A L'ABANDON.

As everyone does not perhaps understand the meaning of A l'abandon, we give the definition according to Webster: A l'abandon (Fr) at random; left uncared for. Now, in what is to follow, we particularly apply the last meaning, uncared for, as our readers will see, that the uncared for will be given due notice.

As you are all aware, this is leap year, and we understand that the girls are making good use of their time. However if any of them have been unsuccessful, we give the names, etc., of a few of the "best catches" on the market.

Mr Mike Oliver is awaiting proposals with interest and anxiety. He recently gave his barber carle blanche for a new pair of curling tongs, and now he is having those thin and meagre locks dressed up on his all too balding cranium with a caressing tenderness and an enticing grace that can mean but one thing—business. A nice winter girl with about $49 cash will find it to her advantage to apply at one, or leave word at this office.

Sonny Peterson calls attention to the fact that he is nearly of marriageable age—about 22 we guess—in good health and spirits and ready to do his duty by some bright, hard-working young debutante. He will be loving and faithful and allow Mrs Peterson to carry the night key, and promises many other things too numerous to mention. This appears to be an unusually fine opportunity, ladies. Don't all speak at once.

The dashing young brunette druggist, Dr. H. P. Wear, of Murray, writes us to be sure and put him on the list. He has been trying for, well, we don't know exactly how many years, to get married, and so far, has utterly failed, but as this is leap year, he is still hopeful. He desires a plump, rosy-cheek blonde of about 16 or 18 summers. Photograph must accompany proposal, and stamp enclosed.

Jim Fisher has not finally declared himself, but there is a pervasive sweetness in his smile and a bewildering fascination in his smile that speaks volumes. He may be approached with confidence by almost any good looking female adult, but he wants no titillating young thing of 16, and we don't blame him.

Walter Dycus, our blonde friend requests us to put him on the list. Mr Dycus is the sweetest and truest thing on earth, (provided the earth is not too large). He has a fine brow and a Napoleonic smile. His moustache is a triumph, and his right arm is developed to a degree of muscular magnificence that only comes with long and active training. In moments of excessive admiration Walter's under lip sometimes works so rapidly that his upper lip cannot keep up with it, but this only gives quaint charms to his delivery, and the object of his adoration is immediately captivated. But Walter's great trouble is his backwardness. He has never yet summoned up sufficient courage to declare himself, and he is anxiously waiting to be proposed to. He is a soft snap and should not be permitted to escape. Address at once, or you may be too late.

Ordered that the following amounts be appropriated out of the county levy for the year 1893 to build and repair bridges, etc: To build and repair bridges and culverts in district No 1, $75. To build bridge across White Oak creek in district 3, $40. $30 to be used by the commissioners in district No. 4 to repair bridges, etc. $40 to build bridge on Cope mill road, in district No 5, near Sam Cope's. $30 to repair road near M H Potts on Benton and Birmingham road. $50 to repair Benton and Wadesboro road near Benton. $10 to J R Lemon to publish court of claims items. $85 to build new bridge across Watch creek and repair road near same on Benton and Olive road. $25 to buy banks for jail. $25 to repair jail roof.

Attest: W. J. WILSON, Clerk M. C. Prof. Wright and Tom Blewitt have faced the music of leap year only with fear and trembling. The shrinking modesty with which they have tread the side streets and avoid the presence of petticoats shows that they are both afraid of being kidnapped. The confirmed determination of these two worthy young bachelors to perpetrate their misery is a deplorable instance of man's everlasting folly. The ladies should surround them in one great group of loveliness and compel them to capitulate vi et armis if necessary. Unless something of this sort is done the first thing we know they will be entering a monastery.

MRS. H. E. WELLMAN, No. 2 Line st., Janesville, Wis., under date of June 16, writes the following: Kenyon & Thomas, Sir: I was confined to my bed 4 months with inflammation of the right ovary, had a good physician and tried almost everything, but got very little help until I tried your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment about four months ago. It has done wonders for me. I can do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe that it will entirely cure me. I am also using your Dr. Hale's Household Tea with good results. Sincerely Yours, Mrs. H. E. WELLMAN. This great medicine is for sale at J. R. Lemon's drug store. 3 BRIENSBURG.

