Mr. and Mrs. Clint Reeds Leave for Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint E. Reeds will leave Fulton today for Baton Rouge, La., where Mr. Reeds will engage in the automobile business under the firm name of Reeds-Watson Motor Co. Mr. Watson, brother-in-law of Mr. Reeds, maintains a large automobile business in New Orleans and is also a member of the new firm. E. C. Reeds, brother of Clint, is also a member of the new firm, and no doubt the Reeds brothers will manage the Baton Rouge establishment while Mr. Watson looks after the "Crescent City" business. All are splendid business men and stand at the top notch in business circles.

Clint Reeds recently purchased the opera house building on Main street, and with his other extensive business interests in Fulton, will be a frequent visitor in his old home town. He is a promising young business man of sterling qualities and has a wide circle of friends in Fulton who wish him every success in his new field of business activities.

Fulton County Fair

Everything In Readiness for The Big Event.

Next week is Fair Week in Fulton—Five big glorious days—August 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29. Everything is in readiness to receive the crowds who will attend. The race track is in perfect condition and fast pacers and trotters are already arriving to take part in the races for the $2,500.00 in purses and added money. President Gordon and Secretary Wade, with the assistance of all the officers and superintendents of each department are working to make the 1925 displays and exhibits the best ever shown at the fair.

Reservations are being made at the hotels for accommodations by many who realize the necessity of securing the best of service before the grand rush is on. Fulton has excellent hotel accommodations and no one will be disappointed in the splendid service given.

Many of the exhibits for the fair are arriving and being placed in the various departments.

The poultry department has already received a large number of display coops—regular coops used at the largest poultry shows. This department will be a pleasing feature this year, and in cooperation with the Fulton Poultry Association will be conducted the same as the best shows.

The displays in Floral Hall under the supervision of the ladies will prove an interesting feature. The premium lists are larger and the exhibits will be more attractive than ever.

Let every Fulton citizen do his best to make our visitors next week enjoy themselves.

There will be all kinds of entertainment, including the biggest and best carnival in the country.

Big Poultry Exhibit

Exhibitors Urged to Send in Entry Blanks Early

The officials of the Fulton Poultry Association are making preparations for the largest exhibition of poultry ever shown at the Fulton County Fair, and an addition to the show building has been made in order to take care of the additional exhibits.

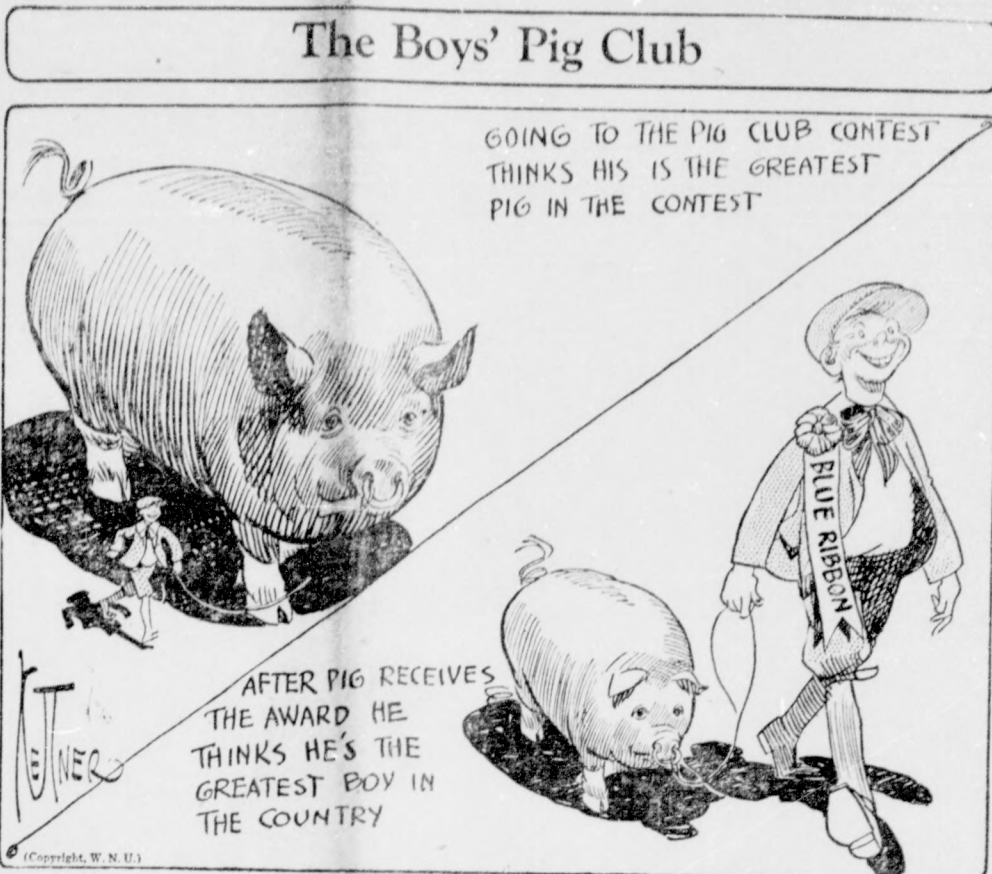

All exhibitors are urged to forward their entry blanks as early as possible in order that their birds may be displayed to the best advantage, and doing away with the hurry and confusion that is always part of the last minute preparations of any exhibition.

Mr. J. T. Watkins, show superintendent, has had several years' experience as superintendent of poultry shows and will give his undivided time to the placing of the exhibits, as well as the care of them during the show, seeing that all birds are properly fed and cared for.

The new show coops will be installed in plenty of time and the various exhibits will be shown to much better advantage than heretofore.

Exhibitors are asked to read carefully the entry blanks and fill them out fully so that there may be no mistakes, as to the desires of the exhibitors.

Fight With the Devil Continues

Evangelist Geo. Tucker is Displaying His Powerful Strength

Evangelist Geo. Tucker continues his fight with the devil and his followers at Carr's Park auditorium. Punching the old imp in the ribs is a pleasant pastime for the evangelist and his co-workers and telling results are being manifested. The Rev. Tucker throws out a bombshell in the audience occasionally which explodes with a mighty force, and those who are the hardest hit can be heard on the streets the next day.

The best advertising an evangelist can get is from the walking delegates who parade around, telling their associates what horrible things the evangelist said, etc. We all love to hear our good deeds exploded, but when the naked truth is told, sometimes it gives us the knee-tremble. The preacher's words are often magnified, too. The best way to get a straight dose of what he really says is to attend the meeting. Of course, you must go early if you expect to get a good seat because standing room is at a premium at practically every service.

By going early you get the benefit of the splendid song service under the direction of Mr. Tuberville. If you can't pray, it will do you good to join in the singing. Go and try it.

