VOL. 28, NO. 28.

MURRAY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1907.

$1.00 PER YEAR.

SENATOR LINN

Will Be Elected President Pro Tem. of the State Senate. — Important Place.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 23.—Gov. elect A. E. Willson will take the oath of office of Chief Magistrate of the State on the 10th of December, and during the last week of next month the Legislature will assemble.

Friends of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham and Democrats in the Senate are said to have determined on Senator Conn Linn, of Calloway county, for President pro tem. of the State Senate at its coming session. Friends of the administration will put forth every effort to elect Senator Linn. On account of the contention of the Democrats that the President pro tem. has the right to name all the standing committees of the Senate, the office of President pro tem. will be an important one.

The Democrats will have twenty-two votes to the Republicans sixteen in the Senate, and they will be able to elect one of their own number to preside over the Senate during the absence of Lieut. Gov. W. A. Cox. Senator Albert Charlton, of Louisville, has also been mentioned for President pro tem.

If Senator Linn is elected Gov. Beckham's forces will start off with increased hope for the result of the Senatorial race.

Representative W. J. Gooch, of Simpson county, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Speaker of the House, is in Louisville today.

Mr. Gooch will make a trip into Western Kentucky within the next ten days and will visit personally all the Democratic members of the House in that section. He says he is confident of election and says the sentiment among the State Democrats is for harmony and unity of purpose.

Union Thanksgiving Service.

There will be a union Thanksgiving service today commencing at 10:30 o'clock at the Christian church, and will be participated in by all the churches of the city. Rev. Leake, pastor of the Methodist church, will deliver the sermon.

This union of services upon the glorious day of Thanksgiving is most commendable and is a splendid evidence of the love, friendship and fellowship that exists among the different church organizations of the town. Services will begin at 10:30 promptly.

Looks Like a Hen.

St. Gaudens' $10 gold pieces have reached Murray. Some admiration has been expressed for the coin on account of its almost Grecian simplicity, but most people on viewing them feel like saying "Fudge," or something stronger. There is also some strenuous objections because the time-honored motto, "In God We Trust" is omitted, and also because some say the gold piece is hideous.

Ministers claim that in leaving off the motto the government is leading the people to believe that instead of trusting in God they should trust in banks and trust companies.

The coin is a peculiar looking piece. At first glance the piece looks like a prize from a popcorn package. The eagle looks like a Thanksgiving turkey with overalls on, or a fat hen in pants.

Instead of milling the 46 stars, representing the states of the union, including Oklahoma, are found on the edge. The original 13 stars appear as before, on one side of the piece.

A woman's head, the Indianne, decorates one side, and the new brand eagle the other. Under the Indian head there is nothing but the date, 1907, and over the head are the 13 stars. Beside the eagle in small type appears "E. Pluribus Unum," and the words "United States of America" surround his head, and the words "Ten Dollars" are under his feet.

The face of the Indian is that of Miss Mary Cunningham, a Philadelphia girl, who was in the employ of St. Gaudens. It is an artistic face, but it is not an Indian's profile. It is distinctly an Irish type of beauty.

The eagle is the novelty of the gold piece. Instead of having his wings spread majestically, he is standing up with wings drooping.

Martin's Chapel.

Everybody is glad that conference is over and that Rev. W. E. Humphreys will be their pastor for another year.

The society of Martin's Chapel will have an entertainment the first Sunday afternoon in December. Everybody invited to come.

A large crowd attended the spelling at the Chapel school house Friday night and everybody seemed to enjoy being there.

Mr. Bob White and Miss Myrtle Davis went to Tennessee the 17th, and were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Huie Styles and family have arrived here from Arkansas. Mr. Styles has bought a farm and says he is going to stay in "Old Kentucky."

PURITAN MAID. Cut Throat by Nail.

Mr. Thomas Duckett, the well known farmer of between the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers, several miles out of Paducah toward Smithland was buried last Sunday. Friday, while building a barn, a rope broke and let fall the scaffold on which he was standing. A long nail projecting out from a rafter caught his throat and ripped it open from ear to ear, causing instant death. He was 35 years of age and is survived by his wife.

Succeeds Thompson.

The Rev. M. E. Dodd, of Fulton, has accepted the call as pastor of the First Baptist church of Paducah. His decision was announced to his congregation in Fulton Sunday, and the congregation in Paducah was notified of his acceptance of the call, at the same time. Mr. Dodd will take charge of the Paducah church January 1, when the resignation of the Rev. Calvin M. Thompson, who has become editor of the Western Recorder at Louisville will take effect.

Dr. Newell Dead.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 27.—Dr. T. J. Newell, presiding elder of the Brownsville district, former pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, died this morning at 12:30, according to a dispatch received by his daughter, Miss Virginia Newell, of Hotel Craig, who left on the South bound train this morning to be with her mother and other members of the family at Brownsville, Tenn.

Rev. W. C. Waters, of Trenton, Tenn., was the guest of relatives here the past week.

HUNG JURY

No Agreement Reached in the Famous Hamley-Meadows Damage Suit.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 21.—The jury in the Hamley-Meadows $100,000 damage suit, tried in the U. S. court here Tuesday and Wednesday failed to agree. The body stood ten for Hawley and two for Meadows. Those favoring Hawley were for giving him a verdict for sums running from $2,000 to $50,000. Those for Meadows contended his act was justifiable from the evidence. The body was discharged when it was announced a verdict was impossible.

The case was given to the jury Wednesday afternoon before 5 o'clock and it was out until 6:30 o'clock. Judge Evans dismissed the jurors until 8:30 when the case was again given to them for verdict. They remained out until 10:30 and reported that they were still as they were before, ten for and two against the Rev. Hawley. Judge Evans dismissed them until this morning at 8:30 when they went into their room to try to reach the same conclusion.