Yes, we've got it, and so has our neighbors, (we mean the gripple), and the doctors say that it is the genuine imported article, and is caused by a little reptile known as a microbe; that it came all the way from Russia; and by the aid of a powerful microscope can be seen the stamp of that government on each little germ. Just now that microbe, or whatever he is, is having things pretty much his own way, and seems to be intimately associated with every station and phase of life. A man cannot have a good old-fashioned case of the colic but what he is told that he has become an incubator for the hatching of unregenerate bugs, and the dear old pains in his stomach that afforded so much happiness in boyhood, is said to be a national convention of that same microbe. If a fellow finds his lungs at variance with himself, he at once infers that the bugs have congregated for a pulmonary camp-meeting. Even true love is so mixed up with this same bug that a fellow is afraid to kiss his best girl lest she crawl off and die. If Mr McKinley had put a prohibitory tariff on this Russian death-dealer, a long suffering people would rise up and call him blessed, and he could have gone thundering down the ages without let or hindrance.

Backward, flow backward, oh time in your flight; Give me the nose that I breathed through last night. Bring back the smaller that two days ago Knew not the torment of continual blow. Wipe from my forehead the moisture of sneeze, Put wooden splints on my poor weakened knees. Rub my red nose, as you've oft done before, With tallow, dear mother, oh, it is so sore! G W Lemon lost a valuable horse last week. J M Dike is now a citizen of Paducah. Bob Biggs has been sick with pneumonia, but is now convalescing. Dr J M Mooney will soon move back to town.

DRIFTWOOD.

The Best Authorities, Such as Dr Dio Lewis, Prof. Gross, and others, agree that catarrh is not a local but a constitutional disease. It therefore requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which effectually and permanently cures catarrh. Thousands praise it.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all troubles of the digestive organs. 5

Lo! the Poor Indian.

As is well known, the American Indian have been removed farther and farther from their homes to make room for the whites. Once relates the author of "The Making of New England," when an agent of the government was sent to a certain tribe to notify them that they must again remove, a chief asked the agent to sit down on a log. The agent did so. The chief then asked him to move, and very soon to move again, and again, until the agent got to the end of the log. The Indian then said "Move farther". "I cannot" replied the agent. "Just so it is with us" said the chief. "You have moved us as far as we can go, and then ask us to move still farther."

THURSDAY, JANUARY 28.

No war.

The blatherskite policy of Harrison's administration knocked into cocked hat.

Henry Smith of Louisville will hang on March 25th 1892.

Chili agrees to withdraw the offensive matta note, and also the request for the recall of Minister Egan and proposes in the Baltimore affairs to leave the settlement to arbitration. This ends all probability of war.

Representative Alderson, of West Virginia, introduced a resolution in the house for the appointment of a committee of seven to investigate the charges of partisanship, mismanagement and wastefulness which have been made against the census bureau.

The National Democratic convention will be held in Chicago, June 21. The selection of that city was made with a view to the convenience of delegates and visitors rather than for any political advantages that might be supposed to accrue to any candidate over another.

Associate Justice Joseph P.
Bradley, of the supreme court, died Sunday in Washington. He was one of the ablest men on the bench, but will be remembered by the general public not for his legal ability, but for the vote he cast in the electoral commission which made Mr. Hayes, president.

Representative Holman says his resolution against subsidies and government aid of any kind to private industries, and against any appropriations not actually needed, which has been criticized in some quarters, will not interfere with the passage of a river and harbor bill or any other legitimate appropriation. But it knocks the private schemes higher than a kite.

