FULTON MERCHANTS ARE PREPARED FOR EASTER

YMBA Draws Large Crowd

The banquet of the Young Men's Business Association held at the Thoma Hotel last Friday night was attended by 117 citizens and business men. The following program was given:

J. J. Owen, invocation; Tap dance by pupils of Mrs. Spears; the "downtown" Jolly Three from Alabama gave several numbers on "peculiar music-boxes"; Lone Star Cowboy of Del Rio, Texas, played his guitar and sang. Smith Atkins was in charge of the entertainment program.

Dr. Ausmus, principal speaker of the evening, went right to the point stating that Fulton is awakening to a new consciousness--with a new spirit, power and vision. WORDS OF WISDOM

Prejudice is the rathbane of human existence. None of us are free from it. Racine well says: "Prejudice corrupts the taste, as it perverts the judgment, in all the concerns of life."

Richard Rumbold expresses my thought: "I never could believe that Providence sent a few men into the world ready booted and spurred to ride, and millions ready saddled and bridled to be ridden."

Originality is simply a pair of fresh eyes.--T. W. Higginson.

The recognition of sin is the beginning of salvation.--Luther.

One's real life is so often the life that one does not lead.--Wilde.

He that is overcautious will accomplish but very little.--Schiller.

Fulton Will Have Legal Liquor Soon

Although members of the city council and the mayor reached no definite decision in a special session held at the City Hall Wednesday it is generally believed they will place a permit fee of $100 for the sale of legal liquor in Fulton.

Steve Wiley, city attorney, stated that definite action will not be taken on the matter until a copy of the bill legalizing whiskey, wines and gin sales is received by city officials. Afterward the council will assemble in special session to iron out the problem, and then a license fee will be set for the city of Fulton.

A NEW FEATURE

Starting next week we will present a new feature which we believe will be of general interest to all our readers. It is "YOUR HEALTH" by Dr. C. W. Curlin, well known physician, who is head of the Curdin-Neill Hospital in Fulton.

During his many years of practice Dr. Curlin has observed how the majority of people neglect their health--and pay dearly for it in after years. Dr. Curlin has always kept up with the newest developments in medical science, and in these articles he will give you the advantage of his experience and knowledge.

We hope that our readers will start following this series in our next issue, for we believe it will be worth while. The articles are written in easy understandable style and they are short.

GALA DRESS-UP SEASON FINDS COMMUNITY AWAKE TO SPIRIT OF SEASON

Next Sunday week, April 1st, is Easter in Fulton--or elsewhere!

But special emphasis has been placed upon the gala dress-up season by Fulton merchants, who have made sincere efforts to stock up for Easter sales. A glimpse into Fulton stores will soon convince you that Spring is here, and that Easter is just around the corner.

New Spring merchandise started arriving at local stores early in the year, and every week since then thousands of dollars worth of the newest and fashionable for the new season have poured into Fulton stores. A sharp increase in shopping compared with the same period last year reduced the first shipments of stock, so local merchants got busy and restocked for the Easter parade of shoppers. Business men here report rapid improvement of business conditions in recent months.

In this special pre-Easter Edition of The Fulton County News, the publishers are proud to call your attention to the individual announcements of many Fulton firms, who have the goods and service at your demand. These firms have prepared for the new season in a big way, and they have taken painstaking care in the purchases they have made in order to bring to you and the people of this section the highest quality of merchandise possible at economy prices. These firms, realizing that satisfaction for their customers is half their success, are striving to please you in every way, and it will be well worth your while to read the messages they bring you. There's real saving, if you will read their advertisements regularly, and thrift-wise take advantage of the quality and prices they are able to offer you.

But, most important of all right now is that Easter shopping which you must do--prepare now for the "coming out event" by doing your shopping in Fulton. You'll find just anything you want in the way of wearing apparel, household or farm necessities, and naturally plenty of novelties and variety merchandise.

FULTON LOSES CLOSE BATTLE

A hand-picked, all-star Independent team of Fulton met the famous Bemis Y quintet at the Science Hall here Tuesday night, finishing the game on the small end of the close score--35-28.