Judge Evans told them this morning that the evidence in the case was strongly in favor of the minister and that they should agree upon some judgment or not at all. He allowed them until 10 o'clock when they reported for the last time the same as before.

"This is indeed very remarkable, very remarkable that you cannot agree," stated Judge Evans to them, as they were seated before him. "If I had the time I would stay here until you did reach a verdict."

The two jurors who were opposed to giving the Rev. Hawley any judgment whatever against Meadows were A. A. Sexton, of Azalea, Lyon county, and J. B. Swann, of Murray, Calloway county. Their reasons given by them were as stated above.

Admitted to Bar.

W. K. Brown, a prominent young man of Kuttawa, was in the city Wednesday and was examined in circuit court for license to practice law. Judge Webb began to propound the legal questions to him but as there were a number of Mayfield attorneys present, they joined and furnished some hot and pointed questions in open court. He was equal to the occasion on these points and then they further tested his ability by compelling him to go out and write his own license to practice and defend Blackstone. Again the young legal light was the hero. When the committee on objections, however, got through with him, he felt somewhat embarrassed. After realizing that the fun was all at his expense, he thanked the court and the expert interrogators, and left with a feeling that he was fully equipped if he could stand the examination of the Mayfield attorneys.—Mayfield Messenger.

Crop in Black Patch.

Guthrie, Ky., Nov. 26.—The tobacco crop of the "black patch" this year will far exceed all previous years in yield, quality and, presumably, in price. Offers thus far made indicate that it will bring from 10 to 12 cents per pound, an average of three cents over the price of the last crop. At the meeting of the association directors here yesterday the inspectors gave it as their opinion that the entire crop of the thirty counties in Kentucky and Tennessee and nineteen counties in Virginia would average 20 per cent. better in grade than has been produced before in twenty years. Very little low grade tobacco has been found anywhere, due to the success of the producers in keeping out the worms. Most of the crop is whole leaf product and in most cases it has been well cared for. While few sales of the new crop have been reported, many others of 12 cents per pound have been made, which means that the crop will bring from $100 to $150 per acre. Curing tobacco has been a light problem this year and most of the growers have taken good care of the crop and had few losses. The good weather during harvest time enabled most growers to get their tobacco housed and under fire before the bad weather began. The directors of the association, comprising one member for each of the forty-nine counties in the three states, report excellent conditions and that the farmers are willing to wait until the market price is right before selling. Most of the tobacco farmers are now planting diversified crops and do not depend upon the tobacco crop exclusively. With a heavier yield, better grade and generally better conditions prevailing, the tobacco growers are expecting entirely satisfactory returns.

Educational Association to Meet.

The First District Educational Association will meet in Mayfield on the 29-30. This will be an important meeting, and every teacher in the district should be present. The program is an excellent one and will be of interest to one and all.

There are 900 teachers in the district and at least 800 of them should attend this meeting and do all in their power to advance the great work and cause of education in the district.

The Executive committee is doing its part, and the teachers should respond liberally to their call. The people of Mayfield will give the teachers a cordial reception and do all in their power to make them pleasant and happy during their sojourn in their midst.

Parker Was Cleared.

Last Saturday at Mayfield the circuit court jury returned a verdict of "not guilty" in the case charging Ben Parker with murder. Parker ran a hotel there and one night it burned. Among the charred timbers was found the corpse of a man. Believing that Parker had murdered and robbed the man, who was a guest of the hotel, and then set fire to his place, the grand jury indicted him at Mayfield, but he is now exonerated.

DECEMBER 10

Some Facts About the Inaugural Ceremonies Which Will Take Place Next Month.

The inauguration, the last to be held on the old state house grounds, will take place on Tuesday, December 10th, and Frankfort will have the largest crowd of visitors to entertain that it has had in years. The usual ceremonies will be carried out. The procession which precedes the inauguration will be formed at the Governor's mansion at 10 o'clock, and the outgoing and incoming Governors will ride in the same carriage to the executive buildings. The first number on the program is the farewell address of Governor Beckham. This address will be followed by the inaugural address of the incoming Governor, and then the oath of office is administered by the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals usually about noon. The exercises will take place in front of the legislative building, which has been the custom since 1891, for before that time the exercises were held under the old inaugural tree on the executive building grounds. There will be an escort of the military also, so that the procession will be imposing.

The first Governor to be inaugurated in front of the legislative building was Governor Brown, and the last Governor to be inaugurated under the old inaugural tree was Governor Buckner. The inauguration of Governor Buckner took place in September before the adoption of the new Constitution, which changed the time of elections from August to November. In olden times every visitor to Frankfort on inauguration day was a guest of the people of Frankfort. The inauguration was the occasion of a great barbecue given as it only can be in old Kentucky style.

Hundreds of temporary tables were made on the State house grounds, and cold lamb, cold ham, hot coffee and good spirits were served to one and all alike. This custom would be revived, if it were not that the inauguration takes place at the time of the year when the weather is unfavorable to barbecues, as it is generally raining or snowing. On the day of the inauguration the Governor's mansion is turned over to the incoming Governor. The day before the exercises the retiring Governor and the day after the exercises the retiring Governor is the guest of the new Governor.

The inauguration is a distinct social occasion. From every part of the State, and even out of the State, are gathered here the beautiful women and chivalrous men of the land. Receptions are plentifully given but none can compare with the grand inaugural ball which closes the day's proceedings. This ball was for years held at the Capitol Hotel, but the ball room has been divided up, and it is probable that it will be held at the skating rink this year. The Governor and the First Lady of Kentucky, his wife, are given a reception preceding the ball, and lead the grand march. This function being performed the ball room is turned over to the young people of the State, and the remainder of the night is spent in dancing.—Frankfort Journal.

