SECOND SUNDAY SINGING SOUTH FULTON SCHOOL

The regular second Sunday singing which has been held at the City of Fulton, has recently been changed to the South Fulton School.

The Fulton and Hickman county singing convention is to be held at Mt. Zion church, three miles east of Water Valley on the second Sunday in April, and there will be no singing at South Fulton, but the following second Sunday in May, every one is invited to attend another wonderful singing.

GRETA GARBO RETURNS IN "QUEEN CHRISTIANA"

After having retired from the screen, Greta Garbo was persuaded to return again in that triumphant production, "Queen Christina," who is said to have given a king's ransom for love. John Gilbert plays opposite her in this pulsating love drama, and Miss Garbo was never greater in any of her performances, critics declare.

In this edition of The News appears a full page advertisement, announcing the appearance of the picture, "Queen Christina" at Warner's Orpheum Theatre here next Sunday and Monday. The Sunday show will be continuous from 1 p. m. until 12 midnight. BULLDOGS BOW TO BARDWELL IN TOURNAMENT FINALS

The Fulton Bulldogs lost fighting. They were fighting the fight of the season for the desired honor-winning of the Regional. But they took it on the chin from Bardwell last Saturday night in Murray in the final game of the tournament, score 31 to 23. An echo from this game was heard throughout the state because attention of the entire state has been focused on the Bulldogs all year due to their outstanding victories over two of the state's best quintets, Owensboro and Central City.

In their first game last Friday night with Arlington, the Bulldogs walked away with the honors winning 28 to 20 after leading at the half overwhelmingly, 17 to 7.

Their second game came Saturday morning when they faced the strong Kirskey five and defeated them by the score of 29 to 21 thereby establishing them to face Bardwell who had beat New Concord for the finals.

With approximately 200 Fulton supporters present, the Bulldogs faced their battle Saturday night with Bardwell. From the first tip-off Fulton never was able to take the lead. First period ended 10-11, half 16-13, third period 23-15 with Bardwell leading every quarter and at the final gun.

DYNAMITE

Governor Laffoon and those legislators in both the legislative halls of Kentucky who have failed to heed the needs of all the people, are receiving the proverbial "coals of fire" upon their backs. May these coals become so hot that they will repent of their ways, or else be cast from the temple of the people who took them in with open, trusting arms.

Selfish interests, procrastination and dilly-dallying have almost obliterated every semblance of just and fair statesmanship at Frankfort, besides costing the people thousands of dollars. Those representatives who have stuck faithful by the people who elected them are powerless to bring concerted action against "controlled powers" it seems. But unless drastic measures are taken to bring about necessary changes in the state government Kentucky faces one of the worst crises in its political history. Congressman Brown turned his guns on the regime at Frankfort Sunday, declaring that "the state administration has spent approximately $150,000 for the present legislative session without the accomplishment of a solitary constructive measure."

"The close of this legislative session is typical of the wreckage usually wrought by Kentucky's partisan vandals. This Legislature denies the people the right to select their officials in a primary; it kills the bill to let the people own their own municipal power plants; it refuses to investigate the Treasurer's office, although it is accused of crimes which, if true, are more than grounds for impeachment. It winked at the sale of the Governor's back yard to himself for $15,000 of the taxpayers' money. It passes over without comment the purchase of a new Cadillac automobile out of the taxpayers' money with no legal authority to do so. It turns the municipal plants of Kentucky over to the tender mercies of a newly created public utilities commission dominated by the power trust. It watches the coalition of hybrid organization of patronage-seeking Republicans with interest-controlled Administration Democrats, and then to hide these and other glaring sins of the 1934 session, this Legislative Investigating Committee cries out to the people of Kentucky that they have discovered some of the expenses on a trip to Washington during the special session of the legislature, and attempts, by innuendo and by hearsay testimony of my political enemies, to create an impression that I have been lobbying for the Merchants' Association."

"And now, as a further smoke screen, the Legislative Committee sends to jail Mr. Armentrout because he refused to divulge the name of a member of the Legislature who wrote a statement of conditions existing during the present session. The person who wrote this letter should stand up on the floor of the House and publicly proclaim his opinion of conditions. He has ample evidence to justify the conclusions drawn in his letter entitled 'A Psalm in Politics.'

