SOUTH FULTON SCHOOL

Pep has been made for the hundredth instrumental to be held in South Fulton, Feb. 6-8 and Feb. 9-11.

The sesquicentennial observance on February 9th, when the whistle of the South Fulton High School will be blown, will be the first of its kind in the South. The game opened with Fulton leading, but was outscored by Obion 8-5, the Bulldogs losing their last home game from Obion.

DEATHS

Mrs. Frances Bodie of Clinton, sister of Mrs. Guy Gingle of Fulton, died Sunday at her home in Clinton. Funeral services will be held at Battonville church where the funeral will be held. The service will be conducted by Rev. S. S. Phillips.

Only Payroll

We recently received a number of complaints from customers who had received incorrect payroll statements from their employers. This is unacceptable and we are investigating the matter to ensure that all employees are being paid accurately. We urge all employers to review their payroll processes and make any necessary corrections to ensure fair treatment of their employees.

An Athletic Club

We are pleased to announce the opening of a new athletic club in the area. This club offers a range of fitness facilities and programs for members of all ages and fitness levels. We encourage everyone to join and take advantage of the benefits this club has to offer.