REMAINS OF MRS. HERBERT RANKIN BROUGHT TO FULTON FOR BURIAL

The remains of the late Mrs. Herbert Rankin arrived in Fulton from California, Wednesday, and was interred in Fairview cemetery. It will be remembered that Mr. and Mrs. Rankin left Fulton about two years ago for the West, in hope of improving Mrs. Rankin's health, but about a year ago the devoted wife was called to her heavenly home. Mr. Rankin accompanied the remains to Fulton.

Fulton County Sheriff Reported Ill

Succumbs to Strain of Tragic Death of Husband

Hickman, Ky., Aug. 17.—Mrs. J. O. West, Fulton county woman sheriff, who was killed and sworn in Saturday afternoon to fill the vacancy made by the untimely death of her husband, J. O. West, is quite ill today at the LaCade Hotel, which hotel her husband has operated the past eighteen years and which Mrs. West is now operating. Mrs. West became ill yesterday evening and has very high fever this morning, having physician at an early hour today. This is, no doubt, the reaction of the terrible strain and ordeal Mrs. West has been through since Tuesday morning when her husband was shot down by Monroe Heatherly, an insane man. Physically, she is not a strong woman and has not been for several years, but had held up the past week surprisingly well and far better than had been expected, having gone beyond what would have been the breaking point for many women.

Sheriff West will have as her chief office man, J. W. Morris, of this city, who will assist Mrs. West in looking after all details of the office and handle the county's revenue, and will be bonded. Mr. Morris was for three terms Circuit Court Clerk of this county, has also helped Mr. West before in his tax work and is familiar with every phase of the office and the work of the different county offices and is an excellent man for this phase of the work. He has already taken charge of the office. J. W. Wright is her chief deputy and will serve all papers, and Joe Walls is her second deputy, both being sworn in Saturday when Mrs. West was sworn in as sheriff.

BOAZ BUILDING IS NEARING COMPLETION

The two-story brick business block of J. E. Boaz, in course of erection at corner of Main and Plain streets will be a handsome structure when completed. It is 40x50 feet and the entire front will be of Roman pressed brick with stone trimmings. W. M. Hill & Sons are the contractors for the brick and concrete work.

When completed, the building will be occupied by J. E. Boaz & Son's grocery establishment.

Fry and Newhouse Shoe Store

Open for Business in Opera House Building on Main Street.

With a beautiful stock of the newest and up-to-date shoes, Fry & Newhouse open their new shoe store at 215 Main street. They also announce the purchase of the Morris & Sons shoe store on Lake street. Both stores will be conducted separately.

Mr. Mike Fry, the senior member of the firm, is one of the oldest shoe dealers in Fulton, while Burt Newhouse has specialized in fitting shoes for many years.

Messrs. Fry & Newhouse will maintain their splendid reputation of selling the best makes of shoes for men, women and children and invite their friends to call on them when in need of a perfect fitting shoe.

FINE WATERMELON CROP

The farmers seem to be reaping an unusually fine harvest of watermelons this year, and the price seems to be keeping up well.

We heard one farmer say that he had sold all of his best melons last Saturday at fifty cents each, and he still had a goodly supply at 25 and 35 cents which he confidently expected to sell out before closing time.

The number of wagons on the streets seems to be more numerous than usual and their sales are evidently satisfactory, judging by the regularity with which they return each day. The "nickel" melon also seems to be as numerous as in former years, according to the number of small boys, both black and white, that congregate in vacant lots and alleys to feast on the luscious fruit.

Here's hoping that the farmer gets all that is coming to him this year from this branch of his crop.

Miss Alta B. Gates, of Central avenue, has accepted a position with the Cumberland Telephone Company as central operator.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Culver and son motored through from St. Louis Tuesday. Mr. Culver reports a pleasant trip until he reached Kentucky and found the roads in horrible condition.

Railroad News

Railroad Picnic, September 7.

The employees of the Tennessee Division will hold their annual picnic on Labor Day, September 7, on the Wash-Out near Tiptonville, and we understand plans are under way to make this the best and most delightful outing the employees have ever had.

A special train will leave the Passenger station at Fulton at 7 a. m., Monday morning (Labor Day) September 7, going via Dyersburg, where it will pick up more employees and thence to Tiptonville, where the citizens of Tiptonville will meet them with automobiles and carry them to the scene of the merrymaking ground.

Each employee will carry a basket of lunch, and everyone is certain of plenty to eat.

Persons other than employees may attend this picnic, and all that is necessary is to buy your ticket, get your lunch and hop on—the more, the merrier. There will be different kinds of contests, similar to those had last year, such as prizes for the best swimmers, dancers, runners, jumpers, etc.

The citizens of Tiptonville to further show their hospitality, are going to provide "The Georgia Serenaders," one of the best orchestras in the country, to play for the picnic that day. The special train will return to Fulton about 9:30 p. m.

Railroads Doing Much to Eliminate Accidents to Passengers

In a statement recently made public, Col. A. B. Barber, Director, National Conference on Street and Highway Safety, said:

"Recently I took occasion to look a little into the record of fatal accidents to persons carried on the trains of our steam railways and found that, in the last twenty years, in spite of the increase in traffic, the number of such fatalities has been reduced to less than 40 per cent of what it was at the beginning of that period. About 1905 there were each year, about 500 deaths to passengers on our steam trains, a figure which has been brought down to about 200 annually in the last two or three years. And the railroads are still working unceasingly to reduce this number still lower.

"Carrying this study a little further, I endeavored to make a comparison of accidents to persons carried on our steam trains with accidents to persons traveling in automobiles. To make the situation clearer, the results were expressed in relation to the number of passenger miles traveled on the steam trains and in motor vehicles, respectively—the figures indicate that the average person traveling on a steam train is about ten times as safe as the average person traveling in a motor vehicle."

We might add, that if Col. Barber had investigated further, he would have found that most of the accidents in motor vehicles were due entirely to reckless and careless driving. If the drivers of motor vehicles were required to stand an examination, and really and truly punished for violation of the different traffic regulations, as the engineer of the locomotive is, there would result, a nice decrease in the number of accidents by motor vehicles.

With the rapid increase in the number of motor vehicles in the country each year, the need for "Safety First" is becoming more apparent. If the driver of the automobile would take as much interest in his own safety, as the railroad administrations are taking in his behalf, many and many an accident would be avoided.

Valuation of Railroads
The Interstate Commerce Commission's minimum tentative valuation of Class I railroads as of January 1, 1920, was $17,940,000,000. The 5 3-4 per cent return upon this valuation (Continued on page 7)

DRUG ADDICTION IN U. S. ON DECLINE

HARRISON LAW BRINGING RESULTS, OFFICIALS DECLARE.

110,000 ARE NOW ADDICTS

When Harrison Law Went Into Effect There Were 204,000—Cocaine Is the Drug Which Causes Violent Crimes

Washington.—Officials of the narcotic division of the internal revenue bureau, charged with enforcement of the Harrison law, and experts in the United States public health service, contend that drug addiction throughout the country is on the decrease.