Destroy The Suckers.

One of the most interesting features of the last meeting of the Christian county executive committee of the Dark Tobacco Planters Protective Association in the city was an address by A. C. Morgan, a government expert, who has been in the dark tobacco district since July, for the purpose of studying and experimenting with the tobacco worm, so as to find, if possible a good way to exterminate this pest, which annually costs the farmers of the tobacco producing sections thousands of dollars by eating up their crops in the field.

Mr. Morgan urges the farmers to destroy the suckers after tobacco has been cut. He studied a field in which the suckers were allowed to grow and he found that these afforded excellent breeding and feeding place for the worms, and that at the approach of frost they went into the ground. Later on when this ground is spaded up the pupae were found in great numbers, which, of course, fore shadowed the crop of worms for the next season. The expert claims that if these suckers are not allowed to grow in this manner that the quantity of worms will be greatly lessened.

The plan of keeping the worms killed out by spraying the plants with paris green was also very thoroughly investigated. Mr. Morgan said that this afforded a temporary relief but that he thought that the farmers should try to get at the root of the trouble and by breaking up the breeding of the worms permanently rid their farms of them.

Case is Compromised.

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 27.—It is reliably reported that the Hawley-Meadows damage suit has been compromised, both in the circuit court of McCracken county and in the federal court. The terms of compromise, so the story goes, is that the suit brought by Meadows in the McCracken circuit court against Hawley for $50,000, has been withdrawn, by the plaintiff paying the costs.

The suit for $100,000 in the federal court brought by the Rev. Hawley against Meadows has been compromised and will be dismissed on the condition that Meadows pays his part of the cost, and Hawley his part. But that Meadows pays $500 each to the attorneys for the defendant, Thomas, Shelbourne and Smith, and that Robbins & Thomas, attorneys for the prosecution receive $1000 attorney fee. This compromise, it is claimed, had been brought about by the attorneys on both sides.

It is denied that Meadows pays any damages to Hawley, yet it is believed by some that he is to pay a certain sum. This however, is only rumor.

Sunday Morning Blaze.

Fire originated in Doc Ford's home on Depot street last Sunday morning just before noon completely destroyed Ford's home and contents, an adjoining residence and the bottling factory. J. F. Morris owned the bottling works and Dr. C. L. Morris the residence property and building occupied by the bottling works. The origin of the fire is unknown. Ford and his family were away from home at the time.

Maud Clark's sustained quite a loss on his blacksmith shop and residence. Both buildings were damaged by the fire fighters.

J. L. Morris carried $1,000 on his bottling works, Dr. C. L. Morris had $700 on his houses and Ford had $600 on his house $200 on his household goods. Mr. Clark also had insurance.

SEEDS AND BULBS

WITH THE SPRING, THOUGHTS TURN TO THE GARDEN.

The Daffodil Grows to Beauty With Very Little Trouble—Nasturtiums and Dr. Williams Have Much to Recommend Them.

With the spring the housewife has a longing to dig in her garden and plant her various seeds and bulbs. The old-fashioned alike hollyhocks, cosmos, poppies, sweet-peas, asters, cosmos, and nasturtiums bloom through to September. Asters are getting larger and more beautiful every year.

There is no blossom better adapted for sowing in the home, in city or country, than the daffodil. There are many beautiful varieties, and they can be grown with little trouble. Whether your grounds are large or small, a space can always be found for these bulbs, which are placed in the soil in the autumn. Once planted, they will bloom again, after season. Daffodils will also grow indoors, and will be a delight from Christmas until Easter. These plants will blossom out of doors in April and continue through May.

Nasturtium is another easy plant to grow. For the garden border, where cut flowers are the chief aim, the dwarf varieties are the best. They will bloom better if the soil is not too rich. Dahlias are a decorative flower, and are particularly desirable for use in new places where the shrubbery is not advanced. They make an attractive display along the wall or fence, and are easily grown. One can get the tubers and plant them in May, but some prefer to buy of the florists the young plants well started in small pots, and transplant them to the soil. Sweet-peas should have a rich soil and sunny spot, as the vines need plenty of heat to develop the blossoms. A trench should be dug about six inches deep, and into this sow your seeds thickly and cover them with about two inches of soil. When the plant is about three inches high, the surrounding earth should be drawn around it. Keep repeating this until the trench is almost full. Vines need good support. Plenty of water is necessary and let it run in the shallow trench, so that the roots are benefited.

FOR EXERCISE AT HOME.
Simple Device That Will Be Found of Practical Benefit.
A simple device for home physical training consists simply of a piece of wood four by two inches and one inch thick, having two auger holes one inch in diameter and half an inch deep, writes J. R. Winchell, in the Boston Transcript. Nail or screw it to the side of a room or building as high as the shoulders of the person who is to use it. Take two canes, stick the ferrules in the holes and stand with the hands (holding the handles on the canes) nearly touching and separate, as you sway forward the hands apart, thus giving space for the body to act freely in pressing the shoulders back, the head acting in unison, while the breast extends forward, the breathing conforming with the motion, thus exercising in a more hygienic manner than weights afford. Deep breathing can at the same time be practiced. Permanent rods of wood, steel or brass tubes may be attached by swivels or ringed screws to the block and used instead of the auger holes and canes. The rods are to have handles fitted for use. In my opinion the device is thoroughly practicable and should be generally adopted, that strength and beauty of form may be retained and disease lessened.