Bemis had a smoothly operating aggregation, while the Fulton Independents were not accustomed to playing together, but a hastily assembled team of all-stars. But despite this handicap Fulton displayed excellent form. Proceeds for the game were for the Manual Arts Department of Fulton High.

The line-up:

FULTON	Pos.	BEMIS
Bushart 2	F	McKnight 5
Curlin 12	F	Lambert 6
Fox	C	King 10
Killebrew 2	G	Johnson 4
Johnson 1	G	Deshaize 10

Subs for Fulton--R. Hill 2, W. W. 9, Henderson, P. Hill, Buckingham and Hudson. For Bemis--Newson.

DR. COHN PERFORMS OPERATION TO SAVE CHILD

Last Thursday night Dr. Seldon Cohn of this city was called to the Weakley County Hospital at Martin, to perform an operation on Reba Todd, little eight year old child of Sharon, Tenn. The child was in a critical condition, and it was necessary to perform a mastoid operation in order to save her life. She is reported resting nicely.

CCC BOYS TO CAMP FROM FULTON COUNTY

Kentucky's original quota of 250 boys for CCC camps has been cut in half, and a call has been issued from Washington through the F. I. A. office in Louisville. Fulton County has been allotted a quota of 26 boys with 13 of them from this end of the county. Registrations have already been received for these places, and selections will be made soon.

FINDING THE RIGHT KEY

AMERICA'S economic strength is so deeply rooted in industry that whoever affects industry affects the nation. When millions of industrial workers are forced out of their jobs, the nation's economic life is paralyzed. The business employ-ment what happens?

Bank deposits necessarily fall off and savings are withdrawn. The small businessman—the retail dealer—is immediately hit. Hard times, where most factory workers live, suffer through tax delinquencies. Agricultural produce brings such cheap prices that farmers can't make ends meet. Railroad profits cease because when production stops there is little freight to move and when people can't work they can't travel. Insurance companies can't collect premiums.

All these things are the direct results of industrial stagnation. We have attempted to treat them as CAUSES of the depression. You cannot cure a disease by treating only the headache that results from it and you cannot cure a depression unless you get at the real cause. The RFC loans to banks, insurance companies, railroads, etc., can have only the effect of soothing the outer manifestations of our real trouble. They may save capital investments, protect stock and bond holders and fill in some of the void caused by depreciated securities, but they don't put the great army of industrial workers back on the job, nor do they give the average man any of the benefits of widespread employment.

An RFC for industry, providing loans that would permit industry to replace its working capital, would immediately open the door to re-employment and prosperity. Industrial capital was not exempt from the shrinkages and depreciations that deflated all other capital, but so far industrial capital has been exempt from the kind of government assistance that has been given to other capital.

Give industry a chance to show what it can do with an RFC. It looks as though industry will come nearer hitting the bell of prosperity and payrolls than the other fellows with their loans.

OLD-TIMERS PONDER
YE OLDEN DAYS AGAIN

With the return of legal liquor in Kentucky, old-timers here recount tales of the "olden days" before prohibition was enforced here by local option. They recall the early part of the first decade of this century when Fulton was "wide open" with seven saloons on the Tennessee side and six on the Kentucky side.

On the streets about town you can hear opinions expressed on both sides of the much-mooted question of prohibition and repeal.

PERSONALS

Miss Mildred Stevenson of Memphis spent the week end with friends in Fulton.

Miss Charlotte Chapman, who is visiting friends in Marion, Ky., underwent an appendicitis operation at the Beacons hospital in Evansville, Ind., Tuesday and is reported resting nicely.

Jimmie Lewis is ill with mumps at his home on Third-st.

Mrs. W. W. Dougherty and daughter, Martha, have returned to their home in Liberty, Mo., after being the house guest of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Hunter Whitesell.

Miss Margaret Nunn of Cadiz, Ky., is the guest of Miss Anna Culton.

Mrs. P. C. Ford is taking treatments at the Curdin-Neill Hospital.

UTOPIA CLUB

The Utopia Club met Wednesday night at the Cayce High School with nineteen members, two visitors.

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—
IT'S YOU!

If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip.

And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind.
For there's nothing that's really new.

It's a knock at yourself when you Knock your town.
It isn't your town—it's you.

