Miss Thelma Frances Flippo
Married Sunday Morning

The marriage of Mrs. Frances Flippo of New Market, Miss Thelma Frances Flippo, to Mr. W. H. Blackwell of Water Valley, Miss, took place on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Mr. W. E. Gray, pastor of the church, performed the service. The ceremony was witnessed by a large congregation.

The bride was a lovely, graceful young girl, and the groom was a身材健壮,仪表堂堂的青年。 Both were shining examples of good breeding and education. The bride was attired in a white dress, and the groom wore a suit of black. The witnesses, who were all friends of the couple, were seated in the front row of the church. The music was furnished by the choir, and the ceremony was conducted with great decorum.

The bridal party consisted of the bride and groom, the best man and matron of honor.

MISS ANNIE M. REEVES
MARRIED L. E. DOWNS

The marriage of Miss Annie M. Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reeves of New Market, Miss Water Valley, to Mr. L. E. Downs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Downs of Water Valley, took place on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Mr. W. E. Gray, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

L. A. Downs Airs Railroad Prospects For The New Year

Following a year of mild and inactive conditions, the railroad business is now looking forward to a prosperous and active year. Mr. L. A. Downs, president of the New Market and Water Valley Railroad, has announced that the company will be making considerable improvements on the line during the coming year.

The improvements will include the construction of a new bridge across the Mississippi River, the repair of the old bridge over the county line, and the construction of a new depot at New Market.

The company has also announced that it will be running additional trains during the busy seasons, and that it will be increasing the frequency of service during the winter months.

The company has been doing a good business during the past year, and the management is confident that the railroad will continue to do well in the coming year.
It was almost as though the community were holding its breath. The daily news of the year's Christmas relief work had been waiting to be said.

To make a brief summary, it may be said that the relief efforts of the Fulton County News have concentrated on the needs of the children. The children were not only given the food and clothing they needed, but they were also given the joy of the season in a way that they would never forget.

The community's effort was directed towards the children, but the adults were not forgotten. They were given the opportunity to contribute to the success of the relief efforts by purchasing scholarships for the children.

The community's efforts were not limited to Christmas. Throughout the year, the News has been working to provide relief for those in need. The community has been given the opportunity to contribute to this work by purchasing scholarships for the children.

The community's efforts have been recognized by the county, which has named the News as its official relief agency. This is a great honor, and the News is grateful for the opportunity to serve the community in this way.

The News is committed to continuing its efforts to provide relief to those in need. The community's support is essential to this work, and the News is grateful for the opportunity to serve the community in this way.

Thank you to all who have contributed to the success of the relief efforts. Your support has made it possible for the News to continue its work.