"Kentucky's State Administration is out of step with the New Deal in the Nation, and it is the duty of the citizenship of Kentucky to bring such pressure to bear upon them as will let them realize that the day of today control and political bureaucracy has ended, and unfaithful public servants must face the right indignation of an outraged people."

These buccaneers who have forgotten the people back home are not only playing with fire but dynamite which is certain to lead to political suicide and even worse consequences.

YOUR GOAL

Do you really know what you want to do in life? You cannot progress toward your goal until you know what that goal is to be. Precious time is lost in fruitless wanderings until this decision is reached. Stop now; gather yourself together and decide what you want to do in life.

What do you wish? Fame? Fortune? Happiness? Time is the first gift of God and with its golden center your desires may be brought to pass. Hour by hour, day by day, apply this divine gift to the hopes and about of your ambition for victory. "Most things in life can be bought with the currency of time."

If you wish success in life, make persistence your bosom friend, experience your wise counselor, caution your guardian genius. It was Robert Hubbard, who wrote of this example of unflinching courage:

"While the fire was still raging in San Francisco, merchant telegraphed to New York: 'I have lost all. Store, stock and home are gone. Insurance doubtful. Will start business as soon as you can get me goods. Ship anything.' In less than twenty-four hours, ten carloads of goods were enroute to this man of undaunted faith and unflinching courage. The world takes a man at the estimate he places upon himself. If you believe in yourself, the worlds stands ready to back you."

The same sound logic and common sense may be applied to a community. A community is nothing more or less than a group of individuals and it is the courage and faith of these people that is the real backbone of the place. Fulton is a good town, invested and surrounded by untold assets and opportunities. It is undoubtedly the "hub of highway and railroads, and is situated in the heart of a fine agricultural section. What we need to do is to let the world know more about it, and go out after those things worth while in making it a better community. Opportunities are made. They don't come unasked.

A MAD HATTER'S TEA PARTY

March is a mad month or at least, so we are told by nursery rhymes and riddles, so let's go mad ourselves, in a nice way of course, and give a Mad Hatter's Tea Party for the next-to-the-youngest set. Jane and Bill had one last year and it so delighted their ten-year old hearts that I thought I'd pass the idea along to all of you.

Bill was the Mad Hatter, host, dressed in a suit of his father's with large yellow squares of combie sewed on the pants. In a checker-board design and a tall silk hat bearing the sign 10-6. Jane was Alice in a blue dress and an "Alice" apron of white organdy. And they gave their Mad Hatter Tea Party on a sunny Saturday afternoon with a brisk March wind blowing, so of course, the first event of importance was a kite flying contest. Gay kites painted with Wonderland characters are easy to make.

Then there was a hunt for the cheshire Cat that led the guests by means of not-to-hard clues on small clips of paper from the back yard to the attic and back again. (The Cat was one of those large china deerstop cats). A Rabbit Hole was arranged in one of the rooms by pulling down all the shades and arranging simple things such as a jar of jam, a pencil, a stuffed rabbit, etc on a shelf. The guests went into the Rabbit Hole for a minute, then came out and wrote down as many objects as they could remember. The longest correct list won a prize.

The tea party itself was as mad as mad could be with animal crackers, place cards (made by sandwiching two animal cookies together with a syrup of sugar and milk and tanning them on a plain arrowroot cracker), toy rabbits, turtles and mice for favors, and the chess set gaily costumed in crepe paper as a centerpiece. And the dishes were the Alice in Wonderland set from the playroom. A white cloth was used, but crepe paper cloths with Wonderland figures are very inexpensive. And here is the menu:

Don't get the fool notion in your noodle that you have a mission to reform the world. The tree of Evil has always existed and always will. You have a big job to keep your own dooryard clean. Adhere will always be evil in the world and Thoreau gives the reason: "There are a thousand hacking at the branches of evil to one who is striking at the root."

LTVA DELEGATION GO TO KNOXVILLE

A delegation of the Lower Tennessee Valley Association, composed of Joe Davis, Fulton; W. R. Hazelwood, Bardwell; J. A. Olive, Mayfield; and S. R. Bratton, Union City, left Thursday, March 15th to contact directors of the TVA at Knoxville, Tenn., in regard to the immediate construction of a power dam on the Tennessee River at Aurora Landing.