To Care for Turkish Rugs.
If Turkish rugs are left on the floor through the summer—especially in a room where there is a fire, or where weekly exposure to the fresh air and sunshine, with a good brushing with a stiff broom, will be all that is necessary. If they are soiled, a thorough washing every year or two will keep them in splendid condition. If large, but small rugs may be washed at home, using cold or lukewarm water, a scrubbing brush and any good soap. Rinse well and hang in the open air to dry. If one has a hose the rinsing is nicely easily accomplished by turning that on them.

Haricot Beans with Parsley.
Soak one pint of beans all night, next day put them in salted water and boil for three hours gently, drain off the water. Put three ounces butter into a stewpan with one dessertspoonful of finely chopped parsley, one tablespoonful of lemon juice, salt and pepper to taste, when the butter is melted put in the haricots, leave them in the pan until thoroughly hot, shaking the pan frequently. Serve in a hot vegetable dish.

To Get Rid of Rust Stains.
To remove from mold or rust, the best way is to stretch the spots over a bowl and moisten with salts of lemon until the spots disappear. Then the soiled part should be thoroughly rinsed in warm water to remove the acid.

When Mildews Get on Linen.
Rub the marks well with soap, scrape on some fine chalk, and rub this well in. Place the article on the grass and, as the marks dry, wet them a little, and the stains will soon disappear.

Upheasted Furniture.
Upheasted furniture which is left unused for considerable periods in the summer should be sprayed occasionally with benzine or naphtha. This will not injure the most delicate fabric. Caution must be exercised, however, on account of its inflammability. Never use either preparation with any light in the room. Another means of protecting articles is to wipe them over with a dilute solution of corrosive sublimate in alcohol, made weak enough so as not to leave any white stain.

An easy way to apply the naphtha or benzene is to put it in a small watering pot, such as is used for sprinkling house plants.

PUDDING RECIPES

SOMETHING NEW IN THE WAY OF DESSERTS.

One Dish That Has Long Stood the Test of Time—Frozen Pudding Glace a Confection Sure to Please.

The following is a pudding which has been in the possession of a well-known family for 100 years, and is still in use—it has never before appeared in print.

Aunt Charlotte's Pudding.—Line a pudding dish with stale cake, pour sherry over it, then spread preserved peaches or quinces, or any kind of preserves over the cake. Make a batter of the yolks of four eggs, a quarter of a pound of butter and two tablespoonfuls of cracker crumbs. Beat together or first beating the yolks light, add the mixture to the cake, then bake. When cold put the whites of the eggs beaten stiff with pulverized sugar over the pudding, return to the oven and bake until a light brown; season with extract of vanilla and almond.

Orange Pudding.—One-quarter of a pound of butter, quarter of a pound of sugar, the peel of a fresh orange, grated fine, two eggs, a little brandy and the lime juice. Bake in a quick oven.

Bread Pudding with Meringue.—One and a half pints of milk, one kitchen cupful of breadcrumbs, three eggs, three tablespoonfuls of sugar, the grated rind and juice of one lemon. Mix all together and bake 20 minutes. When the pudding is cold, cover the top with preserves; beat the whites of two eggs, mix with pulverized sugar, for a meringue, and drop it on in the shape of pyramids; brown lightly in the oven.

Frozen Pudding Glace.—One pint of milk, quarter of a pound of raisins, a small piece of cinnamon stick, two ounces of sweet almonds, quarter of a pound of sugar, the yolks of two eggs, two ounces of preserved cherries, one ounce of citron, one pint of cream, and two times. First boil together the raisins and milk slowly for 15 minutes. In the milk have the stick cinna- men to give it a flavor. Strain the milk and return to the saucepan; put into the fire to boil. Put into a small bowl the yolks of two eggs and add the sugar; beat them well together, and when the milk boils take it from the fire, when it cools a little add the yolks and sugar, a little at a time, mixing all the time. Put all into a saucepan and add the raisins. Stir this over the fire until it begins to thicken. Blanch and fine two ounces of almonds and add them to the mixture, also the cherries and citron; cut into small pieces, remove the stick of cinnamon, and cut each lime into four pieces and add. Dip a mold in cold water and when the mixture is cool enough put in the cream, then pour the whole into the mold and freeze. While freezing stir to prevent the fruit settling—Chicago Inter Ocean.

What It Costs to Die.
It costs us about $125,000,000 a year to bury our dead in America. There are 6,000 funerals a day, and, included in the expenses are coffins, caskets, metal or slate outside boxes, upholstery, crape, hire of hearse, carriages and traps, purchase of cemetery lots and fees for the undertaker and minister—New York Press.

Expert Must Divide Collection.
A Parisian couple, M. Lebon and his wife, who are being divorced and are dividing their effects, have spent $15,000 on law in a struggle over the possession of a collection of postage stamps. An expert is to be engaged to divide the collection equitably.

Very Probably.
A hotel patron asked his waiter: "What does this line on the menu mean. 'Live codfish in cream?'" The waiter scanned it carefully, and then solemnly replied: "I don't know sir, unless that it means that the fish was alive when it was killed."

Must Have Looked the Part.
A small girl and her mother were watching a monkey perform in front of a show tent. The monkey had jumped on the showman's back and was hugging him when the girl said: "He knows his papa, don't he, mamma?"

SURE RESULTS

Many a Kentuckian Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Kentucky. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement:

Mrs. L. Varall, living at 923 Fifth St., Louisville, Ky., says: "I am as happy to say that Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and to other members of my family. I frequently had attacks of back ache and kidney trouble before using your remedy but after using two boxes of the pills the troubles were entirely cured. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a great many of my friends for I attribute my present good health to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They certainly do all that is claimed for them."

What the bulk of women want is a decent home, a respectable means of earning a fair wage, and good men to look after them, whether those men stand in the position of father, brother or husband. That is all the average woman desires.—London Lancet.