Mr. Blaine endeavored to convince the house committee on foreign affairs that the house ought to pass the bill pledging the endorsement of the government to an issue of $100,000,000 of the bonds of the Nicaragua Canal company, but it was labor lost, as Representative Holman's resolution, which was adopted by the house, has made it certain that no such scheme can get through that body.

The revisory committee has sent to the legislature a list of the proposed judicial districts. The first, second, third and fourth are as follows:

First district—Graves, Fulton, Hickman, Carlisle and Ballard; population, 66,175.

Second district—McCracken, Marshall, Lyon and Crittenden;
population, 62,569.

Third district—Christian, Trigg and Calloway; population, 62,695.

Fourth district—Hopkins, Caldwell, Webster and Union; population, 72,189.

THE FISCAL COURT.

A bill has been introduced in the state senate which will doubtless pass without much opposition establishing a fiscal court for each county in the state to be composed of three commissioners and the county judge. They are to be elected at the next regular election and enter upon the discharge of their duties on Jan. 1, after their election, but three months before their election the county judge will divide the county into three districts, in which there will be one elected in each district for the county at large. They are to be 24 years old and pass a successful examination and receive a certificate of such qualification before they are eligible to fill the office.

They will be elected for three years and receive $4 per day, but are limited to ten days. Each one must give a bond of $5,000. This court is to do all the business that the court of claims now does, and many other things. They can levy a poll-tax not to exceed $1 on the head of all persons between the ages of 21 and 70 years, and an advalorem tax large enough to pay the expenses of the county.
This will be a good law and will supply a long felt want.

ECLIPSES FOR 1892.

The almanacs tell us that in 1892 there will be four eclipses, two of the sun and two of the moon. There will also be an eclipse of the republican party; total, visible all over the United States and in the rest of the civilized world. The last eclipse will take place between 6 o'clock, a m and 7 o'clock, p m, on the second Tuesday in next November, and instead of it producing darkness all over the land, it will produce light.

DEMOCRATS, BE UP AND DOING!

The democratic county committee of Graves county has ordered a primary election, to select democratic nominees for county officers, to take place on the first Monday in August. What is the matter with our committee that such steps are not taken? The committee should begin to look after this matter early, and call the primary for the first Saturday in August, giving the candidates plenty of time to canvass the county. There is no use to delay this important action until late in the spring, and then call a primary election, and not give the candidates plenty of time to see the people before the election. Take action early and organize the party, and let every step be done in decency and order, and by so doing there can arise no complaints. This is the "political year" in the United States and all parties will organize ready for the fray, and as the democratic party is the biggest and best party in the country, let it prepare to sweep the country as it was never swept before.

Taxable Property of the County.

The total assessed valuation of the property of Marshall county, as reported by the assessor, amounts to $1,777,937. This is a slight increase over last year's assessment, but not as much as it should have been. The property in this county, aside from the railroad property, is worth at least $2,000,000. The assessor also reported 73 marriages, 310 births and deaths. The compensation allowed the assessor for services for the year 1891 amounts to $505.70, which is about $135 per month. This a good salary for the amount of work, as it only takes about three and one-half months to do the work.

The county board of supervisors consumed all the nine days allowed them by law, and only made 70 changes, increasing the assessed values of the property of 54 persons and reducing 14, making a total increase of $15,519, which at 30c on the one hundred dollars worth of property increased the amount of taxes for county purposes, $46.55, but it will take $18 to pay for room and fires. The valuation of the property in this county for the year 1892, including the railroad property, if properly assessed, should go over $2,000,000, which, we hope, it will do.

ARNETTSTOWN.

Mr. Joe Byerly, of this place, killed his big hog yesterday. His gross weight, after being killed and stuck, was 680 pounds. After being dressed and hung a proper time to drain, his weight was 615 pounds. So you can say to the people of the county that our town has the premium in the way of big hogs. He killed three others whose average weight was 325 pounds.

Uncle Casey McGregor killed one a week ago that tipped the beam at 500 pounds, together with several others in the neighborhood who killed hogs weighing from 250 to 350 pounds; therefore, we will be likely to have a sufficiency of "old ned" to sop both sides of our bread.

