Mails Robbed.

On or about January 5th, a registered letter sent from Lafayette to Chicago, containing $50, was abstracted from the mail bag and has not been heard of since. On Dec. 26 the key to the lock on the mail bag was stolen at Roaring Spring, and it was then suspected that an attempt would be made to rob the mails. The bill for the letter above mentioned reached this city all right but the letter itself was gone. Certain parties are watched with suspicion and arrests will shortly be made.

Death of Mrs. Fannie Campbell.

Mrs. Fannie Campbell, wife of Captain Edward Campbell, died Monday, Jan. 25th, at the Campbell home on the Canton turnpike, after protracted illness. Mrs. Campbell was the daughter of the late G. B. Long, who was born, educated and reared in this city and at the time of her death was in the 43d year of her age. In 1866 she married Captain Edward Campbell, of the Eighty-Ninth U. S. A., to whom she bore one child who survives her.

For the last two years of her life she was a constant sufferer from malignant disease, for whose tortures medical skill, here and abroad, and the devotion of friends gave little relief. It was heavenly mysterious will and she bowed to it with heroic resignation sustained by a sublime Christian faith which she had cherished from early childhood.

To such a sufferer the call of death is the welcome voice of a friend who brings the long wished for release to all who know that joyous, genial, generous spirit, light-hearted, merry and guileless as a little child, happiest when making others happy, it seems like the calling of a rose by a bitter frost, the sudden drought of a sparkling brook, the untimely close of a beautiful melody, to hear that Fannie Campbell is no more.

Among the Breakers.

Decidedly the best amateur entertainment ever given in the city was the presentation of the laughable comedy "Among the Breakers" at Holland's Opera House Friday night by the following cast:

David Murray, Keeper of Fairpoint Light, Park Heaton; Larry Dwyer, his assistant; Ira Smith; Hon. Bruce Hunter, John Peland; Peter Paraphragh, a reporter; J. W. Downer; Scud; Hunter's colored servant, H. H. Abernathy; Miss Minnie Daze; Hunter's niece, Miss Emma Campbell; Miss Starbright; "Cast by the Waves," Miss Cammie Martin; Mother Carey, a fortune teller, Mrs. Rost; Bibby Bean, an Irish girl, Miss Corrie Phelps.

Every part was well sustained. Mr. Heaton displayed a vivid conception of "David Murray" and was especially strong in the last act. Ira Smith and H. H. Abernathy as "Larry" and "Scud" kept the house in a roar of laughter, while Mr. Downer as the versatile "Peter" gave the amusing artist touch to the merriest of the evening. John Peland as "Bruce Hunter" and Larry Dwyer as "Hon. Bruce Hunter" were graceful in their parts and spoke their lines with vigor and effect. The "Boss Starbright" of Miss Cammie Martin was a brilliant presentation. Miss Corrie Phelps won applause as "Minnie Daze" and sustained the comedy lead admirably. Miss Emma Campbell as "Minnie Daze" not only captured the susceptible "Peter" but won the audience as well; while "Mother Carey," the old fortune teller, out of the discordant lives of two much brought happiness and peace to the entire company.

The songs by Messrs. Campbell and Dagg were superb vocal performances and were loudly applauded. The "Fun Drill" was gracefully executed. The evolutions and the "march" were simply perfect. The young ladies were beautiful in movement and in feature, and the entire programme was executed to the satisfaction of the audience. The receipts were $86 which go to the benefit of the Episcopal church. The lady directors of the entertainment wish to return thanks to Mr. A. D. Rogers for his uniform kindness in doing everything in his power for the success of the evening. His efforts were untiring and were highly appreciated.

The characters of the Dickens Festival will meet at the Opera House to-night, at 7 o'clock promptly. Also Wednesday and Thursday nights at the same hour. It is to be hoped that our community will manifest their interest and sympathy in the Y. M. C. A. by generously patronizing the Dickens Festival, to be given Jan. 29th, in behalf of this organization, which is progressing most favorably, now having a membership of seventy or eighty members. The proceeds of this festival go towards furnishing the rooms for the Association.

The city for some days has presented a good imitation of a winter scene in the town of North Europe, made familiar by pictures. Teams and sleighs passing with muffled and over streets thickly strewn with snow, snow on house-tops, observatories, cupolas, and towers; snow on cornices, winnow and door-caps and every projection, point and angle where it could find lodgment; snow on fences, cedars, evergreen bushes, and house-suckle vines. Country travel is much restricted and merchants look anxiously for better weather.