What It Costs to Die.
It costs us about $125,000,000 a year to bury our dead in America. There are 6,000 funerals a day, and, included in the expenses are coffins, caskets, metal or slate outside boxes, upholstery, crape, hire of hearse, carriages and traps, purchase of cemetery lots and fees for the undertaker and minister—New York Press.

Expert Must Divide Collection.
A Parisian couple, M. Lebon and his wife, who are being divorced and are dividing their effects, have spent $15,000 on law in a struggle over the possession of a collection of postage stamps. An expert is to be engaged to divide the collection equitably.

Very Probably.
A hotel patron asked his waiter: "What does this line on the menu mean. 'Live codfish in cream?'" The waiter scanned it carefully, and then solemnly replied: "I don't know sir, unless that it means that the fish was alive when it was killed."

Must Have Looked the Part.
A small girl and her mother were watching a monkey perform in front of a show tent. The monkey had jumped on the showman's back and was hugging him when the girl said: "He knows his papa, don't he, mamma?"

Dryest Place on Earth.
Twenty minutes of rain in a year is sometimes all that southern Egypt gets, and there is no dew in that country.

"Gentleman" is not a word now that describes a character, but a financial condition.—London Truth.

OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN

BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal it is because the blood is not pure and healthy, as it should be, but is infected with poisonous germs or some old blood taint which has corrupted and polluted the circulation. Those most usually afflicted with old sores are persons who have reached or passed middle life. The vitality of the blood and strength of the system have naturally declined, and the poisonous germs which have accumulated because of a sluggish and inactive condition of the system, or some hereditary taint which has hitherto been held in check, now force an outlet on the face, arms, legs or other part of the body. The place grows red and angry, fasters and eats into the surrounding tissue until it becomes a chronic and stubborn ulcer, fed and kept open by the impurities with which the blood is saturated. Nothing is more trying and disagreeable than a stubborn, non-healing sore. The very fact that it resists ordinary remedies and treatments is good reason for suspicion; the same germ-producing cancerous ulcers is back of every old sore, and especially is this true if the trouble is an inherited one. Old sores, and especially is this true if the trouble is an inherited one. Old sores, and especially is this true if the trouble is an inherited one. Old sores, and especially is this true if the trouble is an inherited one.

I was afflicted with a sore on my face of four years standing. It was a small pimple at first but it gradually grew larger and worse. I tried every way I could, but it would not heal. I was alarmed about it and consulted several physicians. They all treated me but the sore continued to grow worse. I saw Dr. S. S. S. and after taking it a while I was completely cured. My blood is now pure and healthy from the effect of S. S. S. and there has not been any sign of the sore since I have used it.

S. S. S. PURELY VEGETABLE.
Then the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, all pain and inflammation leaves, the place scars over, and when S. S. S. has purified the blood, the sore is permanently cured. S. S. S. is for sale at all first class drug stores. Write for our special book on sores and ulcers and any other medical advice you desire. We make no charge for the book or advice.

GRATEFUL MEN AND WOMEN PRAISE PE-RU-NA.

MRS. ELLEN NAGLE

Mrs. Ellen Nagle, 414 4th St., Green Bay, Wis., writes: "I have often heard Peruna praised and it is more widely known here than other medicines, but I never knew it really was until a few weeks ago when I caught a head cold which settled all over me. "The doctor wanted to prescribe, but I told him I was going to try Peruna and sent for a bottle and read it. I felt much better the next morning and within five days I had not a trace of any lameness or cough."

HON. C. C. BROOKS

Hon. C. C. Brooks, Mayor of Sunbury, Ohio, also Attorney for Farmers' Bank and Sunbury Building and Loan Co., writes: "I have the utmost confidence in the virtue of Peruna. It is a great medicine. I have used it and I have known many of my friends who have obtained beneficial results from its use. I cannot praise Peruna too highly."

MRS. H. A. MARSH

Mrs. H. A. Marsh, 218 Beevor St., Los Angeles, Cal., President Woman's Benevolent Association, writes: "I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks, and nothing I could do or take helped me until I tried Peruna. "I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and I kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored, and I am glad that I gave that truly great remedy a trial."

PRINCE JONAH KAHANIANA'OLE

Malarial Fever For Several Months.

Mrs. Sue M. Morris, 221 Patterson St., Nashville, Tenn., writes: "Last fall a severe attack of malarial fever laid me up for some months. My condition was serious for a time and the doctor who was attending me did not seem able to cope with the trouble. "A neighbor advised me to let the doctor's prescription alone and try Peruna, extolling its virtues to the skies, and I am now ready to do the same, for in three days I was much better and in ten days I was able to be up and in two weeks every trace of malarial fever had left my system. "I now use Peruna off and on when in need of a tonic and it braces me up wonderfully."

Weak and Nervous.

Mr. Charles Brown, Rogersville, Tenn., writes: "I feel it my duty to write you a few words in praise of your Peruna. I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peruna is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder. "A friend advised me to take Peruna for indigestion, and it cured me in a short time. I was very weak and nervous, could sleep but little at night, but Peruna cured that, too, all-gone feeling, and made me feel like a new man, so I heartily recommend it to all who are weak and run down. Peruna will give new life and energy. I can not speak too highly of Peruna, and will not forget to recommend it on every hand. I will answer any letter from those desiring to know what Peruna has done for me."

True Cause of Disease.

In these days almost every ailment is supposed to be caused by disease germs.

The medical profession as well as the people, seem to have gone mad over the germ theory of disease.

The universal fear and dread of disease germs is becoming a very serious matter to the welfare and happiness of the people.

Dr. Hartman has consistently contended through all the rise and spread of the germ theory, that most diseases are caused by climatic influences.