No other news of interest, except some gossip that a good old honest tieman is likely to lead to the hymeneal altar one of Arnett-

The County Attorney Explains.

"ED. TRIBUNE:—I find that complaint is being made against me in part, for the action of the last court of claims in this (Marshall) county, and I hope you will give space in your valuable paper for a few words in explanation of the points involved.

In the first place, some people want to know why the court levy per capita was placed at $2 per head? Why did not the county attorney advise the court as to the law of the case?

I want to say that I did everything I could to prevent it, and referred the justices to section 180 of the new constitution, which reads as follows: "The general assembly may authorize the counties, cities and towns to levy a poll-tax not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents per head," and urged the court that since the 28th day of last September the courts nor even the legislature of the state could not, in laying the poll-tax, exceed one dollar and fifty cents per head. Neither can the legislature pass any law authorizing any county, city or town to levy a tax beyond that limit, and the only mistake I made on that score was that I did not call for years and days and have every magistrate voting for $2 put to record.

A word further: The first subdivision of the schedule of the new constitution says, "That all laws of this commonwealth in force at the time of the adoption of this constitution, not inconsistent therewith, shall remain in full force until altered or repealed by the general assembly." * * The provisions of all laws which are inconsistent with this constitution shall cease upon its adoption." * Then we see that a law which authorized the levying of more than one dollar and fifty cents per head is inconsistent with this constitution and therefore ceased on the 28th of last September. Anybody can very readily see that section 180 is a complete inhibition over the courts, and that it requires no legislature whatever to enforce its provision. The legislature may pass laws authorizing counties, cities and towns to levy any rate of poll-tax they may see fit to do, but they can never go beyond one dollar and fifty cents.

Another point is the surveying of district No. 6 at the expense of the county. I opposed that strenuously, and went so far as to say to the court that I would oppose any allowance to anybody for said work. I maintained before the court that there was no law authorizing such a survey, and on that grounds made my opposition, and if no law to authorize, then there is no obligation to pay for it, and in support of my position I refer to section 162 of the new constitution. H. M. HEATH, County Attorney.

Extend the Limits.

There will be an effort made soon to extend corporate limits of the town of Benton north from the northwest corner to the right-of-way on the other side of the railroad, thence east with right-of-way to the Thompson creek, thence south with the creek to the creek to the bridge south of town, thence west to intersect the line near R.
Hayden's thence north with the present line to the beginning.
This will be a move in the right direction and should by all means be done.

Dot Barry Dead.

Dot Barry, aged two years, after a lingering illness of several days, died of the "la grippe." She left one child, "Dimple," that promises to be as intelligent as her mother.
She was buried with imposing ceremonies in the family burying ground. She was not a member of any church, but was inclined towards the church of the disciples. She leaves several friends who greatly regret her unhappy demise. There was great sorrowing in that family.

James Downing, a pauper, was so disagreeable and hard to control by his committee, that he was tried by the county judge last week, when the jury in the case returned a verdict saying, he was an idiot, after which he was carried to the asylum, but was not received by its superintendent, but returned him home after which he was again brought back to town and turned over to the county court which made arrangements and sent him to the poor house, where he now resides and will stay during the winter.

A medicine to meet the public favor must necessarily have merits. Lightning Hot Drops has been before the people for several years and has grown in demand each year. Mr. J. L. Goodwin, of S. C., says: "I have been selling patent medicine for a long time, and have handled nearly all kinds, but have never found any remedies to equal the Lightning medicines. Lightning Hot Drops is wonderful, and has no equal." All druggists sell it, and want you to try it just once to see. 25¢ and 50¢ bottles. Guaranteed to relieve or money refunded.

In our advertising columns will be found an "ad" calling the attention of the people to the increased stock and facilities of Barnes and Kinney in the coffin and undertaker's business. The men at the head of this firm are popular and well known to every body and are well prepared to furnish the people all kinds of eastern and home made coffins together with a full line of burial robes, etc., at exceedingly low prices. We take pleasure in recommending our patrons to this reliable firm.