Law and Order in Lafayette.

A large number of citizens in Lafayette, one of the most intelligent communities in the county, recently formed a Law and Order Club to check the excesses of the whisky traffic in the town, which they say has become intolerable. Among those engaged in the movement are: Prof. S. L. Fregge, Pres.; Rev. J. D. Fraser, L. J. Purcell, Dr. C. N. Northington, Rev. Eldred E. Fite, Sec. and Treas.; Dr. D. E. Boyd, C. B. Fraser, Sgt.-at-Arms, Henry B. Marshall, S. M. Fraser, A. P. Collins, Vice Pres., T. E. Collins, R. J. Cooper, G. B. Brame, R. J. Carothers.

The club announces its determination to make war upon the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors, the violation of Sunday laws and the setting up and keeping of gambling houses, also any individual gambling, whereby anything of value is won or lost, and hereby pledge their united efforts to break up and prevent all such violations of the statute laws of our commonwealth, and the ordinances of the town of Lafayette, Ky., and bring to punishment, anyone who dares to so violate such laws. By this they mean to use all legal and proper means to accomplish this end, to be hereafter determined by the club, which shall be known as the Law and Order Club of Lafayette, Ky.

The Musical.

On Thursday evening last a select audience of over a hundred ladies and gentlemen, representing some of the elite of our city, assembled at the D. H. Balthus & Co.'s piano and organ display to enjoy a rare musical treat.

The object of the occasion was to advertise the fine collection of sample pianos and organs, some of the best local talent, and the program would do credit to the concert stage. The violin and piano duets, "Scene De Ballet," by De Beriot, "Fantasia and Etude," by The Flower Song, by Lange, were rendered by Prof. Aug. Reichert and Miss Seely (of the South Ky. College) in a manner and style that would be expected from musicians of their well known reputation. The piano solo by Miss Sarah Dagg, "The Little Foxglove," piano solo by Miss Clayton Dagg, were each performed with a degree of taste and grace, becoming daughters of their mother. "Venita," vocal solo by Miss Clayton Dagg, was highly appreciated by the audience, and showed an enviable vocal talent. "Moonlight In The Forest," "La Gazelle," "La Reine Des Fleurs," were the piano solos by Miss Sophie Hossington, who is quite a favorite pianist and it is sufficient to say she acquitted herself in her usual creditable manner. The "Duet for two violins," by Prof. Reichert and Mr. Williams, was warmly applauded, and the solo "The Mariner" was rendered in a fine voice by Mr. Williams. Want of space forbids further comment, but suffice to say that from the manifest interest of the audience the evening was very enjoyable and we hope Mr. Williams will continue this form of advertising. A good Ad. in our paper will harmonize with the finest pianos or organs on exhibition.

Joe Major, colored, was caught trying to rob the cash drawer in Mr. A. H. Anderson's saloon Saturday night and turned over to the police before he could make way with the change.

An Engine and Tender Goes Through a Bridge Near Clarksville—Brave Trainmen.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Jan. 23.—The engine and tender of a passenger train on the Indiana, Alabama & Texas railroad went through the Wilson Spring trestle, about six miles from the city, this morning. There were twelve or fifteen passengers badly scared, but fortunately no one was hurt. Mr. L. Ashmore, the engineer, stuck to his post and went down with the wreck, after doing all he could to prevent the disaster. He was slightly injured and considerably bruised. Monroe Nelly, the colored fireman, jumped from the engine and received a severe cut on the head. The engine was running with the tender in front, coming into town. The tender jumped the track on the trestle and striking the cross-ties pushed them in front until the engine and tender fell through fifteen feet. The passengers were thrown about on their backs and uncoupled the cars, saved the passenger cars from going through. Conductor Charlie Macer rescued the passengers their fares and hired conveyances for sending them to town, doing everything possible for their comfort.

"Shine 'em uppa!" said an Italian boot-black to Pat, just landed. "Pat's the charge?" asked Pat. "Five cents," Begonia, the Italian, said. He seated himself in the chair, "it is a fine country, Ameriky, where a poor Olrishman can get his boots blacked by a gentleman and gold rings in his ears."—New York Sun.