For instance, catching cold is responsible for more than one-half of the ills to which human beings are subject.

Danger of Neglected Colds.

A person catches cold easily, thinks nothing about it, neglects it, when it finally becomes settled in some organ of the body, and chronic disease is the result.

A few doses of Peruna in the beginning of the cold would have saved months of suffering, as well as great expense for treatment.

Peruna is a reliable relief for cold. Almost every body knows this.

Instead of trying to dislodge or kill some imaginary germ, if Peruna was used at the proper time its tonic properties and anti-catharral qualities would soon convince the patient that he has found the right remedy.

A multitude of letters are received testifying to this fact.

Keep Peruna in the house. Use it whenever cold or climatic affections assail, and sickness in the household will become greatly lessened, if not entirely prevented.

Catharrh of the Stomach.

Mr. Christian Hoffmann, R. F. D. 1, Slatington, Pa., writes: "For many years I suffered with catharrh of the stomach. I was coughing day and night. After having tried three doctors and many remedies, one of your almanacs came to my hand, and I bought some Peruna. So far I have taken six bottles, and I have not suffered with catharrh this summer. I am cured and Peruna did it. I give Peruna to my children when they feel bad and you should see how healthy they are."

Nose, Throat and Stomach.

Mr. Delbert B. Craft, Lowell, Ind., writes: "For a long time I suffered with chronic catharrh of the nose, throat and stomach. I would continually take cold and my stomach was in bad condition. I truly suffered until misery. I took various medicines and tried the treatment of several physicians, but I felt no better. A friend advised me to take Peruna. I wrote to Dr. Hartman, who prescribed treatment. As soon as I commenced to take Peruna I was cured at the relief it gave me. I kept on taking it until I had taken thirteen bottles and was cured."

Systemic Catharrh.

Miss Marie Lesser, 928 W. 35th street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I am glad to give a good word for Peruna, and I hope that all who see this who are troubled with systemic catharrh as I was for years, will profit by it. I had tried many remedies, but none did more than give me temporary relief and some did not even do that. I took Peruna on the suggestion of a friend and was most than pleased and surprised at the results. I am now perfectly well and strong."

Testimonial of Esteem.

A well attended mass meeting of leading business men of the city was held in the rooms of the Bank of Murray Tuesday night for the purpose of giving public expression to regrets entertained upon Mr. W. E. King leaving Murray as the local representative of the N. C. & St. L. railway. The meeting was called to order by J. D. Rowlett, who stated its object. E. S. Dinguad was made chairman. Upon motion a committee on resolutions composed of R. T. Wells, W. Q. Wenr, J. D. Rowlett and O. J. Jennings was appointed by the chairman and the following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted.

We the citizens of Murray in mass meeting assembled recognize that during the business life of many men there comes a time when a change of location is necessary, and that men who engage in the business of serving a public, daily come in contact with all classes and who must serve the man of the business world, also the humblest citizen, each alike and with the same consideration, is sufficiently trying to test the ability and integrity of such a man, and his success in such capacity is evidence of the esteem in which he is held by the citizenship served.

That we recognize in the retiring local representative of the N. C. & St. L. railway company, Mr. W. E. King, one of the most splendid and trustworthy public men who ever lived within our midst, and it is with feelings of genuine regret and sorrow that we learn of his intention to leave Murray. After a business career here serving us in the same capacity daily for sixteen years we feel that we are sufficiently acquainted with the man to say that he will be a desired acquisition to the business, social and church circles of any community in which he may choose to make his home, and that since Mr. King has made known his intention of leaving our town to locate in Paris, Tenn., that we unhesitatingly recommend him to the citizens of our neighboring town as a man in every way worthy of their confidence and esteem, that while we exceedingly regret to see Mr. King leave our town we extend our congratulations to Paris upon being so fortunate in securing his services and his citizenship.

BETTER THAN THE CLOSET.

Good Method of Keeping Miscellaneous Useful Articles.

The kitchen closet, more than any other in the house, especially if it be as roomy as kitchen closets should be, becomes a sort of dumping ground for many articles not properly having a definite place anywhere set apart for them, and yet seemingly too good to be cast aside. In this class we find the pasteboard box, from which the contents have been removed, which is perfectly free from any spot of grease and is just the ideal size for a glass lunch box. Then there are the tin cracker boxes of various sizes and shapes, which are so handy for holding dried herbs, for taking a salad preparation to a church supper, for steaming or baking a pudding, and for other purposes. There are also the tin boxes of various sizes from which mustard, pickles, and other articles have been taken and the cork of which was spoiled in opening. A person gets tired of keeping such a collection, but it is the neighbor who throws out her own boxes and bottles, and smiles at the collection of her neighbor who most frequently puts in the place for some article from the rather composite aggregation. An excellent way to keep these articles, and yet not have them litter the pantry shelves, if there is any available storehouse in the attic or basement, is to get several large wooden boxes from the grocer and put each class of good in a box by itself. The covers should be put as closely so that when a box or bottle is wanted for immediate use it will not require washing or dusting. Such a collection is of almost infinite value for the comfort of the different members of the household.

SUBSTITUTE FOR HOT IRON.
Ordinary Glass or Mirror May Be Pressed Into Service.

It may not always be convenient to have a hot iron at hand to press a small piece just at the moment one needs it, but the difficulty may be readily remedied if the material is a wash goods. If thoroughly wet, not dampened, and spread out on a window pane, mirror or marble slab it will dry in a few moments, and will not only be as smooth as if ironed, but the under side will have an aerial gloss. The material should be thoroughly wet, even dripping, and should be smoothed the way of the grain, both up and down and across, with a clean piece of old white muslin. If the sun be very hot one cannot use a window pane, as the water dries out before one has time to make the bit "stick." It will often be found convenient to dry a washed-out handkerchief on one's mirror, and if carefully folded and placed under a book it will look as well as if ironed. In fact, many women who travel carry always in their trunk a pane of glass upon which to dry a handkerchief now and again.