H. M. Heath, county attorney, has an article in this issue of the Tribune relative to his position before the last court of claims in regard to fixing the poll-tax at $2, contrary to the provisions of the new constitution, and the order of court to have the Benton magistrate district resurveyed. Mr. Heath, before the court, opposed both propositions. His opposition to the first one, we are led to believe, was well taken, and like him, we think the court went beyond its jurisdiction in fixing poll-tax at $2 in the face of the limit fixed in the new constitution, which says it cannot be fixed to exceed $1.50. But his position that the county court would not pay for the fixing of the metes and bounds of this district is entirely untenable and contrary to the law which governs the orders of courts. The county court made the order authorizing Thos. F. Harrison to make the survey of the district, and as a matter of course will pay him out of the county levy. The people all along the line of the district, both in and out, want to know exactly where the line is and it is the duty of the county court to locate the boundary at the county's expense.

The announcement of C. H. Starks will be found in this week's paper, asking the voters of Marshall county to elect him to the important and responsible office of sheriff. Mr. Starks needs no commendation at our hands at this time, as nearly every one in the county knows Henry Starks, he having served the people so acceptable two full terms.

Blewitt's Queensware Store. Tom Blewitt has the most beautiful store in town. It is a new store and full of new goods. There never has been a queensware store in Benton before, where the people can get anything in that line at reasonable prices. He is doing a big business which will greatly increase as soon as the people can see his large stock and learn his low prices. Call to see Tom Blewitt.

DEATHS.

Dennis Strow, the oldest colored citizen of the county, died at Sallie Pryor's, east of town, last Saturday morning, of the infirmities of extreme old age. No one knew his exact age, but those best acquainted with him say that he was at least 107 years old when he died. He was born in Warren county, Kentucky, about 1785, and was known as Dennis Carter for many years. He then became the property of Mrs. Mary Sledd and was known for a long time as Dennis Sledd. About 40 years ago Mrs. Sledd was married to Willis Strow, and from that time until he died he was known as Dennis Strow. There were few men in all this part of the county but what are familiar with the name of Dennis Strow. He was a good, quiet old citizen with many warm friends among his acquaintances.

Death with its icy fetters entered the happy little home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin B. Cooper last Monday morning at 6:30 o'clock and took from their family circle their dearly beloved little boy Clyde Cooper. Little Clyde was a beautiful sweet baby boy and was the second and youngest child, and just as it was old enough to lip the name of pa and ma it was called from this world of sin and sorrow, to its home in the great beyond. Its parents, though sorrowing for their departed child, can take consolation in the fact, that they may again meet it in the sweet by and by. The entire community join the Tribune in weeping with those that weep for little Clyde Cooper.

Barbara Canup, an old lady of this county, the widow of Frank Canup, deceased, died at the home of her son, Joseph Canup, Jan. 13, of la grippe. The people all knew "Aunt" Barbara well. She was born in North Carolina, and married in that state. With her husband she moved to Kentucky and settled in Marshall county about 59 years ago. She leaves one sister, seven children, 30 grand children, 40 great grandchildren, and three great-great grandchildren. She was about 85 years old and spent the most of her life as a true and devoted member of the Baptist church. She was a kind and loving mother, always quiet and gentle in her ways. We join her many friends and relatives in mourning the loss of such a faithful friend.

Mr. C. Mathis, aged 75 years, died at his home, near Oak Level, Tuesday morning. Buck Mathis, as he was usually called, was one of the county's best citizens. He died of la grippe.

Reuben Starks, aged 84 years, died at his home last Friday of the effect of la grippe and pneumonia. He was a brother of S. P. Starks and leaves a large connection.

Cal Downing died at his home in the east part of the county last Sunday morning of typhoid fever.

James Gamble, an old citizen, in the Brewer's Mill community, died on the 21st with pneumonia.