Figures compiled by the government on the amounts of narcotics legally and illegally imported and exported bear them out. Reports compiled by the narcotic division show that there are approximately 110,000 persons in the country at the present time who are drug users.

A survey made by Drs. Lawrence Kolb and A. G. Dumex of the public health service produced the same figure, although the health officials said the number—making allowances for cases that had not come to the attention of the authorities—might run as high as 150,000. It was estimated that when the Harrison law went into effect in 1915 there were 264,000 addicts in the country.

The fact that the number of prisoners in federal penitentiaries charged with violation of the Harrison law is increasing, has given rise to the erroneous reports that the drug habit is spreading. The number of prisoners has increased since 1921, when the narcotic division was first separated from the prohibition units. Prior to that time the federal agents worked for the suppression of both liquor and drugs and consequently devoted most of their time to the liquor traffic. Since the separation of the two jobs the number of narcotic agents has been increased, and their activities have been more efficiently performed. The exposure of the great ring in Chicago is the first instance of corruption which has been brought to light in the narcotic division.

Lesson for August 23

THE MACEDONIAN CALL

LESSON TEXT—Acts 16:6-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Come over into Macedonia, and help us."—Acts 16:9.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul's Wonderful Vision.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul Called to Europe.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Macedonian Call and What It Led To.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Hand of God in Missions.

I. Forbidden by the Holy Spirit to Preach the Word in Asia (vv. 6-8).

The inclination of Paul and his companions was to tarry in the provinces of Asia Minor preaching the Word, but contrary to their inclination they were hurried along. There were many people in Asia who yet needed the Gospel. They might have reasoned, what difference would it make where we preach so the Gospel is preached? We have here a fine lesson on Divine guidance. The Holy Spirit is as active and faithful in closing doors as in opening them. "The steps as well as the steps of good men are ordered of the Lord." We ought as truly to recognize God's hand in the "shut-ins" as in the "open-outs."

II. The Call to Macedonia (vv. 9-12).

The Gospel having broken the confines of the Jewish city and country, the middle wall of partition having been abolished, the time has come for it to leap across the Aegean sea and begin its conquest on another continent. Christianity thus ceased to be an oriental religion, and through the centuries has been mainly occidental.

1. The Vision (v. 9).

Being hemmed in on all sides, a vision was given to Paul of a man of Macedonia pleading for help. This made plain to him the closed doors about him. In finding the Divine will, we should look both ways. Before there can be any great forward movement, there must be a vision. There is no victory without a vision.

2. The Advance (vv. 10-12).

As soon as the Divine way was known, they moved forward therein. Visions must be quickly translated, and aggressive action taken or else they are blotted from our skies. Paul never questioned the wisdom of God nor delayed action. This is characteristic of all God's true servants. A straight course. Paul moved off from his own country to the strategic center of a new continent.

III. The First Convert in Europe (vv. 13-15).

The missionaries first went to Philippi and spent several days in studying conditions there. The Jewish element in this city was comparatively insignificant. So much so that they could not have a synagogue. Therefore, the de-out people were accustomed to worship by the river side. To this humble gathering Paul came and preached to the women assembled there. A certain woman from Thyatira named Lydia, a proselyte, believed his message and was baptized. The steps in Lydia's conversion are worthy of note, for they are typical:

1. Attendance at the Place of Worship (v. 13).

Usually those whom God is calling are found at the place of prayer. Lydia was a woman of wealth, culture and wide experience, and yet she had need of Christ. She was seeking the heavenly light. God sends many an inquirer to the prayer meeting.

2. Listening to the Preaching of the Word of God (vv. 13-14).

The instrument used in the conversion of sinners is the Word of God. "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God" (Rom. 10:17). It is highly important that at every prayer meeting the Word of God shall be spoken so that the inquirer after God may find the light.

3. Her Heart Was Opened by the Lord (v. 14).

Only the Lord can convert a soul. It is our business to preach the Word of God, and it is God's business to open the heart of the inquirer. Regeneration is a supernatural work. When the Gospel is preached the Spirit of God opens the sinner's heart for the reception of Christ.

4. She Was Baptized (v. 15).

Every one whose heart the Lord has opened desires to confess Him in baptism. Baptism is an outward sign of inward grace.

5. Her Household Believed (v. 15).

Real conversion cannot be concealed. When one is converted those in the house will find it out.

6. Practical Hospitality (v. 15).

Those who have experienced God's saving grace are thus disposed to have part in His work by rendering aid to His ministers.

A Marked Improvement in Mowers

You who have used the ordinary mowing machine will truly appreciate the high, easy lift on the John Deere. It is so easy to operate that any boy old enough to drive a team can run the John Deere and do it just as easily and as thoroughly as you can.

John Deere High-Lift Mower

With the foot lift the bar is quickly and easily raised from 25 to 35 inches at the cutter end. And with the foot lift and hand lift combined the bar is raised 44 inches. Ordinary or unusual obstructions are easily cleared.

A great feature, particularly in rough uneven fields or on roadsides, is the great flexibility of the cutter bar. It hugs the ground and operates perfectly with the outer end several inches above or below the inner end.

Before you buy a mower we want you to see the John Deere. You want a good machine. We think we have the best. Give us a chance to show you.

OFFICER IS KILLED BY HIDDEN FOE

HOPKINS COUNTY PATROLMAN,
ARRESTING ALLEGED DRUNK, IS SHOT FROM THE REAR

Farmer Held as Suspect—Victim Active in Apprehending Bootleggers, Inquiry Court Learns.

Madisonville — County Patrolman John Allen, 36 years old, was shot from ambush while attempting to drag a drunken man from an automobile parked near a dance hall at Bentah eight miles from here. He fell dead on the running board, the top of his head having been off by a charge of shot.

A court inquiry, held soon after by officials from Madisonville, resulted in the arrest of Lee Tapp, 35, a farmer of Kirkwood Springs, on a charge of murder. He will face a preliminary hearing soon.

Testimony taken at the court revealed that Tapp was seen at the dance with a shotgun before and after Allen was slain. He obtained the weapon, according to testimony, from his brother, Ross Tapp, who lives above the dance hall.

Patrolman Allen had stopped at the motor car when he saw a man standing in it, while his partner, Charles Hicks, guard at the United States Veterans' Hospital at Dawson Springs, took two youths, handcuffed together, to Allen's car farther along the road. With the report of the shot, Hicks ran for cover and the two youths arrested for drunkenness escaped in the woods. Their names are being withheld.

The charge of shot struck Allen near his right temple. It was fired from a distance of about twenty feet.

At the court of inquiry, it was testified that the slain patrolman had been unusually active against bootleggers recently. He frequently accompanied Federal agents on raids, it was said.

Allen had been a County patrolman for two years, and prior to that had served as Chief of Police at Dawson Springs. He leaves a widow.

WARREN PRISON BREAK FAILS

Hoosiers in Bowling Green Jail Use Pipes in Attempted Delivery.