Building a Fire.
It sounds unreasonable to say that some persons do not know how to build a coal fire, and yet there are a great many who cannot do so. Invariably the fire dies down and eventually goes out. It is caused by improper draft in the stove. The wood is thrown in lengthwise, coal thrown on with a little oil, and when the match is applied the fire burns only until the oil has burned off the wood and coal. First place in a few sticks of wood, not enough to cover the bottom of the grate, break small pieces and lay crosswise, then put on the oil. If you use kerosene, and the fire will be difficult in making the fire burn. Another way is to place the kindling in funnel shape. This is especially good in furnaces, since the funnel causes a strong draft as soon as the wood starts to burn. This will remedy the trouble you have very morning in starting the coal fire.

To Wash Silk Underwear.
Soak 20 minutes in warm soda and ammonia water, allowing one tablespoon of ammonia to a gallon of water. Rub gently with the hands, squeezing, pressing, but never scrubbing, and do not be too lavish in the use of soap. Never rub soap directly on a garment, but use the soap in solution.

Rinse through two clear waters of the same temperature as the first soda, adding to the last water a little of the tannin blue and a tea spoonful of liquid gum arabic. Squeeze out and hang as carefully as possible so as to avoid the wrinkles so hard to iron out of silk without injury to the fabric. When nearly dry press under muslin.

Washing Flannels.
Flannels that have become badly yellowed through neglect may be whitened in this way. Boil four table spoonfuls of flour in four quarts of water, stirring free from lumps. Pour one-half this mixture over the flannels, cover and let them stand a half hour. Rub with the hands, but use no soap. Rub the flannels in clear water of the same temperature, then heat the remainder of the liquid and pour over the flannels again. Proceed as before, rinse thoroughly, then hang out to drain and dry. Never hang flannels in cold or frosty air, as that always shrinks them.

Ginger Ice Cream.
Three parts of this recipe, one cup sugar, one-fourth cup ginger sherry, one-fourth cup ginger sherry, three tablepoons sherry. Cut the ginger in small pieces and mix with the other ingredients. Freeze, using one part rock salt to three parts finely crushed ice.

Tobacco Growers of Calloway and Adjoining Counties.

DEAR SIR:

We take this method of extending to you our thanks for the liberal patronage which you gave us in the past season, hoping that you will give us a larger part of your tobacco to store and warehouse of the 1907 crop.

We don't hesitate to say that our business for the past season has given general satisfaction in every particular to the farmers storing tobacco with us.

We feel that our long experience in the warehouse business and our fair dealing with the farmers in the past is certainly sufficient evidence to every farmer storing tobacco with us that they may feel assured of getting fair treatment and the best returns for their tobacco that can be had, and receive the full benefits of our long experience, in handling and selling their tobacco.

All tobacco stored with us will be sold through the sales-room at Murray by the regular salesman of the association Esq. C. A. Hood.

Farmers storing tobacco with us can call at any time at our office and we will take pleasure in giving them the grading on their tobacco and make inquiries about sales, etc.

There is a very important part for the farmers to do and that is to assort their tobacco well, tie in small hands both leaf and lugs and making two classes of lugs, and deliver to your prize in a good, safe keeping order—this will assure you better results.

You may expect better prices this season than you have realized in the past.

There is a disposition among some of the farmers to deliver their tobacco this winter, hence it is very important to get your tobacco in good condition.

We have inquiry for November delivery of tobacco suitable for African trade; farmers having such grade of tobacco will do well to strip and deliver early, that they may get the benefit of early sales.

We are now moving into our new quarters and our office will be in the Diuguid brick warehouse on the West side of railroad which will also be part of our storage warehouse. The management of the Murray Association Warehouse Co., will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Z. C. Graham, the former manager. Mr. C. H. Moore will continue to be our general bookkeeper and accountant and will also be a member of the firm and is one of your own county men.

All business entrusted to us will have our careful and personal attention, and we will appreciate your business. Instruct your prize to deliver your tobacco when prized to Murray Association Warehouse Co., and we will guarantee to you satisfaction in every particular. When you are in town we shall be glad to have you call at our office, or telephone No. 140.

MURRAY ASSOCIATION WAREHOUSE CO.—Z. C. GRAHAM, Gen. Mgr. C. H. MOORE, Treas.

HOW TO REGULATE AN OVEN.

Proper Temperature Requisite for Best Effects in Baking.

For the successful making of bread it is necessary that the oven be carefully regulated. After the loaves go in increase the oven heat slightly for ten minutes, then reduce gradually. In the ordinary small range the loaves should be turned every ten or fifteen minutes to insure even baking. If they show signs of browning too rapidly cover with oiled paper. In 40 or 50 minutes a loaf will shrink somewhat and slip easily from the pan. When well baked an empty, hollow sound will follow a tap with the fingers and the crust feels firm. Take from the pan as soon as done and tie up against the bread board, so that the air may circulate freely about the loaf. Never leave loaves in pans or on a pine table to cool or about the edge of the wood. If you like a crisp crust do not cover the loaves when cooling, but if you prefer a soft, tender consistency wrap in several thicknesses of cloth. When perfectly dry and cold put into a well-lined tin box and cover.