Mrs. Ben Turner died Sunday morning of pneumonia.

Formerly a Marshall County Boy. H. P. Kinsolving, who was commonly called "Bud," when we were all boys, is now a man of wealth and influence in the town of Malden, Mo. He is a staunch republican, and from that cause, is the postmaster under President Harrison, at a salary of $1,200 per year. He is owner and proprietor of the largest drug store in that fast growing city, besides he is the president of the Dunklin County bank, which is doing a profitable business. He is considered one of the best business men in southeast Missouri. His father was a poor man, but "Bud" never gave it up on that account, and by his industry and honorable dealing won a place at the head of his town.

Stray Notice. Taken up as an estray, by J. F. Rose, living four miles south of Benton, one yearling heifer, one year old last spring; black color, white on belly; no ear marks, and valued at five dollars by W. F. Thompson. Given under my hand this Jan. 16, 1892.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

A physician, in writing about the health of girls, tells them to eat good, but plain, wholesome, nutritious food, and, above all, to eat a hearty breakfast. He thinks nothing in modern life is more pernicious to the health than this dawdling over the much needed, though often unheeded, breakfast.

The way people toss their feet is often indicative of character. Neat people usually put the right foot over the left, while disorderly people generally put the left over the right. Every body knows how much character is expressed in the wearing of the hat, and why should it be thought surprising if a man should tell what he is by the way he places his feet.

Carlyle says somewhere: "Many people think they have religion when they only have dyspepsia." However true this may be, it is certain that many who have dyspepsia find themselves, in virtue of that fact, hampered in their religion. When one considers how often extemporaneous prayer is spoiled by a fit of indigestion or headache, or how a sermon is ruined perhaps by some temporary annoyance just before going to church one feels almost tempted to advocate the use of a printed form of devotions, and written sermons. Dyspepsia is the foe of the clergy, and many a man has lost his usefulness and fancied he had fallen from grace when he was only afflicted with chronic indigestion.

It does not pay to make love to two girls at the same time if they live in the same city. Women are naturally jealous, and as sharp as professional detectives. A woman who is interested in a man is forever on the lookout for some suspicious circumstance, and will remember one for years just in order to put another to it, and finally accumulate a chain of evidence which, to her, will be perfectly conclusive as to the trustworthiness or otherwise of her lover. A man with a jealous sweetheart must explain every action, however insignificant, and if he has two sweethearts, it keeps a fellow lying the whole time. The innocent prevaricator cannot always be on his guard, and sooner or later he is bound to be caught.

A remarkable feature of the Sunday school work of the present day is the thorough preparation made by skilled teachers and writers of the printed Sunday school lessons. The time has been, and not very long ago, when every teacher in a Sunday school had to prepare his own lesson, if he gave one and Sunday school teaching was, therefore, limited to the reading of a chapter and an attempt at a running commentary by the teacher. Now all this is changed. The lessons are prepared by men of learning and experience, a logical scheme is presented, and all that the teacher has to do is to follow the plan as laid down in the printed slip before him. The result has been an immense improvement in the general average of teaching, for with the printed slip a teacher of modest attainments is on an equality with the best instructor.

The Senate

Hon J. P. Huff, the clever, good-natured senator from Fleming, has prepared the following statistics of the senate which he kindly furnishes the Capital:

The Senate is composed of nineteen lawyers; eight farmers three physicians; two merchants; one banker; one speculator; one contractor; one capitalist; and one wholesale liquor dealer. Of the thirty-eight Senators, seven are members of the Christian Church; nine are Methodists; nine Baptist six Catholics; five Presbyterians, and two are noncommittal. The Senator from Breathitt, Mr. Hargis, is the oldest member of the Senate, being seventy-one, while J. B. Hannah, of Elliot, is the youngest, being only thirty-two. Dr. Phil Roberts, the Senator from Madison, is the largest, weighing 250 pounds, while D. H. Smith, from Larue, is the smallest, tipping the beam at 125. Dr. Stewart, from Floyd, still claims to be the best looking, which is very natural, as he is a widower of some thirty-eight summers. It is conceded by all that D. H. Smith is the best parliamentarian; that J. S. Vortham is one of the most pains-taking members of the Senate; Wm Goebel one of the best posted members generally, while Judge Lindsay is the greatest jurist, and Jas H. Mulligan is the most entertaining speaker.

