In 1928, newer six cylinder engines only ten fires took place in Fultontown. In the same month in 1932, there were four more fires. During the month of February and March, 311 Elade nor, now known as the old hotel burst into flames. According to the records, the burns for 1930 were a total of 73, compared to the numerous "drifting advertising" initiated upon Fulton merchants by thrifty and pasty. We have helped to accomplish, but might be profitable for us by so considering them to enable us to stop advertising in one that next may be more profit.

One as individuals, we cannot help but feel that the abstract must be on an average. This community can be made better, if we resolve to cooperate with others to make it as popular, as the numerous "so-called advertising" on promoting some plan by which it is to serve. for Eighty Years

C. R. Collins says:

The end of another year requires it necessary to change the Lights in the lamp which serve to guide the citizens of Fulton through the night. For the first time in forty years, the citizens of Fulton, especially the older generation, must be on the watch for the possibility of losing their way in the night after the old lamps are removed. This necessity arises from the fact that the old lamps have been found to be inefficient and dangerous, and it is necessary to replace them with more modern and efficient ones.

For the present, the citizens are urged to take all necessary precautions to safeguard themselves and their property against possible accidents that may result from the use of these old lamps.

It is time to consider the necessity of changing the old lamps in our town.

The old lamps have been in service for a number of years, and it is now time to replace them with more modern and efficient ones. The new lamps will not only provide better illumination, but also be safer for the citizens of our town.

The citizens are urged to support this initiative and contribute to the purchase of the new lamps.

A New Room...

The energy crisis continues to escalate prices and strain resources, but there are ways to reduce energy consumption and cut costs. One effective strategy is to convert unused space into productive areas.

By transforming a spare room into a productive area, you can save on heating and cooling costs and increase the functionality of your home. Consider setting up a home office, a spare bedroom, or a family room to optimize the use of space.

NEW OFICIALS AT COURT HOUSE

Henry and Mrs. Holman live on the farm where he is located. The house and outbuildings were burned to the ground last Saturday night. The Holman family were away at the time of the fire, and the house was not insured. The value of the property was estimated at several thousand dollars. The fire was caused by a spark from a chimney. The Holman family are said to be very much distressed over the loss of their home and possessions.

The new officials have taken up their duties at the court house. The county officials are busy preparing for the new term of court, which will begin on Monday. The new term of court will extend for about six months, during which time the county officials will be busy with the business of the county.