Bowling Green, Ky.—Capt. Porter Dodd, member of the local fire department, prevented a jail delivery when he discovered Raymond Graham, 21 years old, Bloomington, Ind.; Frank Carr, 27, South Bend, and Rufus Rutherford, 24, Shelbyville, Ind., removing bricks on the second floor in the city prison located in the city hall building, adjoining the central fire station.

Captain Dodd called Patrolman Frank Hagerman, who inspected the attempted delivery. Patrolman Hagerman at once notified Patrolmen William N. Conley, W. C. Cross and Bud Hinton, who were on duty. Patrolman Conley opened the prison door and discovered Graham removing the bricks. One of the other two men was watching the door, listening for footsteps of the officers, and the third man was in an open cell, all armed in their clothes, ready to make their getaway. Only six bricks had to be removed when they were caught, and they could have been removed with their hands.

The men were locked in separate cells where they will be kept until Bloomington officers arrive.

When they were asked whether they had ever been in trouble heretofore, all remarked that they were not murderers or highway robbers and when City Jailor John B. Runner remarked that they had been a little disorderly in damaging the city prison, they told him that if some one had been on a close watch prisoners would not endeavor to escape. The officers were unable to hear any noise in the police headquarters.

Captain Dodd heard a noise but could not discover the location until the men had made a hole through the wall. The three prisoners obtained the iron pipes from the lavatory in the men's department, also a piece of iron on one of the banks, which were used to removing the brick. The hole which they succeeded in making was the length of a window and about ten inches in width. A telephone message was received by Chief of Police Craig from the Sheriff at Bloomington, stating that Carr and Rutherford were escaped convicts from the Indiana Reformatory and Graham forfeited a $5,000 bond on a bootlegging charge.

Graham, Carr and Rutherford were arrested here by the police when they were seen driving through the public square with a new coach, 1925 model, without license, either in front or rear. They were caught and it was later learned that they were wanted in Bloomington.

London, Ky.—Mrs. Elmer Dizney, Mrs. Robert Setze and Charles Litteral, of Sorbin, are in the Pennington Hospital here as a result of a head-on collision between two automobiles about a mile south of London. Mrs. Dizney, who was on her way to the hospital for treatment when the accident occurred, was the most seriously hurt, and received a cut on her head and other injuries to her back. Mrs. Setze received severe cuts and broken bones in her right hand, while Litteral's injuries were limited to a deep cut in his leg.

A Young Man Deserving of Honors.

The Gazette is proud of the record made by Morman B. Daniel, who secured the nomination in the Democratic primary for representative from Hickman and Fulton counties. We are proud of him because he is a Hickman county product. The honor that has come to him is one worthily bestowed upon a deserving young man.

The history of the past four years of his life reads like fiction. His success was born of a determination to succeed. The difference between Morman Daniel and many others who have not succeeded is that he applied himself harder and stuck to it longer. Probably he did not possess any more ability than others, but through sacrifice and hard work he mastered conditions in life that amounted to obstacles. Any man who would succeed must possess application and determination, and without these qualities others who fell short of the heights of success found themselves mired in the mud of failure.

Craving for college education, young Daniel hesitated not to accept employment under most humble conditions. He worked his way through college, making a most enviable record, winning high honors and ultimately receiving his law diploma.

Entering the race for representative, he was met with opposition and ridicule from sources. But his determination to win carried him through the campaign. He received possibly the largest majority ever given a candidate in the county, and carried his home county over his strongest opponent. He won distinction on the stump, being termed "baby candidate," and "silver-tongued orator." His oratory gained rapid-fire notice. His tender age—24 years—made an appeal to the people, and his overwhelming vote proved that the people recognized his gift and determination.

His future lies before him. The country today needs young men of vision. It needs men who are fearless in upholding law and who will work for the common good. Morman B. Daniel is such a young man. He possesses fitness to assume the duties as a representative of the people. He will use the knowledge he has gained to benefit the cause of humanity, and his best efforts will be given to the state as one of the representatives of two of her counties.

Progressive in belief, with high ideals and with love for the right, the Gazette predicts for him a real service.—Clinton Gazette.

Achievements Worthy of Special Notice.

"For one man to reach fifty years in service is an achievement worthy of wide note in railway circles, but when two brothers accomplish the same feat on the same railroad, in the same line of work, on the same division, and handling the same trains—that is an accomplishment extremely hard to duplicate," comments the Illinois Central Magazine for August in announcing the retirement on pension of Conductor T. J. Quinlan, of DuBuque, Iowa. Mr. Quinlan's service record with the Illinois central system totaled fifty-two years, the last forty-eight years of which he carried the same lantern. His brother, J. H. Quinlan, passed the half-century mark in Illinois Central service five years ago and is still on the job. The Quinlan brothers are 76 and 72 years old, T. J. being the older. Both have seen practically all of their service on trains running in and out of DuBuque.

Markham's Opportunity.

Opportunity, they say, knocks once, some say twice, at everybody's door. Maybe it does. We do not know. It knocks mighty low sometimes, if it knocks at all. At any rate, there are some people who do not wait for it to knock. They turn things about and go knocking at Opportunity's door. It seems by all odds to be the best way to get in—and on and up.

That is the way C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central, seems to have done. Now here he is going to make a commencement address for Chicago University. He never had any college education. But we venture that address will be full of meat and pith and as polished in good English as the best of them. The college never opened to him. He had to go to work instead of to college. Now he has opened the college door and gone in. He is telling the youngsters things they ought to know.

Charles Markham, who, by the way, is a native of Clarksville, Tenn., went to work as a laborer for the Santa Fe railroad. He knocked so hard at Opportunity's door that in twenty years he was president of a railroad, the Houston and Texas Central. Then he must have knocked some more, for in 1911 he was chosen president of the Illinois Central, perhaps the greatest independent single system of railroad on the continent.

Oh, a fig for Opportunity's knock. Don't wait. But do the knocking yourself. If you get no answer, open the door and go in. Give Opportunity a right good wallop, if need be, and take possession. The place is yours if you can hold it.—Mayfield, (Ky.) Messenger.

Pioneer of South Graves is Dead in Dukedom Section.

(Mayfield Messenger, Aug. 15). W. E. Olive, 88, Confederate veteran and pioneer resident of Graves county, died at 6 o'clock this morning at his home in the Dukedom section, death resulting from general debilities of old age.

He was born in the southern part of the county and spent his life there on the farm. During the Civil War he joined the cause of the Southland, returning at the close of the conflict to his home near Dukedom.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Sunday) morning at Knob Creek church. The Rev. Mr. Hines, of Missouri, who is conducting a meeting in that section, will likely have charge. Burial will follow in the Pinegar graveyard.

He is survived by three children, Mrs. Jennie Laird and Mrs. H. C. Warren, of near Dukedom, and Mrs. Matt Croft, of Water Valley. His wife died about five years ago. He also leaves a number of grandchildren.

