The man, who is known as "Mr. Peacock," had been arrested by the police several times in the past, and had been committed to the state hospital for the insane.

The postmaster, who is a respected citizen, was not immediately available for comment.

DO YOU INHALE?

...wonder why cigarette advertising generally avoids this question?

Of all the mysteries in cigarette adverisising has been the apparent fear of the word "inhale." It seems rather foolish—for everyday inhalers—whether they realize it or not—...every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

Think, then, how important it is to be certain that your cigarette adver-pises and claims—are sure that you don't inhale certain impurities.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question...because when you smoke Luckies you inhale naute insignificance in other cigare-nettes. All other methods have been made old-fashioned by Lucky's famous purifying process.