IS YOUR NERVE STEADY?

Or do you feel that you are breaking; that your nervous system is giving away? If you have a weak nervous system the very best thing you can do is to begin to-day using Dr. Hale's Household Tea. It is the finest nerve tonic known and will restore you to health and vigor. Don't delay. Get a free sample to day at J. R. Lemon's.

Died at 108.

The oldest person in this county, died at the home of her daughter, at Rocky Point, last Thursday. Her name was Elizabeth Millstead, and was at the time of death past 108 years old. She is the mother of thirteen children, three of whom were born before the war of 1812. Her baby at the time of her death was 55 years old, and is the wife of James Edmonds, deceased. She was a woman of wonderful vitality and human endurance. Her eyes never failed her, and was good until she died—never using spectacles. She made with her own hands and without spectacles, a scrap quilt, at the remarkable old age of 104 years. She was born 1784, which was soon after the revolutionary war, and could remember and talk of men and things that have long since become old history. To talk with her was to converse with a person of "ye olden time." She knew but little that had happened in this country within the past fifty years, but was in reality living over her younger days of 75 to 100 years ago. Thus passed from time to eternity the oldest person in Marshall county.

SYRUP OF FIGS.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

The Old With La Grippe.

This is a year for the old to die and pass away in greater numbers than any other year for a half a century, perhaps. When the la-grippe entered the United States, early last fall, on a second visit, in a worse form than the year before the physicians all over the country predicted that the old would die in great numbers, and their prediction is being verified. The old, in all stations of life, are falling every day under its deadly influence. The increased death rate is not confined to any particular section or locality of the country, but has spread itself over almost every square mile of territory in the United States. Not only the old die of it, but the young and the middle aged are taking pneumonia with it and are passing away in large numbers. Many remedies are named, but it appears none have been found that can cure it. About the best thing to do, after it is taken is to remain in doors, take good care of ones self and drink whiskey and take quinine in small quantities. It is said by an eastern physician that old men and women can relapse in a few minutes exposure to the cold or hot weather.

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "la-grippe" has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c, at J. R. Lemon's drugstore.

Gov. Brown has removed C. Y. Wilson and appointed Nicholas McDowell, of Boyle county, commissioner of agriculture, horticulture, labor and statistics. Mr. Wilson had begun to expect that he would be retained, but the cold iron hand of the governor signed the commission to the new commissioner.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Lofen Troschel are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she read Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at J. R. Lemon's drugstore.

Love.

There are some very curious love affairs in this part of God's country. This disease called love affects the human family in many peculiar ways. It has been declared an epidemic since the time Adam made love to Eve, and like the grippe, it has no respect for age or condition. It tackles men and women of all nationalities and so controls them that they will make and break all kinds of promises and obligations until they are bound in legal chains of steel, stronger than death, and yet no sooner are they bound in these legal bonds of love than they wish they were in mid-ocean and take their chances to be saved. The subject of love is less understood than any other subject, and yet millions pretend they are familiar with it in all of its different phases. It is in the air (as is the mumps and la grippe) and no one cares when he or she will be effected by it. The knowing ones claim that it is more fatal in this country than in any age of the past. In olden times it only effected the young and the unmarried, but of recent years it invades the sacred habitations of both old and young single and married. There are a few persons in this country who are living monuments of its ruthless invasions.

The "Twice-a-week" St. Louis Republic contains more and fresher news than any weekly paper published in America. It is issued each Tuesday and Friday, and consists of from fourteen to sixteen pages every week, yet the price is only One Dollar a Year. A resolution was adopted by the senators and representatives of the First and Second congressional districts to make two judicial districts west of Tennessee river. This will suit the people in all the counties in the Purchase. We will venture a guess that Cal loway, Marshall, McCracken and Ballard will form the Second judicial district of Kentucky.