He was a great-uncle of J. A. Olive, recently elected county court clerk.

THE OLD WEST IN ACTION

All highways and byways this year lead enticingly to the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo, which is to be held for nine days, beginning August 15. By cut rate train, boat or automobile, with parties of friends made up to share the trip, thousands of tourists are expected to be transplanted into the atmosphere of the real West.

Chicago's new $5,000,000 stadium on Lake Michigan is to become the capital of American sport through the efforts of the domestic and foreign commerce committee of the Association of Commerce.

The story of the roundup and the rodeo is the story of romance of the real West. Into the nine days of the Chicago event will be packed more daring feats and dynamic action than is the privilege of many to witness in a lifetime. Tex Austin, producer of the most successful cowboy contests, will organize and manage the Chicago spectacle. Cowboys, cowgirls and bull-doggers, champions all, and bronchos and longhorn steers which have scorned mastery, will fight out the battle royal for supremacy.

From the "brus" of the Southwest to the ranges of Canada, the challenge has passed among the buckaroos who have fought out old rivalries at the famous cowboy events in Cheyenne and Pendleton. Not only seeking the glory of victory, they also will compete for more than $30,000 in cash prizes out up by the Chicago association. This is the largest amount given anywhere this year for cowboy contests. "Outlaw" horses, called the worst on the ranges, already are under contract with Tex Austin. They can't be ridden, is the promise of their owners. Carloads of steers, conditioned through the summer into their greatest strength, will defy the wits of the "bulldoggers."

The stadium itself is the world's wonder work of architecture. Its massive colonnades look down upon a huge arena and tiers of seats for 75,000 persons. It is set in the ring of boulevards and parks and on the lake front, which have won for Chicago the title of the "vacation city."

The roundup and rodeo will solve your vacation problems, so tell Mother and Sister and the Kid Brother to quit fretting over the summer's plans and get ready for the thrills of their lives.

Murderer of Fulton County Sheriff

Has His Eye Directed Towards the Asylum, and Not the Gallows.

At the examining trial of Monroe Heatherly, slayer of Sheriff J. O. West, at Hickman, Friday, the man thought to be demented promptly entered a plea of "guilty." After entering a plea of guilty, he asked permission of County Judge C. D. Nugent to make a statement. Judge Nugent asked him what he wanted to talk about and Heatherly said: "Well, I was declared crazy by you and two doctors once before and if a man is crazy once, can't he be crazy again?" Judge Nugent told Heatherly to make his statements to the circuit court and twelve jurors. Heatherly had gone to the court house with his plan of salvation worked out and all fixed, thinking if he would declare himself crazy that might possibly end it, and intimated if considered so, he would be willing to return to the asylum. However, when he found that this did not work and that after he plead guilty his case was continued to the action of the circuit court in September, he showed quite a bit of spirit, and as he left the court house, said: "Well, if it is going to be a fight, I am going to employ the best lawyer that I can find and fight it to a finish."

Grain Crops Hurt by Weather Conditions.

Weather and other conditions during July were shown today to have been detrimental to the crops generally, in the Department of Agriculture's monthly report.

The large prospective corn crop was reduced 145,000,000 bushels as compared with a month ago, the production indicated being 2,950,000,000 bushels. Rye, flaxseed, rice, sweet potatoes, tobacco, grapes and hay also showed losses from forecasts made last month.

Winter wheat, for which a preliminary estimate of 416,000,000 bushels was given, showed an increase, but spring wheat, with a total of 368,000,000 bushels, declined 13,000,000, placing the entire wheat crop 7,000,000 bushels below that forecast in July.

There was an improvement in oats, the crop forecast being 1,387,000,000 bushels, or 95,000,000 more than a month ago.

Barley, white potatoes, apples, peaches and pears also recovered increases in their prospective production.

Drought was the principal cause of the heavy decline in corn prospects. The damage was progressively severe westward through the corn belt.

A general drought developed in Missouri in the last ten days of July. July drought, heat and hot winds were extremely unfavorable in Oklahoma and Texas. Wheat production in 18 countries of the northern hemisphere this year including the United States and Canada, was announced by the department as indicated to be 2,145,711,000 bushels or 2.2 per cent more than the same countries produced a year ago. These countries produce three-fourths of the northern hemisphere crop, and about two-thirds of the total world crop, outside of Russia and China.

Leaves Hospital.

Charles Burgess, one of the injured in the cut-off wreck near Beeleron, Hickman county, on Saturday evening, August 8th, was dismissed from the Mayfield hospital Sunday, he having recovered sufficient to return to his home in Fulton. The other two, A. L. "Hart" Harvey and Ullis Williams, continue to improve, and it is likely they will be dismissed within the next week or ten days.

Lee Franklin, the young man who was seriously burned in a gasoline explosion at the Nelson camp No. 2, on the cut-off, remains in a bad condition, but is reported to be improving slowly. He will remain for some time under treatment.

KEEP IN TUNE.

Communities are like people. They are apt to "GET OUT OF TUNE." HARMONY is any community's most valuable asset. Without it little can be accomplished. When the town is OFF KEY it is on the down grade. Something should be done ALL of the time to keep our community in TUNE. We are apt to overlook this, and only tune up spasmodically. In the intervals we are apt to forget we are part of a community. We lapse into mere individuals and lose our COMMUNITY sense. We can't go too far in an effort to preserve community harmony. Let's all work in order to keep ON THE KEY.

uation would require a net operation income of approximately $1,030,000.00. The largest return earned by the railroads since 1920 was $973,865,575 in 1925. To earn a 5 3-4 per cent return upon the Interstate Commerce Commission's minimum tentative valuation as of January 1, 1920, plus subsequent investment to the end of 1924, would require a net operating income of approximately $200,000,000 in excess of what the carriers earned in 1924.

To earn a 5 3-4 per cent return upon their valuation as indicated upon the property investment accounts of the railroads would require a net operating income of approximately $1,383,000,000 for 1925—according to information put out by the committee of public relations of the Eastern railroads.

SUPER-TITE Asphalt Shingles give every advantage of other roof coverings—plus—two distinctive features combined in the same shingle.

They give double and triple thickness over the entire roof area—with the addition of a LOCK-BUTT to prevent curling or blowing up.

When laid, there is no part of a Super-Tite roof which has less than double thickness coverage—and—over 48 per cent of the roof area is triple thickness. This greater coverage, with the LOCK-BUTT feature, makes a roof covering which defies sun, rain, snow, wind or sleet. Super-Tite Shingles cannot curl up—blow up—nor can they warp.

Adorning the tables and mantels were baskets and vases filled with all kinds of yellow flowers to carry out a yellow and green motif. The places of the guests were marked by appropriate placards. The honorees were gownied in summer frocks with accessories to match. Each honoree was presented with a lovely gift. Mrs. R. A. House made the highest score for the morning. At the conclusion of the games a most delicious menu was served consisting of frozen fruit salad, chicken salad sandwiches, nut bread sandwiches, iced tea and salted almonds. —Martin Press.