Real towns are not made by men
Afraid

Lost somebody else gets ahead.

When everyone works and nobody Shirks

You can raise a town from the Dead.

And if, while you make your Personal stake,
Your neighbor can make one, too,
Your town will be what you want To see.
It isn't your town—it's you!

BE AN OPTIMIST

Be an optimistic optimist,
No matter how you feel;
If doubt or gloom assails you,
Work on with greater zeal.

Think always of the sunshine
Behind the lowering sky;
You can rise above depression
If you let ill-thought go by.

The pessimistic pessimist Sits complaining all the while;
Unhappily he does not know
The face-value of a smile.

What you think within your heart
Will shape your life each day;
The antidote for worry
Is to smile dull care away.

It is better to be pleasant
Than to wear a frowning face;
All good things work together
To promote a happy race.

Be an optimistic optimist,
Ignore depressing things;
The man that wins life's prizes

Is the man that works and sings.

A NEW DAY IS BORN

Last Friday night an occasion took place in Fulton which set a precedent for a new epoch in the history of social and co-operative movements for the city. Citizens and business men met at the banquet, rubbed shoulders, clasped hands and entered into the spirit of good fellowship in interest of the welfare and progress of Fulton and community.

Every one who had any part in putting the banquet over are to be felicitated for their vigorous work they did. Citizens and business men who lent their support to this forward-looking movement are the foundation of a "new civic consciousness that is arising in Fulton" as Dr. Ausmus expressed it in his talk before the Young Men's Business Association Friday night.

A good start means much, and the spirit of enthusiasm and co-operation displayed at the banquet proves that citizens of Fulton are deeply interested in the affairs connected with the progress and prosperity of our community.

Many efficacious talks were made during the evening in which Fulton was ranked along with the best of cities—in citizenship, location, natural assets and resources. We all must pull together in this new effort to launch and carry out a forward movement looking toward the energetic and vigorous civic, industrial and agricultural progress of our community. An energetic and vigorous spirit of enthusiasm and co-operation can take us far along the road to a better and greater community.

Cross purposes, misunderstandings and militant activities must be relegated to the past, for they are disturbing to commercial, business and social life of a community. A Methodistian attitude of cynical scoffing and backbiting will not get a community anything, nor do mercurial and volatile action merit praise.

But manful and courageous mobilization of civil and commercial affairs will promote progress and a greater day for this community. Momentary enthusiasm means little, but incessant co-operation, unity of effort, and an ever-driving force of purpose will accomplish much. Vision, courage and constant endeavor to improve our community will carry us to a new horizon, with each individual playing an integral part of this program toward a greater tomorrow for Fulton.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

We think and tally a great deal about our state and federal governments, their cost and how to reduce it, their reorganization and how to effect it, and seem to forget that local government takes 55 cents out of the total tax dollar each year. Only fifteen cents goes to the state while the other 30 cents is spent by the federal government.

The Kentucky Tax Reduction Association has wisely confined their efforts for the time being to the reorganization of county governmental function, and the program they presented to the legislature, if it is enacted into law, would save the taxpayers of Kentucky around $3,000,000 a year. This would be a permanent saving. There is a belief that we do not need tax reform but this is not so. A good start has not even been made.

It is true that the total tax bill in Kentucky, per capita, is among the lowest of all the states, but the governmental overhead expense, per capita, is among the highest. Overhead expenses of government in Kentucky is $1.41 per capita, as compared with only 65 cents in Tennessee, 53 cents in Indiana and 52 cents in Mississippi. Our high per capita overhead expense is due largely to the complex county governmental set-up.

Naturally there has been violent opposition to any reform of county government, but it is well to remember that our present form of county government was set up in the early days, never revised in the horse and buggy days, and is now operating in the automobile age. We ought to revise it before the airplane age comes along. By certain simple changes proposed by Kentucky Tax Reduction League our county government could be simplified at a considerable saving.

One of the best bills advocated by the League is the revised county budget law, which would require all counties to operate on a strict budget basis. Each county would have to make up its budget on standard forms and publish it, after which public hearings would be held, before the fiscal court could finally pass the budget for the year. Then at the end of the year the publication of the detailed report, which is already required by law, would show the taxpayers how well the county had stayed within the budget.—(Hickman Courier).