A rule briefly summarized, then, for a plain white bread to be baked in one day would be like this, subject to minor variations. This amount will make four loaves: One quart milk or water, or half and half; two compressed yeast cakes, one table spoonful of sugar or molasses as preferred; two table spoonfuls shortening; two tea spoonfuls salt and about three quarts sifted flour. Dissolve the yeast cakes in some of the lukewarm water or milk, add shortening, put in flour to make a stiff batter as you can beat, then beat five or ten minutes, remembering that the more you beat the less kneading will be required. Add the rest of the flour, turn out on floured board and knead from 15 to 20 minutes. Let rise in a warm place for two or three hours will be required for this, at a temperature from 75 to 80, make into loaves, handling as little as possible, let rise to double its bulk, then bake.

FOR THE OCCASIONAL NAP.

Why the Couch Should Be Considered Indispensable.

"A room without a couch is only half furnished," says an authority on home-making. "Life is so full of ups and downs that often and often all that saves the tenacity of the mortally jaded and physically exhausted fortune fighter is the occasional half hour rest or momentary loss of consciousness on the breakfast room lounge or the old sofa in the sitting-room." A long comfortable couch, on which one may throw himself, boots and brains untroubled of duties and tapestries, is a veritable means of grace. The need of a good, healthy nap is often mistaken for suicidal tendencies. Instead of a speedy introduction to a future state, business men and working women want systematic doses of dozing, and next best to a mossy bank in the shade of an old oak is the low, long couch in the dusky corner, where tired nature can turn her face to the wall and dream away the blues.

For the Nursery.

The walls of the nursery are plain, the picture looks nowadays, and the small occupant dwells in a land of pictorial fairy tales, Mother Goose stories and all sorts of quaint fancies, ranging from rabbits to stories of the crusades. The variety of subjects now to be prepared for nursery wall papers is so tempting that it is difficult to make a choice.

One of the newest designs shows as a base a wooden fence, with almost life-size children peering over the top of a background full of all sorts of interesting pictures to amuse the little people. If one does not care for such a pattern to cover the walls entirely, which in the case of a nursery should not, perhaps, be particularly judicious, the border may be all-overlaid and the side walls of plain-colored moire.

Escalloped Onions.

Peel half a dozen large onions and lay in cold water for an hour. Cut in thick slices and put on to cook in boiling salted water. Boil ten minutes, drain and cover again with boiling water. Cook until the onions are tender, but still firm. Have ready a other layer of onions, then sauce and ter a baking dish, put in a layer of onions, then one of the sauce, and sprinkle with bread crumbs. Add another layer of onions, then sauce and crumbs and so on until the dish is full, having the last layer of buttered crumbs. Bake in a quick oven until brown. A little cheese may be used with each layer of crumbs if desired. There should be enough of the thin cream sauce, used to show generously above the onions when served.

Corn Cake.

Sift one and one-half table spoonfuls of cream of tartar with one cup of flour, one cup of Indian meal, one-half cup of sugar, and a little salt. Dissolve a table spoonful of soda in a cup of warm milk and stir into the dry ingredients, then add a well beaten egg. Bake in round pans or in a sheet, and cut into squares. The oven should be pretty hot.

Moonshine.

This little dainty will always appeal to the children, and may be served for them when the regular dinner dessert is deemed too rich for them. Beat the whites of an egg for each person to be served, and when very stiff add a table spoonful of granulated sugar. Stir in a table spoonful of red jelly, any flavor, for four eggs. Serve dotted with lumps of jelly, and add a table spoonful of cream or not, as desired.

FEW KNOW.

Simple Home-Made Treatment Said to Overcome Rheumatism.

When an eminent authority announced in the Scranton (Pa.) Times that he had found a new way to treat that dread American disease, Rheumatism, with just common, every-day drugs found in any drug store, the physicians were slow indeed to attach much importance to his claims. This was only a few months ago. Today nearly every newspaper in the country, even the metropolitan dailies, is announcing it and the splendid results achieved. It is so simple that any one can prepare it at home at small cost. It is made up as follows: Get from any good prescription pharmacy Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Sassafras, three ounces. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. These are all simple ingredients, making an absolutely harmless home remedy at little cost.

Rheumatism, as every one knows, is a symptom of deranged kidneys. It is a condition produced by the failure of the kidneys to properly filter or strain from the blood the uric acid and other matter which, if not eradicated, either in the urine or through the skin pores, remains in the blood, decomposes and forms about the joints and muscles, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

This prescription is said to be a splendid healing, cleansing and invigorating tonic to the kidneys and gives almost immediate relief in all forms of bladder and urinary troubles and backache. He also warns people in a leading New York paper against the discriminate use of many patent medicines.

Charley T. Provine died at his home west of Puryear last Thursday night after a short illness of typhoid fever. The body was brought to Murray Friday afternoon and carried to the home of his wife's mother, Mrs. Covington. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Sunday at 1 o'clock after which the burial took place in the City Cemetery. Mr. Provine was for years a barber in this place and made many warm personal friends. He married Miss Covington while living here, and on account of failing health sold his business here and moved to a farm in Henry county where he lived until his death. He is survived by wife and two children and other relatives.

How Her Life Was Saved When Bitten By a Large Snake.

How few people there are who are not afraid of snakes. Not long ago a harmless little garter snake fell on the wheel of an automobile which was being driven by a woman. The woman promptly fainted and the car, left to its own resources, ran into a stone wall and caused a serious accident.

The bite of a poisonous snake needs prompt attention. Mrs. K. M. Fisher, Route No. 1, Box 40, Dillsburg, Pa., tells how she saved her life when bitten by a large snake.

"On August 29, 1904, I was bitten on the hand twice by a large copperhead snake. Being a distance from any medical aid, as a last resort I used Sloan's Liniment, and to my astonishment found it killed all pain and was the means of saving my life. I am the mother of four children and am never without your Liniment."