The Cumberland Presbyterian church was the scene of a brilliant wedding, Tuesday morning, when Miss Irene Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. A wealth of ferns, roses, dahlias, hydrangeas and smilax, among which gleamed many candles, decorated the chancel, forming an exquisite setting for the bridal party. Tall baskets filled with America, Russell, Premier and Killarney roses added beauty to the interior decorations.

Preceding the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. Luther Carson, of Paducah, who sang, "O, Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly," while Miss Florence Wade, a pretty sister of the bride, played Schubert's Serenade on the violin, and Traumeri during the ceremony. Refreshments were attractively served in ice course. Favors to each guest were various colored linen handkerchiefs, uniquely made into rosebuds with lace ferns.

FULTON HUB OF THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R.

The Gateway of the Shortest Route Between New Orleans and Chicago

Practically midway between Chicago and New Orleans, is Fulton, Kentucky, the gateway of the shortest route between North and South, destined to be one of the big terminal points on the Illinois Central Railway.

There would have been very little of Fulton without the Illinois Central. In fact, it has been the foundation and backbone of this city since 1874. The principal officials of the company are every ready to do all they can for Fulton's advancement. On the other hand, our citizens have a deep sense of appreciation for that cordial spirit and the relations existing between this community and that great corporation, are of the most pleasant nature.

The Tennessee Division of the Illinois Central, passing through the Eastern portion of the county and giving such superior transportation facilities between the North and South, was built in 1873-74 from Jackson to Cairo, as the extension of the Mississippi Central Railroad.

The Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern Railroad was graded in 1860, reaching Fulton in 1861. It formed an important link in Huntington's transcontinental line. About twenty-five years ago the property was purchased by the Illinois Central and is now a part of its system, constituting what is known as its Memphis-Louisville line.

Fulton is headquarters of the Tennessee Division. The company maintains a roundhouse here and other valuable properties.

Besides splendidly equipped modern passenger trains daily in and out of Fulton, the company's freight service is all that could be desired.

But service is the keynote of this great railroad system's success and the recent acquisitive activities will mean much to Fulton and the territory surrounding it. The I. C. has recently acquired control of several southern railroads. The practical meaning of these acquisitions is that there will be a greatly increased movement of freight traffic between North and South, via Fulton, the hub of the Illinois Central Railroad.

WHY BUYING FARM LANDS IN FULTON COUNTY IS A GOOD INVESTMENT

To view the fertile lands of Fulton county is enough to give any one a new inspiration of love for the country in which we live, surpassing in productivity the high priced lands of many parts of the country.

Fulton and surrounding counties is in the midst of one of the finest agricultural sections of the entire South. The surface is mostly a rolling level inclining toward the Mississippi river. The soil is as versatile as it is rich and will grow to perfection, corn, wheat, cotton, all cereals, clover, alfalfa, grasses, tobacco, the dark variety of fruits, potatoes and vegetables of all kinds.

It is an ideal stock section, on account of the freedom with which grasses grow. The country is well watered by living streams. It would be hard indeed, to find any section of country so well adapted to so many leading crops, to stock raising and all kindred lines of agriculture, and it is inhabited by a happy, prosperous, progressive people.

During his visit to Fulton county, some years ago, Morgan O. Hughes, the best authority in America on farming, said it was not factories Fulton county needed, the production of the soil was sufficient.

Prof. E. S. Good, head of animal husbandry of the College of Agriculture during his visit some years ago, said, "Blessed is that county that can raise the crops and stock such as raised here."

During their visit here, Messrs. Hughes and Good talked to the farmers and all who heard the addresses were benefited, because every word uttered by these gentlemen was instructive, giving each and everyone an inspiration for higher ideal on the farm.

No farmer in this section is ashamed for you to view his beautiful fields of growing crops, sheep, hogs, cattle, etc. A trip through this section of the country will cure any man who has the "Florida fever."

Money For Truck Growers

The finest, largest and most deliciously flavored strawberries we have ever seen are grown near Fulton and can be raised anywhere in this section. Apples, peaches, pears, plums, and Japanese persimmons can be raised to perfection. Considering how close we are to the best markets in the world for produce of all kinds—markets like St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Evansville, Cairo, Memphis and Nashville; how quickly these markets can be reached and our mild climate, abundance of rainfall, soil peculiarly adapted to the purpose, etc.—it is unquestionably a fact that no section in the South offers greater inducements for truck farming than the country adjacent to Fulton. The bottom lands are ideal for sweet and Irish potatoes, watermelons and canteloupes. Tomatoes, string beans, cabbage, lettuce, English peas, sweet corn, eggplant, okra, peppers, parsnips, carrots, turnips, asparagus, celery, salsify and other vegetables are a ready-money crop and are grown to perfection anywhere in the country contiguous to Fulton.

We want truck-growers to come among us and develop our lands into moderate sized fruit and vegetable farms. Every condition is favorable for such an enterprise and there is no doubt about success if proper methods are followed. Those who are now engaged in the business are making money, but unfortunately it is at present carried on in a perfunctory manner and by only a few persons.

We hope to see Fulton become a strawberry center. All that is needed is for energetic, enterprising truck-farmers to come here and get busy. Available lands suitable for strawberry culture are cheap at present, but will soon treble in value.

Peaches are Perfect

No section of the United States raises better peaches than are grown near Fulton. They are large, firm, juicy and of a delightful flavor. The Elberta variety are especially bountiful and profitably grown hereabouts. We are pleased to note that there has been a marked increase in the number of new orchards started within the past few years, but peach-growing in this section is in its infancy. There are splendid opportunities here for engaging in fruit culture, particularly the best varieties of peaches, on an extensive scale. Shipping facilities are excellent and the fruit can be marketed much earlier and in far better condition than when grown farther away from the big markets. The shrewd, far-seeing man who wants to make money in growing peaches need not look farther than the Fulton country.

The County's Bouquet

Franklin Dry Goods & Clothing Co.

In the year 1901, Ed Slaughter and Tom Franklin, came from the little town of Duke and opened a dry goods store in the Meadow block. People living around Paducah, Palmersville, Boydsville, Cottage Grove and other inland towns, knew these men and the kind of goods they sold and a considerable number of them continued to trade with Slaughter & Franklin after the latter came to Fulton. For eight years this firm enjoyed a large patronage, then the partnership was broken by the death of Mr. Slaughter.

In 1909 The Franklin Dry Goods & Clothing Company, a corporation, was formed. From the very beginning this firm enjoyed unprecedented success and today it is the largest and finest store in Western Kentucky or Tennessee. In 1916, a fine store building was erected on Main street and this has since been the home of "Franklin's" as the store is generally known throughout this trade territory.