SCOUTING

Scouting is principally for boys between the ages of 12 and 16. This is the period when the boy changes from a child to a young man. So right here we might apply that old saying, "As the twig is bent, so will grow the tree." Scouting takes the boy and develops him physically, mentally and morally. He learns and puts into daily practice the Scout oath and law which teach him sportsmanship, courtesy and kindness. As the boy goes through the years of Scouting he is continually developing a strong character. He becomes clean in mind, speech and thought and developed a high moral

A Scout learns to respect the flag of his country; how to administer first aid in case of accidents. He learns more about Mother Nature, the stars, trees, flowers, birds and the great outdoors. He builds a strong body and mind through proper training and exercise.

Scouting serves a definite need in the development of boys. It takes the boy when he needs guidance, develops him mentally, physically and morally, and turns him out as a man. The youth of today are the citizens of the youth of our land, in or of every American citizen to help develop the youth of our land, in order that they may carry out the tasks of tomorrow.

A new Boy Scout cabin is being erected in Fulton, which will serve as a meeting place for the boys of this community. We are glad that the boys will have a cabin all their own, and may Scouting continue to grow and build our youth that they may take up the reins as their elders drop them.

THIS AND THAT

Believe it or not. In the Journal of the American Medical Association its London, England, correspondent reported the birth of a baby with a tail, which is said to be about two inches long and tapers to a point, is curly and normally sensitive. Removal is proposed. Could Darwin be right, or what is this?

The population of the world is nearly two billion. And still some of us wonder how we all make a living from the amount of work we do.

F. F. Gilbert, who reads The News regularly, has sent us an interesting article on the early reign of the bicycle. It seems that England and France led the way in bicycling for pleasure and business with the rest of the world taking up the fad. With its early beginning observers were of the opinion that bicycle riding was just a passing passion. Yet today we have plenty of bicyclers. In the olden days the bicycle was considered necessity. Tradesmen delivered orders with them, messengers carried dispatches, doctors called on patients, clergymen made pastoral calls, policemen pursued offenders of the law. The article contributed by Mr.

Gilbert even spoke of a cross-country bike ride in which a message was carried from Washington to Denver by relays. The distance of nearly 2,000 miles was covered in six days. Boy, that was some pedaling!

A 6-year program of internal and external expansion, which in the 21st century will give Italy the primacy of the world, is the plan of Premier Benito Mussolini. That century will be a "Black Shirt Era," the dictator declares. His plan is to expand to Africa and bring that dark country within "the civilized circle."

The French government has given the final blow to disarmament negotiations. Germany is preemptorily told it can have no more arms than are allowed it by the Versailles treaty. Great Britain is informed that unless it guarantees French security, France will not give up a single soldier or a single gun. If there was any hope for the Geneva conference this is the death knell. France refuses to budge in either direction.

The Illinois Central System is one of the largest consumers in the Mississippi Valley. Last year this railroad spent $14,060,000 for fuel, materials and supplies and $18,100,000 for electricity, water and telephone service.

About 20,000 acres of tung trees are now growing in the Southern states. Three or four times that number would be needed to supply the domestic requirements of tung oil, most of which is now imported from China.

Retail Merchants Oppose Increase

(Special to The News)

Louisville, Ky. March 22—"On the surface the special investigating committee authorized by the 1934 legislature was for the purpose of looking into the activities of various lobbies," said W. Reed Embry, president of the Ky. Retail Merchants' Association. "This group, appointed by the Speaker, was composed of members of the House violently antagonistic to the retailers of the State. After several weeks of so-called investigation, our organization was the only one they found at whom they could direct criticism for 'violation of the Corrupt Practice Act in regard to lobbying and the illegal use of money and of other things of value such as advertising, patronage, et cetera, in order to obtain from candidates for the Legislature before their election Board, the Secretary and various Directors of our Association. These reputable gentlemen appeared, I myself coming all the way from Florida for that purpose, and all of us stated in unequivocal terms that the Kentucky Retail Merchants' Association had never contributed one penny to the campaign or expense of any candidate for the Legislature either directly or indirectly, thereby promising to vote according to the wishes of said Officers and Corporation."

Fourth Street
Shoe Shop

"Called for in good faith," continued Mr. Embry "by members of the House, this committee resolved itself into a body of inquisitors apparently for the purpose of intimidating the retail merchants and taxpayers of this state so that they would make no protest against increased and unfair taxes, particularly the sales tax, if and when such measures are introduced. Summoned before the investigating body were the President, Chairman of the delivered to the Committee, and the only fault they could find was an item of $90 paid for the expenses of the Hon. John Y. Brown to Washington and return during the recent special session when he was requested by us to go there, where he succeeded in having Mr. Hopkins, Federal Relief Administrator, to agree to permit Kentucky to pay her share of relief money by the month rather than in a lump sum. This action of ours was in behalf of the State's destitute and her taxpayers who were being made the victims of a hopelessly deadlocked legislature. "For the first time in years an Association of reputable and responsible business men has actively and openly fought against increased burden of taxation and exploitation of the poor. Is it strange that we are the objects of attack by professional politicians who have run their course free-handed for so long? If the action of the Kentucky Retail Merchants' Association in opposing all forms of additional taxation in this State until a genuine effort has been made to reduce the cost of Government is treason, then this Committee can make the most of it. Our Association is composed of leading retailers throughout Kentucky; naturally we have the interests of the taxpayers at heart more than have political spoilsmen. Consider the fact that our group pays more taxes than most any other class of people in the State. Officers and Directors of our Association were elected by the members to serve without compensation of any sort whatsoever. We are attempting to reduce taxes, in compliance with pre-election promises of politicians. If this be crime we plead guilty."

"It is known that a special session will be called to raise additional revenue. Nothing has been said about economy and the lowering of expenses. When this session is called the Kentucky Retail Merchants' Association will continue to use every fair and honorable means to fight for the taxpayers of Kentucky."

not wear, but as soon as I put on a dress, I know instinctively whether it is 'my dress' or not."

She adds a note of caution to women whose "instinct" may be for bizarre raiment.

"Never attempt the exotic," she says. "Fantastic, extreme effects may attract attention, but if you wished to be called truly smart, it isn't the kind of attention you want."

Miss Francis personally supervised the selection and making of the striking costumes she wears in her latest First National picture, "Wonder Bar," which comes to the Orefeum Theatre here on April 22-23-24. Others in the all-star cast include Dick Powell, Dolores Del Rio, Al Jolson, Ricardo Cortez, Hal LeRoy, Guy Kibbe, Hugh Herbert, Louise Fazenda, Fifi d'Orsay, Ruth Donnelly, and Merna Kennedy.

TOBACCO CONTRACT COMMITTEE TO BE ELECTED

It was announced on March 19th that the Tobacco Growers of Fulton County, who have signed acreage reduction contracts on this commodity are to be called for a meeting on Saturday, March 24th at 2 P. M. in the City Hall at Fulton to select from among their number an allotment committee to pass upon signed contracts and make inspections of farms covered by these contracts later in the year.

This announcement was made by O. R. Wheeler, County Agent of Fulton County, who states that about 40 tobacco reduction contracts covering approximately 275 acres of tobacco for the year 1931, had been submitted by March 15th. It is expected that at least ten more will be submitted before the close of the sign-up campaign which will probably be about April 1st.

Growers of tobacco who have not signed contracts and who desire to do so are requested to call at the Chamber of Commerce at Fulton on Wednesdays and Saturdays before the close of the campaign.

Beginning next week the committee will conduct what is known as a Clean-Up campaign and every farm which tobacco has been grown for one or more years, 1931-32-33, will be visited. The producer will be offered a contract. It will not be the

This announcement was made by O. R. Wheeler, County Agent of Fulton County, who states that about 40 tobacco reduction contracts covering approximately 275 acres of tobacco for the year 1931, had been submitted by March 15th. Growers of tobacco who have not signed contracts and who desire to do so are requested to call at the Chamber of Commerce at Fulton on Wednesdays and Saturdays before the close of the campaign.

Beginning next week the committee will conduct what is known as a Clean-Up campaign and every farm which tobacco has been grown for one or more years, 1931-32-33, will be visited. The producer will be offered a contract. It will not be the

FULTON SHIPPING CENTER FOR FARMERS

Excellent shipping facilities available in Fulton, and the outstanding farming and livestock section in this vicinity, have been recognized by Kennett-Murray and Co., the world's largest live-stock buyers and shippers. Roy Latta and Jilson Latta of Water Valley, near here, have formed a partnership with this nationally known firm, and they will open a new stock yard in Fulton under the name of Kennett-Murray and Latta Live Stock Yards.

The new stock yards will be located near the Freight Depot in South Fulton, the contract having already been let for construction.

The Latta Brothers are well known in this section, and have been engaged in livestock buying all their lives. They will be in charge of the new stock yards, assisted by R. H. McCampbell, formerly of Montgomery, Ala., but now of Fulton. Mr. McCampbell operated a livestock yard for Kennett-Murray in Alabama for nearly sixteen years, and has had wide experience in his line.

LEGAL WHISKEY FOR KENTUCKY LAST SATURDAY

Legal whiskey Saturday came within the reach of Kentucky adults with enough money to match their thirsts when Governor Ruby Laffoon signed the new alcoholic liquor control bill, repealing the old Rash-Gullion Act. The new law contains such elastic provisions that adults in the full bloom of health may obtain up to a quart every seven days. Similarly, adults complaining of a slight indisposition may buy it, as heretofore, for medicinal purposes.

Mayor and aldermen of Louisville and other Kentucky communities were extremely active this week in efforts to set up licenses and new ordinances under the alcoholic liquor control bill. Fulton and Hickman in Fulton County are also faced with the problem of control the local sale of whiskey under the new state enactment. Those selling legal whiskey must pass state requirements, pay a license and put up $1000 bond.

SOUTH FULTON SCHOOL

Dr. W. M. Turner, county director of the dental clinic for Obion County accompanied by Dr. P. D. Huftstetter, Dr. Don Gardner and nine assistants, made an examination of the South Fulton pupils in the intermediate and grammar grades Tuesday. They will return in a short time to complete the examination of primary pupils. This work is a part of the national dental survey sponsored by the federal government in co-operation with the state, county and city school systems.

"The Greater Commandment," a comedy drama in three acts, will be presented by the Hi-Y Club of high school on Friday, March 23 at eight o'clock.

Several members of the faculty are planning to attend meeting of the state teachers association to be held in Nashville, March 29-30.

MADE WITH MAPLE SYRUP

By Joan Adams

Days that are sunny and have a touch of mildness that hints spring—nights that are cold and starry—tell maple syrup time. In Vermont and the woods of northern Michigan the sap is running. Whole communities are helping in the maple roves. They are tapping the trees, gathering the sap in little buckets, filling it down in huge iron kettles, cooking on sturdy tripods over brick wood fires, and "sugaring off" the syrup. And the children are having a grand time making sugar snowballs by pouring the hot syrup on clean snow. Oh, but they're good!

Though we can't all have the fun of "sugaring off" we can enjoy the dishes flavored with maple syrup. There are all sorts of desserts that can be made with maple syrup. Desserts that make us proud of those New England forefathers who discovered the bland goodness of maple.

ple sap. Maple syrup, you know, is a purely American institution, like Boston baked beans, and spoon bread.

There are hundreds of ways to use maple syrup besides drowning the breakfast wheat cakes in it, although that is a feast for the gods. Use it with waffles, serve it with piping hot, flaky biscuits as a fitting end to Sunday night supper, use it as a sauce on ice cream or cottage pudding, and then celebrate the arrival of spring with one of the recipes below. Your family and guests will all emulate Oliver Twist and ask for more, we know.

MAPLE RICE PARFAIT

1 tablespoon gelatin, 1-2 cup milk, 2 cups hot boiled rice, 1 cup maple syrup, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup of whipping cream, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1 teaspoon gelatin. Soak gelatin in milk and dissolve in hot rice. Add maple syrup and salt. When cold fold in the stiffly beaten cream to which vanilla has been added. Add chopped nuts. Turn into a mold and chill until firm.

CORONATION MAPLE PIE

4 tablespoons sugar, 1-4 cup milk, 1-3 cup corn starch, 2 egg yolks, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons butter, 1-4 cup maple syrup, 3 baked 8 or 9 inch pie shells.

Sift sugar, cornstarch, and salt together and add 1-4 cup milk. Send remaining milk in double boiler, add cornstarch mixture and cook until it begins to thicken, stirring constantly. Add syrup and butter and continue cooking and stirring until thickened. Cook ten minutes longer. Pour over beaten egg yolks, return to double boiler and continue cooking for 5 minutes longer. Cool. Put pie together with a layer of filling between each sheet of pastry and more filling on top. Cover with meringue made by heating 2 egg whites thoroughly with 4 tablespoons sugar. Brown in a slow oven. Serve when cool.

HOT MAPLE SAUCE

2 cups maple syrup, 1-4 cup condensed milk, 1-4 cup water. Boil maple syrup water and milk to the thread degree. Serve hot on ice cream. Delicious served on lemon cream ice. May be sealed and stored in a refrigerator until desired for use. Only heat to boiling when serving.

MAPLE CREAMS

3 cups maple syrup, 1 cup thick sour cream, pinch of salt. Boil cream and sugar to soft ball degree, cool until thick, then beat with a silver fork until consistency of very thick cream. One cu of nuts may be added. Then continue beating until almost set. Pour onto buttered platter and cut into squares when cold.

ANTIQUE PHOTOGRAPH CREATES INTEREST

An old photo of the late Boston Bloomer Girls of Boston, Mass., on display in the show-window of Kelly Lowe's cafe is creating more interest than usual—even more than "the piano case" of last week. This team played a game with the Fulton Independents in the year 1905, will say about nine.

What is so exciting about the picture is the fact that a very well known local sport enthusiast is on the group picture. He is standing on the extreme right of the photo, barefooted, bareheaded, and as happy as they come, or a lazy pig in the sunshine. Who is he? Well, believe it or not, it is H. F. "Rock" Taylor, the owner of the picture. His age at that time was—well, we will say yabont nine.

Kelly also has other sport pictures made in days gone by which are interesting.

THINK IT OVER

THE BIGGEST BUSINESS

I was forcibly impressed with the leading editorial in three different newspapers that came to the exchange table the other day. One was a paper published in a great middle section of the state of Illinois, one paper published in a noted agricultural section of Missouri, and the other a paper published in a section of Iowa noted for its stock industry.

A peculiar thing about it was that in each paper the heading over the leading editorial was the same, although the papers are published in widely different localities, in three different states. The heading was "The Biggest Business." In the Iowa paper the lines read: "Mining is the biggest business in this section." In the Missouri paper the same expression appeared only here it was "agriculture" that was the biggest business; while in the Iowa paper "stock raising" was the biggest business.

Each paper was wrong. Do you want to know what is the "biggest business" in Fulton, in Fulton County, in West Kentucky or Tennessee? Do you know what is the "biggest business" in any state, city, town or community? Farming and mining and stock raising are important industries, but a combination of all three sink into insignificance when compared to the business of properly caring for our boys and girls.

Merchandising, manufacturing, any of the professions might be classed as "big business." But the "biggest business" in any community is seeing that the boys and girls grow up to be the right kind of men and women.

The future of this country, and your future, rests in the hands of boys and girls of today. It will be their duty in the next twenty years to care on the work. If your life your property are to be safe in the coming years, the boys and girls must be brought up properly. The youth of the country must be clean and strong, morally and physically.

So the "greatest business" in this—in any community—is not found in mining, stock raising, corn growing, industrial pursuits or professional business, but in bringing up our boys and girls in such a way as to make them desirable citizens. To do this we must hoist the skull and crossbones, neither ask or give quarter in the fight against every evil thing that tends to debauch our youth; that lowers young manhood and young womanhood. No matter what shape, in what disguise the monster raises its head, it must be attacked with all the means at our command. Our boys and girls—these are our greatest asset. Let us properly raise them, our "biggest business." Think it over.

Lax the Bladder With Juniper Oil, Buchu, Etc.