LTVA representatives are expected to have soon a definite report on the proposed construction of Aurora Dam, and also the date when Dr. A. E. Morgan, chairman of the TVA will speak at a mass meeting of Tennessee Valley people in Murray. Dr. Morgan has accepted an invitation to tour Western Kentucky territory contiguous to the dam site and to speak in Murray State College auditorium. David E. Lilenthal of the TVA directors, has also been invited to speak at Murray.

Watch Your Step

By "Me"

First off the bat I am pointing my finger at a well known "drug store cowboy" who likes his liquor and likes it strong, or might I say with a big kick. He's a very good boy but should leave the liquor be. His name? Guess you'd like to know but for his benefit I won't divulge it. His initials might be B. T. W. then again they might not.

When just a young boy I knew a boy that helped to plan a pleasure trip. When time came to go they had no conveyance. This boy decided to "take" the trip in his dad's car. He did and what do you think happened? The car burned when they were about 45 miles from home. Did You Ever See a Boy Go Driving in His Dad's Car. Well I Have. And Who?

Got wind the other day of a Fulton boy who rides the afternoon bus to Union City to see a little girl over there. Usually he comes back on a late bus, but lately said boy took too long to tell his girl friends goodbye and missed his bus. Then he had to walk home. Too bad Charles—? This is one time when a boy had to walk home.

Just why "Stretchberry" Weaver is so afraid of the girls has been revealed. Stretchberry is a mighty fine boy and works hard, when he tries, but he should not let the girls get the best of him that way, his friends contend. Did I say why he's apparently so girl shy? Not yet.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL SHOWS FAITH IN BUSINESS FUTURE

The Illinois Central System is taking very definite steps toward preparation for improved business during 1934, and will spend $10,000,000 this year laying new rail, renewing bridges and repairing locomotives and freight and passenger cars. President L. A. Downs has announced. Locomotive repair work has already started, and furloughed shopmen are to be called back to work to inaugurate the care repair program.

It is estimated that 2,000 men will be added to railway payrolls to work on track and bridges as soon as materials can be delivered. The Illinois Central will spend $1,437,000 on the renewal of 123 miles of main line track on various parts of the railroad, using 21,600 tons of new rail, together with necessary cross-ties and track fastenings.

Work on the Illinois Central bridge over the Ohio river at Cairo will be carried on without interruption of traffic. Both the 507-foot approach on the Illinois side and a 3514-foot approach on the Kentucky side will be completely rebuilt with new material at an approximate cost of $900,000. This bridge was first constructed in 1888 to complete the all-rail route from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico.

There are three tunnels on the line between Edgewood, Ill., and Fulton, Ky. One of these near Beevesville, Ill., is to be relined with reinforced concrete.

Equipment repairs call for overhauling and reconditioning 148 passenger and freight locomotives, 12,645 freight cars and 184 passenger train cars. To finance these improvements the Illinois Central System has arranged with the Public Works Administration to borrow $10,000,000 on equipment trust certificates bearing four per cent after the first year and maturing serially over a period of ten years.

THINK IT OVER

YOUR NEWSPAPER

The following was taken from a circular recently received by a retail merchant of Fulton from a large wholesale house:

"The value of your local newspaper to the success of your business cannot be overestimated. It's worth all the support and co-operation you can give it. For the newspaper is a mirror reflecting the life of the community in which you and your store have an important part. Your advertisement is the reflection of your store in the mirror. Everybody sees it there. If it is not there, the mirror is dark where your store should be. You are there, but you cannot be seen. Your store is open for business as usual, but 'out of sight' out of mind. To keep in step with the progress of the community, to get your share of business, you must advertise regularly.

"Take your newspaper publisher into your confidence; he can give you valuable assistance. Establish an advertising budget. Plan a regular schedule for your advertisement. It's a policy that is followed by the most successful stores. It's an idea that will be profitable for you."

Circulars, handbills and so on are only recommended and used by newspaper circulation is emphasized. The Fulton County News serves a double purpose—saving of expense in buying circulars—offering city and county coverage. Besides offering a community-wide circulation that goes directly into the homes. The News plans and prepares your advertising along psychological lines, furnishing the latest illustrations and attention getters. This specialized service is absolutely free to those wishing to take advantage of experienced advertising service that brings results.