Mr. Thomas M. Franklin is president, Mr. S. T. Butler, vice president and Mr. Charles Binford, secretary-treasurer. 20 live wire people are employed in this place regularly, each of whom is especially trained to carry on the duties entrusted to them. Many of the salespeople have been connected with the firm ever since it was established.

Franklin's carries the highest grade of merchandise to be found in this part of the state and is really a modern city store set down in the best country town in the world. This store frequently has big sales when prices and profits are cut and slashed in order that no out-of-date stock may accumulate on the shelves.

Three or four times a year, Mr. Franklin goes to the New York market to buy the latest and smartest ready-made garments for both men and women and the best dressers in a radius of forty miles come to Franklin's to supply their needs.

Regardless of what you want you can find it in "Fulton's Busy Store."

Hog Prices Will Advance

Good Time for Farmers to Plan Increase Production

The annual outlook report of the Federal Bureau of Agricultural Economics says, "There is indication that hog prices during the next 18 months will be higher than at any time since 1929. There are now 18 cent fewer hogs in the country than there were a year ago. Six to eight millions fewer pigs will be born this spring than last spring. Fewer sows will farrow next fall than last. Producers respond to the unfavorable relation of corn and hogs as they usually do."

This suggests that it is a good time for many Western Kentucky farmers to plan increase in the number of pigs farrowed next fall to the extent they can do so from the breeding stock available. It will also be a good time to exercise more than ordinary care in feeding and handling, so as to save as many pigs as possible. Because periods of higher production and lower prices follow periods of low production and high price, the farmer should bear in mind that the prediction of higher prices does not extend beyond the summer of 1926.

Normally Western Kentucky farmers, in order to compete with the cornbelt farmers, in feeding hogs, use considerable pasturage and non-salable feeds. This is because corn is usually higher in Western Kentucky than in the corn belt. For the same reasons, with beef cattle, it is desirable that Western Kentucky farmers depend upon pasturage and non-salable roughage for maintenance and a considerable part of the gains. For the farmer with this pasturage and roughage, it appears to be a good time to plan reasonable increases in the beef cattle herd.

T. B. Neely

If practice makes perfect, as the old saying goes, T. B. Neely should be one of the best tonorial artists in Western Kentucky. For the past sixteen years, "Boss" (as his friends call him) has been engaged in the barber business in Fulton. He has one of the most up-to-date shops to be found in this entire section and only first class workmen are employed. Associated with him are Fred Cooper, Brent Roberson and Ollie Nicholand, and if they can't make you look better, you are a mighty poor subject to work on.

Mr. Neely has recently opened a beauty parlor in connection with his shop. This place is in charge of Miss Mitchell, a well trained operator, who is ready to give permanent waves or any kind of hair or facial work desired by the ladies of this vicinity. Every privacy is afforded lady customers, and you are invited to visit the Arcade Beauty Parlor when in need of first class service.

City National Bank

The City National Bank, the largest bank in Fulton county, was organized in the year 1897, with a capital stock of $25,000. Smith Fields and Chas. E. Rice, now deceased, were the first president and cashier, respectively, of this institution. Both were men of broad vision and very capable financiers and from the very first, the bank prospered and grew until today its capital and surplus is $160,000 with assets of approximately $1,000,000.

At the present time, the officers of this great institution are W. W. Morris, president; N. G. Cooke, active vice president; C. P. Williams, cashier; B. J. Pigue, and Hugh Pigue, assistant cashiers; Miss Ann Royster, bookkeeper.

The board of directors is composed of many of the leading business men of Fulton.

Credit for much of the success of this bank is doubtless due to the untiring effort and shrewd ability of Active Vice-President, N. G. Cooke. Mr. Cooke has been with the bank for the entire twenty-eight years of its existence. He, as a mere youth, was the bank's first bookkeeper. He held this position until, through the untimely death of Mr. Rice, he was promoted to the position of cashier. As cashier, he further demonstrated his ability and in a few years the bank grew to such an extent that it became necessary to create the office of active vice president. Mr. Cooke was again promoted as a token of the esteem in which he was held by the board of directors.

With this promotion of Mr. Cooke, it became necessary to select a cashier and Mr. C. P. Williams, who had been "doing his bit" over in France, was promoted from the position of bookkeeper to that of cashier.

With these two popular and able young men in control, the bank has shown remarkable growth in the last few years and is known as "That Strong Bank."

P. H. Weaks' Sons

Some years prior to 1868 the little town of Feliciana, in Graves county, was the largest and most important business center in all this section of the country. It was a thriving place and much larger than it is at present. At this time George Weaks owned and operated a general store to which the people throughout this sparsely settled territory went to do their trading. When Water Valley was founded and the railroad built by or through it, Mr. Weaks and his son, Porter H. Weaks, removed their store to Water Valley where the business was continued until the year 1895. In this year, Mr. P. H. Weaks, seeking a better trade territory, decided to come to Fulton which had then become the most important town in this section. He opened his store where the present firm, bearing his name, now operates.

In 1916, his eldest son, Leslie, was admitted to a partnership in the firm and it then was called P. H. Weaks & Son.

At the death of Mr. Weaks, in 1923, Louis Weaks, a younger son, entered the firm which has since been known as P. H. Weaks' Sons, a designation which is a lasting monument to one of Fulton's most honorable business men in the days of his activity.

The sons are proving their worth in the manner they have carried on the work of the father, whose shrewd business instincts they seem to have inherited.

The Weaks store is a good place to visit when in need of anything that is sold by a high class dry goods store.

Mr. R. E. Stille, salesman and bookkeeper, has been with the Weaks store since it was organized here and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Stone have been connected with it for nearly as long a time.

First National Bank

The First National Bank is the oldest bank in Fulton county and under its present management, it is an exceedingly safe depository for any surplus money you may happen to have.

This bank was organized and opened for business in the year 1891 and has enjoyed prosperity most of the time during the thirty-one years of its existence.

Today it is in better shape than it ever was, which is largely due to the fact that its present officials are among the best known men in Fulton, men in whom the public has confidence.

R. H. Wade, the Mayor of Fulton, is president of this bank, R. B. Beadles, postmaster, is active president; George T. Beadles, is cashier and Paul E. Boaz is assistant cashier.

These men are all splendid business men and have achieved success in other lines of endeavor.

Many men have received financial assistance through this banking house that enabled them to tide over a bad deal or take advantage of a good opportunity to make money. Some of these men have passed on, while others remain here to praise the "good old First National," for the timely assistance rendered them during their hour of need.

Railroad Picnic Sept. 7

The employees of the Tennessee Division will hold their annual picnic on Labor Day, September 7, on the Wash-Out near Tiptonville, and we understand plans are under way to make this the best and most delightful outing the employees have ever had.

A special train will leave the Passenger station at Fulton at 7 a. m., Monday morning (Labor Day) September 7, going via Dyersburg, where it will pick up more employees and thence to Tiptonville, where the citizens of Tiptonville will meet them with automobiles and carry them to the scene of the merry-making ground.

Each employee will carry a basket of lunch, and everyone is certain of plenty to eat.