A REMARKABLE RODENT.

The Widespread Destruction Caused by its Periodic Migrations. The lemming is a very remarkable rodent which inhabits northern Europe, and on some occasions makes itself unpleasantly conspicuous.

At uncertain intervals, such as ten or fifteen years, the lemmings suddenly swarm literally in millions, and begin to march southward. Devouring everything eatable, they press straight onward, allowing nothing but a perpendicular wall to stop them. Even fire has but little effect upon them, the leading lemmings being forced into it by those behind until the fire is quenched by their numbers, and the dead bodies of the slain serve as bridges over which their comrades pass.

Not only do they eat all the herbage, but the people say that cattle refuse to feed on spots on which the lemmings have trod, sometimes they come to the river and enter it with the same stolid indifference which characterize all their proceedings. As long as the water is quite smooth, they can swim fairly and will succeed in crossing. But the least ripple is said to be fatal to them.

Predaceous beasts, such as wolves, foxes, wildcats and stoats, accompany them and feed luxuriously on them. So do predaceous birds, eagles, hawks and owls, and even the larger fish are their enemies, snapping them up as they are endeavoring to cross the rivers.

Fear is utterly unknown to them, probably by reason of their want of intellect, and although they will not go out of their way to attack any one, they entirely decline to make way for even man himself.

They move in two vast columns, one passing through Norway, and the other through Sweden. The end of them is always the same, and supposing that they have escaped the beasts, birds and fishes, and have surmounted the perils of fire and water, they are forced into the sea and perish there. Those which take the route through Norway are forced into the Slesvig-fjord and Kattegat, while those who pass through Sweden lose their lives in the gulf of Bothnia and the Baltic. Then the country is freed from them and the inhabitants may be tolerably sure that at least ten years must elapse before the lemmings can increase sufficiently to make up for the terrible losses which their migration has cost them.

There is one little set-off against the damage which is done by the lemmings. They are very good to eat, and lemmings cooked like quail and served on toast is considered to be quite a dainty. They are very small to do so much damage, being scarcely six inches in length.

WHAT THE ARMY LACKS.

A Sort of Exercises for Which Prices

Wrestling and boxing are far from being mere exhibitions of brute force, for the utmost science may be displayed in either. Of those exercises, however, which rely purely upon physical strength, the most interesting is the tug of war, a favorite sport with the sailors of every navy. A long rope is provided, two leaders are chosen, who then select their own followers; the two sides are pitted against each other at opposite ends of the rope, and whichever bears away the rope takes also the prize. Interesting as are these tugs, involving as they do the possibility of defeat to either side from an unfortunate slip or fall, they become still more interesting when men are pitted against animals. Among the British troops in India these trials are common; two, three or five men are pitted against a horse, according to the supposed strength of the animal; from six to ten men against a camel, and the winner is the man who can pull the rope, dragging one hundred men along the ground. No discredit to the man, however, need be attributed for their defeat, for such is the strength of this enormous animal that an elephant will drag a gun and caisson fifty miles a day and seem as fresh in the evening as in the morning.

Efforts have been made from time to time to introduce sports of these and other kinds into the American army. They have sometimes succeeded, but as a rule our soldiers do not seem to take so much interest in athletics as do the men of foreign countries. A little more interest shown in the subject by the officers might produce favorable results, for the Americans, as a rule, are fond of amusements, and were adequate incentives offered in the shape of prizes, no doubt our soldiers would soon rival those of Great Britain, France and Germany. The money outlay need not be large. A medal costing five dollars is by most men more highly prized than five times the amount of money necessary to purchase it.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

King of Medicines

Scorfulous Humor—A Cure

"Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scurvy, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well."

"Early in 1888 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Cure,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 21 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friend, my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY
