For Your Electric Dollar

Most people do not get the full value of the electricity they buy and use for lighting purposes in the home, the store, the office or the shop. Observation of a few simple rules will prevent this waste of energy and give more light for such lighting dollar expended.

Keep lamps and reflectors clean.

Tests recently made by our engineers prove that a month's accumulation of ordinary dust on electric lamps cuts down the amount of light they give by 25 per cent. So carefully wipe or wash all lamps and reflectors once a week.

Use lamps of proper voltage.

Don't use lamps marked "120v." if the electric current in your home is 115 volts. Lamps of too high voltage for the current give 15 per cent less light than they should. Ask your local manager about the voltage.

Use American-made lamps.

Don't use cheap for foreign-made lamps. They cost a few cents less, but they shed 20 per cent less light for a given wattage and last only half as long as American standard lamps.

FULTON'S PLANT OF PIERCE-CQUIN & CO.

Pierce-Cequin & Co., importers and jobbers in building materials, is one of Fulton's leading industries. It was founded in 1898. Its first place of business was on Fourth street, where the John White Mill was located. This mill was purchased and the name changed to give name to our present plant. In that year, 1898, W. F. Cequin bought a part interest in the business. He has been in full control since.