Persons other than employees may attend this picnic, and all that is necessary is to buy your ticket, get your lunch and hop on—the more, the merrier. There will be different kinds of contests, similar to those had last year, such as prizes for the best swimmers, dancers, runners, jumpers, etc.

The citizens of Tiptonville to further show their hospitality, are going to provide "The Georgia Serenaders," one of the best orchestras in the country, to play for the picnic that day.

The special train will return to Fulton about 9:30 p. m.

HO! FOR THE LIFE OF A COWBOY

(From a drawing by N. C. Wyeth in Scribner's Magazine.)

Ever eat beans ("Mexican strawberries") dished up from a chuck wagon? Ever sleep out with a saddle for a pillow? It's a great life—if you like it, say the cowboys.

Thousands of Americans, who want to see how real western cowhands live and play, are planning to attend the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo beginning August 15. Cowboys from every part of the West will be on hand for this great western spectacle, which will be held under the auspices of the Chicago Association of Commerce. For nine days Chicago's big Grant Park Stadium will look like a scene from the "Covered Wagon days" as the scores of expert bronc riders, lariat throwers and steer wrestlers show their stuff while competing for $30,000 prize money and world championship titles. Tex Austin, who has staged so many successful contests, including the great international contest at Wembley, England, will direct the Chicago event.

SECRETARY LIKES THE RODEO

In the West he's "Bul." But in official Washington he's William Marlon Jardine, secretary of agriculture, a member of President Coolidge's official "family." Secretary Jardine has been invited to attend the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo, to be held for nine days, beginning August 15. Those who know him say that he will be on hand for this greatest of all cowboy contests, as Secretary Jardine has not lost the spirit of the West where, years ago, he rode the range and punched cattle with the best of them.

Back in Idaho they like to tell how the secretary of agriculture busted broncos and threw a rope. They're proud of their "Bul" and they're willing to wager that he could ride into the arena at the Chicago Rodeo and make some of the expert cowhands lustre for honors. The competitions will be held under the direction of Tex Austin for the world's championship titles, belts and trophies and $30,000, the largest cash purses paid anywhere.

MAGIC OF RODEO ROPERS

Wizards with iron wrists, who can send a lasso snapping through the air with the accuracy of a rifle bullet, will work their magic when famous ropers will meet at the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo to be held for nine days, beginning August 15. A good portion of the prizes put up by the Chicago Association of Commerce, under whose auspices the cowboy contests will be held, is set aside for the ropers. Champions, past and present, have written Tex Austin that they will be on hand to compete for the awards and the world's championship title. Austin, who has put on many big rodeos, will direct the Chicago contest. A steer or calf in action makes remarkable speed and to send the loop of the lariat whipping through the air and to have it land unerringly around horns or neck is one of the most difficult of cowboy feats. To do this and then to throw and tie the animal must be the work of only a few seconds. The experts are bringing their own roping ponies, so intelligent and highly trained that some are almost priceless.

ICED DRINKS IN THE SUMMER

On a warm and sultry summer day, there is nothing more refreshing to the mind and to the body than an iced drink. Of course, when such drinks are being used, moderation should be practiced, because if taken in excess or too rapidly, they are liable to be injurious to the stomach. However, when taken in a sensible manner, they are refreshing and beneficial to the fatigued. In the manufacture of these drinks, care should be taken to avoid any combination that may be indigestible or hard to assimilate. The drink should be consumed in a slow and leisurely manner.

The greatest danger present in the use of iced drinks is the one that involves the use of ingredients that are possibly impure or contaminated in any way. This is very liable to happen if the juices that are used are allowed to stand until they become soured and unfit for use, or if the milk or other ingredient used is not strictly fresh. The predisposition of milk to spoil quickly at summer temperatures makes it oftentimes necessary to use evaporated milk, which after all is just pure fresh milk with more than half the water taken away. It is sterile and, therefore, always safe. For use in iced drinks, it is ideal.

Following are several formulas used in the manufacture of iced beverages. If these formulas are followed religiously, the results will be found to be very satisfactory.

Chocolate Malted Milk.

1 cup evaporated milk 2 teaspoonfuls cocoa

1 cup water 2 teaspoonfuls malted milk

Mix cocoa with water until syrup is obtained. Put all ingredients in Mason jar and shake thoroughly and serve with chopped ice.

Milk Punch.

1 cup evaporated milk 2 tbs. orange juice

Sugar to suit 1/2 cup water

1 cup tea Small stick cinnamon

2 tbs. lemon juice 1/2 cup fruit juice (currant or berry preferred)

Boil slowly the cinnamon, a lemon rind and orange rind in water for ten minutes. Strain and when cool add the other ingredients. Place in a Mason fruit jar and shake well. Serve in tall glasses with chopped ice.

Egg Nog.

1 egg 1 1/2 tbs. powdered sugar

Pinch salt 1/2 cup cold evaporated milk

1/2 cup ice water 2 tbs. fruit juice

Add salt to egg white and beat to a stiff froth. Add the sugar, the well beaten yolk of the egg and the fruit juice and nutmeg. Fill glasses with milk and cold water. Sprinkle with chopped nuts.

Trainer of Boxers Gives Diet Hints

To Kid Howard of Chicago and his new system of training and conditioning, Sammy Mandell, the present lightweight boxing champion of the world, gives a great deal of the credit for his meteoric rise to stardom in the world of pugilism. When Mandell first started fighting, he was small, weak and undeveloped, but after turning himself over to Howard it was only a short time before he took the decision from Sid Terris of New York that resulted in him being recognized as the boss of the lightweights. Howard's system is unique in that it works no hardship on the athlete who is in training. Unlike the systems that have been used for years, this prominent and successful trainer of men makes conditioning more of a pleasure than a distasteful necessity. Instead of demanding that his men eat only certain things he advises them to eat what they want and when they want it as long as it is cooked in a proper manner. Mr. Howard, in a recent interview on the subject of diet and condition, said, in part: "Years ago it was a task, and an unpleasant one, for a boxer or a wrestler to train for a bout because he was forced to literally starve himself unless he wanted to eat steaks and chops at all times. I remember that when I was training for a match, I was so truly tired of steaks that I choked every time that I ate one but it was steak or nothing. I advise my men to diet at all times but it is perfectly possible for them to diet and, at the same time, to enjoy their food. My only 'don't' is the one regarding the eating of such combinations as fresh milk and cheese, and fruit with cream. In fact, I advocate the use of evaporated milk entirely. Vegetables are fine and the more that the athlete eats the better he will be for it. Pastry, of certain kinds, such as homemade pies, cakes and cookies, if made correctly, and with pure butter, evaporated milk and pure lard, are very beneficial. Steaks and holls are ideal. Taken as a whole, any food, with a few exceptions, is all right if properly cooked and eaten without gorging."

And one has but to look at Howard, who is the most religious user of his own system, to realize that it is a success.