Flush out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder laxative also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up" nights go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this flushing and you get your regular sleep. Guaranteed by Evans-McGee Drug Co. adv.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT ISSUES "MAD DOG" WARNING TO COUNTY

"Because of the presence of rabid dogs in the county, all owners of dogs are advised to have them vaccinated against rabies," Dr. H. L.
Prattier, Health Officer of Fulton County, warns the people. Several dogs have been killed and their heads sent off for laboratory test, which have revealed evidence of hydrophobia. Mad dogs in the county subject other animals and citizens to be bitten, and an effort is being made by the health department to definitely stamp out rabies.

All officers of the law have been directed to kill any dogs not effectively muzzled and running loose on any street, highway, public road or public premises in Fulton County.
The co-operation of the people is asked by the health department and County Judge Walker.

New Feature

On another page of this edition of The News, appears a new feature for women readers, Joan Adams' column "from the Kelvin Kitchen," has been obtained for exclusive use in Fulton by The News.

Joan Adams is director of the famous Kelvin Kitchen, which for more than six years, has been conducting a series of laboratory and field tests in problem pertaining to home-management.

Each week this celebrated writer of home economics material will give you valuable suggestions on subjects such as special diets, table settings, menus, recipes, food preparation and any other problems which you care to bring to her attention.

If you wish immediate help on any matter of this sort, send the question to her in care of The News with a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
Joan Adams will then send her suggestions to you personally.

In offering this column to the women readers of The News, the publisher believes that a real contribution is being made to the community. While there are many recipes and menu services available to newspaper readers, there is no other feature which can so authoritatively cover such a large field.

THESE MODERN DAYS TAKE ON OLDEN WAYS

In these modern days of automobiles and tractors, the "old one-horse shay," two-horse surries and mule-power are general believed to have faded into the dim shadows of the past. But there was plenty of evidence right here in Fulton last Mule Day that these are still in demand and general use.

Early Monday, which was second Monday of the month, being the regular mule day in Fulton, the old Jockey Yard back on Lake-st, began to fill with farmers and traders of Fulton, Graves, Hickman, Obion and Weakley counties.

The Jockey Yard was overflowing with mules, horses, colts, cows, dogs, wagons, buggies and pack-animals. On every corner of the ground trades were taking place.
Even pocket knives, watches and pipes exchanged hands. Many farmers of this section were present and many animals were exchanged or purchased in preparation for the new season.

One big, tall negro, bet he could ride any mule on the yard, and someone took him up. He mounted a mean-looking, raw-boned mule picked out for him, and rode this animal until he couldn't hardly walk. Then he rolled off with a wide grin on his face as he muttered, "I've done rode that mule. Now emine my money." But the one who made the wager with him had vanished while he "tamed" the mule.

Such is the panoramic view of the Jockey Yard here on Mule Day. Another mule day is scheduled in Fulton, Monday, April 9th.

Hectic Days Sleepless Nights

IF YOU are nervous today, you probably will not sleep well tonight. If you don't sleep well tonight, you will probably be nervous tomorrow.

Don't allow yourself to become nervous. Take Dr. Miles Nervine. It will relax your tense nerves and let you get a good night's sleep.

Irritability, Restlessness, Sleeplessness, often lead to Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion, Hysteria—sometimes to a nervous breakdown and organic trouble.

Some of the people, whose letters are printed below, were as nervous as you are—possibly more so—yet they have found relief.

Three years ago I was so nervous I could not bear to go out in company and could not sleep nights. A friend recommended Dr. Miles Nervine. I now enjoy myself thoroughly and sleep every night. Miss Juliette Currier, New Market, N. H.

I have used Dr. Miles Nervine in liquid form and find it the best medicine for the nerves I have ever used. Christine Lanier, Middleton, Tennessee.

Whenever I have over-indulged and feel restless I take one or two Nervine Tablets just before I retire. In the morning when I awake I feel like a new person, and can go about my work as usual. Dr. Miles Nervine Tablets quiet your nerves, brace you up and are the simplest, most convenient tablets to take I have ever found. Miss Grace Redmann, St. James, Minn.

Before using your Nervine I was very nervous and irritable. Since I have started to take it I feel so much better that my family notice the difference. I still take it from time to time and the good result is wonderful. J. H. Redding, 1027 18th Ave., Rock Island, Ill.
