. In verse 18 he speaks of having been begotten by the Word. The figure is that of a planting of the seeds of truth. The Christian doctrines as contained in the Word, when quickened by the Holy Spirit result in regeneration. The divine method of regeneration is the preaching of God's word made living and active by the Holy Spirit.

2. How the Word Is Received (v. 19).

(1) "Be swift to hear." This means to be ready and eager to use every opportunity to get acquainted with God's word.

Obedience to this injunction will make one diligent in the reading of the Bible, and in attendance at the church services where the Word of God is being taught.

(2) "Slow to speak." From what follows we infer that this refers to religious controversies. It means that whether in the places of worship or in whatever circumstances, we should give respect and thoughtful attention to what our Christian brethren are saying.

(3) "Slow to wrath." Heated discussions sometimes develop in our congregations, when we gather to consider the doctrines of God's word. Sometimes one may even fancy that anger is justifiable. In such cases we should remember the injunction, be slow to wrath.

3. The Reason for Receiving the Word (vv. 20-21).

"The wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God." Angry debating among Christians never helped to make known God's righteousness. Man's anger springs out of the fountain of his depravity. Therefore its expression can only have a blighting effect upon those who listen, and even upon the speaker in its reaction upon him.

II. Coming Into Self-Knowledge (vv. 22-25).

Receiving the engrafted Word through swiftiness to hear, and obeying its holy precepts will result in that experimental knowledge of one's self which brings true blessings. By "doers of the Word," is meant those who make obedience their habitual attitude.

The truths of God's word will permeate their very life and be expressed in everything they do and say. Those who hear and do not obey are self-deceived. Those who go through the form of religion without coming under its power are likened to men who gaze into the mirror but doing the natural face, and then go away and forget how they look.

III. Pure Religion (vv. 26-27).

This means that those who have become doers of the Word will in their outer lives manifest the following traits:

1. Bridling the Tongue (v. 26).

This means that they will speak with discretion. God gave man two ears and but one tongue. The ears are exposed, but the tongue is veiled in by the teeth. Just as the tongue reveals the condition of the physical system, so the use of the tongue reveals the religious condition.

2. Sympathizing With and Helping Those in Need (v. 27).

The widow and orphan are the symbols of helplessness and need. Those who have true piety will visit such and render the necessary aid.

3. Keeping Himself Unspotted From the World (v. 27).

The one who has the true life will separate himself from the world.

SUPER-TITE Asphalt Shingles give every advantage of other roof coverings—plus two distinctive features combined in the same shingle.

They give double and triple thickness over the entire roof area—with the addition of a LOCK-BUTT to prevent curling or blowing up.

When laid, there is no part of a Super-Tite roof which has less than double thickness coverage—and—over 48 per cent of the roof area is triple thickness. This greater coverage, with the LOCK-BUTT feature, makes a roof covering which defies sun, rain, snow, wind or sleet. Super-Tite Shingles cannot curl up—blow up—nor can they warp.

A High
Easy Lift—

A Marked Improvement in Mowers

You who have used the ordinary mowing machine will truly appreciate the high, easy lift on the John Deere. It is so easy to operate that any boy old enough to drive a team can run the John Deere and do it just as easily and as thoroughly as you can.

John Deere High-Lift Mower

With the foot lift the bar is quickly and easily raised from 25 to 35 inches at the outer end. And with the foot lift and hand lift combined the bar is raised 44 inches. Ordinary or unusual obstructions are easily cleared.

A great feature, particularly in rough uneven fields or on roadsides, is the great flexibility of the cutter bar. It hugs the ground and operates perfectly with the outer end several inches above or below the inner end.

You will find the John Deere a powerful cutter. Here's why—one set of drive gears offsets the thrust of the other pair. This prevents binding and undue wear. Maximum power is delivered to the knife—and because of the special arrangement of the gears, pitman end thrust is entirely overcome.

With an ordinary wrench you can take out all lag in the cutter bar after wear develops or re-center the knife right out in the field if necessary. You can keep the John Deere in good order for many years at mighty little cost.

Before you buy a mower we want you to see the John Deere. You want a good machine. We think we have the best. Give us a chance to show you.

WM. J. BRYAN DIES IN DAYTON, TENN.

APOPLEXY LAYS THE FAMOUS
LEADER LOW.

MAY REST IN ARLINGTON

Was an Outstanding Figure in His Country; Had Prepared to Wage His Fight for Fundamentalism in Religion.

Dayton, Tenn. — William Jennings Bryan, three times presidential nominee of the Democratic party, and known the world over for his eloquence, died here.

The end came while the great commoner was asleep and was attributed by physicians to apoplexy. He had retired to his room shortly after eating a large dinner to take a short rest. Mrs. Bryan sent the family chauffeur, Jim McCartney, to wake him about 4:30 and it was learned then that he was dead.

Dr. W. F. Thomason and Dr. A. C. Broyles, who examined the body, expressed the opinion that Mr. Bryan had been dead between 30 and 45 minutes before he arrived.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed but Mrs. Bryan indicated that the funeral would be in Arlington Cemetery. Mr. Bryan, who was a colonel of the Third Nebraska Volunteers during the Spanish-American War, on several occasions had expressed a desire to be buried in Arlington.

Mr. Bryan's death came on the eve of another crusade he had planned to carry before the American people—a battle against modernism. He returned to Dayton this morning after having made addresses at Jasper and Winchester, Tenn., and after having completed arrangements for the early publication of the speech he was to have made in closing the trial of John F. Scopes, who recently was found guilty of violating Tennessee's anti-evolution law.

Despite the strenuous program Mr. Bryan had been following as a member of the prosecution staff in the Scopes case and as a leader of the fundamentalists, he appeared in excellent health.

Shortly before Mr. Bryan entered his room to rest he told his wife he had never felt better in his life and was ready to go before the country and wage his fight in behalf of fundamentalism.

About 4:30 o'clock, Mrs. Bryan said she felt her husband had slept long enough, so she sent the chauffeur, who was also his personal attendant, to wake him. McCartney shook Mr. Bryan twice before he noticed the latter was not breathing. The physicians and A. B. Andrews, a neighbor, then were summoned hurriedly.

"I am happy that my husband died without suffering and in peace," she said.

"You know he was a colonel in the Spanish-American War and since it was his wish to rest in Arlington, we probably will place him there," she continued. "But no definite decision will be reached until we hear from William Jennings Bryan, Jr."

Sue K. Hicks, who was associated with Mr. Bryan in the recent trial, and Mr. Andrews, remarked upon Mrs. Bryan's courage, as she took charge of arrangements.

"During all the excitement, Mrs. Bryan was the calmest person in the house," Mr. Andrews said. "She took complete charge of affairs and showed more nerve than I have ever seen in a woman—and she is an invalid, too."

George W. Rappelyea, who instituted charges against Scopes in order that the anti-evolution law might be tested, was among those who called to express sympathy to Mrs. Bryan. Hundreds of telegrams and long distance calls of love and sympathy were received at the home.

As for Dayton, it found it almost impossible to realize that the Commoner was dead. During the morning many of the citizens had seen him at the Southern Methodist Episcopal Church and had heard him lead in prayer. He appeared in excellent health and his friends expected him to place in his battle against modernism all the vigor and eloquence which marked all his campaigns since the famous "cross of gold" speech.

SHAKE-UP AGAIN IS SIDETRACKED

CAUSE FOR DELAY IS VEILED IN SOME DOUBT

SARGENT SEES ANDREWS

Rumors of Victory for Politicians and of Wholesale Prosecutions of Dry Officials Follow Announcement of Delay.

Washington.—A conference held between Attorney General Sargent and Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, chief of the prohibition forces, led to the rumor that a wholesale prosecution of prohibition officials is impending.

Announcement that the reorganization of the dry forces scheme has been "indefinitely postponed" was also regarded as evidence that the politicians, who had protested against limiting the dry jobs, had won their fight at least temporarily, in spite of the announcement from Swampscott that the president was "backing Gen. Andrews."

Coming on the heels of reports from Chicago to the effect that the state director of Illinois and several others were facing indictment and simultaneously with a broadside of charges, launched by Representative John Philip Hill (Republican, Maryland), the Sargent-Andrews conference was looked upon as highly significant. Mr. Hill charged that the entire reorganization plan being worked out by the Treasury Department for the prohibition forces was an effort to "clean house" in time to forestall a national scandal.

"To prevent public attention from being focused on a wholesale discharge of agents," he said, "this cunning strategy has been decided upon."

But at the end of the Sargent-Andrews conference it was stated that the subject discussed was merely "closer co-operation of effort," between the Department of Justice and the treasury in prohibition matters. "Whether this meant that the Department of Justice plans to push prohibition cases more vigorously or go after erring prohibition agents with renewed zeal, it was not disclosed. Consideration was given, however, to the reports received by the attorney general from 40 district attorneys throughout the country, in which various charges of inefficiency, extortion and misfeasance were disclosed as pending against a large percentage of prohibition officers, both state and federal. This list will be checked over by Gen. Andrews in the reorganization work."

The reorganization which was to have been made effective gradually, beginning August 1, has been indefinitely postponed "in order that Mr. Andrews may comb the nation for men of the calibre he wants and to permit the working out of countless administrative details necessary to the new programme," it was said.

In announcing the decision to delay the operative date of the Clarence Mr. Andrews declared that he felt more optimistic regarding its probable success than at any time since taking the job as prohibition field marshal. There will be no lagging in pushing the task, he asserted, although more time is available than had been anticipated at the start.

FARMERS POORLY PAID
FOR LAST YEAR'S CROP
But Receive One Per Cent More Than
in 1923

Washington.—Farmers failed to earn a fair return on the capital invested and a fair wage last year, although they fared better financially than in the preceding year, the Department of Agriculture declared today in an analysis of the agricultural balance sheet.

On the total capital invested in agriculture, the return for the year was estimated at 14.6 per cent compared with 3.5 the year before. In round figures the net income for the 1924-25 season, the department said, was $2,712,000, compared with 1,992,000 for 1923-24.

This sum, however, did not go entirely to farmers as they own only 79 per cent of the total capital and pay interest on the balance. The return on the farmers' unencumbered capital for the year was estimated at 4.1 per cent compared with 2.5 per cent the preceding year, although they had to pay an interest rate on borrowed capital of 6.4 last year compared with 6.6 per cent the year before.

mediately caught on fire, and for several hours the flames were so high and the fire so hot, that workmen could not get close enough to do anything. Finally, the city of Dyersburg sent a fire engine, and the fire was soon under control and the tracks cleared. In the meantime all trains were derailed over L. & N., to Milan, and then on I. C. to Fulton. It is estimated that the damage will amount to between $65,000 and $80,000. The derailment was caused by a broken truck journal under one of the cars. It was stated that practically all of the damage was done by fire, and that the contents, or practically all of it could have been saved, had it not been for the fire.

Occasional washing with hot, soapy water makes the Florence clean and bright.

How you can banish the dirtiest day of the week

The dirtiest day of the week for the woman who cooks with coal or wood is stove-polishing day.

Why soil your hands and your clothes and fill the house with a disagreeable odor when a small sum will put a cleanly, perfect-looking Florence Oil Range in your kitchen?

This range puts an end to coal-gas, soot, and ashes. It gives heat only when you want heat—and as much as you want when you want it. The flame is a gas flame. It is not a wick flame, such as you see in the ordinary lamp.

Drop in today and let us explain in detail how the Florence develops this hot blue oil-gas flame.
